Lukas Duo To Part Company:

The winner of the first two legs of the Triple Crown, the D. Wayne Lukas trained Charismatic (Summer Squall) is to return today to Churchill Downs where he will train up to the June 5 Belmont S., according to the trainer. Stablemate Cat Thief (Storm Cat), seventh in Saturday's Preakness, is slated to be shipped to California where he will prepare for either the Gill Jim Dandy S. at Saratoga Aug. 8 or the GI Swaps S. July 18.

Menifee Likely For Belmont:

Menifee (Harlan), runner-up in the Derby and the Preakness, will also return to Louisville and "if he's all right, we'll go," said trainer Elliott Walden yesterday about a trip to the Big Apple. "I felt like he might be the best horse in the Derby and got beat, but yesterday we were second best. What's different this year is that I feel good about going on. Right after we got beat pretty good in the Preakness last year, I wasn't all that anxious to go on to the Belmont," the conditioner added. Should he start in the Belmont, Menifee would be making his eighth appearance on as many tracks.

Adonis, Stephen Got Even Go Home to Belmont:

Stephen Got Even (A.P. Indy) a good fourth in the Preakness and sixth-place Adonis (Kris S.) left Baltimore by van early yesterday and joined the rest of their stablemates in the Zito barn at Belmont Park. Zito was particularly pleased with the performance of Stephen Got Even, as was jockey Gary Stevens, who told Zito, "He's got a helluva chance in the Belmont."

Drama preceded France's first Classic of the year as a faulty gate on the stall of Triple Dash (Nashwan) failed to open, resulting in a false start. Sendawar may well have run in the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas at Newmarket May 1, had there been a supplementary stage. Instead, he was re-routed to the Apr. 25 G2 Prix Greffulhe at Longchamp where he finished a fine second. Way of Light (Woodman) set the pace in this heat with Sendawar and Dansili towards the middle of the field and Kingsalsa reserved in the rear. Turning for home, Way of Light still called the tune as Sendawar closed ominously on the outside and he was sent to the lead by Gerald Mosse once inside the final quarter, producing an excellent turn of foot to go clear approaching the wire and giving trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre his third winner in the race following Ashkalani (Ire) in 1996 and Daylami (Ire) in 1997. Dansili emerged from the pack to chase Sendawar home, but didn't have the necessary reserves to catch the winner.

Valentine Waltz won the G3 Nell Gwyn S. at Newmarket Apr. 13 and was then a fine third to Wince (GB) in the G1 Sagitta 1000 Guineas at that same track May 1. Moiava (Bering {GB}) set the tempo with Calando third, Karmifira fifth and Valentine Waltz in seventh. Calando took over inside the final quarter, but Valentine Waltz, briefly in a pocket two furlongs out, was switched wide and quickened in tremendous style from the eighth-marker to win going away. Karmifira followed Valentine Waltz's run but could not contend with the winner's decisive attack. Shenck (Zafonic) ran a superb race and was denied third in the shadows of the wire by Calando. Winning trainer John Gosden said, "Her main quality is her heart, she is the most determined little athlete. She's not a big strong filly, but what she lacks in physical attributes, she makes up for in determination. To win this one today is very special."

Also ran: Al Waffi (GB). Scratched: Festival Hall (Ire).

A winner of a conditions event at Saint-Cloud last October, Gracioso returned to action this season to finish third to Montjeu and Sendawar (Ire) in the G2 Prix Greffulhe at Longchamp Apr. 25. He defeated the highly regarded favorite Montjeu, reversing the form of their previous race in no uncertain terms. Racing in second as Obviously Fun set a steady pace, Gracioso was clear of Al Waffi (Fairy King) and Montjeu. Turning into the straight, Obviously Fun still led and was showing no signs of stopping but Olivier Peslier pushed Gracioso into the lead just inside the two-furlong mark and he quickly asserted himself, pulling two lengths clear as Montjeu went in pursuit. Showing a tendency to hang in behind the leader, Montjeu, despite Cash Asmussen's persistent urgings, could not quite get to Gracioso.

STEVENS ON VODAFONE DERBY FAVORITE

Gary Stevens will start riding in Britain June 1, partnering Greek Dance (Ire) for trainer Sir Michael Stoute in the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown's evening fixture. Then he will ride Vodafone Derby favorite Beat All at Epsom June 5. His British agent Terry Norman said yesterday, "There is a press conference at Epsom in the afternoon on June 1 and he will walk the course after that. Then he will ride at Sandown that evening. He will breeze out on Beat All on Wednesday morning, then he will ride at Epsom on Friday and Saturday to get used to the track. The response has been overwhelming from trainers--John Gosden, Luca Cumani and Barry Hills have all inquired whether he will be available."

notched Godolphin's second G1 race of the weekend. During a consistent 1998, he chased home Daylami (Ire) and Faithful Son in the G1 Coral Eclipse
S. last July, and then succeeded in the G2 BMW Europachampionat at Hoppegarten Aug. 16. Central Park led all the way here and won unchallenged from the German-trained Elle Danzig and the French-trained Barbola, who had a battle royale for the runner-up spot, with the former prevailing. Poseidon (Polar

Winner of the G3 Preis der Winterfavoriten over course and distance Oct. 18 on his third and final start of his juvenile campaign, Sumitas, Germany's top rated juvenile of 1998, opened 1999 with a good win in the Listed Preis des Gestuts Wiesenhof at Krefeld Apr. 18.
Recadero set a strong pace, with the field closely bunched behind him, as Sumitas was reserved in mid-division. Entering the home straight, Recadero kicked on as Sambarey (Big Shuffle) went in pursuit. Sumitas began to make his move soon after, and continued to find more when asked. Entering the final furlong, Sumitas had a clear lead as Gonlargo finished well, but without posing a serious threat to the winner. The winner now points to the G2 Oppenheim-Colonia-Union-Rennen back at this track June 23 before a tilt at the G1 BMW Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 4.

Assault Charges for Crazy Preakness Fan:

Lee Ferrell of Bel Air, Maryland, the 22-year-old man who stood on the track during the GII Maryland Breeders' Cup H. on the Preakness undercard Saturday, was being held on first-degree assault charges, a correction official said yesterday. After being apprehended Saturday, he was taken first for a psychiatric review, but was released from the hospital Saturday night. He is now being held at Baltimore's central booking facility.

New Shooters For Belmont:

While many of the horses that couldn't handle Charismatic in the Derby and Preakness are going home, that hasn't kept a bunch of resident New York horses from considering making a run at the June 5 Belmont S. Illinois Derby winner Vision and Verse (Storm Cat) and third-place finisher Pineaff (Pine Bluff) will head straight into the 1 1/2-mile test, along with the winner of Saturday's Sir Barton S. on the Preakness undercard, Lead Em Home (Mr. Leader). Dermot Weld, the Irish horseman who brought Go and Go (Ire) (Be My Guest) from Ireland to win the 1990 Belmont, has announced that G3 Derrinstown S. winner Port Bayou (Ghazi) will run in the Belmont as well. The GII Peter Pan S., a nine-furlong race run at Belmont Park Sunday, May 23, will be the deciding factor for five other Belmont hopefuls. GII Withers S. runner-up Best of Luck (Broad Brush), Herat S. winner Karly's Harley (Harlan), GII Wood Memorial fifth The Groom Is Red (Runaway Groom) and Derby ninth Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo) will all make decisions based on their performance in the race. Godolphin's other high-priced acquisition, Comeonmom (Jolie's Halo), who wasn't ready for the Derby, will also prep for the Belmont in the Peter Pan.

7th-PHA, $18,700, 3yo, 6f, 1:09 3/5, ft. FLYING GRIFFONI (g, 3, Tactical Advantage--Oriel, by Maudlin) was bet down to 3-1 odds for his lifetime debut at Aqueduct Feb. 12, and ran to those odds with a four-length victory over subsequent Federico Tesio S. winner Talk's Cheap (Corporate Report). A ninth-place finish at the Big A Mar. 21 sent the gelding to the shelf. Getting first-time Lasix, he returned running, blasting from the gate and setting a very strong pace en route to a 6 3/4-length victory as the 6-5 favorite. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $33,000. Margins: 3/4, 4HF, 1. Odds: 3.90, 3.10, 5.40.

Joe Who won back-to-back minor turf stakes at Del Mar last summer to thrust himself into the Breeders' Cup Mile picture. He ran fourth in the Gill Oak Tree Breeders' Cup Mile and was second in a Santa Anita turf allowance before a sixth-place finish at the same level Feb. 18 sent him to the sidelines. The third choice in a stakes-quality field, Joe Who saved ground while close up early, got caught in traffic on the second turn, but shifted to the outside and finished fast to be up in time.

Brave Act, who won four straight including the GII San Gabriel H. Dec. 28 and the GII San Marcos H. Jan. 18 before finishing second in the GII San Luis Obispo H. Feb. 15, had most recently been fifth behind a pitifully slow pace in the GIII Explosive Bid H. at Fair Grounds Mar. 28. Making his first start since, the bay horse displayed his readiness for this event with a four furlong bullet work in :45 2/5 on the Hollywood main track Friday. Relaxed behind the moderate pace set by Commitisize (Explodent), Brave Act sat off the rail in sixth position for the first half mile. Going three deep into the turn, he approached the leaders on the outside, took command at the top of the stretch and drew off to a powerful 3 1/2-length victory to reclaim his position atop the California turf ranks. Trainer Ron McAnally reported that he had given the horse time off after the Explosive Bid H. because he wrenched an ankle in the race. "This horse is something else," he said. Jockey Goncalino Almeida said, "With this horse, you can go to the lead or take him back. He's just a very simple horse to ride. At the quarter pole, he moved fast and caught (Lord Smith) very easily." The winner will go next in the GII Shoemaker Breeder's Cup Mile June 13.

An impressive winner of a maiden on his only start at two at The Curragh Oct. 3, Black Rock Desert was disappointing when unplaced in the G3 Gladness S. at the same track Apr. 11, although the yielding track was not in his favor. Black Rock Desert raced in fifth, striding beautifully, as Diableneyev (Nureyev) set a quick pace from Cortachy Castle and Sainte Marine. Black Rock Desert got racing room 1 1/2 furlongs from the finish and put the issue beyond doubt, quickening at the eighth-pole and drawing away from his opponents. Imperfect World, seventh in the early exchanges, ran on well and finished to great effect to take second in the closing stages. The British-trained challenger Cortachy Castle justified his place in the field by holding on well to retain third at the expense of Diableneyev.
