REAL QUIET TOPS MASSCAP WEIGHTS Last year's Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Real Quiet (Quiet American) will be the starting highweight in the May 29 GII Massachusetts H. at Suffolk Downs. The four-year-old, fresh off a victory in the GI Pimlico Special, has been assigned 121 pounds, two less than stablemate Silver Charm, who is not expected for the $600,000 race. He is scheduled to work Monday at Churchill Downs, fly from Louisville to New York Wednesday and van to Boston Wednesday afternoon. Behrens (Pleasant Colony), winner of the GI Oaklawn H. last time out, gets in with 118 pounds. The others listed as likely for the 1 1/8-mile test are Running Stag (Cozzene), 113; Brushing Up (Broad Brush), 112; and Galloping Gael (Lost Code), 111. Brushing Up, fifth in the Pimlico Special, breezed five-eighths in 1:02.09 at Aqueduct yesterday morning. He will have two equipment changes for the MassCap. "The blinkers go back on and the tongue tie goes back on," said trainer Victor Simone.

LEWIS TURNS DOWN BELMONT BET First, Bob Lewis, co-owner of Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Charismatic (Summer Squall), offered to bet $100,000 with trainer Bob Baffert, who is toying with running his near-perfect filly, Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy), in the June 5 Belmont S. Baffert turned him down. Now Jimmy Stone, one of the owners of Menifee (Harlan), runner-up in both the Derby and the Preakness, wants to bet Lewis $100,000 that his colt will outrun Charismatic in the Belmont. "I like my horse and issue a personal challenge to Bob Lewis," said Stone, an oil-driller from New Orleans. Lewis said no to Stone's proposal. "I don't want to detract in any way from the magnificence of the Belmont S. and the Triple Crown," Lewis said. "The bet I suggested with Baffert is different. He also trains a lot of horses for me and that was an in-house thing. I've got all the confidence in the world in Charismatic, but if Menifee should happen to beat us in the Belmont, he'll prove that he's the best horse that day and I'll be the first to congratulate him."

Also: Mus-If (GB), Island Sands (Ire), Access All Areas (Ire), Lucky Legend (Ire), Marius Petipa, Peace Upholds (Ire), Tarfaa (Ire).

Having had to borrow a set of Michael Kinane's breeches, jockey Olivier Peslier collected his second straight Irish 2000 Guineas (following Desert Prince {Ire} last year) and it could not have been easier as the Aidan O'Brien-trained Saffron Waldon is now a perfect three-for-three this season. Bookmakers slashed his odds for the G1 Vodafone Epsom Derby June 5 to 7-1. A maiden winner on his second lifetime start Mar. 28, the Niarchos-bred colt stepped up to win the Icon 2000 Guineas Trial S. at Leopardstown Apr. 18. Off at 12-1 in his Classic debut, he settled in the rear as his stable companions Lucky Legend (Fairy King) and Marius Petipa (Nureyev) cut out the pace and still looked to have plenty to do a quarter mile out. There Mus-If (Lahib) and Newmarket 2000 Guineas runner-up Enrique went to the front, with Orpen also closing. But at the furlong marker, Saffron Waldon cruised up to join the leaders and quickened away in great style, with Enrique battling on hard for second. O'Brien confirmed a bid for Epsom Derby glory. "Saffron Waldon did it really well today, quickening like a good horse and lengthening really well. Olivier Peslier, who gave him a glorious ride, said he has loads of speed and settled really well today. He certainly has plenty of speed in the family and has always shown us a high cruising speed," he said.

Ladbrokes' Odds: Wince, 5-4; Mythical Girl, 7-1; Sunspangled, 8-1; Edabiya, 9-1; Capistrano Day, Fear And Greed, 12-1; Show Me The Money, 14-1; Hula Angel, 16-1; Carambola, Golden Silca, 20-1; Crystal Downs, 25-1; Pink Coral, 28-1; Dazzling Park, Polaire, 33-1; Cassandra Go, 40-1; Desert Magic, 100-1; Morning Breeze, Rivana, 150-1.

After winning the G3 Fred Darling S. at Newbury Apr. 16, Wince (Selkirk) quickened brilliantly to take the G1 Sagitta 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 2 over Wannabe Grand (GB) and Valentine Waltz (Ire), who gave the form a great boost last weekend when winning the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) at Longchamp. Sunspangled (Caerleon), winner of the G1 Fillies Mile on a soft track at Ascot in September, was beaten out of sight at Newmarket, where she was not suited by the fast conditions. Godolphin's Mythical Girl (Gone West), winner of the G3 Princess Margaret S. at Ascot in July, won the Shergar Cup Distaff at Goodwood May 8 in great style and may be the main danger.

All carry 123 pounds.

The British challenge has a major chance of taking this prize again, having won last year with Zomaradah (GB). John Dunlop's Signorina Cattiva (El Gran Senor) ran second in the Listed Cheshire Oaks May 5 on her seasonal bow and looks a progressive sort. Dunlop also saddles Barafamy (Barathea {Ire}), winner of the G3 Premio Dormello, and it is hard to gauge which is his top choice. Janestra (Steamer Duck), perhaps the Italian's leading light, was an impressive winner of a restricted conditions race at Rome May 9 and finished a close sixth in the Italian 1000 Guineas Apr. 18. She should be better suited by today's distance.

All carry 128 pounds, except Insight (125).

This race marks the first European start for Japanese champion El Condor Pasa (Kingmambo). A winner of six of seven career starts, including the G1 Japan Cup last November, he bids to emulate Seeking the Pearl and Taiki Shuttle, two Japanese-trained stars who won French Group 1 races last season. The home team is represented by Croco Rouge (Rainbow Quest) and Gold Away (Goldneyev), but are racing at a distance that is not their optimum. Croco Rouge, on his seasonal reappearance, ran third in the G1 Prix Ganay May 2.

The final recognized trial for the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes (French Oaks) at Chantilly June 13 features Juvenia (Tremolino), winner of last season's G1 Prix Marcel Boussac. She returned to the track with a close third to Venize (Ire) and Visionnaire (Linamix {Fr}) in the G3 Prix de la Grotte at Longchamp Apr. 25. Juvenia and Visionnaire will be hard to separate again, but the former is sure to have benefitted from her seasonal debut and stablemate Sallivera (Sillery) will be expected to make a better job of the pacemaking. Mother Of Pearl (Sadler's Wells) was a five-length second in the G3 Musidora S. at York May 11, but the margin of defeat was certainly no disgrace and she has a strong chance of taking the prize across the English Channel.

All carry 126 except Shiva (123).

If the track remains soft, last year's G2 Prix Dollar hero Insatiable (Don't Forget Me {Ire}) will have a favorite's chance to confirm the form of the G1 Dubai Champion S. at Newmarket in Oct., when he and Daylami (Doyoun {Ire}) finished second and third, respectively, behind Alborada (GB). Daylami won this race in style a year ago and also took the G1 Man o'War S. in New York in September. On his most recent start, he was fifth in the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 28. The lightly raced filly Shiva (Hector Protector) won the G3 Earl Of Sefton S. at Newmarket Apr. 14, but faces a much stiffer task here.

11	Happy Hour (Ger)	Ostmann	Newnes
12	Prairie Queen (Ger)	Suerland	van De Keere

All carry 128 pounds.

This classic has attracted a strong field. Rose Of Zollern (Seattle Dancer) was the easy winner of the G2 Henkel-Rennen (German 1000 Guineas) at Dusseldorf May 2 and has strong claims to add a second Classic. Flamingo Road (Acatenango {Ger}) was a convincing winner of the Las Vegas-Slenderella-Rennen, a recognized trial for this race, over the course and distance May 1. Another strong contender should be Gestut Schlenderhan's British-trained Kittiwake (Barathea {Ire}). Trained at Newmarket by Geoff Wragg, she was a strong-finishing fourth in the Listed Pretty Polly S. at Newmarket May 2 and gave the impression that today's distance would be more to her liking.

Two-for-four in France as a juvenile, Aliena (Grand Lodge) made her first start in the U.S. count, winning the Dec. 26 Blue Norther S. at Santa Anita at a mile on the turf. While she hasn't been seen on the track in the afternoon since, she has prepared sharply for this outing. Tout Charmant (Slewvescent), second to stablemate Excellent Meeting in both the G1 Las Virgenes and the G1 Santa Anita Oaks, makes her first outing on the turf; she was most recently fourth in the GIII La Troienne at Churchill Apr. 29.

A mix of horses coming off the Triple Crown trail, horses who pointed to the Classics but didn't make it and hot local horses makes for an interesting 46th running of the Peter Pan. Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo), winner of the GI Futurity last Sept. 20 in his last trip over this track, looks for his first win since starting the year off with an allowance score Feb. 27 at Gulfstream. He was fifth in the GI Toyota Blue Grass and ninth in the Kentucky Derby in his last two. Comeonmom (Jolie's Halo), unraced since a win in the Nov. 28 GII Remsen at Aqueduct, was purchased by Godolphin and wintered in Dubai with an eye toward making the Kentucky Derby, but didn't come around in time. Treasure Island (Danzig) blew out three furlongs in :35 2/5 yesterday.

Although this race is officially a Group 2 event, the quality of the field is such that it could be the third Group 1 on an excellent day's racing in France. Kayf Tara (Sadler's Wells), winner of two Group 1 races last year, the Ascot Gold Cup and the Irish St. Leger, represents the all-conquering Godolphin operation and can confidently be expected to go close. Tajoun (General Holme) found the former handicapper Katun (Saumarez {GB}) just that little bit better in the G3 Prix de Barbeville, but can reverse the form with a more enterprising ride.

"He's coming up to the Belmont in excellent shape," trainer Pat Byrne said. The colt will ship to New York June 2.

Catinca ended 1998 with four consecutive victories, including the Oct. 11 Gill Gallant Bloom S., Nov. 7 Gill First Flight H. and Nov. 27 Gill Top Flight H., then started '99 with a pair of runner-up finishes. The dark bay missed by a nose in the Feb. 13 Gill Barbara Fritchie H. and by a head in the Mar. 13 Gill Distaff Breeders' Cup H. before getting back to the winner's circle after her latest effort, the Apr. 17 Gill Bed o'Roses Breeders' Cup H. The second choice to start another streak, the four-year-old was not ready for the break and got away slowly, rated off the early pace, came with her bid on the far turn and wore down Sister Act in the final yards. The runner-up, coming off a second-place showing behind champion Banshee Breeze in the Apr. 9 GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Park, set the pace, but couldn't hang on.

Olympic Charmer was looking to get back to the winner's circle after running second by 6 1/4 lengths in the Gill Bonnie Miss S. at Gulfstream in February and by a nose in the Apr. 19 Santa Paula S. at Santa Anita last time out. The odds-on choice with the addition of Lasix, she grabbed a short lead after a half and held off Dianehill in the lane for her first stakes triumph. "She bled just a little bit in her last start and we didn't want to chance it again," trainer Ron McAnally said. "And I thought she had a better chance over this track than she did over the Santa Anita track. The speed just holds better over this track." Second choice Perfect Six (Saratoga Six), the winner of the Santa Paula, was steadied sharply after being knocked around at the start and never got into the hunt.

Artax (Marquetry), who was declared a non-starter after he had to swerve to avoid fan interference in the Gill Maryland Breeders' Cup H. Last year's Champion Sprinter in Canada, Deputy Inxs has put together a perfect season in '99. A neck winner of his Apr. 17 allowance debut at Woodbine, he followed that up with a win in the Gill Vigil S. May 1 and made it three in a row with a hard-fought win here. The favorite in a five-horse field, the gelding sat midpack early, turned for home four wide and just got up in a long drive to earn his seventh Woodbine stakes win.

Cetewayo, runner-up to champion Buck's Boy in this event a year ago, put together a three-stakes winning streak last season, taking the June 24 Sir Ivor S., July 11 GII Bowling Green H. and Aug. 15 GI Sword Dancer H. The bay stumbled badly at the top of the stretch in the GI Man o'War S. last September and fell, but recovered to come back and be second in the Oct. 10 GI Turf Classic. He ended the season with a sixth-place finish in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf and was making his first start since here. The second choice behind African Dancer, he stalked the pace while under wraps for a mile and a quarter, drove up to join pacesetter Flasher at the head of the lane and outgamed that one to the wire to score a narrow win. "He blew very hard today," admitted trainer Michael Dickinson. "He wasn't quite as fit as I thought he was. We were thinking about the Manhattan (GI, June 5) at Belmont Park, but we're probably going to need more time. We are actually thinking about entering him in the King George & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot (in England). That's a million-dollar race in July." The favorite, winner of the Apr. 21 GIII Elkhorn S. at Keeneland last out, was never far from the lead, but lacked a late punch.

Eastern Purple landed his first Group win and gave trainer Kevin Ryan the most important victory in his brief training career with this narrow victory from fellow English challenger Gaelic Storm.
