*Antoniocastiglione (Ire) (Pusuit of Love {GB}) finished third but was disqualified to fourth.

Having started the season with a good second to favorite Beat All in the Listed Newmarket S. Apr. 30, Mukhalif followed up with another second in the Listed Glasgow S. at York May 13. He won his first Group race in good style here to provide Frankie Dettori with the first Italian Derby in his native country and Godolphin their second consecutive Italian Derby. Bombard (Lord At War {Arg}) raced in second for much of the race as Mukhalif was settled in the front rank behind the leaders. Approaching the final quarter, Mukhalif quickened well and soon led, staying on too strongly for Iscan, who traveled well on the inside, but could not match the finishing kick of the winner. The home challenge was headed by Antoniocastiglione (Pursuit Of Love {GB}), who came from the pack, but badly hampered the fast-finishing Best Grey and, having finished third, was disqualified and placed fourth. Olivier Peslier, rider of Antoniocastiglione, was fined 3,000,000 lira ($1,628) for his troubles. Winning trainer Saeed bin Suroor didn't give any hint of Mukhalif's next target but said, "He's a good horse on fast ground and we'll have to think about his future." Weekend Results Cont, p. 2

Three Group stakes winners in Europe looking for their first U.S. black-type wins battle for favoritism in the stakes formerly known in as the Hollywood Turf Cup. The winner of the G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp last April, Astarabad (Alleged) finished up his European campaign with a sixth in the Oct. 3 G2 Prix Dollar. He has been fifth in each of his North American starts, the Oct. 18 G1 Canadian International and the Nov. 28 GII Citation H. and is unraced since. A Group 2 winner in France when trained by Christiane Head, Majorien (Machiavellian) was an allowance victor in his stateside debut Feb. 18 at Santa Anita for Neil Drysdale and followed that up with a second-place finish in the GII El Rincon H. April 4. He looks to earn his first U.S. stakes win off the eight-week layoff. Special Quest (Fr) (Rainbow Quest) won the G2 Prix Noailles at three and has two California allowance wins to his credit in a four-horse American career. His latest victory was Apr. 25 at this distance over this course.

Campaigned on the turf his first four starts, Swamp broke his maiden by seven lengths at Aqueduct in his only start at two. Third Jan. 11 at Gulfstream in his three-year-old debut, he then reeled off two Grade III stakes wins in the Feb. 15 Palm Beach at Gulfstream and the March 20 Everglades at Hialeah. Sixth in the April 10 GII Wood Memorial in his most recent outing and only start on the main track, he had trained at Fair Hill in the meanwhile and returned to his preferred surface to score a course-record setting win as the odds-on choice. "We tried him in the Wood Memorial as an experiment," said trainer John Kimmel, "but the track was hard that day and he didn't like it. Now, it seems silly to take him off a surface he's done so well on. His pedigree doesn't scream turf, but he trained well on wood chips and I noticed that horses with an affinity for wood chips have an affinity for turf." Kimmel said that the colt would be sent back to Fair Hill to train for a possible start in either the July 25 GIII Kent Breeders' Cup at Delaware or the July 18 GIII Lexington at Belmont.

A Group 1 winner in Argentina, Victory Stripes (Arg) (Candy Stripes) has won five of 11 races since coming to the U.S., including the GII Hawthorne H., her first North American graded stakes win, in her last outing Apr. 25 at Hollywood. She looks for her third straight here. Keeper Hill (Deputy Minister) won the Kentucky Oaks early in what looked set to be a stellar three-year-old season, but was frustrated in four subsequent Grade I outings, running second in the Mother Goose, Coaching Club American Oaks and Gazelle H. before ending her year with a third-place finish in the Breeders' Cup Distaff. She started off '99 a well-beaten last in the Hawthorne H.

A Belmont allowance winner in her American debut for trainer Bill Mott May 13, she will look to set the pace here and hang on for her first graded score. Starry Dreamer (Rubiano) has missed in her last five outings, all graded stakes routes on the turf, finishing second in four of those, including the Apr. 10 GII Black Helen H. at Hialeah in her most recent effort.

Sampower Star is the rising star of the sprinting ranks and his progress to date will be measured against some seasoned campaigners. He achieved his best result with a pleasing win in the G3 Duke Of York S. at York May 13, and that followed an even more impressive victory in the Listed Pavillion S. at Ascot Apr. 28. His trainer, Richard Hannon, is blessed with an abundance of fine sprinters this year and this one can continue his winning ways and record his fourth win of the season. Lochangel makes a belated return to the track and was second to Bolshoi (Ire) in this race last year. On her most recent outing, she dead-heated for sixth in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye at Longchamp Oct. 4. She is a high-class filly and will not be found wanting for experience.

LEAD EM HOME DOUBTFUL FOR BELMONT

Sir Barton S. winner Lead Em Home (Mr. Leader) is now listed a doubtful starter for Saturday's Belmont S. by trainer Phil Marino. "At this point, it's a strong possibility that he will not run," said Marino from his base at Pimlico. "I would say that it's 80-20 that he will not run. I'm starting to think that the mile and a half may be too much for him." Marino said the July 11 GII Dwyer S. at Belmont at nine furlongs is more likely.

◆ NEWS TODAY ◆

BOND MULLS BEHRENS' NEXT MOVE The day after his win in the GII Massachusetts H., trainer James Bond said that Behrens (Pleasant Colony)'s next start could come in either the June 27 GI Hollywood Gold Cup or the GII July 5 Suburban H. The five-year-old, who took the lead in the NTRA Champions on Fox Series with his Mass'Cap win, shipped from Suffolk Downs to Saratoga early Monday morning to prepare for his next assignment. "Of course, I have to talk to the owners, get back and see the horse and see what his next couple of workouts look like," said Bond of his impending decision. "As I've been saying, our long-term goal is the Breeders' Cup."

Deliberately sharpened to make the lead in this event, Notoriety was sent away a realistic longshot here. With just three wins in his last 12 starts, two of those in claiming events last fall and the third two starts back in an April 21 allowance at Aqueduct, the gelding figured to need to be at his best to compete with these. Sent right to the front, he led every step of the way, holding off the late charge of Optic Nerve. "We knew we were going to run seven furlongs," said trainer Allen Jerkens, "so we tried to lighten him up and get him sharp. I thought he was sharp enough that he would be able to lay up close." No word on where the winner heads next; second-choice and runner-up Optic Nerve goes to the July 3 GIII Poker S.

Casanova Market hadn't won a race in her last six outings since finishing first in an Oct. 9 Belmont allowance over a sloppy track. The longest shot on the board in this four-horse field, she fought for the lead with the second and third-place finishers for most of the way, shaking clear at the end for a driving win.

7th-BEL, $42,000, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, 6f, 1:10 3/5, ft. TEN CARATS (f, 3, Capote--Miss Waikiki {MSP}, by Miswaki) broke her maiden first out and was twice third in Gulfstream allowances before an ill-fated turf try in her last at Hialeah Apr. 1 where she was eased. Back on the main track after a two-month rest, the bay rated just in behind the leaders, found an opening along the wood turning for home and cruised home a 5 3/4-length winner as the 2-1 second pick. Lifetime Record: 6-2-0-2, $56,025.

Cat Thief (Storm Cat), who finished sixth in Saturday's Metropolitan H. as the second choice, will take a break until at least mid-July, when he will be pointed to either the July 18 Swaps S. at Hollywood, the Aug. 8 Jim Dandy, Haskell or Swaps S., according to trainer D. He returned to the races April 3 with a third in the Gil Potrero Grande Breeders' Cup at Santa Anita and came into this affair off a win in a 6 1/2 furlong allowance at Hollywood April 28. Sent away the prohibitive 3-5 choice in a four-horse field, he sat in third until the top of the stretch and wore down a determined Men's Exclusive in the final strides.
