Patience Game Sharp at Belmont:

The Thoroughbred Corporation's Patience Game (Woodman) zipped six furlongs in 1:12 1/5, handily, over the Belmont Park main track yesterday morning, galloping out the seven-eighths in 1:24 4/5. The colt sported blinkers in his last work, but was without the equipment yesterday. Trainer Alex Hassinger Jr. will decide "in a day or two" whether his charge will wear blinkers in the June 5 Belmont. "He's worked well both with and without them, so I'm weighing my options," he said.

Lemon Drop Kid Preps:

Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo), third in the GII Peter Pan S. last out, worked six furlongs in 1:13 2/5 under jockey Jose Santos Monday. "He went the first quarter in :25 and change and finished up real strong," trainer Scotty Schulhofer said. "He's doing as good as a horse can coming up to the race."

Zito Duo on Work Tab:

Trainer Nick Zito worked both of his Belmont candidates yesterday morning, with Stephen Got Even (A.P. Indy) going a half in :47 2/5 and Adonis (Kris S.) getting the same distance in :47 3/5. "Stephen looked real good," Zito said. "I was pleased with the way he finished up. His Preakness (where he was fourth) was so much better than the Derby and he's come out of it super. Adonis looked super also. This work should have him tight for the Belmont."

River Bay, twice a Group winner while racing in France, had won twice in his 10 prior U.S. starts, taking the GI Hollywood Turf Cup in December, 1997, and the GII Sunset H. in July, 1998. Eleventh in the Breeders' Cup Turf to end last year's limited five-race campaign, the chestnut had a pair of starts this season, running fourth in the Jan. 18 GII San Marcos H. and the Feb. 15 GII San Luis Obispo H., both at Santa Anita. Back after a 3 1/2-month layoff, the Kentucky-bred settled in seventh while hugging the hedge early, came with a four-wide sweep on the far turn, drove to the lead despite lugging in and was able to hold off the late bid of favored Majorien for the win. "He wasn't right when I ran him at Santa Anita," trainer Bobby Frankel said. "I think he just likes this racetrack. He has run four times on it now, won three and finished second."

Gourmet Girl, runner-up in the GI La Brea S. to end her '98 campaign, missed by a head in the GII El Encino S. Jan. 17 and was third in the GII La Canada S. Feb. 7 before taking a two-month vacation. The Cal-bred came back to take the off-the-turf Miss America H. going a mile at Golden Gate Apr. 10 and most recently had dropped back to a sprint to finish second in the seven-furlong B. Thoughtful S. for state-breds May 15. Going a route once again, the dark bay was fourth choice in this five-horse field. She kept the leaders in her sights early, slipped up the rail to take the lead after six furlongs and held outsider Yolo Lady at bay down the lane. "I got trapped on the inside, but there was a hole in there and she went right through it," jockey Eddie Delahoussaye said. "I mean, she didn't hesitate for a second. And once she got through there it was, 'well, let's go.'" Added trainer Pico Perdomo, "She's been knocking on the door. Now she's going to sit with the big girls and have lunch." The filly goes next in the GI Vanity H. June 26.

Also Ran: Snow Polina, Darling Alice, Bursting Forth.

Soaring Softly came into this looking for her fourth straight victory and she found it. The chestnut captured an allowance race at Gulfstream in March and at Keeneland in April before adding the Vineland S. over the Garden State turf in her latest May 8. The second choice stepping up to the graded ranks, she rated in fourth to the far turn, then swept by the field to take a clear lead into the stretch and was never threatened in an eye-catching effort. "She was impressive and so far she is living up to our expectations," trainer Jimmy Toner said. "She has a really big kick. This is the first time we really asked her to run her best." The 6-5 favorite Snow Polina (Tremolino), a stakes winner last season in France who was making her second U.S. start, broke in a tangle, was rushed up to set the pace for a mile, but weakened in the drive to be fourth.

Mocha Express was a terror over the winter in Phoenix, taking back-to-back stakes at Turf Paradise on both the turf and the dirt. He returned to the Lone Star state with a fourth-place finish in the Gill Texas Mile Apr. 18, but rebounded with a victory against allowance foes May 15. The dark chocolate bay broke alertly, but was taken back to run off the dueling leaders Littlebitlively and Nite Dreamer. As the field reached the top of the lane, he was angled off the rail and stormed down the outside to catch Littlebitlively in the final jump.

Prospector's Song picked up a pair of Oaklawn stakes wins in March and April before running third at 10-1 in the Gill Humana Distaff H. at Churchill May 1. Little Sister, third behind her Wild Flower rival in the Apr. 6 Carousel S. at the Arkansas track, came back to take an allowance test at Lone Star May 20. Prospector's Song battled on the front end to the stretch, then grabbed the lead, but Little Sister came running from fourth to join her on even terms at the wire. The 9-10 favorite in the race, GISW Stop Traffic (Cure the Blues), ran evenly to be fourth.

1--SIR BEAR, 117, g, 6, by Sir Leon

1st Dam: Spicy Pearl, by Bet Big

2nd Dam: Spicy Affair, by Greek Answer

3rd Dam: Bridal Shower, by Hail to Reason

O-Smollin Barbara; B-Smollin A L (FL); T-Ralph Ziadie;

J-J R Velazquez; $300,000. Lifetime Record:

44-15-9-7, $1,360,659.

A lot of faith, rather than a lot of money, is sometimes all that a breeder needs to produce a top performer. John Toffan and Trudy McCaffery's belief in Smokester has been rewarded with Free House, while Lucille Geranis' loyalty to her Grade II winner Sir Leon has supplied her friend Barbara Smollin with Sir Bear. This very dependable gelding took his career earnings to $1,360,659 last Saturday when he added his name to the long and illustrious list of winners of the GI Met Mile, which is pretty good going for a gelding whose sire commanded a fee of only $1,000 at Farnsworth Farms in Florida in the early 1990s.

Sir Leon certainly served Mrs. Geranis very well on the racetrack. Picked up for only $20,000 as a two-year-old in Florida, despite a quality pedigree, Sir Leon went on to win over $450,000 during a roller-coaster career. A stakes winner over seven furlongs at Hialeah at three, Sir Leon lost his form at four, but made up for lost time with a very busy five-year-old campaign. From a total of 24 starts that year, he notched five wins and five seconds, narrowly getting the better of Jade Hunter in the GII Seminole H. over nine furlongs and twice finishing runner-up to Skip Trial.

Those efforts were enough to earn him a weight of 112 on the Blood-Horse Free Handicap for older males and he bounced back at seven, after a lacklustre six-year-old season, to repeat his Seminole H. success and his Free Handicap rating.

It is easy to see why Mrs. Geranis would want to give her old servant his chance at stud. There is plenty to like about Sir Leon's pedigree, not least the fact that he is a member of the first crop by Private Account. Although Private Account looks destined to be remembered primarily as an excellent sire of fillies, he also sired plenty of very good sons, such as Personal Flag, Private Terms, Valley Crossing, Corporate Report, Unaccounted For, Secret Hello, Miserden and Public Purse.

Another of Sir Leon's potential attractions was the fact that he comes from the same outstanding European female line as those outstanding brothers Kris (GB) and Diesis (GB), both of whom have excelled as stallions. His dam, Oh So Sweet, was a sister to Sweet Moss, a leading middle-distance three-year-old in England in 1964.

However, persuading breeders to support Sir Leon has proved quite a struggle despite his modest fee. His largest book of mares up to 1997 was the 33 mares he attracted in his fifth season in 1994, and his first four years as a stallion resulted in a total of only 35 named foals, with Sir Bear belonging to his small third crop.

Sir Bear's breeders, Mr. and Mrs. Smollin, have the added satisfaction of also having bred his dam, Spicy Pearl. This four-time winner produced Sir Bear as her first foal and her subsequent matings with Sir Leon have resulted in another winner, Lady Pearl, and a yearling colt. Now her son's achievements have earned her a transfer from Florida to Kentucky to visit Dixieland Band this year. The Smollins must now be thanking their lucky stars that Spicy Pearl was led out unsold at a mere $3,900 at Ocala in January, 1996.

Sir Leon is inbred 5x4 to Nasrullah and Spicy Pearl brought another line of this immortal stallion to Sir Bear's pedigree, because she is by Bet Big (by Distinctive, by Never Bend, by Nasrullah). This could be a very big week for Distinctive, because he is the broodmare sire of Beat All, the Dynaformer colt who will start as one of the favorites for the Epsom Derby on Saturday, provided he recovers from a bruised foot.

Antley Rides Silver Charm in Stephen Foster:

Adding a second Kentucky Derby winner to the growing list of talented horses he rides, Chris Antley has picked up the mount on Silver Charm (Silver Buck) for the June 12 GII Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs. The mount became available when Gary Stevens left for England to ride first call for trainer Michael Stoute. "It was between Chris (Antley) and Chris McCarron," trainer Bob Baffert said. "But Chris McCarron is on Old Trieste (A.P. Indy) and will have him down the road in the Hollywood Gold Cup, which we also want to go in. Chris (Antley) has been riding a lot for me and has the same agent as Gary. Chris (Antley) is back in the groove and has looked pretty good lately in those green and gold silks (of Bob and Beverly Lewis)."

The filly rated kindly towards the rear of the field, was asked by jockey Masayoshi Ebina in deep stretch and gamely withstood the challenge of race favorite To The Victory for her first Grade 1 tally. Ebina commented, "This was her first time going 12 furlongs, so I just worried about her stamina. She was very relaxed and performed well in the stretch." The filly could resurface later this year in the G1 Shuka Sho at Kyoto Oct. 24. The Japanese two-year-old filly champion from 1998, Stinger (Jpn) (Sunday Silence), could manage only a fourth-place finish.

Winning his first Group race since taking the 1996 G3 Norfolk S. at Royal Ascot, Topsy Creek came back to his best form after a series of niggling injuries for a pillar-to-post success. He set a solid pace as the favorite, Sampower Star (Cyrano De Bergerac {Ire}), traveled well in sixth. Lochangel, making her first start of the season, pressured the pacesetter at the two-furlong marker, but could not quite get to the leader, who was showing no signs of stopping. The favorite couldn't find that decisive kick which had seen him land three races this season--stablemate Andreyev just shaded him in the dying strides for third. Winning trainer Ben Hanbury said, "I think we will go for the [G2] Cork & Orrery S. [at Royal Ascot, June 17], as I don't think I entered him in the King's Stand S. He slipped a disc in the [G2] Diadem S. at Ascot last season and was very lame. The vet said he would never race again and Sheikh Hamdan tried to sell him as a stallion. But there were no offers so he stayed in the yard and the owner's Australian 'back man' sorted him out." Winning rider Richard Hills added, "He's a big, tough typical sprinter with a bit of his father, Dayjur, in him. We've always believed the horse had ability and he has really proved himself today."

Also ran: Persian Punch (Ire), Celeric (GB), Canon Can, Laurentide, Spirit of Love, Athenry (GB), Generous Terms (GB), Trigger Happy (Ire).

Finishing third in the 1998 G2 Yorkshire Cup provided the platform for Persian Punch to win this race last year, and that tried-and-tested route was followed this year by Arctic Owl. Under a superb ride from Ray Cochrane, he grabbed the lead on the line to secure victory and added another Group race to his wins last year in the G2 Prix Kergolay and the G3 Jockey Club Cup. Winning trainer James Fanshawe explained, "I was relieved to see the rain yesterday, as he can't have firm ground which he hates. Ray rode a lovely race. He rarely gets it wrong, but when he gets it right he's brilliant, he was very cool. [Arctic Owl] traveled well throughout the race and, in a similar way to Celeric (GB), he's got that turn of foot. I'm fairly hopeful he will stay the 2½ miles for the [G1] Ascot Gold Cup [June 17]."
