A CROWN FOR CHARISMATIC? Kentucky Derby and Preakness hero Charismatic (Summer Squall), who bids to become the first Triple Crown winner in 21 years, galloped over the Belmont main track on the day before his date with history. "He looked like his old self," trainer D. Wayne Lukas said. "I don't see anything different than going into the Preakness and Derby." As for his Triple Crown chances, Lukas said, "There's something about the last bump in that road that's a little bit harder than the other two. There are a lot of things to overcome. If we are going to pull this off, we are going to have to have some things fall into place." Trainer Bob Baffert, who has had his Triple Crown hopes dashed the last two years, looks to play the spoiler with Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) this time. "She's sharp, she's doing great," Baffert said. "Whether the fuel light comes on turning for home, we won't know until the race. Distance is the only question. She's healthy, she's happy, she's on her toes. We'll see what happens." Trainer Elliott Walden is himself in position to play Triple Crown spoiler once again, but it isn't all deja vu as he gets ready for this year's challenge. His '99 Belmont candidate, Menifee (Harlan), is really nothing like 1998 winner Victory Gallop, who came from the clouds to beat Real Quiet by a nose. "Their similarities basically end with the fact that they were both second in the Derby and the Preakness," Walden said. "Physically, they're different. Victory Gallop is as small a horse as I have had that's a good horse, but he's very well-balanced, very athletic-looking. Menifee is a tall, leggy colt. He's not real light on his feet, but he can cover a lot of ground with one stride. He is also a lot more adaptable to the circumstances in the race. He does come from off the pace, but his style is not as drastic as Victory Gallop's. He has the tactical speed if he needs it." Even their family trees are from different sides of the forest. Victory Gallop is by Cryptoclearance, who finished second in the '87 Belmont. Menifee is from the first crop of the late Harlan, who picked up his only stakes win in the GI Vosburgh and never won beyond 1 1/16 miles. "Victory Gallop had pedigree on his side," Walden said. "I didn't have a question whether he would get the distance from that standpoint. With Menifee, I had reservations whether he would get a mile and a quarter. He eliminated those reservations in the (Derby), and physically he is the type to get a mile and a half."

The 220th running of the Vodafone Derby over Epsom's switchback track has 16 runners set to face the starter, after Rhagaas (GB) and Tchaikovsky (Ire), the third and second strings for Godolphin and trainer Aidan O'Brien, respectively, were diverted to Sunday's French Derby at Chantilly. The big question is who will stay over the ground rated on the soft side of good. Heading the betting is the Godolphin-owned Dubai Millennium (GB) (Seeking the Gold), who is unbeaten in three starts. The colt advertised his well-being for the Derby with an impressive win in the Listed Compass UK Leisure Predominate S. at Goodwood May 18. Also entered for Godolphin, which is yet to win the Vodafone Derby, is the ex-American-trained hopeful Adair (Theatrical {Ire}), an 11-length winner on his sole start last season at Belmont Park in New York. Sheikh Mohammed, the man behind Godolphin, said yesterday, "I think Dubai Millennium will handle this track better, but the other horse, Adair, is a very good horse."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

After breaking breaking her maiden at Newmarket Apr. 13, Ramruma became a leading contender for this race off her win in the Lingfield Oaks Trial May 8. Confirming the promise of those two runs, the filly took the race by the scruff of the neck soon after rounding the home turn and simply galloped her rivals into submission for a comfortable success from the mainly unconsidered Noushkey and favored Zahrat Dubai. She became Henry Cecil's sixth English Oaks winner and the second for Kieren Fallon. Ramruma settled in second as Claxon (Caerleon) set a good pace; Fallon had to roust his mount along briefly at the top of the hill, and the move paid dividends as she came back on the bridle and challenged the pacesetter for the lead soon after entering the straight, took over at the quarter-mile mark and drove on relentlessly to the wire. Henry Cecil pointed out, "She stays well, she's got class and she's got speed and I was very calm." Ahmed Salman, acting as a good luck charm for the winning owner, his brother Fahd (who watched the race from Riyadh), added, "She acts like she's a little bit lazy, and she sweated and sweated before the race. But she did it like a piece of cake. This is more important than Generous' [1991] Derby win because she's a homebred. She is named after Prince Fahd's youngest daughter, whose nickname is Ramruma. I really cannot say any more because I am so happy."

Margins: HD, HF, 6 3/4. Odds: 0.90, 6.10, 13.20.

Also Ran: Oh What a Windfall, Sapphire n' Silk, Preciosa V., T Storm, Things Change.

Three Ring crushed fellow fillies the last two times she faced them, taking the Feb. 21 GII Davona Dale S. by 14 lengths and the Mar. 16 GII Bonnie Miss S. by 6 1/4 lengths, both at Gulfstream Park. But she couldn't handle the colts at a mile and a quarter off a 1 1/2-month layoff and finished 19th and last in the May 1 Kentucky Derby last time out. Odds-on to bounce back in the first leg of New York's Triple Tiara, the chestnut shadowed 3-1 Sapphire n' Silk (Pleasant Tap) through a half in :46.46, then went head-and-head with Better Than Honour through the final half, losing the lead briefly at the top of the lane, but battling back to win it by a short margin. There was a claim of foul against the winner by jockey Richie Migliore, rider of the runner-up, but it was not allowed. "I didn't feel there was contact," said winning jockey Jerry Bailey. "I knew (Better Than Honour) was going out, but I didn't cause it." Trainer Eddie Plesa Jr. said, "Physically she showed he she came out of (the Derby) fine. Mentally, she's such a good, smart filly that it didn't take anything out of her, either. She showed no ill effects at all. She ran her eyeballs out today." Trainer John Kimmel said, "You can't take anything away from the winner. But Richie said there was some bumping and we got carried wide in the stretch. The closer Three Ring got, the more intimidated my filly got." The top two go next in the second Tiara test, the GI Mother Goose S. June 26.

Margins: 3/4, HF, 1. Odds: 9-2, 2-1, 7-2.

Also ran: Silver Patriarch (Ire), Borgia (Ger), Fruits of Love, Central Park (Ire).

In a race which brought together the winners of 13 Group 1 races, five of them Classics, Daylami showed the benefit of his recent second-place finish in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh May 23 with a determined run in the final quarter-mile to wear down Royal Anthem. The five-year-old took his Group 1 tally to four in giving jockey Frankie Dettori his first Coronation Cup, and he became the first horse since Mill Reef in 1972 to complete the G1 Eclipse S.-Coronation Cup double. Central Park (In The Wings {GB}) set a sedate early pace and quickened the tempo at the top of the hill, but relinquished the lead to Royal Anthem soon after rounding Tattenham Corner. Royal Anthem held a two-length lead entering the final quarter, with Daylami in pursuit, but his jockey, Kieren Fallon, had to resort to the whip to keep him going and Daylami's persistent run down the outside paid off in the final 100 yards, as he went on to win going away. Dream Well, who tried to hang left into the camber for the entire length of the straight, managed to run on well under some expert guidance from Cash Asmussen to take a close third. Silver Patriarch ran his usual game race in fourth without managing to get in a serious blow. A clearly delighted winning owner Sheikh Mohammed enthused, "He's a very tough horse with a big heart and is one who likes to battle. I think they went the right pace for him and he had a little something left in the tank in the end. I think these older horses tend to need the run first time out." An equally enthusiastic Dettori explained, "When we passed the two-furlong marker, I saw Kieren drawing his whip. I then knew I had a little bit more than him left. I gave [Daylami] a couple of cracks and he took off. One-and-a-half miles is as far as he wants."

Today, Belmont Park, post time: 4:03 p.m. EDT

MANHATTAN H.-GI, $300,000, 3yo/up, 1 1/4mT

PP HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	ODDS
1 Vergennes	Hennig	Velazquez	15-1
2 Wised Up	Destasio	Luzzi	10-1
3 Federal Trial	Goldfine	Davis	4-1
4 Yagli	Mott	Bailey	2-1
5 Fahris (Ire)	McLaughlin	Migliore	15-1
6 Lite Approval	Kelly	Samyn	30-1
7 Middlesex Drive	Hauswald	Sellers	10-1
8 Parade Ground	Howard	Day	3-1
9 Divide and Conquer	McGaughey	Smith	30-1
10 Devonwood	Bond	Bravo	8-1

Parade Ground (Kingmambo) ran evenly when sixth in the GI Early Times Turf Classic at Churchill Downs May 1, but returns to the site of his impressive victory in the GIII Lawrence Realization H. Oct. 28 and gets an additional furlong to suit his late-running style. Yagli (Jade Hunter), always consistent, comes off a four-month layoff after his win Feb. 6 in the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. Prior to that, he was placed in the Nov. 7 GI Breeders' Cup Turf and in the Dec. 12 GI Hollywood Turf Cup. Middlesex Drive (Pine Bluff) scored impressively last out in the GII Dixie H. at Pimlico May 15.

Today, Belmont Park, post time: 3:26 p.m. EDT

RIVA RIDGE S.-GII, $150,000, 3yo, 7f

PP HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	ODDS

8 Bought in Dixie	Jerkens	Samyn	4-1
9 Aristotle	Albertrani	Chavez	9-2
10 Millions	Blusiewicz	Santos	6-1

Yes It's True (Is It True) will be very tough to beat in this spot; he comes off an impressive score against older horses in the May 15 GIII Maryland Breeders' Cup H. at Pimlico and possesses abundant natural speed. Bought in Dixie (Dixieland Band) makes his stakes debut and has been firing bullets in the mornings. Millions (Dehere) won the GIII Laurel Futurity Oct. 31 and just missed in Aqueduct's GII Remsen S. Nov. 28, but has faltered at three. He drops back to a sprint and adds blinkers off a fifth in a Delaware stakes May 2.

9 The Trader's Echo	Ward	Day	12-1
10 Mint	Moubarak	Coa	8-1
11 Oro de Mexico	Serpe	Gryder	15-1

Artax (Marquetry) won the GI Carter H. two back, but swerved to avoid a fan on the track and finished fifth behind Yes It's True in his next start at Pimlico. Punch Line (Two Punch) has a strong late rally in a field loaded with early speed. Master o Foxhounds (Deputy Minister) offers a rehearsal for Charismatic's connections; he comes off a sharp allowance score May 19.

Sainte Marine, winner of this event last year and subsequently runner-up in the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York in August and third in the G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp in October, will be out to redeem her reputation after finishing only sixth on her seasonal debut, the G3 Prix de Saint-Georges May 16. Imperfect World ran a fine race to be runner-up in that race. Dream Chief, who has reverted to sprint distances, was an impressive winner over 5 1/2 furlongs here May 17. Danzari has not been out since finishing unplaced in the G1 Prix Morny in August.

The most interest in this race will center on the undefeated Sage et Jolie, the full-sister to 1998 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Sagamix (Fr). This is her stakes debut, but last time out May 19 she was a clever winner of a decent conditions race at Saint-Cloud.

Bourbon Belle, a graded-stakes winner in the GIII Thoroughbred Club of America S. at Keeneland at three, was looking for her first 1999 score in here, but had improved with each start this season. The chestnut finished fourth in the Feb. 6 American Beauty S. at Oaklawn and third in the Mar. 27 Queen S. at Turfway before setting the pace, then weakening to be second in her latest, a Churchill allowance May 22. The 9-5 choice, she grabbed the lead after a half and held sway to the wire for a popular victory.

 Margins: HD, 5 3/4, HF. Odds: 0.65, 14.40, 6.80.

More Than Ready, an easy maiden winner at Keeneland in April, came back to take the May 1 WHAS S. at Churchill in another decisive score, but had to be ready for a fight this time. The odds-on choice, he set a pressured pace, was joined by longshot Diablo's Addition at the head of the stretch and battled that one all the way to the line to take the photo. "He's a very game colt," trainer Todd Pletcher said. "He has a naturally competitive spirit." The dark bay, from Southern Halo's first North American crop, will be pointed for the July 4 Tremont S. at Belmont, where he will likely meet the runner-up once again.

Margins: (DH), 1 3/4, 7HF. Odds: 2.60, 1.85, 1.80.

Mudslinger ended 1998 with a nine-length allowance win in an off-the-turf try at Calder and started '99 with a third-place finish in the GIII Sabin H. over a sloppy track at Gulfstream Jan. 24, but had been off the board in a pair of graded-stakes starts since. She finished fourth in her latest, the Apr. 17 GIII Bed o'Roses Breeders' Cup H. at Aqueduct. Endowment took a Belmont allowance test last September, but had finished out of the money in her four starts since, running fifth in the May 15 GIII Sixty Sails H. at Hawthorne in her most recent attempt. But the two were the third and second choices, respectively; Endowment closed from third to take a short lead at the top of the stretch, but Mudslinger was right at her throatlatch and the two dueled to the wire, where the camera could not separate them.

Margins: 1 3/4, 1 1/4, 1. Odds: 0.80A, 4.80, 6.20.

With the Flow had won his first three starts in France, including the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau Apr. 20, before faltering when unplaced in the G1 French 2000 Guineas. Repatriated, the chestnut ran fourth twice, first in the GII Jamaica H. Oct. 18 and again last out in a Mar. 6 Gulfstream allowance after a 4 1/2-month layoff. Part of the heavily-favored entry, he stalked the pace while under wraps, then drew off to win handily. New York Report cont. p8

Mr. Buffum returned to his favorite track to score his first victory in seven starts this year. The New-York bred had always run well at Belmont, winning three of five starts including the restricted Hudson H. Oct. 24. A close third last out in a May 1 Aqueduct allowance, the 2-1 second choice pressed the pace, gained command after a half in :45 3/5 and held on resolutely.

In for an $80,000 tag, Refried Dreams was a winner for $62,500 two starts back, then finished sixth after a troubled trip in his latest at that level Apr. 19. The dark bay fought it out on the front end from gate to wire and held off River Keen for a narrow score. Ultra-consistent veteran Auenadler pulled off something of a surprise here, even though he was never out of the first two in six Group or Listed races last year, including winning the G3 Grosser Preis von Berlin. Dyhim Diamond and Irish Fire (Sure Blade) set the pace, with Auenadler racing along the rails. At the 500-meter mark, Dyhim Diamond and Gorse shared the lead, with Tertullian making his move on the outside, but 300 meters out, the winner swept through to catch the leaders and edged ahead for a comfortable tally.

Sunshine Street, fourth in last year's Vodafone Derby, and Dazzling Park, third in the G1 Entenmann's Irish 1000 Guineas May 23, tried to get on terms with the leader from the quarter-mile mark, but he battled on well for the win, his second from two starts this term after taking a conditions event at Cork May 15 by five lengths.

Also ran: Gloriosa (Fr), Penmayne (GB), Hawala (Ire).

After beating G1 English 1000 Guineas heroine Wince (GB) as a juvenile in the Listed Star S. at Sandown last year, Fairy Queen was outclassed when reopposing that rival in the Guineas, setting the pace, but finishing 10th on her only start this year. She returned here to record her second stakes win under an inspired ride from Frankie Dettori. The filly set the pace; Hawala took over at the head of affairs three furlongs out, but began to race greenly soon after, allowing Fairy Queen to lead once again going into the final quarter. Dettori kicked her into a clear lead and she ran on well to comfortably hold off the strong finish of Risque Lady.
