CHARISMATIC'S CROWN HOPES

CRUSHED Charismatic (Summer Squall)'s Triple Crown hopes were dashed as Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo) and Vision and Verse (Storm Cat) drove past him during the stretch run of yesterday's GI Belmont S., but the disappointment dug even deeper when the hero of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness was pulled up just yards after the finish line with a condylar fracture of the left front cannon bone. The colt stood on three legs as Lemon Drop Kid, the Belmont winner by a head at 29-1, galloped back to accept his blanket of white carnations. Charismatic was loaded into the horse ambulance and driven back to trainer D. Wayne Lukas' barn on the Belmont backstretch. Veterinarian Dr. Jim Hunt described the injury, saying, "It's a complete fracture, the bone is broken to the outside. There's actually a piece of the bone that is loose. He's also sustained a vertical fracture of his lateral sesamoid. We can fix the condylar fracture with no problem. The sesamoid's a little bit trickier; it simply has to heal with time. He'll be heading for surgery, probably (Sunday or Monday). It's nothing life-threatening. Whether or not the sesamoid fracture heals will determine whether or not he comes back to race." Words could barely describe the dejection in the Charismatic camp. "All week we talked about how maintenance-free this horse was and how durable he is," Lukas said. "These things happen and we have to deal with them, but it's not an easy part of the game. I feel bad right now, but I'll feel a hell of a lot worse next week." Added owner Bob Lewis, "We are devastated by what happened. This is the very thing we all deplore. Thank God we had Chris Antley on that horse. The way he bailed off, he probably saved the horse from some very, very serious further damage. The prognosis is very positive. Just what his future may be, who knows?" Elated by the victory of their colt, owners Laddie Dance and his wife Jeanne Vance still took a moment to offer their sympathies to Charismatic's connections. "I feel very, very sorry for the Lewises," said Dance. "My heart really does go out to them," his wife added.

Margins: HD, 1HF, 4 3/4. Odds: 29.75, 54.75, 1.60.

Also Ran: Best of Luck, Stephen Got Even, Patience Game, Silverbulletday, Menifee, Pineaff, Prime Directive, Teletable, Adonis.

Lemon Drop Kid showed a lot of promise at two, winning the GI Futurity and running second in the GI Champagne, but at first had not fulfilled that promise at three. Fifth behind Menifee in the GI Toyota Blue Grass, he showed even less in the Kentucky Derby, running ninth. There were signs of life, however, in the GI Peter Pan S. last time out May 23. The bay ran a solid third over a sloppy track he really didn't like and earned himself another Classic bid. Rated in eighth as the filly Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) dueled the surprisingly forward Charismatic on the front end, he closed ground on the inside on the turn, came with a three-wide bid in the stretch as Vision and Verse found room between horses near the rail and outgamed that one to the wire to take the photo. "He just needed a little time to grow up--you know, he's a May 28 foal," trainer Scotty Schulhofer said. "He peaked on the right day. We finally got our racetrack and a good, clean trip." As for what's next, Schulhofer said, "We're going to give him a nice long rest and probably see about the (Aug. 8) Jim Dandy or the (Aug. 28) Travers, for sure." Jockey Jose Santos added, "He was dead game in the stretch. He was underestimated--he proved he belongs with these." A record crowd of 85,818 was on hand for the Belmont, breaking the mark of 82,694 set in 1971. The commingled handle was a New York Racing Association single-day record of $67,929,018, with a record $36,333,231 wagered on the Belmont S. alone. On-track betting reached a new mark of $10,035,906, with a record $3,143,508 wagered on the Belmont S., breaking the standard set in 1987.

◆ NEWS TODAY ◆

BELMONT BITS AND PIECES Vision and Verse (Storm Cat), winner of the GII Illinois Derby last out, nearly gave trainer Bill Mott his first Classic win. The colt sat just off the speed early, found running room just outside of Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) as the filly tired at the top of the stretch and missed by a head after battled Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo) through the final furlong. "He was doing super coming into the race and the race unfolded nicely for him," Mott said. "He was dead game in the stretch and I thought we were going to get there." Added jockey Herbie Castillo Jr., "He just kept running hard the whole way. I was so close to winning it. This horse has come a long way in the last few months and he belongs with these." Silverbulletday, trying colts for the first time, tired to be seventh. "We were taking a shot," trainer Bob Baffert said. "If she could slow (the fractions) down, get a half in :49 and change, she'd have something to kick home. But when they turn for home after a mile in 1:36, they're just tired. I'm going to freshen her up now, hope she'll talk to me. Thank God she can't talk, or she'd be yelling and screaming at me. But I'm going to give her a lot of kisses and a lot of love and she is not going to run for a while." Menifee (Harlan), the second choice at 5-2, pressed the pace, but faded to be eighth. "It's been a long road," said trainer Elliott Walden. "And it's a tough road. He never gave any indication that anything was wrong. We just had a tired horse today." GII Peter Pan S. winner Best of Luck (Broad Brush) came from the back of the pack to get fourth. "The distance was all right, he just didn't quite fire," said jockey Jean-Luc Samyn. "He didn't finish as well as he usually does."

CAREER OVER FOR LIL'S LAD? Lil's Lad (Pine Bluff) will likely be retired, co-owner Murray Durst reported yesterday. The four-year-old colt is coming off the worst performance of his career, finishing seventh, beaten 22 lengths, in the GI Metropolitan H. "The horse is fine, but I've got to stick with (co-owner) Will (Farish)," Durst said. "He's smarter than I am. I don't want to retire him, especially if there's nothing wrong with him. They can't find anything wrong with him. They think he's gotten sour." If retired, Lil's Lad will finish his career with a record of 13-5-3-0 and $589,930 in earnings. He won last year's GII Fountain of Youth and crossed the wire first in the GI Florida Derby, but was disqualified and placed second.

An estimated crowd of 100,000 attended Epsom yesterday to watch Oath (Ire) give trainer Henry Cecil a fourth Epsom Derby victory and rider Kieren Fallon his first. All The Way (Shirley Heights {GB}) led soon after the start, coming under pressure as the field approached Tattenham Corner. Once into the straight, he was passed by Daliapour, who led by a length from

Oath entering the final quarter. Kieren Fallon started driving and his mount struck the front 1 1/2 furlongs out and, despite lugging to his left slightly, ran on strongly to earn Classic glory. Daliapour kept on well to be a comfortable second with Beat All, Gary Stevens up, getting third in the dying strides. Cecil, who landed the

Vodafone Oaks Friday with Ramruma, the Sagitta 1000

Guineas with Wince (GB) and was second with Enrique

(GB) in the Sagitta 2000 Guineas, said, "Epsom used to be a bit of a problem place for us, as far as having winners was concerned, but once you have won one you can feel confident that you can win another." This was a 22nd British Classic success for Cecil, whose three domestic Classic wins this season match his 1985 achievement. He is now the fifth most successful

British trainer ever in terms of Classics won and the leading Classic winner of the 20th century.

Also Ran: Parade Ground, Lite Approval, Divide and Conquer, Vergennes, Fahris (Ire), Wised Up, Devonwood.

Yagli ended 1998 with three straight runner-up finishes, finishing second in the Sept. 26 GI Belmont Breeders' Cup H., Nov. 7 GI Breeders' Cup Turf and Dec. 12 GI Hollywood Turf Cup, but came back to win his only start this season in the Feb. 6 GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. Given a four-month freshening after that start, the ultra-consistent Paulson homebred was off a deserving even-money favorite. He settled in sixth for six furlongs, made up ground on the inside on the turn, then angled to the outside for the drive, taking over at the eighth pole and pulling away in a decisive score. "We run a lot of them off the bench and I guess that works pretty well for me," trainer Bill Mott said. "He's a late developer and we're reaping the benefits now." The winner could go next in the GI United Nations H., now at Monmouth Park, July 31 or the GI Sword Dancer H. at Saratoga Aug. 14.

5 Slickly (Fr)	Fabre	Peslier
6 Tchaikovsky (Ire)	O'Brien	Kinane
7 Gracioso	Fabre	Jarnet
8 Royal Rebel (GB)	Johnston	Fallon

All carry 128 pounds.

Slickly (Linamix {Fr}) impressed when winning the G2 Prix Noailles at Longchamp Apr. 11 and looks to take his unbeaten record to a perfect four-for-four. Montjeu (Sadler's Wells) looked good when winning the G2 Prix Greffulhe at Longchamp Apr. 25, beating subsequent French 2000 Guineas winner Sendawar (Ire) and Gracioso (Nureyev), but the latter gained his revenge by handing him a comfortable length defeat in the G1 Prix Lupin at Longchamp May 16, when Montjeu was unsuited by the fast track. Like Slickly, Falcon Flight (Persian Bold {Ire}) is unbeaten, and on only his second start won the G2 Prix Hocquart here May 9. Godolphin hope Rhagaas (Sadler's Wells), who passed on yesterday's Vodafone Derby, will need to improve from his run in a Newmarket conditions event May 1, when beaten as the odds-on favorite. Nowhere To Exit (Exit to Nowhere), who has been supplemented, is unbeaten in four starts this term, including the Listed Prix de l'Avre here Apr 28 and the G3 Prix La Force at Longchamp May 20.

Though champion Fiji (GB) remains on the sidelines, Tranquility Lake (Rahy) will attempt to stake her claim as this year's leading turf female. The bay filly has been off since a four-length score in the GII Santa Barbara H. at Santa Anita Apr. 17, defeating Virginie (Legal Case {Ire}) and Midnight Line (Kris S.) in the process. Sapphire Ring (GB) (Marju {Ire}) was very sharp winning the GIII Wilshire H. May 9. Tuzla (Panoramic {GB}) defeated males in the GII San Francisco Mile H. Apr. 25.

All carry 128 pounds.

Dansili ran a fine race on only his third lifetime start when a 1 1/2-length runner-up to Sendawar (Ire) in the G1 Dubai Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) at Longchamp May 16, finishing several lengths in front of Way of Light and Indian Danehill, both of whom disappointed in finishing fourth and fifth, respectively, while Le Roi Chic was 13th. English invaders Golden Snake and Slip Stream finished second and third, respectively, in the G2 Dante S. at York May 12, but the latter was making his first start of the year.

The winner of the Hollie Hughes H. for New York-breds in February, Kashatreya was then third in an Aqueduct allowance Apr. 24, but failed to fire over a sloppy Belmont strip May 19 and finished sixth in an allowance won by Master O Foxhounds (Deputy Minister). Rebounding over a fast strip here, the longshot was far back through opening fractions of :21.55 and :44.56, but rallied strongly down the lane to get past favored Artax in the final yards. "I always knew he had the potential to win a race like this," trainer John Hertler said. "He's been a consistent horse, but he's getting even better now."

Yes It's True, fresh from a victory in the GIII Maryland Breeders' Cup H. on May 15, continued his dominance at sprint distances with this win. The bay colt pressed the pace, then took over in the stretch to hold off the late-charging Lion Hearted and Silver Season. Jockey Jerry Bailey said, "He always has another gear when he's collared. I'm looking forward to the big sprint races down the line." Trainer D Wayne Lukas agreed. "This horse is really getting good. He's tough when he runs in that six-furlong to one-mile range."

The mare turned the tables here, getting off slowly, settling midpack and angling to the outside to score with a game, late run to just nip her contenders. Spook Express had nine wins in 10 lifetime starts, but couldn't keep up in this spot, tiring badly to finish sixth.

 Comic Strip never fired last time out as the luke-warm favorite in the GIII Fort Marcy H. at Aqueduct on May 8. The colt fell victim to a soft turf and slow pace while rating that day, and never had a chance to make a run when pinched between rivals and finished a uninspiring seventh. Going the extra sixteenth here, the bay again rated well off the pace, came wide around the second turn and hunted down his rivals with a strong stretch drive to get up.

New York State Assembly Bliking TVG in New York:

The Chairman of the New York State Assembly Racing and Wagering Committee has taken to steps to thwart TVG from setting up shop in New York. In a letter Chairman Alexander J. Gromack sent to New York State Attorney General Eliot Spitzer, Gromack suggests that existing racing legislation in New York should be changed in ways that would prohibit TVG from conducting telephone wagering within the state. "The industry within this state has expressed a very real fear to me that the transmission of pictures of unlimited out-of-state races into homes of New Yorkers would create a substantial incentive to bettors here to open accounts with out-of-state telephone wagering operators," Gromack wrote. The six OTB franchises in New York state are believed to be behind Gromack's push to keep TVG out.

Banshee Breeze had been impressive in her two starts this year, with victories in the GI Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn in April and the GII Rampart H. at Gulfstream in her Feb. 28 seasonal bow. The 1998 champion three-year-old filly remained undefeated following her win here, but felt the effects of her layoff with this hard-fought score. The heavy 1-5 chalk raced closed to the pace while three wide, then moved up to challenge and gain the lead in the upper stretch and was all out to get by the game pacesetter Silent Eskimo. Silent Eskimo won the GII Louisville Breeders' Cup H. at Churchill in her most recent start and prior to that had run third in the Apple Blossom.

Anguilla has been tough since they put her on the turf. The filly went four-for-five on the surface last season, ending the campaign with a win in the Gill Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill Nov. 21. She came back after a four-month break to be second in the Hialeah Breeders' Cup H. Mar. 27, then added a win in the Gill Black Helen H. over that course Apr. 10. Odds-on to take another, the bay rated well off the early pace, saved ground around the final turn, then swung out for the stretch drive to take the lead late and draw clear. Having won both the G3 Prix Saint-Georges and this race last year, Sainte Marine reappeared in this year's renewal of the Prix Saint-Georges May 16, but was badly in need of the race and didn't give a true performance, finishing sixth in the Longchamp fixture. Showing the benefit of that run, she led at the halfway and surged clear for a very impressive victory. Winning trainer Robert Collet said, "I don't really know the reason for her bad race at Longchamp. We had tried a new bit on that occasion and maybe it didn't work or perhaps something else happened. We now have many options for her next run, possibly Royal Ascot and the [G2] King's Stand S. [June 18] or the [G1] July Cup at Newmarket [July 8]. Prix de Royaumont cont.

Having finished runner-up to the Vodafone Oaks fourth, Sunday Picnic (Jpn), in the G3 Prix Cleopatre at Saint-Cloud May 10, Side Saddle was entitled to enter this race with strong claims. She did not let her supporters down with a good turn of foot inside the final furlong to finally get the better of long-time leader White Star Line close to home. Trainer David Smaga indicated that Side Saddle's next run will be in the G2 Prix de Malleret at Longchamp June 27.

Margins: NK, 1 1/4, 3/4. Odds: 5-2, 2-1, 6-1.

This was a welcome stakes winner for Irish trainer Tommy Stack, who is still recovering from a serious illness sustained during the winter. On her only previous start this season, Antinnaz had finished a close third to Immovable Option (Ire) in the Listed Cork S. May 1. Racing in third while Jocasta (Warning {GB}) led from Pipalong, she came to challenge a furlong out and finished strongly to win more easily than the official margin suggests. Tommy Stack was not able to be present, but his son James said, "That will have cheered him up. We'll find another Listed race like this for her or a Group 3 at home. She's improved a lot."
