SUCCESSFUL SURGERY FOR CHARISMATIC

After a 2 1/2-hour surgery, Dr. Stephen J. Selway emerged to report his patient, Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Charismatic (Summer Squall), will be "just fine." The colt, injured during a third-place finish in Saturday's Belmont S., had four screws inserted in his left fetlock joint to repair a condylar fracture. "It was not the worst injury of this kind I've ever seen, but it was a nasty one and certainly not an average one," Selway said yesterday. "What happens usually with these is that the fracture spirals to the front; this one spiraled to the back." The veterinarian added, "Let me say that this (fetlock) join was pristine. There was no evidence of any pre-existing condition." Selway believes the condylar fracture happened first, perhaps in the final furlong of the 1 1/2-mile race. Then, "as the horse went on, the damaged piece hit the sesamoids and caused them to fracture. The sesamoids are the reason this horse won't race again." Meanwhile, Belmont S. victor Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo) was resting up in his stall yesterday after Saturday's win. "He's fine, but he's tired," said Randy Schulhofer, assistant to his father Scotty. "A mile and a half is a long way to go. He ate all his feed last night and this morning, and came out with no problems other than just being tired." The younger Schulhofer said plans call for Lemon Drop Kid to remain in light training and then to be pointed towards the GII Jim Dandy at Saratoga Aug. 8 and the GI Travers on Aug. 28. Trainer Bill Mott said the Travers would also be the long-term goal of Belmont runner-up Vision and Verse (Storm Cat). The Jim Dandy-Travers route is also the one tentatively mapped out for the Nick Zito-trained Stephen Got Even (A.P. Indy), fifth in the Belmont. Champion filly Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) was en route to Churchill Downs yesterday morning. Trainer Bob Baffert listed the July 10 GII Monmouth Breeders' Cup Oaks as a possible next start for the Belmont's seventh-place finisher.

A surprise second at even money in the G1 Prix Lupin at Longchamp May 16, was avenged in breathtaking manner as Montjeu stole away with France's premier Classic. Having lost his unbeaten record to Gracioso on unsuitably fast ground, Montjeu found the underfoot conditions to his liking as he gave Cash Asmussen his fourth French Derby winner this decade and provided trainer John Hammond with his second win in the race. Nowhere To Exit raced straight into a two-length lead and still led as the field turned for home, but Montjeu appeared on the scene going extremely well at the two-furlong marker. Once Asmussen pressed the button 1 1/2 furlongs out, the reaction from Montjeu was immediate as he accelerated clear for an easy win. A beaming Michael Tabor explained why the winner raced here instead of at Epsom, "I think it's better playing at home rather than away. After speaking to John Hammond, we decided that this was the place to come and it has been proven correct. We could go for the Irish Derby or the Arc, but he is a horse that will improve in time." Cash Asmussen added, "We came across very firm ground last time, but he didn't know how to fight, I had always won easily on him. The other day he learned something, and instead of laying down, he rose up today and did what he can do."

Tranquility Lake started the year with a fourth-place finish in the GII La Canada over the main track, then switched to the turf to win a Mar. 7 optional claimer and the Apr. 17 GII Santa Barbara H. Off since that effort, the filly was favored in the short field of five here. She sprinted out to the early lead, turned back the challenge of Midnight Line at the top of the stretch and finished as much the best under a hand ride. "This filly has been training very freaky," said winning trainer Julio Canani. "She does everything right. This filly was a good filly when she was three, she was a good filly before she ever ran. The older she's getting, she's beginning to do things better." Winning rider Eddie Delahoussaye added, "Two races back, I was strangling her and she was on the lead and she still won easily. After the race, I told Julio, 'Next time, we'll just let her go and I think she'll relax,' and he just said, 'Do what you want.' And that's what I did, and she got a mile and quarter that day, easy."

Golden Snake, winner of the Listed Fielden S. at Newmarket Apr. 15 and runner-up to Salford Express (Ire) in the G2 Dante S. at York May 12, confirmed superiority over Slip Stream, who finished behind him at York, with a battling victory here. Settled in second as Slip Stream led, Golden Snake was always moving well in ground conditions to his liking. Turning into the straight, Slip Stream still led his rivals a merry dance, but was challenged for the lead by Golden Snake at the quarter-mile marker. Slip Stream rallied to go into a definite lead once more 1 1/2 furlongs out but he found an equally game rival in Golden Snake, who was ridden to lead 100 yards from the finish. Slip Stream could give no more as Golden Snake extended a neck in advance at the finish. Winning trainer Barry Hills said, "He had to dig deep today and got a bit tired so my son Michael had to switch his whip. He needed the extra stamina here, but would ideally like better ground. We now have to know where to go next with him. It might be the G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp June 27, but we would have to supplement him and it is too early to decide."

After Hamond had been scratched in the morning due to the prevalent conditions, only five went to the post for the meeting's highlight. Tiger Hill was made the strong favorite and made much of the running, setting a moderate pace with Caitano the backmarker. The order remained constant until the field turned into the straight, where Tiger Hill increased the pace, trying to get clear and March Groom continued to run well on the inside. It was Caitano, on the outside, who suddenly came with a quick burst of speed to challenge Tiger Hill, who fought back gamely, but yielded late.

*Sole Che Sorgi (Ire) (Dancing Dissident) finished second, but was disqualified to fourth for bumping Martino Alonso in the closing stages.

Another successful raid on his homeland by Newmarket trainer Luca Cumani, whose Stanott has made steady progress from the handicap ranks in England. Premio Parioli (Italian 2000 Guineas) winner Alabama Jacks (Magical Wonder) set a strong pace from Martino Alonso, the pair going well clear of German challenger Accento. Alabama Jacks fell away early in the straight, but Martino Alonso and Accento quickened at the quarter-mile mark, hotly pursued by Sole Che Sorgi (Dancing Dissident) and Stanott, who was racing along the rails and looking for an opening. Accento grabbed the lead at the furlong marker, but he was swallowed up by both Sole Che Sorgi and Stanott, with the latter proving the stronger in the finish. The stewards subsequently held an inquiry and made the controversial decision to disqualify Sole Che Sorgi for bumping Martino Alonso in the closing stages.

Magic Millions Sale Today:

A significantly improved catalogue and growing buyer acceptance of the idea of a late-season sale is likely to translate into a positive Magic Millions Select Yearling Sale today in Australia. "People like the idea of buying a yearling now, breaking it in in July and racing by October. And for buyers not willing or able to purchase a yearling earlier in the year, there was nowhere to go until this sale kicked off last year," said Magic Millions General Manager David Chester. Last year, AUS$4.3 million (US$2.8 million) was paid out with an average price of AUS$21,260 ($13,740).

Perfect Sting won the Green River S. over the Keeneland lawn in her final start at two and won in her 1999 debut, taking a Gulfstream allowance by 2 1/2 lengths. She struck the win column again with a pace-prompting victory against her elders at Belmont May 22 in her first start for trainer Joe Orseno. Perfect Sting broke in stride and jockey Pat Day was content to lay second behind a sensible pace set by Belle Cherie (Belong To Me) for the opening six panels. She advanced with no encouragement to challenge for the lead at the top of the stretch, took over at the eighth pole and won comfortably. Though she has been in his barn only a few weeks, Orseno likes what he has seen. "She's just been doing everything right. She's filled out and has put some weight on. We were concerned that she may have tired in that last race, but she seems to have improved."

A $75,000 claim last September at Saratoga, License Fee has been a very consistent performer since. Third in the GIII Bed O' Roses Breeders' Cup at Aqueduct in April, she returned to take an overnight handicap May 1, before reporting home fifth in the GII Genuine Risk H. at Belmont May 15. Away smartly, License Fee raced up with the pace while in between rivals around the turn, then dug in and survived a head-and-head battle with Snit through the final eighth to gut out the victory.

Saralea, trained in her native France by David Smaga, won the Listed Cirterium EBF S. at two and was third in the G3 Prix Vanteaux last April, but scored her first victory in 21 months in her American debut at Aqueduct May 22, closing to win by 1 1/4 lengths over a soft turf course. The second choice to go back to back was never far from the lead as she raced towards the back of a well-bunched six-pack for the opening three quarters. The bay was sent wide around horses entering the stretch and drew off with authority down the lane for the victory.

7th-BEL, $45,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m, 1:50 1/5, ft. QUAKER RIDGE (c, 3, Forty Niner--Twilight Ridge {GISW, $743,083}, by Cox's Ridge), off the track for much of his two-year-old season after a winning debut last May, returned to the races this year with off-the-board finishes at Fair Grounds and Gulfstream and improved with two runner-up finishes against Kentucky allowance company in April before breaking through with a 7 3/4-length win May 14 at Belmont. The 2-5 favorite to make it two in a row, the colt set a pressured pace, drew clear in the stretch and held on late for a half-length tally. The winner is a half brother to Daylight Ridge (Dayjur, MSW, $177,695) and La Rosa (Wild Again), GSW, $267,194. Lifetime Record: 7-3-2-0, $95,610.

Well-backed to hit the winners' circle in this spot, the $75,000 KEENOV weanling and $150,000 FTSAUG yearling was bumped at the start and attended a moderate pace to the eighth pole before assuming command and stepping away to a two-length victory as the 7-10 pick. Hustled away from the gate, the 1/2 to Forestry (Storm Cat), SW, $151,425, took command early, was asked to quicken at the top of the stretch and blasted through the stretch for a 15 3/4-length success as the 11-10 chalk. It took Nani Rose four tries before hitting the winners' circle for the first time, but when she did, it was with style and authority over the Gulfstream main track Mar. 7 by a whopping 19 3/4 lengths. Third in a main-track allowance two back, she was switched to the infield for the first time in her latest May 20 and she responded with another explosive performance, leading the field wire-to-wire for a 17 1/2-length success. Sent off the narrow favorite in this event, Nani Rose broke alertly again and pulled her way to the lead after a half mile. As the field turned for home, jockey Shane Sellers still had the filly under wraps, with an expanding lead which grew to three lengths by the eighth pole, and Nani Rose had enough left to withstand the late run of Edgewood S. winner Solar Bound for her first stakes and graded stakes victory.

Magicalmysterycat quickly began to justify Padua Stable's $1.1 million investment, winning her first start at Hollywood May 21. Half of the heavily favored entry, the filly duelled for the early lead, opened a two-length advantage in the stretch and held Sweet Defense at bay late. "She broke well and then got bounced around a little bit, but she fought her way through it," said winning rider Chris Antley. "A key was, I got a little breather around the turn and when I called on her, she fired and held the other filly safe. There really wasn't much to it." Magicalmysterycat may start next in the July 5 Gil Landaluce S.
