OBS JUNE SALE SET FOR TODAY The Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's 1999 June Open Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training and Horses of Racing Age will be held today in Florida. Bidding starts at 10:30 a.m. A total of 310 juveniles and 15 older horses have been catalogued. Two-year-olds by such proven sires as Cox's Ridge, Crafty Prospector, Cryptoclearance, Marquetry, Phone Trick, Pine Bluff and Red Ransom will be on offer, as well as the offspring of such promising freshmen as Cherokee Run, DeNiro, Mr. Greeley, Rizzi and Thunder Gulch. Results will be available at the OBS website, www.obssales.com, approximately one hour after the sale's conclusion.

JAKE HOWARD NAMED OJC CHAIRMAN The Ontario Jockey Club yesterday announced the appointment of Jake Howard as OJC Chairman of the Board of Directors. Howard succeeds George M. Hendrie, who passed away last week. A native of South America, the 74-year-old attended high school, Naval College and the University of Toronto in Canada and graduated from Osgoode Hall in 1953. He has owned race horses since 1970. "I've received a lot from horse racing and now I'd like to give something back," he said on accepting the chairmanship.

PASSERO CLAIMS ARABIAN AT DELAWARE PARK Frank Passero, currently the leading trainer at Delaware Park, is branching out. Passero, who set a record last season for most claims at Delaware, claimed an Arabian named Rooster Bw Sunday for $10,000. The six-year-old gelding has earned $60,946. He was claimed for a partnership made up of Three Musketeers, Steven Barberino, Sr. and Passero. "I have always wanted to train an Arabian," the trainer said. "I don't believe there is any real difference (between training Thoroughbreds and Arabians). I think the rule of thumb stands firm that if you keep them happy and keep them fit, they will do the running. The purse structure for Arabians at Delaware Park is very good. We are going to dabble with the Arabs."

CORRECTION: Fighting Falcon (Manila), winner of Saturday's GIII Cinema H. at Hollywood Park, was bred by Dion A. Recachina, and not the estate of W.R. Hawn as reported. We regret the error.

Admire Vega, winner of the G3 Radio Tampa Hai Sansai S. last December, was second in the Mar. 7 G2 Yayoi Sho before finishing sixth in the Apr. 18 G1 Satsuki Sho (Japanese 2000 Guineas) last time out. Settled near the back of the pack early, the colt circled the field at midstretch and just got up in the waning strides to overtake the 2000 Guineas Trial winner Narita Top Road for a narrow victory. With the win, Yutaka Take became the first jockey to take back-to-back Japanese Derbys. "I won the 1993 Oaks and 1000 Guineas with Vega, so it's like a dream to win the Derby aboard her colt," Take said after the race. Scoring his first Derby success, trainer Mitsuru Hashida said, "This colt has a tendency to get very excited, so I had to get him to relax. This was his best race yet and I think he will improve in the future."

Stretching out to a route for the first time in this effort, the slight favorite took up a stalking position in fourth for the opening half mile, angled out three wide for the stretch run and was along in time for the victory.

Also ran: One Won One (Ire), Rolo Tomasi (Ire), Black Rock Desert, Shallow Ground (Ire).

The winner of the Listed Achilles S. at Kempton May 22, British-trained Proud Native kept on a roll to record his first pattern race win here. It was a notable success for the trainer/jockey, husband/wife combination of David "Dandy" Nicholls and Alex Greaves, making their trip across the Irish Sea a worthwhile venture. Proud Native was restrained at the rear as Carhue Lass led on the far side, with Sharp Catch on even terms ploughing a lonely furrow on the stand-side rail. The odds-on favorite Black Rock Desert (Danzig) was positioned in sixth by Michael Kinane, a placing he was never to improve during the course of the race. Ridden along at the halfway, Proud Native closed to within two lengths of Carhue Lass entering the final furlong and, under tender driving from Britain's top female jockey, ran on well to lead inside the last 50 yards for a cozy win. Carhue Lass held second from Sharp Catch despite the pair being split by the width of the track.

Aidan O'Brien kept up his superb juvenile strike when sending out the debutant Monashee Mountain to win a stakes in his career debut. Knowing his job from the gate, the colt broke smartly and settled in second as outsider Misty Peak (Ire) (Sri Pekan) set a good pace, with Galloway Boy (Ire) (Mujtahid) in third, Appalachia fourth and Yara restrained in the rear. Ridden much the same way as most of the O'Brien two-year-olds, Monashee Mountain was guided into the lead by Michael Kinane approaching the final quarter. From there he was ridden into a race-winning position and kept on resolutely to record a comfortable, if not spectacular, victory. Yara ran on best of the remainder to snatch second, her fourth in four starts, from Appalachia in the last few strides.

Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum's colt, who is currently standing at the owner's Derrinstown Stud in Ireland, won the Doncaster's Champagne S. as a juvenile, but an injury limited his future racing career. He is out of Wasnah (Nijinsky II), also the dam of dual Group 1 winner Bahri (Riverman). John Thompson, who is bringing the stallion to New Zealand with Alan Galbraith, said, "Bahhare is from an internationally proven sire-producing family and he acted on firm ground for his two-year-old wins, which is important under Australasian conditions."

BELMONT S.-GI, $1,000,000, BEL, 6-5, 3yo, 1 1/2m, 2:27 4/5, ft.

1--LEMON DROP KID, 126, c, 3, by Kingmambo

1st Dam: Charming Lassie, by Seattle Slew

2nd Dam: Lassie Dear, by Buckpasser

3rd Dam: Gay Missile, by Sir Gaylord

Charismatic took the honors in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, but not the most glittering prize in American racing when he limped home only third in the Belmont S. Under the cruel circumstances, it was small consolation that the last leg of the Triple Crown underlined the power of his bloodlines, with victory going to Lemon Drop Kid, a colt who shares the same second dam, Lassie Dear, as Charismatic's sire Summer Squall.

The Belmont also acted as a warning to buyers not to ignore May foals. Several of the candidates had May birthdates, with the winner being born as late as May 26. I can't help thinking that Lemon Drop Kid would have cost Laddie Dance more than $200,000 at the Keeneland September Sale had he been born three months earlier, because two colts from Kingmambo's 1996 crop which were born around the beginning of March were sold for $350,000 in 1997.

Fortunately, Lemon Drop Kid's foaling date hasn't compromised his racing career. He matured quickly enough to win at Saratoga and revealed his true worth for the first time when he wore down Yes It's True to take the GI Futurity S. "The Kid" also stayed on into second place in the GI Champagne S., but I'm not sure I would have predicted then that he'd one day be suited by 1 1/2 miles.

Kingmambo was considered a miler pure and simple in Europe. His juvenile career established his toughness and precocity, but also hinted strongly that he didn't quite have the ability to match his immaculate pedigree.

However, he proved a very different colt at three, when he inflicted the first defeat on Zafonic in the Prix Djebel before going on to record Group 1 victories in the French 2000 Guineas, St. James's Palace S. and Prix du Moulin de Longchamp.

Appropriately, the Moulin also ranked as one of the 10 Group 1 races that Kingmambo's brilliant dam, Miesque, won at around a mile.

With Mr. Prospector as his sire, there was no reason to expect Kingmambo to stay much beyond a mile, but there was every reason to expect him to make a very good stallion. The fact that he has better front legs than many of Mr. Prospector's sons simply added to his enormous appeal. For a while it looked as though he was destined for Japan, but Will Farish, a long-time business associate of the Niarchos family, secured him for Lane's End and it looks as though Japan's loss is very much the U.S.'s gain.

In assessing Kingmambo's stallion career, it musn't be forgotten that he had a comparatively small first crop of around 40 foals, a substantial number of which were exported to Japan. It was El Condor Pasa, one of the exports, who put Kingmambo on the map by winning the NKH Mile Cup and the Japan Cup.

That Japan Cup win demonstrated Kingmambo's ability to get horses which stay a good deal further than a mile, and so too did the stakes victories of Parade Ground (Gill Lawrence Realization H. over 1 1/2 miles) and Seignorial (Prix Scaramouche over 1 7/8 miles). Another first-crop son, American Odyssey, was third in the Gill Palm Beach S. Seattle Slew provides a link between Lemon Drop Kid, American Odyssey and El Condor Pasa, as he's responsible for the dams of the first two and for the second dam of El Condor Pasa.

Lemon Drop Kid's dam, Charming Lassie, won over six furlongs on her only appearance at three, but she is a three-parts sister to the 1992 Belmont S. winner A.P. Indy (by Seattle Slew out of Lassie Dear's daughter Weekend Surprise).

Seattle Slew, of course, took the Belmont in 1977 to complete the Triple Crown, so he stayed well and so, too, did Buckpasser, the stallion responsible for the outstanding Lassie Dear. Magnificently versatile, Buckpasser numbered the Lawrence Realization (13 furlongs) and the Jockey Club Gold Cup (two miles) among his 25 wins.
