HARLOW NAMED SANTA ANITA DIRECTOR OF RACING Michael Harlow has been named director of racing and racing secretary at Santa Anita Park, replacing Thomas Robbins. Harlow, currently director of racing and racing secretary at Turf Paradise, will begin his duties in mid-July. Current Santa Anita Racing Secretary Thomas Knust is also departing the track, with his and Robbins' positions being combined into one post. Prior to Turf Paradise, Harlow worked in racing offices at Santa Anita, Del Mar and Hollywood Park. Robbins will continue to serve as director of racing at Del Mar.

GABRIEL REJOINS ARLINGTON Frank Gabriel, Jr. has rejoined Arlington International Racecourse as vice president of racing operations. "Frank has joined us now to help us rebuild our organization and develop plans to bring live racing back in 2000," said Scott Mordell, Arlington chief executive officer. Gabriel has been serving as director of racing for the New York Racing Association for the last two seasons. Before that, Gabriel had served as vice president of racing operations at Arlington in 1997 and as Arlington's racing secretary from 1990 through 1996.

FASIG-TIPTON CATALOGS 231 Fasig-Tipton has catalogued 231 yearlings for its 79th annual auction of selected yearlings at Saratoga Springs, New York on Aug. 10-12. Each of the three evening sessions begins at 8 p.m. Sires represented by yearlings in the sale include Mr. Prospector, Danzig, Deputy Minister, Storm Cat, Silver Deputy, Wild Again and A. P. Indy. "Our Saratoga sale is always noted for its sire power and this year it is exceptionally strong," said Fasig-Tipton President Walt Robertson. Catalogs are now available on-line at www.fasigtipton.com.

2--Invermark (GB), 128, g, 5, Machiavellian--Applecross (GB), by Glint Of Gold (GB). O/B-Sir David Wills; $71,635.

3--Kayf Tara (GB), 128, h, 5, Sadler's Wells--Colorspin (GB), by High Top (Ire). ($327,600 yrl '95 TAHOU). O-Godolphin; B-Meon Valley Stud; $34,615.

Margins: 1HF, 2HF, 1 3/4. Odds: 20-1, 8-1, 7-1.

Also ran: Celeric (GB), Nedawi (GB), Three Cheers (Ire), Shaya (GB), Spirit of Love, Katun (Fr), Rainbow High (GB), Churlish Charm (GB), Persian Punch (Ire), Solo Mio (Ire), Sibling Rival, Athenry (GB), Laurentide, Tajoun (Fr).

The Aga Khan and trainer John Oxx have targeted this race since Enzeli ran fourth to Kayf Tara in the G1 Irish St. Leger in September. The colt has had two starts since, winning a Leopardstown handicap in November and the Listed Saval Beg S. at the same track May 19. Carrying the Aga's famous alternative colors of green and chocolate hoops and a chocolate cap, which were carried to victory by his sire Kahyasi (Ire) in the 1988 Epsom Derby, Enzeli was a most impressive winner. Solo Mio (Sadler's Wells) set a good pace from the outset and still had the call five furlongs out. With three furlongs to run, Kayf Tara began to challenge for the lead as Enzeli ran through smoothly to make his bid. The victor quickened away from his rivals 1 1/2 furlongs out and stayed on resolutely for a clear win, while Invermark finished strongly on the wide outside to claim second. The Aga Khan, enjoying a dream week after the successes of Daryaba (Ire) in Sunday's G1 Prix de Diane Hermes in France and Sendawar (Ire) in the G1 St. James's Palace S. here Tuesday, said, "Enzeli is on the upgrade and his dam Ebaziya has now bred three Group 1 winners, so the quality was there." Oxx said the July 29 G2 Goodwood Cup or the Oct. 2 G1 Prix du Cadran at Longchamp could be next on tap for Enzeli.

RIBBLESDALE S.-G2, $186,923, Ascot, England, 6-17, 3yo, f, 1 1/2mT, 2:29.87, gd/fm.

3--Alabaq, 126, f, 3, Riverman--Salsabil (Ire), by Sadler's Wells. O-Sheikh Hamdan bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-Shadwell Farm Inc (Ky); $20,769. Margins: 1, 1, NK. Odds: 8-1, 7-2, 8-1.

Also ran: Mistle Song (GB), Gracious Plenty (Ire), Fictitious (GB), Valentine Girl (GB), Oceans Friendly, Comic (Ire), Compton Amica (Ire), Carambola (Ire), Credit-A-Plenty (GB).

Staying was the name of the game here and Fairy Queen was one of the fillies whose stamina had been in doubt, but she proved her detractors wrong, staying on bravely to score for the fourth time in five starts. Winner of both her starts as a juvenile, she made her seasonal debut in the G1 Sagitta 1000 Guineas at Newmarket May 3 and led for six furlongs before fading to finish 10th. A month later, she bounced back to lead from wire-to-wire in the Listed Victress S. at Epsom June 4. Fictitious (Machiavellian) would not settle for Gary Stevens, and after a half-mile had gone into a clear lead with Fairy Queen settled towards the rear. Fictitious still led around the final turn, but was soon swallowed up by the hard-ridden Samoa, with Alabaq appearing to be cruising while Fairy Queen made smooth progress to join the two leaders. Samoa still led entering the final furlong, but Fairy Queen would not be denied, staying on resolutely for the win. "We knew that a mile and a quarter would not present Fairy Queen with a problem, but we didn't know about the mile and a half," said Godolphin Racing Manager Simon Crisford. Trainer Saeed bin Suroor said, "This filly is very relaxed at home, but gets worked up at the races. But she ran very well today. The Guineas distance may have been too short for her and she has certainly liked the mile and a half today."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

CORK & ORRERY S.-G2, $171,474, Ascot, England, 6-17, 3yo/up, 6fT, 1:13.80, gd/fm.

2--Russian Revival, 126, h, 6, Nureyev--Memories, by Hail the Pirates. ($200,000 yrl '94 KEEJUL). O-Sheikh Maktoum bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-Swettenham Stud (Ky); $39,343.

3--Vision Of Night (GB), 119, c, 3, Night Shift--Dreamawhile (GB), by Known Fact. O/B-Hesmonds Stud; $19,071.

Margins: 1 1/4, HF, HF. Odds: 16-1, 13-2, 10-1. Also ran: Superior Premium (GB), Eastern Purple (Ire), Arkadian Hero, Fragrant Oasis, Keos, Monkston Point (Ire), Daylight In Dubai, Bianconi, Easy Dollar (GB), Atlantic Destiny (Ire), Referendum (Ire), Topsy Creek, Wahj (Ire), Bold Fact, Andreyev (Ire), One Won One.

This superb front-running effort gained Bold Edge his first Group race success, which followed a win in the Listed Abernant S. at Newmarket Apr. 13 and a dismal effort in the G3 Duke Of York S. May 13, when he finished only eighth. Smartly away on the outside of the field, Bold Edge was always in command, finding another gear at the furlong marker to go clear and win handsomely. His trainer Richard Hannon, whose stable is on the crest of a wave at present, was grateful for the fast ground. "This ground is vital for him, he just has to have it on top, and in fact, the firmer the better. He has blistering speed when things are right for him." Quizzed about the horse's failure at York, he continued, "He got very upset in the stalls before the race and could never get into the race, and anyway it was much too soft for him that day." Russian Revival's trainer John Gosden felt that the six furlongs was just too short for his horse. "Ascot should put on a 6 1/2-furlong race for him," he joked. "He wants 6 1/2 furlongs or an easy seven, this six is just a shade too short for him, but he ran a great race. He will now go for the [G1] Prix Maurice de Gheest over 6 1/2 furlongs at Deauville [Aug. 8]. Being a good-looking son of Nureyev and a horse who never runs a bad race, he should have a great future as a stallion next year."

3--Asanovo, 124, c, 2, Nureyev--Golden Darling, by Slew o'Gold. O-Michael Tabor & Sue Magnier; B-Mr & Mrs John C Mabee (Ky); $9,744.

Margins: 3/4, 1, HF. Odds: 7-2, 3-1, 11-2.

Also ran: Lord Pacal (Ire), Presentation (Ire), Boleyn Castle, Shinbone Alley (GB), Travesty Of Law (Ire), Alfie Lee (Ire), Molly Brown (GB), Hammer And Sickie (Ire), Barringer (Ire), Smart Ridge (GB).

The betting suggested that Warm Heart and Victory Day would dominate this event and so it proved, with the former, winner of a June 2 Newcastle maiden in his only other start, gaining the day. Always in the front rank, Victory Day grabbed the lead two furlongs out with Warm Heart close up on the outside. While Victory Day was hard-riden to maintain his advantage entering the final furlong, Warm Heart always appeared to have his measure, cruised up to take the lead inside the final furlong and was ridden out hands and heels to score comfortably, persuading bookmakers to quote him as a 40-1 shot for next year's 2000 Guineas. Winning trainer John Gosden said, "I was a little worried about the ground as horses by Diesis tend to do better when it is softer. I told [jockey] Frankie [Dettori] to tuck in behind either Victory Day or Asanovo, but he told me they went so fast that he couldn't do that. This is a lovely horse and I'll freshen him up and bring him back for the [G2] Richmond S. at Goodwood [July 28]."

8 (8)	Peshtigo (Kris S.)	B Hills
9 (7)	Red Sea (GB) (Barathea {Ire})	Cole
10 (1)	Yaralino (GB) (Caerleon)	Cecil

All carry 120 pounds.

Ladbrokes' Odds: 10-3 Housemaster; 9-2 Manndar; 4-1 Mutafaweq; 6-1 Yaralino; 10-1 Iscan, Markan; 11-1 Peshtigo, Red Sea; 12-1 Dehoush; 14-1 High King.

This race is traditionally seen as the consolation Derby and, provided his exertions haven't taken too much out of him, Derby fourth Housemaster can prove that it is just that. He had previously been disqualified after winning the G3 Chester Vase May 4. Peshtigo, a length behind Housemaster, benefited from that stewards-room decision with subsequent Derby Italiano second Iscan 1 1/2 lengths back in fourth. Markan, reputedly Paul Cole's best three-year-old earlier this year, was thought to have disappointed when fourth to Golden Snake, Gold Academy and Housemaster in the Listed Fielden S. at Newmarket Apr. 15, but the form has a very solid look to it.

Today, Royal Ascot:

Royal Anthem disappointed as the favorite in the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf at Churchill Downs last November, but had previously shown he is of the highest caliber when winning the G1 Canadian International at Woodbine Oct. 18. He ran second to Daylami (Ire) in the G1 Coronation Cup at Epsom June 4. John Dunlop saddles both Rabah and Sadian, and with Rabah likely to force the pace, Sadian can put his ample stamina to good use. He certainly has a chance of making the frame, but may lack the necessary speed to trouble Royal Anthem.

17 (1)	Flanders (Ire) (Common Grounds {GB})	T Easterby	119
18 (9)	Inya Lake (GB) (Whittingham {Ire})	Channon	119

Ladbrokes' Odds: 3-1 Lochangel; 7-2 Lujain, Sainte Marine; 7-1 Lavery; 12-1 Rambling Bear; 14-1 Deadly Nightshade; 16-1 Sheer Viking; 22-1 Almaty; 25-1 Lady Alexander, Tadeo, Tedburrow; 33-1 Cortachy Castle, Flanders, Mitcham; 40-1 Blue Melody, Repertory; 100-1 Inya Lake; 150-1 Trinity.

Sainte Marine displayed consistency at the highest level last season and proved she is one of the best sprinters in Europe on her last start when cruising to an effortless victory in the G2 Prix du Gros-Chene at Chantilly June 5. She was beaten by Lochangel in the G1 Nunthorpe S. at York last August, but over this furlong shorter trip she can reverse those placings. Lochangel was most recently second in the G2 Temple S. May 31. Lavery, winner of the G1 Heinz 57 Phoenix S. at Leopardstown last August as a juvenile, showed that sprinting is his game when landing the Shergar Cup Sprint at Goodwood May 8 on his first start this year.

NYRA STEWARDS ISSUE MORE FINES The New York Racing Association stewards issued more fines yesterday for Saturday's jockey's room rumble, fining John Velazquez and Jose Espinoza $250 each. Mike Smith, another involved in the fracas, was not penalized. Following Saturday's fourth race, Velazquez and Smith became upset with Espinoza, who they felt had ridden recklessly when drifting out nearing the quarter pole. Those three began to argue following the race and Shane Sellers tried to intervene. According to the stewards, Sellers punched Smith, and Espinoza and Velazquez also traded punches. "We didn't fine Smith because he wasn't a party to it," steward John Joyce explained.

LEWISES NAMED TOBA OWNERS OF THE MONTH Bob and Beverly Lewis have been named May Owners of the Month by the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association after the couple's Charismatic won the Kentucky Derby and Preakness. "We're honored," said Bob Lewis. "And I'll have to admit that the month of May was spectacular for us." The Lewises, who have been in the Thoroughbred business for almost 10 years, have also campaigned graded-stakes winners Exploit, Hennessy, Serena's Song, Silver Charm and Timber Country.

Behrens Plans Up in the Air:

Trainer Jim Bond reported yesterday that he's likely to run Behrens (Pleasant Colony) next in the July 5 GII Suburban H. at Belmont. Bond is also considering the June 27 GI Hollywood Gold Cup. "Personally, I'm leaning toward the Suburban," Bond said. "I'd like to go a mile and a quarter and I'm not sure I want to ship him back and forth across the country. I don't think that's in his best interests." Bond said his final decision will come some time after Behrens works Monday. He added that the horse worked last Monday, going six furlongs in 1:14, but the move was not recorded by track clockers. "Right now, this horse is doing fantastic," Bond added.

Yesterday's Results:

1--GATHER THE DAY, 116, f, 3, Dayjur--Gather the Clan (Ire) {GSW, $232,748}, by General Assembly. O-Kathy Jo Stable; B-A Lakin & Sons, Inc (KY);

T-John C Kimmel. Lifetime Record: 4-4-0-0, $97,200.

2--Pentelis, 121, m, 5, Pentelicus--Open Marriage, by Deputy Minister.

3--Strong Little Girl, 121, f, 4, Wolf Power (SAf)--Sharp Little Girl, by Pontoise.

Margins: 3 1/4, 2HF, 2 3/4. Odds: 0.35, 35.00, 4.60.

Gather the Day continued her smooth march through her conditions with this win. After breaking her maiden at Gulfstream on Valentine's Day, the dark bay shipped up to win an Aqueduct allowance Apr. 14. In her most recent start she scored by an easy 4 3/4 lengths at Belmont May 29. The 1-5 chalk prompted the pace, then drew off at will and was ridden out at the wire.

Perkins Sr. Retires from Training:

Ben Perkins Sr. has decided to retire as a trainer at the end of June to take over as racing manager of Ebby Novak's New Farm. However, the 66-year-old conditioner will continue to run Erlton in his name through the MATCH series races. Owners and trainers who have the highest point totals in the MATCH series are eligible for bonus money. Erlton has already compiled nine points in the series. Among the graded-stakes winners Perkins trained were Conveyor and Confide.

NTRA Closes Atlanta Office:

The Atlanta, Georgia office of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association will close effective Friday, June 25. Greg Avioli, senior vice president-business affairs, will relocate to the company's Lexington, Kentucky office. Commissioner Tim Smith will divide his time between the NTRA's Lexington and New York offices until a decision is reached on the NTRA's official headquarters. "This change allows us to consolidate our operations, with membership development and services in Kentucky and advertising, finance and communications in New York," Smith said.

NTRA Assigned Licensing Rights to Guild Members:

The Jockeys' Guild has come to an agreement with the National Thoroughbred Racing Association, giving NTRA Properties the exclusive licensing and merchandising rights to the Guild's members. NTRA Properties will be able to use the names and likenesses of the more than 1,140 riders who are a part of the Guild on a variety of merchandise, including apparel, games and novelties. "Other sports have helped their athletes achieve super-star status through well-executed marketing and merchandising programs," said Tim Smith, commissioner of the NTRA. "Our intention is to promote our human athletes--jockeys--and get them the recognition they so well deserve."
