YAGLI TO KING GEORGE Barring any unforeseen setbacks, Yagli (Jade Hunter) will make his next start in the July 24 G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot, trainer Bill Mott confirmed yesterday. Jerry Bailey will ride. "We're going in that direction. We want to give it a try," Mott said. "Of course, he still has to be coming up to it well. But if he trains up to the race well, that's our decision, to go." Mott said Yagli will ship to England about a week before the race and will be stabled at the racecourse. "It would be a real feather in our cap to win it," Mott said. "There's not much in the U.S. this summer that we'd be missing and we'd be going for a purse that's nearly $1 million. It's a very prestigious race and we should be meeting the best turf horses in the world." The King George is the first race in the nine-race international Emirates World Series Racing Championship (EWSRC), which offers a $1 million bonus. Mott hasn't set a schedule beyond the King George, knowing that it may take the horse some time to recover from the trip. He added that his only major goal for the rest of the year will be the Breeders' Cup Turf (also an EWSRC race) and that he may look for one or two prep races in between. Yagli has raced sparingly this year, starting twice and winning twice. He captured the June 5 G1 Manhattan H. at Belmont Park in his last appearance.

CHARISMATIC ON THE MEND Nearly two weeks after surgery to repair his fractured left front cannon bone, Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner Charismatic (Summer Squall) is doing well at trainer D. Wayne Lukas' Belmont Park barn. "He's a very good patient," Lukas said yesterday. "He's doing better than we could have hoped for. He's bearing weight on that leg very well. Dr. (Stephen) Selway did a hell of a job putting him back together. He was brilliant." The three-year-old has been taken off all medication, but will remain in his stall for at least 60 days. "He's not showing stress at all from the whole deal," Lukas said. "He's stabilized well. The most critical point is far behind us."

Impressive winning the Oaklawn Breeders' Cup H. back in March, Sister Act went on to be second to champion Banshee Breeze in the GI Apple Blossom H. in Hot Springs Apr. 9 and finished just a half-length behind Catinca after setting the pace in the GII Shuvee H. last out May 22. The crowd expected her to turn the tables on that rival this time and she did not let them down, setting an honest pace and holding Beautiful Pleasure at bay in a game effort. "They pressed us much harder in the Shuvee than they did here," winning trainer Jeff Jacobs said. "They let her get loose. When they're chasing her, they're going to get beat." As for the future, Jacobs said, "She's not the greatest summer horse. We were lucky it was cool up here for a week. We'll go to Saratoga and see how she trains. She'll probably run in the Go for Wand (GI, Aug. 7)." Second choice Catinca, looking for her third in a row, made a move on the turn, but flattened out in the drive and came home a well-beaten third. "She didn't fire her best shot," jockey Richie Migliore said. "If she ran an 'A' race last time, I would grade her performance as a 'C' today." Both Beautiful Pleasure and Catinca are also expected for the Go for Wand.

CORRECTION: Fruits of Love (Hansel), winner of Friday's G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot, was a $70,000 weanling at the 1995 Keeneland November Sale.

Dark Moondancer (Anshan {GB}), who joined trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre's stable over the winter, has progressed dramatically, winning the G2 Prix d'Harcourt and the G1 Prix Ganay, and will start a luke warm favourite. Ungaro (Goofalik), winner of this race last year with March Groom (Runaway Groom) third, was scratched at the starting gate for the G2 Premio Ellington in Rome May 29 after appearing to be lame, but is the one for the favourite to fear most. Make No Mistake (Darshaan {GB}) travels from Ireland after finishing a good third in the G1 Tattersalls Gold Cup at The Curragh May 23, his only start this term, and will relish the fast ground here.

Excellent Meeting (General Meeting), off since an abortive attempt in the May 15 GI Preakness S., returns as the heavy favorite. The bay edged stablemate Tout Charmant (Slewvescent) by a neck in the Mar. 14 Santa Anita Oaks before taking the Apr. 2 GII Fantasy S. at Oaklawn. Dianehill (Danehill) seeks her first stakes victory after finishing second in the May 22 GII Railbird S. at Hollywood and a close third in the Apr. 23 GIII Senorita S. on the turf. Olympic Charmer (Olympio) outfinished Dianehill in the Railbird in her most recent start, but has yet to carry her speed around two turns. She blew out for the race Friday, going a half in :47.

Shires Ende has had an inspired meeting at the Twin Spires. The bay captured the GIII Ashland Mile on Derby Day with a wide rally, then ran fourth while six wide in the Mint Julep H. May 15. Having been forced into overland trips in her last four starts, trainer Richard Scherer breathed a sigh of relief when Shires Ende drew the four hole here. "We thought we [could] get lucky and grab the hedge," he said. "We always seem to go six, seven wide and come up short in races." Luck was with Shires Ende as she saved ground early, angled out for room in upper stretch and finished with a rush to get up just in time. The July 17 River Downs Breeders' Cup H. could be next for the filly.

Winner of the G3 Prix de Guiche and runner-up in the G1 Prix Jean Prat at three, Martiniquais came to the U.S. at the end of his four-year-old season and captured the GII San Gabriel H. in December of 1997, but had been held winless since. On the board in two of his three starts during an abbreviated 1998 campaign, he came back after a nine-month layoff to be second by a nose in a Santa Anita allowance Jan. 2, but was out of the money in his last three attempts, most recently running seventh in the GIII Inglewood H. at Hollywood May 16. Trying his luck in Texas as the crowd's choice, the chestnut trailed for six furlongs, but flashed past the field on the far turn to take command at the top of the lane and draw clear.

Crafty Oak now has two straight wins over Highfalutin, having defeated that rival in her most recent start May 15 in the GIII Sixty Sails H. at Hawthorne. The dark bay broke well and settled early before angling out for the drive. Highfalutin set the pace and ran on gamely, but could not hold off the winner. Midwest Report cont. p4

Adcat was beaten only a nose in his last effort, the Kingston H. for New York-breds on the turf at Belmont May 16. Dismissed at odds of 9-1 here, the four-year-old was well off the lead for three-quarters of a mile, came wide with a rally around the turn, closed ground in the middle of the track and hit the wire in front by a head. Hurrahy, part of the favored 9-5 entry, was full of run in the stretch, but was nipped by Adcat's late charge. The local hero, winning jockey Joe Hampshire, commented, "I was lucky. I was fortunate to get the mount and win. The horse was a gentleman and ready for the task. I had a ton of horse."

Yes It's True, a graded-stakes winner in four of his last five appearances, was odds-on against three over-matched rivals here. Coming off wins in the May 15 Gill Maryland Breeders' Cup H., in which he avoided a fan on the track to beat older horses, and in the June 5 Gill Riva Ridge S. facing three-year-olds, the sharp-looking bay battled from between horses through fractions of :21 2/5 and :43 3/5, then left his rivals in the dust, winning easily while taken in hand in the final sixteenth. The colt caused a minus place pool of $25,976.57. "He's about as good a sprinter as I've ever had," said D. Wayne Lukas, who recently became racing's first $200 million man as the only trainer to reach that milestone in earnings. "I don't know if I've ever had a horse this quick. Doneraile Court was an easy winner last time out, cruising to a seven-length tally May 21 at Belmont. The bay had run into tough company with mixed results prior to that victory. On his best days, he won the GIII Nashua at Aqueduct last November, was second in the GIII Holy Bull Jan. 16 at Gulfstream and finished third in the Tampa Bay Derby Mar. 21. He had much less success when beaten handily in the GI Fountain Of Youth Feb. 20 at Gulfstream and the GIII Derby Trial April 24 at Churchill.
