Sunday, Milan, Italy

GRAN PREMIO DI MILANO-G1, $240,840, Milan, Italy, 6-20, 4yo/up, 1 1/2mT, 2:30.80, gd.

1--DARK MOONDANCER (GB), 132, c, 4, by Anshan (GB)

1st Dam: Oh So Well (Ire), by Sadler's Wells

2nd Dam: Soba (GB), by Most Secret (GB)

3rd Dam: Mild Wind (GB), by Porto Bello II (GB)

O-Martyn Arbib; B-Dr Anne Gillespie; T-Alain de Royer-Dupre; J-Gerald Mosse; $122,040.

2--Ungaro (Ger), 132, h, 5, Goofalik--Ustina (Ger), by Star Appeal (Ire). O/B-Gestut Rottgen; $63,072.

3--March Groom, 132, h, 5, Runaway Groom--Marfa's Alibi, by Marfa. ($4,500 2yo '96 OBSAPR). O-Stall Magro; B-Albert P Coppola (Ky); $37,152.

Margins: NO, 3 3/4, SHD. Odds: 3-5, 5-2.

Also ran: Ivan Luis (Fr), Poseidon (GB), Robertico (GB), Make No Mistake (Ire).

Winner of both the G2 Prix d'Harcourt and G1 Prix Ganay this season, the French-trained odds-on favorite Dark Moondancer added a second Group 1 victory to his increasingly impressive portfolio. In a determined effort, he denied the German pair Ungaro, last year's winner of this race, and March Groom. Ungaro set a moderate pace from the outset, but quickened well once into the straight as Dark Moondancer struggled for racing room with March Groom making a bid on the outside. Winning jockey Gerald Mosse found an enticing split between Ungaro and March Groom and his mount readily accepted the invitation to go through, quickening to challenge for the lead. Both he and Ungaro stayed on well all the way to the line and it was Dark Moondancer who held the narrow call at the wire. March Groom rallied to regain third from Ivan Luis (Lycius) who faded in the dying strides. The winner, who was not suited by the lack of pace, will now point to the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot July 24, according to his trainer, Alain de Royer-Dupre.

Sunday, Hollywood Park:

Hoist the Silver. O-Rochelle & Gray; B-Ben Rochelle (IRE); $15,000.

Margins: NK, 3/4, 5. Odds: 0.70, 19.10, 5.00.

Also Ran: Olympic Charmer, Tout Charmant, Hollywood Picture.

Scratched: Gleefully.

Excellent Meeting had a four-race win streak interrupted by a fast-closing fifth-place finish in the Kentucky Derby and was pulled up after having trouble breathing in her last start in the May 15 Preakness. Back against her own sex here, the consistent filly was last early, moved up along the rail down the backstretch, waited for running room turning for home and swung to the outside for a determined stretch run that just got her up in the final strides. "That was heart and determination at the end," said winning trainer Bob Baffert. "If they were going to beat her, today was the day. Now we've got this race into her. We made that move down the backside I knew she was running and looking good. Then she ran into that wall of horses and he (jockey Kent Desormeaux) had to re-start her up again, otherwise he would have been about six wide. We'll run her in the (July 17 GII Hollywood) Oaks next." Of Excellent Meeting's Triple Crown ordeal, Baffert said, "On the Derby, if she would have had the trip, she could have won. She just got beat 2 1/2 lengths with a horrendous trip. The Preakness, she was training great, I think a lot of it, she just got behind there and got all that sand and stuff...I think these fillies, you're better off just taking one shot at it (with the boys) and that's it. Some guy congratulated me coming out of the paddock today. I said, 'For what?' He said, 'For finally finding the right race for her.'"

Margins: (1), (1HF), NO. Odds: 8.90, 1.50, 9.20.

Also Ran: Soverign Lady, License Fee.

*Hurricane Bertie finished first, but was DQ'ed and placed second.

Gold Princess came on to be third in the GII Genuine Risk S. at Belmont May 15, but showed her speed last time, setting the pace before tiring to be third in a seven-furlong Belmont allowance June 6. The crowd's choice, the dark bay raced head-and-head while inside Hurricane Bertie to the stretch, was checked when that rival came in on her during the stretch drive, altered course and was running again at the end, but was a length behind at the finish. "When I set her down for the drive she responded, but Hurricane Bertie shut us off," said jockey John Velazquez. "(Gold Princess') momentum was completely stopped. She deserved to be put up." Hurricane Bertie, coming off a May 22 Churchill allowance tally and the winner of the 1998 GII Prioress S. in her only other appearance at Belmont, was first under the line, but had the win taken away by the stewards. She was placed second.

5th-BEL, $43,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 1 1/16m, 1:41 3/5, ft. PLEASANT BREEZE (c, 4, Pleasant Tap--Sleepy Time, by Turkoman), a 12-length maiden winner in an off-the-turf test at Saratoga last August, had not been out since finishing fourth in a main-track allowance at the Spa Sept. 6. Off at 4-1, the dark bay pressed the pace after a bumpy beginning, moved to the front as they came out of the final turn and held on to win by three-quarters of a length. Lifetime Record: 5-2-1-1, $60,980. O-Clifton W L Jr. B-Masterson Robert (KY). T-H J Bond.

2nd-BEL, $41,000, Msw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16m, 1:43 3/5, ft.

PORTLAOISE (f, 3, Conquistador Cielo--Quarteira, by Vice Regent), a $200,000 KEESEP yearling, finished third after a wide trip going seven furlongs in her career opener at Belmont June 3. Stretching out for her second start, the chestnut was last after a quarter, but rallied to take the lead at the top of the lane and pulled away to a 3 3/4-length victory at 3-1. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $29,000.

Margins: 2, NK, 3/4. Odds: 1.20, 16.80, 6.20.

Also Ran: Chindi, Silver Swinger, Sophisticated Man, Olympio Star, High Stakes Player.

Run Johnny, an allowance winner at Oaklawn in March, had been right there in his last three starts, running second (behind '98 sprint champ Reraise) in the Apr. 8 GIII Count Fleet Sprint H. at Hot Springs and the May 29 J. B. Moseley H. at Suffolk Downs and third in the May 1 GII Churchill Downs H. The favorite to get his first graded win this time, the veteran settled in fifth off a fast pace, drove up to put a head in front at the top of the stretch and pulled away late for a popular victory.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.  Thunder Kitten, winner of the Gill Honey Bee H. on the dirt at the Meadowlands last September, had just two previous starts this season, running fourth in the mud at Keeneland Apr. 3 and winning a Churchill allowance on the grass June 5. The second choice to make it two in a row, the dark bay rated in fourth through the opening fractions, came with her challenge at the top of the lane and outgamed Mocha Mocha to the wire for the narrow score.

 BURN BRIGHTLY (f, 3, American Chance--Handle With third in her latest effort, a Churchill allowance May 27.

 Stakes-placed in her two prior outings, the bay once again cut out the fractions, but this time widened her advantage late to take it by 2 1/4 lengths at 3-1 odds.

 $25,000 in her winning debut May 17. The 4-1 third choice rallied from just off pace at the top of the stretch and opened a two-length advantage before holding off Peekabooblond (Sir Naskra) for a 3/4-

Testafly, the winner of this race last year, tested positive for clenbuterol after finishing third in the GII Iselin H. at Monmouth Park last August, came back to be second in the Polynesian S. at Colonial Downs in September, but finished the season with three straight off-the-board efforts. He had not been out since running seventh in the Dec. 19 Hail Emperor S. at Laurel. Proving fit for his return, the bay was pressured as he set a moderate pace, but opened up six lengths on the field at the head of the stretch and added another six to the margin as he cruised home an easy winner. "I reached back and hit him turning for home and he just exploded," said winning jockey Greg Hutton. "I guess he's back. I was easing him up and he went the last eighth in :12 3/5."

In spite of heavy rains earlier in the week, the course was firm for the 52nd edition of the Naruo Kinen. The field was missing Japanese 1000 Guineas heroine Phalaenopsis (Jpn), who came down with a fever just three days before the race. Suehiro Commander, the second choice of the crowd, settled in sixth early, made up ground on the final bend and took the lead in the stretch, then had just enough left to hold off the fast-closing Tenacious Bio and Stay Gold. The 19-10 favorite Midnight Bet (Housebuster) pressed the pace, but tired and ended up last.

*Welluna (Lagunas {GB}) finished third, but was disqualified to 11th.

Bimbola, unplaced last time out in the G3 Prix Corrida at Lyon May 13, initiated a Gallic double when leading all the way to land her first win of the year and her first stakes since the Listed Prix des Tourelles at Chantilly last September. The pace was typically French, slow in the early part and then sprinting to the finish, as the five-year-old led until quickening well approaching the final furlong to withstand the challenge of the German-trained raiders Win For Us and Welluna. Welluna was, rather curiously, relegated to 11th place after a stewards' inquiry for having bumped two fading opponents in the last 1 1/2 furlongs. Both the favored Lisieux Rose (Generous {Ire}) and Signorina Cattiva (El Gran Senor) stayed on well, but were certainly unsuited by the lack of early pace.

Gestut Auenquelle's homebred Gonlargo was a fast-finishing second in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen at Cologne May 16 and on the basis of that excellent run started as favorite. His supporters had no need to worry as he scored in easy fashion to land his first pattern win. The colt, patiently ridden as Power Flame, winner of last year's G2 Grosse Europcar-Meile, set his customary strong pace in his seasonal debut, then was sent to the front at the quarter-mile marker, running on well for an easy 2 1/2-length win. Power Flame battled on bravely to retain second as Kalatos proved the better in a photo finish to deny the promising El Divino third place. The Irish champion sprinter Big Shuffle has proven a huge success at stud and Gonlargo is his second individual Group winner this season. So far he has had four juvenile runners, with two winners and two seconds.

Worldly Ways, winner of the 1997 GIII Cinema H., captured the Mar. 17 Wearin' of the Green H. over the Bay Meadows turf in his only previous win in five starts this year. Coming off a sixth-place effort over the lawn in the Apr. 25 GII San Francisco Mile, the chestnut was never far back, took a short lead into the stretch and narrowly held off Barter Town in the run to the wire. "This is a really nice horse and I have felt all along that he was more than just a turf horse," commented winning trainer Jerry Hollendorfer. "I was very glad when Mr. Mabee let me talk him into running him in this race on the dirt. It was very important to get a win for this horse."
