ANOTHER TRAGEDY AT BELMONT Just four days after a fire which swept through the barn 8 annex at Belmont Park killed three horses, yet another tragedy cast a pall over Belmont yesterday, this time in the paddock. While in the process of being saddled prior to the running of the GI Mother Goose S., GI Acorn S. winner Three Ring flipped and sustained massive injuries when she hit her head, according to attending veterinarian Dr. Anthony Verderosa. She was immediately euthanized. Owned by Barry K. Schwartz and trained by Florida-based conditioner Eddie Plesa, Three Ring won the GII Davona Dale S. and the GII Bonnie Miss back-to-back in Florida over the winter, before finishing last in the Kentucky Derby after her saddle slipped. Three Ring's career ends with six wins from 10 starts and earnings of $773,440.

PINCAY TOPS IN JOCKEY CHALLENGE The NTRA Jockey Challenge at Lone Star Park Friday evening featured 10 of the best jockeys America has to offer and when the dust settled, it was Laffit Pincay Jr. the winner with a total of 19 points. The Panamanian got off to a flying start when Gold Nugget, his mount in the first of the four challenge races, won by 4 1/2 lengths, earning the veteran 12 points. Pincay easily outdistanced Pat Day, Shane Sellers and Kent Desormeaux, each of whom rode one winner to log 12 points. The veteran in the field of top American riders joins previous winners Gary Stevens (1997) and Shane Sellers (1998).

SPRINT CHAMPION OUT OF TRIPLE BEND Breeders' Cup Sprint champion and Eclipse Award-winning sprinter Reraise (Danzatore) has been withdrawn from this afternoon's GII Triple Bend Breeders' Cup H. at Hollywood Park. "He has a slight strain in the right tendon," said trainer Craig Dollase. "It is very minute, the prognosis is very good for a return. He did it on the track galloping (Friday)."

Manistique has ventured outside of California twice, losing both times to Banshee Breeze by a total of 17 lengths, a 6 1/4-length defeat in the GI Alabama at Saratoga last August as the 1-2 favorite and most recently a 10 3/4-length drubbing in the Apr. 9 G1 Apple Blossom H. at Oaklawn Park, a race in which the 17-hands filly reportedly displaced her palate. Within the confines of California, however, she was a perfect seven-for-seven and has seldom been challenged. Fortunately for new rider Chris McCarron, subbing for Gary Stevens, the Vanity is run at Hollywood Park. Content to let Yolo Lady gallop along to a three-length advantage, McCarron had the homebred in a perfect stalking position just off the rail in the opening stages of the race. Asked to take up the running entering the final turn, Manistique accelerated past Yolo Lady with ease, drawing off with just a few taps of the whip. "(Trainer) John (Shirreffs) brought her over here in absolutely fit condition. She is the kind of horse that gives you the feeling that they've got to be coming because she doesn't feel like she's going that fast. She just has a huge stride, covers so much ground" said McCarron. "And it's a very rhythmic stride, it just doesn't feel like she's going that fast." Runner-up Alex Solis knows how fast Manistique can go. "She is just too much," he said.

Scratched: Three Ring.

Dreams Gallore won the first two starts of her career, before closing out her two-year-old campaign with a solid second-place finish in the Pontalba S. at the Fair Grounds. In her third start of 1999, the bay came from behind to take the Gill Honeybee S., and was third to Excellent Meeting in the Gill Fantasy S. three back. The Asmussen pupil stamped herself a top-five filly in her next two starts, when second by two lengths to Silverbulletday in both the GI Kentucky Oaks and May 14 Gill Black-Eyed Susan S., her most recent start. As the gates opened, Robby Albarado took Dreams Gallore in hand and was last after the opening four furlongs. Confidently ridden, the heavy favorite loomed up to engage Oh What A Windfall and Better Than Honour nearing the top of the lane, zoomed by those two once into the stretch and coasted home the easiest kind of winner. "My filly just keeps getting better," said Albarado. "All you have to do is get her into the right spot and she takes care of the rest. She finished real kindly today and had something left." Trainer Steve Asmussen indicated that the GI CCA Oaks July 24 would likely be the next start for Dreams Gallore. "We'll probably bring her back to Churchill and have her train there because she has flourished in that environment," he commented.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races.

Dance Master's first stakes win provided trainer D. Wayne Lukas with his fourth triumph in the Bashford Manor S. The chestnut colt has begun to justify his price tag, showing improvement with every start, culminating in his most recent start when he broke his maiden by four lengths at Belmont June 5. Previously, Dance Master had finished second to Sky Dweller in a Churchill maiden event May 16, but was subsequently disqualified as he tested positive for the substance Benzenemethanol, a drug used in treating minor breathing problems and skin diseases. The winner drifted out at the start, but was quickly straightened out and set all the fractions en route to a very impressive victory. After the race, Lukas said "More than likely we'll go East with him, but I don't know exactly where." Favored Sky Dweller struggled with the track, according to jockey Pat Day, but rallied well to finish a clear second.

General Challenge won the first two outings of his career both against Cal-breds, before taking the GI Santa Catalina at Santa Anita Jan. 31 in his first try at two turns. Shipped to New Orleans for the Louisiana Derby, the lanky chestnut reportedly did not handle the journey well and a poor start in the race itself contributed to a disappointing fifth-place finish. He atoned for that loss with the addition of blinkers to take the GI Santa Anita Derby by 3 1/2 lengths which established him as the Kentucky Derby favorite, a race in which he would finish a troubled 11th, beaten 6 1/4 lengths. Given some rest, the homebred trained brilliantly in the interim, blasting five furlongs June 22 in :57 3/5 to signal his readiness for this effort. Shedding the shades, General Challenge settled nicely towards the rear while saving ground as Desert Hero contributed to a sensible pace. At the three eighths pole, David Flores aboard General Challenge made his move for the front, assumed command with a furlong to run and won by a widening margin to take a full second off Old Trieste's stakes record of last year. Said trainer Bob Baffert, "He's a very special horse and it's good to have him back like this. You look at his coat and stuff and he's really just blooming now." Baffert hopes the gelding blossoms even more in the GI Swaps S. July 18.

Following the scratch of Vodafone Derby winner Oath (Ire), the form of that Classic will now be represented by the runner-up Daliapour and third Beat All, who has been supplemented here at a cost of Ir£77,500. Daliapour had previously finished runner-up in the G3 Lingfield Derby Trial May 8, while Beat All had been off the track since beating subsequent Derby Italiano winner Mukhalif (Ire) in the Listed Newmarket S. Apr. 30. Montjeu, whose participation depends on the state of the ground, was an impressive winner of the G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) at Chantilly June 6, having lost his unbeaten record with a surprise defeat on fast ground in the G1 Prix Lupin at Longchamp May 16. Progressive Mutafaweq has also been supplemented and runs only nine days after an impressive win in the G2 King Edward VII S. at Ascot June 18. Port Bayou, who missed the GI Belmont S. in New York, has won two of his three starts this year, including the G3 Derrinstown Stud Derby Trial at Leopardstown May 9, beating Tchaikovsky 1 1/2 lengths. Aidan O'Brien runs three others in addition to Tchaikovsky, the most unexposed being the twice-raced Genghis Khan, who broke his maiden here June 4, and Urban Ocean, who upset Sunshine Street in the G3 Gallinule S. here June 4.

Malek (Mocito Guapo {Arg}) has not raced since running second in the G1 Dubai World Cup while defeating Victory Gallop, but runs well fresh and has been training impressively. Real Quiet (Quiet American) makes his first start at Hollywood since capturing the G1 Hollywood Futurity as a juvenile. Last year's champion 3yo outdueled Free House in the G1 Pimlico Special H. May 8 before running third to Behrens and Running Stag in the G11 MassCap May 29. Puerto Madero (Gallantsky) comes into this race off a somewhat lackluster third in the G11 Californian S. May 1, but a return to the form which saw him take the G1 Donn H. over the winter makes him a serious threat for all. Blinkers are added this afternoon by trainer Dick Mandella. Budroyale (Cee's Tizzy) looms the controlling speed of this event with the defection of Old Trieste.

This event lost one of its star attractions when disappointing G1 Vodafone Derby favorite Dubai Millennium was scratched and only one overseas runner, the G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas fourth Brancaster (Riverman), takes on the locally trained horses. Only Gracioso (Nureyev) is a Group 1 winner, having upset the subsequent G1 Prix du Jockey-Club (French Derby) winner Montjeu (Ire) in the G1 Prix Lupin here May 16. Gracioso took his chance in the Prix du Jockey-Club, but found the 1 1/2 miles too far and now reverts to his best distance. Slickly (Linamix {Fr}) lost his unbeaten record in the Prix du Jockey-Club, having previously won the G2 Prix Noailles here in good style Apr. 11. In addition to Gracioso and Slickly, Andre Fabre also runs Kingsalsa (Kingmambo), third in the G1 Dubai Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) here May 16, and Indian Danehill (Danehill), third last time in the G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly June 6. Brancaster suffered serious interference early on in the G1 Vodafone Derby at Epsom June 5 and could finish only 10th, but may be better over this trip if recovered from those exertions.

Regal Thunder (Chief's Crown) has won or placed in all seven stateside starts, most recently a 2 1/2 lengths win in an optional claiming event at Hollywood May 28. This race marks his first black-type attempt, but the dark bay has defeated the likes of Kona Gold and should be flying late. Mazel Trick (Phone Trick) took the G111 Laz Barrera H. last November over this surface, but has not raced since then. Expressionist (Wild Again) returns to the main track after displaying stakes-winning form on the lawn. In his most recent start the bay colt was third to Brave Act (GB) in the G111 Inglewood H. May 16.

A.P. Assay (A. P. Indy), winner of the 1998 G11 A Gleam H., makes her second start of the year after winning the Desert Stormer H. May 29. The dark bay mare is unbeaten in four starts at Hollywood Park. Love That Jazz (Dixieland Band) defeated males in the G111 Vernon Underwood H. at Hollywood last December, but followed that up with a dismal effort in Stop Traffic's G1 Santa Monica H. Jan. 23 and has been off since then. Stop Traffic (Cure the Blues) does her best running at seven panels, with wins in the G1 Ballerina H. and the aforementioned Santa Monica, but comes off an even fourth in the May 31 Wild Flower H. at Lone Star Park.

Altibr (Diesis {GB}), a disappointing fourth as the odds-on favorite in the G3 Vodafone Diomed S. at Epsom June 5, is on a recovery mission. Prior to his Epsom defeat he had won the Dubai Duty Free over 1 1/4 miles on the sand at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 28. Consistent Great Dane (Danhill) will be looking for his first Group win, having won the Listed Festival S. at Goodwood May 20 in good style. Mus-If (Lahib), winner of the G1 Aga Khan's Studs National S. here in September, was runner-up to Saffron Walden (Fr) in the Listed Icon 2000 Guineas Trial at Leopardstown Apr. 18 and third to the same foe in the G1 Entenmann's Irish 2000 Guineas here May 22 on his last start. Five-year-old Lil's Boy (Danzig) showed that he was back to good form by winning the Listed Glencairn S. at Leopardstown June 9.

Side Saddle beat White Star by a length to win the G3 Prix de Royaumont over this trip at Chantilly June 5, with the full-sister to Sagamix (Fr), Sage et Jolie, a further 1 1/2 lengths away in third, and this trio could dominate here again. However, Godolphin's Kilting, who was well fancied for the G1 Vodafone Oaks at Epsom June 4 before finishing a disappointing ninth of 10, may handle this track better. La Sylphide won the G3 Prix Penelope at Saint-Cloud Apr. 14 in good style, but was then unplaced in the G1 Prix de Diane Hermes (French Oaks) at Chantilly June 13. She may be better suited by this trip. In addition to Sage et Jolie, Andre Fabre runs the promising Wajina, winner of her only start at Saint-Cloud May 28.

Hearts At Risk was a neck-winner in his last, a state-bred allowance route over the Belmont dirt on May 21. Obviously that score was not taken seriously by the public, as the 63-1 shot was last for a half-mile, made a slow advance leaving the backstretch, rallied determinedly as the widest on the turn and got up to run down favored David in the final yards.

5th-BEL, $45,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:33 2/5, fm. GOLDEN DICE (c, 4, Diesis (GB)--Fariedah, by Topsider) made a powerful, late charge in his last effort at Churchill May 27, but was disqualified and placed last for interference during that run. The chestnut used the same tactic here, rating well off the pace for five furlongs and making a strong, four-wide move on the turn to catch his rivals and draw off by three lengths at 6-5 odds. The winner is a 1/2 to Western Fame (Gone West), SW & MGSP, $359,300. Lifetime Record: 14-3-3-2, $83,910.

In her last, Chilukki won the GIII Kentucky Breeders' Cup S. over this track on May 31, drawing off by five lengths as the 2-5 favorite. The classy filly continued her perfect string here, seizing the lead from the gate and powering to a five and one-quarter length victory over Miss Wineshine. Trainer Bob Baffert, winner of the 1998 Debutante with his superstar filly, Silverbulletday, grabbed the win and place in this years' event. Baffert's assistant April Mayberry had this to say about the victory, "She did what we thought she was going to. When they're 1-9, they'd better run like that and she did." Winning jockey Willie Martinez commented, "What a racehorse. They don't come too often like her."

Natalie Too has found a home for herself on the Jersey Shore. The chestnut came into her last race on a six-race losing skid going back to a grassy victory over the Belmont turf last Oct. 17. The Lukas trainee teamed with "Jersey" Joe Bravo for her first start at Monmouth and responded by rallying to be up in the final strides of the May 30 Politely S., scoring that day by a neck at 10-1. Dismissed in the wagering again, Bravo had Natalie Too in last place down the backstretch, but as the field hit the far turn, the mare found her best stride, engaged the leaders at the top of the lane, took over inside the eighth pole and won going away.

3--Rare Charmer, 120, f, 4, Slewpy--Dancing Road, by Kennedy Road. O- Nick Cafarchia. $15,000.

Margins: HD, 1HF, 3/4. Odds: 2.20, 8.80, 2.60.

Nijinsky's Passion won the Gill Santa Ynez S. last winter at Santa Anita before finishing third in the GI Santa Anita Oaks. Off for 14 months, the bay filly closed willingly to finish second in an allowance event at Hollywood May 31. Facing state-bred foes, the favorite relaxed while saving ground, launched a strong rally along the rail and just got up in the final strides.

1--#PENNY MARIE, 116, f, 3, Sky Classic--Aspenglo, by Raise a Native. ($27,000 yrl '97 KEESEP; $180,000 2yo '98 KEEAPR). O-Caufield, Eaton, Sigband et al; B-Albert G Clay (KY); T-R B Hess Jr; J-E Delahoussaye; $42,360. Lifetime Record: 4-3-0-0, $102,600.

2--Kalookan Queen, 118, f, 3, Lost Code--Regal Realm, by Majestic Prince. ($275,000 2yo 1998 BESMAR). O-Louis A Asistio. $14,120.

3--Crystal Ann, 122, f, 3, Pirate's Bounty--River of Glass, by Pass the Glass. ($25,000 yrl '97 ARZNOV). O-Hall Mack. $10,542.

Margins: 1HF, 1 1/4, 4HF. Odds: 0.90, 1.40, 8.60.

Penny Marie was sent off as the favorite following easy victories in two of her three lifetime starts, most recently a 4 1/2 lengths triumph in a Hollywood allowance. The gray filly dueled through quick early fractions, took the lead entering the stretch and edged away under confident handling.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. Purses for Canadian races are in Canadian dollars.

 Scratched: Sunspangled (Ire).

Outsider Polaire pulled off a major surprise here, earning a return for the G1 Kildangan Stud Irish Oaks July 11. After breaking her maiden at Gowran Park last July, she failed to win in her next six starts and could finish only 13th in the G1 Entenmanns Irish 1000 Guineas here May 23. Her losing streak finally ended in a minor event at Naas May 29 on her last start. Settled at the rear of the field while Lady In Waiting set the pace from Calando, she still had plenty to do early in the straight, but began to make progress with a quarter-mile to run. Lady In Waiting and Calando engaged in a head-to-head duel throughout the final furlong, but once switched away from the rails, Polaire quickened impressively and caught the leaders in the final strides, gaining the verdict over Lady In Waiting by the minimum margin. Winning trainer Kevin Prendergast said, "My knees were rocking at the finish, it was so close. I really wasn't sure about the result, just hoping it would go our way. But Declan McDonogh gave her a great ride, arriving at just the right time. She will definitely come back for the Oaks next month."

Margins: 4HF, 3/4, 3/4. Odds: 3.60, 15.20, 5.20.

Also ran: Evil Empire (Ger), Api Sa (Ger), Freccia D'Oro (Ger), Marvita (Ger), Arroyada (Ger).

Scratched: Qelle Amie.

In-form trainer Peter Schiergen saddled the first two here, with the more fancied of his pair, Catella, who defeated subsequent Listed Dortmund Stutenpreis Dangerous Mind (Ger) in a conditions event at Baden-Baden June 4, running out an impressive winner. Settled in midfield with stable companion Bela-M, the pair quickened early in the straight, with Intuition closing. But the two Schiergen runners dominated the finish, with Catella going clear inside the final furlong.

3--White Heart (GB), 128, g, 4, Green Desert--Barari, by Blushing Groom (Fr). O-Sheikh Maktoum bin Rashid al Maktoum; B-Gainsborough Stud Management Ltd; $5,689.

Margins: 1HF, NK, 5. Odds: 4-5, 7-2, 14-1.

Also ran: Ho Leng (Ire), Cool Edge (Ire), Nanoushka (Ire).

Having showed brilliant speed to win the Shergar Cup Seven at Goodwood May 8, Diktat reproduced similar tactics to win this comfortably. Diktat was settled in the rear behind dueling pacesetters early, but as the field swept past the two-furlong marker, Diktat began his run and was ridden to lead 1 1/2 furlongs from the finish. White Heart ran on against the rail with Raise A Grand battling on gamely, but neither had a chance with Diktat who ran on well for a cozy win. Godolphin racing manager Simon Crisford said, "The [G1 Champagne Lanson] Sussex [S.], Goodwood, July 28] is an obvious possibility for him. He was a bit wrong behind and lost time, so missed Royal Ascot."

Yet another Group winner for the Aga Khan, who is enjoying a glorious run with his homebreds all over Europe. The winner of last year's G3 Queen's Vase and third to Arctic Owl (GB) in the G3 Bonusprint Henry II S. at Sandown May 31, Maridpour was well-backed to score here and justified the support, leading from pillar to post to give his rider Gary Stevens his first winner in Ireland. Yeoman's Point pursued Maridpour from the start and tried hard to close the gap, but was always being comfortably held. Gary Stevens said, "That really felt good. You always want to get the first of any achievement out of the way. There was no pace on, but I was always confident where I was and Maridpour had something in reserve for the finish."
