THREE RING UNINSURED Three Ring (Notebook), fatally injured in a freak accident Saturday at Belmont Park prior to the running of the Mother Goose S., was not insured, owner Barry Schwartz confirmed yesterday. A Grade I winner who had taken six of 10 starts, earning $773,440, she may have been worth as much as $2 million. "I don't insure any of my horses," Schwartz said. "But it's not about the money. She was a special kind of horse. She had a phenomenal personality. She loved to ham it up. She loved to have her picture taken. There were a lot of very human qualities to her. She was very special." Three Ring was buried yesterday at Schwartz's Stonewall Farm in Somers, New York. The three-year-old filly, who rebounded from her poor showing in the Kentucky Derby to win the GI Acorn S., the first leg of NYRA's Triple Tiara Series, suffered a fractured skull after she reared and flipped in the paddock before the Mother Goose, and had to be euthanized. "It would be very easy to say I have had it with racing," Schwartz said. "I already knew what a tough business it is. You can't give up. You've got to go on. Time does heal wounds."

RECORD CHURCHILLSRING MEET The 1999 Spring Meet at Churchill Downs established a new record for total wagering. The total handle from all sources was $418,034,489, an increase of 7.7 percent over the mark set at the meeting last year. Off-track wagering rose 10.5 percent from 1998, accounting for $334,803,699 of the total. On-track handle, in competition with a riverboat casino in the Louisville area for the first time, was down 2.1 percent. Attendance for the 47-day season was 684,177, off 1.2 percent from last year. "Whether you're looking at the quality of its racing or its acceptance by growing numbers of racing fans across the country, there is no question that this Spring Meet has been one of the most successful in Churchill Downs history," Churchill Downs Senior Vice President and General Manager Alex Waldrop said.

Margins: HF, 1 3/4, 2HF. Odds: 3.00, 3.60, 5.00

The winner of last year's G1-Jpn Japanese Oaks, Erimo Excel was ninth in her last start, the G2-Jpn Kinko Sho May 29. Trainer Keiji Kato sent his filly out for two quick works June 16 and 23, and she responded with a late-running victory over Kikuno Scarlet. Rated in the middle of the pack early, Erimo Excel came with her bid on the final bend to catch the runner-up in the final strides. "I was planning to switch her to the outside as soon as I got the chance because of the soft going," said jockey Hitoshi Matoba. "She was in much better condition than last time out, and it showed in her performance." Kikuno Scarlet had won twice since returning to the races off a year's layoff, while Egao o Misete, winner of the G2-Jpn Milers Cup, finished fast from far back to be third.

 Margins: 2HF, NK. Winner's Odds: 8.90.

Owner Gary Biszantz said that Venusberg will be shipped to California shortly and will get a bit of a break, missing her entire three-year-old campaign, albeit a short one. The Southern Hemisphere filly will turn three July 1 and then, since she will be going to the Northern Hemisphere, turns four just six months later on Jan. 1. Said Biszantz. "We like to race four-, five- and six-year-olds. If you take good care of them, there's no problem." Biszantz has another Southern Halo filly in Argentina, La Galerie (Arg), who has won all three of her starts easily, with a 5 1/2-length victory her narrowest score. She will run again in Argentina in September and then head for California as well.

Day Takes 27th Churchill Title:

Jockey Pat Day picked up his 27th riding title at Churchill Downs after piloting 77 winners during the 47-day Spring Meet. It was the fifth consecutive time Day has topped the Churchill standings, but the 44-year-old rider doesn't take his titles for granted. "Actually, I think (this one) might be more special," Day said. "As I grow a little older, it's even more significant... especially with the quality of the jocks' room now. It has gotten significantly tougher over the last three, four, five years and it keeps getting tougher."

Boundary Colt Named MHBA Grand Champion Yearling:

A colt by Boundary--Playwiththebigboys (Time for a Change), bred and owned by Robert Manfuso, was named the Grand Champion of the 1999 Maryland Horse Breeders Association Yearling Show, held Sunday at the Maryland State Fairgrounds. Manfuso was winning the grand championship for the third time, after taking the honors in 1992 and 1994, and so retires the Blarney Challenge Trophy which goes with the title. The colt bested 81 Maryland-bred yearlings, shown in six classes. Everett Ayer's Quest of Fate (Norquestor--Johnandjo {Well Decorated}) was named Reserve Champion. Trainer Pat Byrne judged the show.

Coral Offers Special Bets On Coral-Eclipse:

The Group 1 Coral-Eclipse S. at Sandown takes center stage Saturday, and the sponsors Coral yesterday issued some special bets on the race. Last year, Godolphin grabbed an amazing 1-2-3 in the 1 1/4-mile contest, with Daylami (Ire), Faithful Son and Central Park (Ire), and Coral are offering odds of 125-1 that the Dubai outfit will pull off another remarkable treble with Daylami (Doyoun {Ire}), Xaar (GB) (Zafonic) and Happy Valentine (GB) (Rainbow Quest) to finish in any order this year. Godolphin, who boast three of the 13 five-day entries for the race, are rated at 6-4 to train the winner. Meanwhile, Philip Mitchell's globetrotting star Running Stag (Cozzene), winner of the GII Brooklyn H. at Belmont Park June 12, is quoted at 3-1 to finish last. Trainer Philip Mitchell, who supplemented Running Stag at a cost of £15,000 ($24,038), feels his stable star could cause an upset. "People say he doesn't go on grass, which is a load of cobblers," said Mitchell. "I can't understand the betting on the race."
