SLIGHTLY DANGEROUS EUTHANIZED Top European broodmare Slightly Dangerous (Roberto) was euthanized at Banstead Manor Stud near Newmarket, England, Sunday due to progressive weakness in her hind legs and a pituitary gland problem. She was 20 years old. Purchased as a three-year-old by James Delahooke for Khalid Abdullah, Slightly Dangerous went on to finish second in the G1 English Oaks that year. Voted 1997 Kentucky Broodmare of the Year by the Kentucky Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders, Slightly Dangerous was the dam of Warning (GB) (Known Fact), England's champion two-year-old of 1987 who went on to be champion miler and three-year-old in both England and France the following year. She also produced 1993 G1 Epsom and Irish Derby winner and two-time champion Commander in Chief (GB) (Dancing Brave); Yashmak (Danzig), winner of the G1 Flower Bowl H. in the U.S. and the G2 Ribblesdale S. in Great Britain; and multiple Group 2 winner Dushyantor (Sadler's Wells).

DUSHYANTOR TO RATHBARRY STUD

Dushyantor (Sadler's Wells--Slightly Dangerous, by Roberto) will be retired to Rathbarry Stud in Ireland at the end of his racing career. The six-year-old has compiled a record of 20-5-5-2, with wins in the GIII Golden Gate H. in the U.S. and in the G2 Great Voltigeur S. and G2 Geoffrey Freer S. in England. The Kentucky-bred was also the runner-up in the 1996 G1 Epsom Derby and G1 Pertemps St. Leger and the 1997 G1 Coronation Cup. He finished third in the G1 Sword Dancer Invitational and G1 Breeders' Cup Turf in America last season. In his most recent appearance, the dark bay ran fourth in the Apr. 18 G1 San Juan Capistrano H. He has earned more than $1.2 million.

Gold Star Deputy (Silver Deputy), a winner of three straight at Aqueduct this past winter and spring, was off the board in a Belmont turf allowance and returned to the main track to run second in a 1 1/2-mile starter handicap last time out at Belmont June 5. The five-year-old is a two-time stakes winner at Woodbine. Mt. Sassafras (Mt. Livermore), Canada's Horse of the Year in 1996, has made only two starts this year, finishing second in a May 1 allowance and ninth in the May 16 GIII Eclipse H. Entrymate Stephanotis (Regal Classic) won this race last year. Winless in three 1999 starts, the six-year-old ran sixth in the Eclipse H. last time out. The Fed (Key to the Mint) is the only horse in the field coming off a winning effort. The four-year-old captured a June 12 optional claimer in his only start this year.

Laredo has been ultra-consistent in six starts this year, with two wins and four seconds. The bay won an Aqueduct allowance Mar. 19 before running second in the GIII Westchester H. Apr. 3, earning a short break. Rested up, Laredo ran a terrific race in a June 11 Belmont allowance, dueling through quick fractions and just getting nipped at the wire. The overwhelming favorite went straight to the front, set the pace while in hand and drew off when asked to the victory.

Fahris gained his first stateside victory in three starts with his win here. Winner of the G3 Select S. at Goodwood as a three-year old, Fahris made only one start at four when eighth in the G3 Brigadier Gerard S. at Sandown and was sixth in the Dubai Turf Classic in his final foreign start. Shipped to the U.S., the chestnut was unplaced in the May 15 GII Dixie H. at Pimlico and the June 5 GI Manhattan H. at Belmont. Facing softer competition here, Fahris discarded his usual closing tactics and led from flagfall to finish to secure the win.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. Purses for Canadian races are in Canadian dollars.

EMANATING (f, 3, Cox's Ridge--Lead Kindly Light {GSW, $216,037}, by Majestic Light) had won two of four juvenile starts, including the Polly Drummond S. at Delaware last October. The 1/2 to Gold Fever (Forty Niner), GISW, $480,712, had finished second to subsequent GI Selene S. winner Roaring Twenties in her most recent start, a Belmont allowance May 12. Making her turf debut, the 7-2 shot lagged behind early, responded when roused in the upper stretch and finished strongly for a three-quarters length score. Lifetime Record: SW, 8-3-3-0, $140,740.

J.'s Appeal (Valid Appeal), GISW, $563,880, rated off the pace while inside, angled out for the drive and prevailed by a neck at odds of 4-1. Lifetime Record: 9-1-0-1, $32,740.

Margins: NK, NK, 2 1/4. Odds: 0.60, 8.80, 3.40.

Little Sister led home a Valid Appeal exacta as she defended her title in the Saylorville S. with this game victory. In the 1998 edition, Little Sister cruised home by 6 1/2 lengths, but had a tougher time of it this year. For her third straight victory of 1999, the dark bay mare duelled with Valid Leader for the early lead along the rail, edged away in deep stretch and gamely prevailed over that rival at the wire.

Perugino Bay scored his maiden at second asking in April 1998, and took a handicap race at York in July, but was winless in six subsequent starts, though he was second, beaten just a neck in the Listed Doncaster S. to close out his two-year-old campaign Oct. 24. He made only a pair of starts this season in Europe, most recently coming home a solid third to the good European three-year-old Enrique in the G3 Greenham S. at Newbury Apr. 17. Making his first start in the U.S., adding Lasix and negotiating two turns for the first time, the bay pulled early to track the pace from third along the inside, advanced on the final turn, bid for the lead and was bumped in midstretch by Bristolville, then outlasted American Spirit for the narrow victory.

5th-HOL, $61,046, Alw, Opt. Clm. ($62,500), 3yo/up, f/m, 6 1/2f, 1:15 4/5, ft.

SWEETCAKESANSHAKES (f, 4, Something Lucky--Tami U Bar, by Kennedy Road) won two of her first three starts, but was winless in a trio of races thereafter until shedding blinkers for her last, a three-length victory over this dirt June 3. Well fancied as the 5-2 second choice off that tally, the bay sprinted to the lead along the inside, was challenged for control at the furlong grounds, but responded to win by one length under Laffit Pincay. Lifetime Record: 8-4-0-2, $129,950. O-Hunt & Willman. B-Old English Rancho & Willman (Ca). T-Leonard Dorfman.

1st-HOL, $43,416, Msw, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m, 1:50, ft. SAND COLONY (c, 3, Lac Ouimet--Sand Castle, by Coastal)'s best finish was a third-place effort in April at Santa Anita, but he followed that with fifth-place outings, May 16 over the turf and June 3 on the main track. Last early, the 5-2 third choice rallied determinedly down the lane to get up for a 3/4-length victory. The winner, a $2,500 KEENOV weanling and a $20,000 BESOCT yearling, is a half brother to Essential (Digression), SW, $152,500. Lifetime Record: 5-1-0-1, $35,824.

A dual winner of conditions events this year, Spendent made the transfer to Group company a successful one by winning with a perfectly timed ride from jockey Thierry Thulliez. Northerntown took the lead as the field turned away from the stands with a circuit to go. Sicy Du Barail (Mister Sicy {Fr}), the only filly in the race, found herself five lengths behind the leader down the backstraight and seven lengths clear of the rest of the field. As the field rounded the home turn, Northerntown's lead was down to a length, but it soon became apparent that jockey Olivier Doleuze had been giving Northerntown a breather as he kicked four lengths clear entering the final quarter. Spendent emerged from the pack as the only serious challenger and his long and determined rally paid off in the final 50 yards as he grabbed the lead in the shadows of the post. Casamasa ran on well despite traffic problems to prove best of the rest in a blanket finish for third.
