STRONACH SIGNS GULFSTREAM DEAL Frank Stronach's Magna Ventures corporation has signed a contract to purchase Gulfstream Park from the Orient Corporation and the sale will be finalized within days, Stronach said yesterday from Monmouth Park, where he was attending the races. "I hope to close within the next few days, sometime this week," Stronach said. "It's more or less done. The agreement has been signed." Stronach said he expects his ownership team to be in place well before the Nov. 6 Breeders' Cup, adding that he is pleased with the job Gulfstream President Doug Donn is doing and plans to retain him. There may be some major changes at Gulfstream, however. Stronach confirmed that he is interested in expanding the traditional three-month winter meet and hopes that he does not come up against government interference. If Stronach is allowed to expand the Gulfstream meet, he could go head-to-head against arch rival Churchill Downs, which owns Calder. "When a municipality decides it wants to have a racetrack then it should allow the meet to be as long as the racetrack wants," Stronach said. "It's like any other business. Only the ones who do the best job survive and the ones who don't will disappear. I'd like to expand the meet and if anybody else wants to expand theirs, that's fine. Let Calder expand, too." Stronach also confirmed that he is interested in acquiring several other tracks. He said he has initiated talks with management at Monmouth and Hialeah concerning possible purchase and he said there are other tracks on his wish list. He would not reveal the names of any other tracks. Rumored to be interested in buying the Meadowlands, Stronach said that is not in his immediate plans. "I think Monmouth Park is a great track and I'd love to own it," he said. "I'd love to have it in our family of racetracks. I think that would give us a great product with Santa Anita, Gulfstream and Monmouth. I have made some initial contact with the Monmouth people and put the feelers out."

Unraced as a juvenile, Belenus broke his maiden on his debut at Bremen on Apr. 2, before stepping up to Listed class to finish third to Derby rival Sumitas (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}) in the Preis des Gestuts Wiesenhof at Krefeld Apr. 18. After finishing second to yet another Derby rival, Hibiscus (Ger) (Law Society), in the Grosser Preis der Stadtparkasse at Dortmund May 13, he then won a National Listed race at Bremen Jun. 20, beating another Derby contender Universus (Ger) (Unfuwain). At the front of the pack chasing runaway leaders Banyumanik (Ire) (Perugino) and Universus (Ger), Belenus moved into a clear third at halfway. Under hard riding from more than a half mile out, he bravely kept finding more, taking the lead a furlong and a half out and staying on well to resist the strong late challenge of Acambaro and the filly Flamingo Road. The win gave trainer Andreas Wohler his second victory in this race, following Pik Konig (Ger) in 1992. It was the first German Derby win for English rider Kevin Darley

Last year's Japanese champion and G1 Japan Cup winner El Condor Pasa made his European debut in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp May 23 and was impressive enough when finishing second to Croco Rouge (Ire). Ridden here with the utmost confidence by Masayoshi Ebina in a style reminiscent of Lester Piggott, El Condor Pasa became the third Japanese-trained winner of a Group One race in Europe during the course of the past twelve months when displaying an excellent burst of acceleration to win in spectacular fashion. He recorded the fifth fastest time for the race despite racing on rain-softened ground. Saugerties (Tremolino), acting as pacemaker for Tiger Hill, set a furious pace eight lengths clear of the field, with El Condor Pasa in fourth position. As the field rounded the home turn, Saugerties weakened quickly and was tackled and passed by stablemate Tiger Hill at the quarter-mile marker, but El Condor Pasa was on the scene immediately and quickened clear passing the furlong pole, running on strongly for an easy win. The first five home were all previous Group/Grade One winners.

Winning owner Takashi Watanabe said, "At this moment I am very happy and very proud of what El Condor Pasa has done. It is a great team effort by everyone involved with the horse and this is most satisfactory." Tony Clout, El Condor Pasa's landlord, who assists with the training, went on, "It is too early to say where the horse will go next. He is in the (G1) King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot (July 24), but we have to see how he comes out of this race. The (G1) Irish Champion S. in Ireland (at Leopardstown, September 11) or the (G2) Prix Foy at Longchamp (Sept. 12) are other possibilities before the Arc."

Also Ran: Littlebitlively, Family Calling, Smart Coupons. Scratched: Wild Imagination, Crafty Friend, Social Charter.

Frisk Me Now has become something of an enigma to his trainer Bob Durso, as he has performed alternately well in sprints and routes, but has struggled in putting top efforts back to back. The handsome bay won the GII Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup Sprint H. at seven furlongs Feb. 13, but was off the board in three subsequent graded stakes, including a fifth-place finish in the grassy Red Bank H., his turf bow. "Frisky" hinted of a return to his best form with an authoritative victory over Call Me Mr. Vain in the Elkwood S. over this dirt June 12 and those two combatants were back for more. Littlebitlively, as expected, was close to the early pace, but Call Me Mr. Vain made him work and kept him off the rail through an opening half mile in :46 1/5. Fourth down the backstretch, Eddie King aboard Frisk Me Now had the leaders in sight and found his mount's best stride as they rounded the far turn. Into the stretch, Littlebitlively and a very game Call Me Mr. Vain were still slugging it out, Frisk Me Now came to that pair inside the eighth pole, edged by and was widening under the wire. Black Cash loomed boldly at the quarter pole, but faltered late to be third. Said trainer Durso, "In a race like this, everything goes through your mind, is it too hot, what if you don't get the trip, just everything. Finally I have a horse good enough for this race and this is a dream come true. It's really overwhelming." Durso said his charge is "50/50" for the Aug. 1 GI Whitney at Saratoga.

The decision: make the journey to Monmouth Park to run for a larger purse at a longer distance (GII Iselin H.), or stay at home to contest the GII Tom Fool. The choice to remain at Belmont would prove to be a crafty one, as Crafty Friend, the victor of an Aqueduct allowance in April and most recently a close-up second in Sir Bear's GI Met Mile May 29, wired the Tom Fool. Away smartly from the gate, the chestnut was joined immediately from the outside by last year's GI Vosburgh winner Affirmed Success, who was looking for his first victory since that effort last September. GI Carter H. winner Artax also broke well and took up a stalking position just a length off the top two. As the field reached the top of the lane, jockey Richard Migliore aboard Crafty Friend got to work and he began to inch away from Affirmed Success, with Artax, unable to match strides, retreating in third. Crafty Friend dug in gamely in the last 100 yards and was able to hold Affirmed Success at bay for the victory in new stakes record time. Winning trainer John Kimmel explained the decision to run at Belmont as opposed to Monmouth. "The main thing was he likes this track. He runs game when he is here. My intuition said seven-eighths." The disappointed conditioner of the runner up, Richie Schosberg, commented, "He gave a game effort. I thought that he was in perfect positioning after that fast opening quarter. He just didn't get the job done." Kimmel said his charge may be pointed at the GI Forego at Saratoga Sept. 6.

Takarian, winner of the G3 Meld S. at The Curragh last July, had visited the U.S. winner's circle only once in seven tries, taking the GIII Bay Meadows Breeders' Cup Derby last October. The Irish-bred colt was coming off a nose defeat in a June 20 optional claimer. The longest price in the six-horse field, Takarian enjoyed a ground-saving rail trip, waited for a hole to open at midstretch and shot through in deep stretch for a narrow victory in a not-so-American affair.

Behrens (Pleasant Colony), an outstanding three-year-old of 1997, has had a breakthrough year, with back-to-back Grade I victories in the Gulfstream Park H. and the Oaklawn H. The imposing bay resurfaced to take the May 29 GII Massachusetts H. by a half length from subsequent GII Brooklyn H. winner Running Stag, with third-place finisher Real Quiet returning to take the June 27 GI Hollywood Gold Cup. Hanarsaan (Hansel) has only one victory to show for eight starts this year, but ran creditably in graded events over the winter. He comes in off a powerful 4 1/2-length Churchill allowance victory June 19. When last seen in New York, Baytown (Texas City) was the winner of an Aqueduct allowance last Nov. 13, and is entered on the heels of a victory in the GIII National Jockey Club H. at Hawthorne May 29.

The winner of last year's GI Gazelle H., Tap To Music (Pleasant Tap) made it four-for-four with a Keeneland allowance victory in October, but is winless since. The bay was second in a Belmont overnight handicap event in her first start of 1999, before coming home third by two lengths in the GII Shuvee May 22. Silent Eskimo (Eskimo) was third in the GI Apple Blossom H. three back, before a 1 1/4-length victory in the GII Louisville Breeders' Cup H. and gave Champion Banshee Breeze all she could handle when second by 1/2 length in the GIII Fleur De Lis at Churchill June 5. Harpia (Danzig), winner of her first five starts in the U.S., including the seven-furlong GII Shirley Jones H., stretches out to two turns for the first time and adds to what should be a very strong pace.

When you think juveniles of 1999, two names come to mind. One is the super-filly Chilukki, and the other is More Than Ready. The dark bay broke his maiden by 7 1/2 lengths first out at Keeneland and came right back on Derby Day to easliy win the WHAS S. by 4 1/4 lengths. When last seen on the track, More Than Ready maintained his perfect record with yet another facile victory in the Flash S. June 4 at Belmont Park, surviving a protracted speed duel that day to win by a head. Heavily favored to make it four-for-four, the Todd Pletcher student dragged his way to the front after the opening furlong while racing off the rail, was 1 1/2 lengths to the good of Afternoon Affair into the stretch and drew right away from his rival when asked by jockey John Velazquez to win under wraps, taking three-fifths off the previous track record set in 1973 by Raise a Cup. Pletcher wishes every race was this easy. "There were no real anxious moments," said the conditioner. "He's a fighter. He was on cruise control today." Next up for the son of Southern Halo is either the GII Sanford July 29 or the GII Saratoga Special Aug. 18, according to Pletcher.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, an (S) will be used for state-bred races. Purses for Canadian races are in Canadian dollars.

Infield Shift was beaten over 27 lengths in his career debut going short on the dirt at Keeneland Apr. 11, but was a different animal when tried on the Churchill turf May 26, where he broke his maiden by 4 1/2 lengths. Making his first start since that effort, the bay was allowed to establish leisurely fractions and withstood a challenge from the runner-up in the final yards to record his second straight victory.

Synchronized went on a four-race winning streak over the winter capped by back-to-back stakes victories in the Busher at Aqueduct Feb. 21 and Laurel's Wide Country S. Mar. 28. The chestnut came into this second leg of the Candian Filly Triple Tiara off form, having finished fifth to Touch Dial in the series' first leg, the Canadian Oaks at Woodbine June 12. Towards the rear while saving ground in the early stages, the filly got in synch nearing the stretch, got through along the inside at the eighth pole and bested the Canadian Oaks winner to the wire.

Intrigued debuted on the main track with a third-place finish at Pimlico Apr. 8, a race which represents the only loss for the chestnut to date. After breaking her maiden next out going short on the dirt, Intrigued was switched to the turf and she has not lost in three tries on the lawn, including an 8 1/2-length success in the Lady Dean S. over the Pimlico weeds June 12. Second favorite in this race, the filly was unhurriedly early, found some traffic problems on the second turn, but survived to poke a head in front just outside the eighth pole and waltzed home to the victory.
