RECORD TATTERSALLS JULY SALE ENDS The Tattersalls July Sales concluded yesterday in Newmarket, England with a record aggregate and average and a record-tying median. Reflecting on the sale, Tattersalls Chairman Edmond Mahony said, "The July Sale continues to go from strength to strength, attracting a more and more cosmopolitan crowd of buyers each year. The sale is firmly established as a source of fillies from top-class international families and the new record high price...is a clear indication of the sale's global appeal as well as the continuing demand for quality breeding stock." The top price during yesterday's session was the 47,000gns ($79,087) paid by agent Marco Bozzi for the unraced Doowaley (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). The colt was consigned by Alec Stewart.

YAGLI TO STAY HOME Yagli (Jade Hunter) will not ship to England for the July 24 G1 King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Diamond S., as had been previously reported. Instead, the Allen Paulson color bearer could make his next start in the July 31 G1 United Nations H. at Monmouth Park or in the Aug. 14 G1 Sword Dancer H. at Saratoga. Runner-up in last year's Breeders' Cup Turf, Yagli is undefeated in two 1999 starts, most recently winning the June 5 G1 Manhattan H.

In one of the finest displays ever seen in this historic race, Stravinsky produced an electrifying burst of speed in the final furlong to defeat a field of high-class opponents. Having disappointed connections on his seasonal debut when second in a conditions event at The Curragh Mar. 28, Stravinsky attempted to redeem his reputation in the G3 Jersey S. at Royal Ascot June 16. He finished a creditable fourth in that race, but still did not match his connection's expectations. With the utmost confidence, Stravinsky was patiently settled in midfield by Michael Kinane, as Topsy Creek (Dayjur), Bold Edge, Bertolini and Bianconi (Danzig) disputed an early, exacting pace. As the field swept past the two-furlong marker, Kinane edged Stravinsky onto the heels of Bold Edge and Bertolini and asked his mount for his effort in the final furlong. The reaction was immediate as Stravinsky quickened in superb style, putting daylight between himself and his toiling rivals and running on strongly up the hill to be in splendid isolation at the line, shaving 0.21 seconds off the track record. Trainer Aidan O'Brien hailed his hero, saying, "He is explosive and he is totally unbelievable. I haven't found him frustrating, if anything he's been frustrated by me. I haven't done the right things with him. I tried to stretch him to a mile, but he is just pure speed."

Continuing the fine afternoon for owner, trainer and jockey, Thady Quill confirmed the promise of his easy maiden win at Gowran Park June 13, but he was made to fight hard all the way to the line by Full Flow, with a three-pound weight advantage proving decisive. Thady Quill gained the benefit of judge Jane Stickels' decision after a brief period of confusion. She had initially announced Full Flow as the winner, but within a minute corrected herself and announced that Thady Quill was indeed first past the post.

Corroborator had been under consideration for the Gill Suburban H. July 5, but was not entered in favor of an easier spot. The bay colt won two races in state-bred company at Aqueduct before running fifth to Yes It's True in the Gill Swale S. at Gulfstream. He came back to win his next two starts at Aqueduct and was sent to the turf for the first time, finishing eighth in the Gill Hill Prince S. Returning to the main track as the heavy favorite, Corroborator set the pace and gamely held off Private Call in a stretch-long duel.

8th-BEL, $43,000, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1mT, 1:34, fm.
ILLIQUIDITY (f, 3, Sky Classic--Ms. Aerosmith {MSW & MGSP, $240,566}, by Skywalker) showed marked improvement in her second start on the turf, breaking her maiden by 4 1/2 lengths May 15 in her third trip to the post. Thrown in with the wolves in her next start, the bay filly ran well to be third in the Gill Sands Point S. to Perfect Sting and Pico Teneriffe. Sent off as the 2-1 chalk against allowance foes, Illiquidity was unhurried early while seventh, rallied four wide on the turn, hit the front with a furlong remaining and held off Eze (Williamstown) to win by a neck.
