BULLET BACK ON THE BEAM Having already conquered ports of call from New Orleans to Louisville to Baltimore, Silverbulletday (Silver Deputy) marched through Oceanport, New Jersey like Sherman through Atlanta, affirming her superiority over her peers with a workmanlike five-length victory over Boom Town Girl (Unbridled) in yesterday's GII Monmouth Breeders' Cup Oaks at Monmouth Park. The Champion two-year-old filly came into her last start, the June 5 Belmont S., off eight consecutive wins, including back-to-back Grade I's in Keeneland's Ashland S. and the Kentucky Oaks. In the Belmont, the bay set the pace to the quarter pole, but was not persevered with thereafter, finishing seventh by over 10 lengths. Trainer Bob Baffert knew that Saturday would be a much different story. "I could tell when I got here today that she was ready, her energy level was high. She's so much fun to watch." Baffert indicated that Silverbulletday grabbed a quarter during the race, reopening an injury from earlier in the week, leading the conditioner to hedge on her next start, though he did indicate that the GI Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Aug. 8 is a possibility.

LORD HOWARD DE WALDEN PASSES AWAY Lord Howard de Walden, one of the great owner-breeders of the 20th Century, has died at the age of 86, having been unwell for some time. Among the best horses to carry his apricot silks in over 50 years as an owner were the 1985 Epsom Derby winner Slip Anchor (GB) (Shirley Heights {GB}), the outstanding miler Kris (GB) (Sharpen Up), his full brother Diesis (GB), a top-class two-year-old in 1982, Grand Lodge (Chief's Crown) winner of the 1994 St. James's Palace S. and the 1975 Champion Hurdle winner Lanzarote (GB) (Milesian {GB}). Lord Howard, who inherited valuable property interests in central London, was elected to the Jockey Club in 1952 and served as senior steward three times. He owned Plantation Stud near Newmarket, where Kris and Slip Anchor stand, and also had a smaller farm near his Berkshire home. He sold Thornton Stud in Yorkshire, which he had bought in 1967, five years ago. Henry Cecil, trainer of Slip Anchor, Kris and Diesis, led the tributes yesterday, saying, "I'm very sad to hear the news. He was one of the few remaining great owner/breeders and I trained some great horses for him. He was a great friend and a very loyal and supportive owner, he's irreplaceable to us."

Margins: 5, 1, 12 1/4. Odds: 0.05, 13.80, 5.40.

Also Ran: Chatter Patter. Scratched: West's Secret.

Silverbulletday has been virtually unstoppable since finishing fourth in the GII Del Mar Debutante last August, taking eight consecutive graded stakes events, including the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, a pair of graded stakes in Louisiana, two Grade I events in the Bluegrass and the GII Black-Eyed Susan S. at Pimlico. After trying to work the attractive bay in against the boys in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, the decision was made to test the waters in the Belmont S. June 5, where she established a relatively fast pace and led past the quarter pole, but faltered in the stretch to finish seventh. The Mike Pegram-owned filly bounced right back and worked marvelously for her start in this event. Breaking alertly, Silverbulletday was carried five wide into the clubhouse turn, but Jerry Bailey, aboard the champ for the third time, shrewdly guided his mount to the inside just after the first bend to track Bag Lady Jane from second. Sitting "chilly" into the far turn, Bailey asked the "Bullet" to take up the running, advanced in hand to take over in upper stretch and was ridden out the balance. Said the winning rider, "Today she was content to just sit second until I called on her. I didn't ask her for too much today and she did it easy."

 qualified and placed fourth.

Margins: HF, HF, 2. Odds: 9.20, 2.10, 15.10.

Also Ran: Federal Trial, Chorwon, Heavens East.

Honor Glide won Arlington's Mid-America Triple, including the GI Secretariat S., in 1997, and raced on the turf in graded stakes company for most of the 1998 campaign with very little success. Most recently, the bay ran second to Comic Strip in an allowance effort on the Belmont turf June 5, his only start of the year.
 Here, the five-year-old raced just off the pace in third position for the first mile, gained on the front-runners while three-wide on the far turn, came clear under a steady, right handed whip to avoid traffic late and withstood the furious late rally of Parade Ground, who was well back down the backstretch. Winning trainer Christophe Clement commented, "I was happy with his first race (this season). Today we had a great trip, good pace and firm turf. We will now go to either the (GI)
 United Nations (July 31 at Monmouth) or the (GI)
 Sword Dancer (Aug 14 at Saratoga)."

LUCKY COIN RETIRED The winner of the 1997 Gill
 Kelso H. at Belmont Park, Lucky Coin (Chas Conerly), has been officially retired from racing, according to a story in today's Daily Racing Form. The gelding had been training forwardly recently and was nearing a race, but reinjured the bowed tendon which forced the six-year-old to the sidelines some 20 months ago.
 Fourth to Spinning World in the 1997 Breeders' Cup

Offered up last Dec. 4 for $100,000, River Keen was claimed from the barn of Bob Hess by trainer Bob Baffert as an established stakes performer, having won the GI Californian S. in 1997. The Irish-bred had raced four times in 1999 and was back up for sale in three of those events, twice back for $100,000 and most recently for $80,000 when he was second by three parts of a length June 4. The chestnut was taken well off the pace by jockey Chris Antley to be sixth after the opening half mile. As the field reached the far turn, Antley shifted River Keen to the five path for clear running and he engaged favored Barter Town just outside the quarter pole. The two were nearly inseparable down the stretch, but it was the former claimer who hit the wire just in front. "That was one great run," said Antley.
 "He settled off the pace and there was a little bit of a speed duel in front of me. When I asked him to run, he fired really big. It was just a good gutsy effort." Eoin Harty, who saddled the winner in the absence of his boss, commented, "He's had a lot of trouble, he's had quarter cracks. The last two months he has really come around and he's been very sound. He's been getting better and better all the time."

◆ PREVIEW ◆

Today, The Curragh, Ireland:

KILDANGAN STUD IRISH OAKS-G1, $266,383, 3yo, f, 1 1/2mT

SC	(PP)	HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY
1	(6)	Blend Of Pace (Ire)	Weld	Smullen
2	(4)	Mother Of Pearl (Ire)	Chapple-Hyam	Fortune
3	(7)	Polaire (Ire)	Prendergast	McDonogh
4	(1)	Ramruma	Cecil	Fallon
5	(2)	Rose Of Tara (Ire)	Grassick	Ahern
6	(3)	Sister Bella (Ire)	Oxx	Murtagh
7	(5)	Sunspangled (Ire)	A O'Brien	Kinane

The form of the G1 Vodafone Oaks was upheld in no uncertain terms when Noushkey skated to victory in the G3 Lancashire Oaks at Haydock last weekend and the Oaks winner Ramruma (Diesis {GB}) seeks to continue her run of success at the expense of only six opponents. Although the Henry Cecil stable seems to have hit a bit of a flat spot recently, it will be a surprise if she were unable to add this Irish equivalent to her Epsom success. Sunspangled (Caerleon) was sixth to Ramruma in the Oaks and it would need a major turn-around in form for the placings to be reversed. Polaire (Polish Patriot) had Sister Bella (Sadler's Wells) nearly four lengths in arrears when winning the G2 Pretty Polly Stakes at the Curragh, June 26, and may well prove best of the home defence.

Today, Belmont Park, post time 4:46 p.m. EDT:

DWYER S.-GII, $150,000, 3yo, 1 1/16m

PP	HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	ODDS
1	Millions	Blusiewicz	Santos	4-1
2	Successful Appeal	Kimmel	Migliore	5-1
3	Olympic Journey	Leonard	Dominguez	20-1
4	Doneraile Court	Zito	Chavez	9-5
5	Forestry	Baffert	Bailey	7-5
6	King's Crown	Hennig	Velazquez	12-1

The Dwyer is headed by Forestry (Storm Cat), who comes into his first graded stakes appearance on the heels of a four-race winning streak, most recently taking an overnight handicap in his first try at two turns at Churchill Downs June 12. Doneraile Court (Seattle Slew), the GIII Nashua winner from last year, has made quick work of overmatched allowance foes in his last two starts since the addition of blinkers and was victorious at this trip two back by 7 1/2 lengths. Millions (Dehere) showed renewed signs of life with a close-up fourth in the seven furlong GII Riva Ridge S. on the Belmont S. undercard and has continued to train forwardly as he stretches back out to an arguably more comfortable distance.

Today, Hoppegarten, Germany:

BERLIN BRANDENBURG-TROPHY-G2, $109,149, 3yo/up, 1mT

SC	PP	HORSE	TRAINER
1	(1)	Accento (GB)	Gang
2	(4)	Docksider	J Hills
3	(6)	Power Flame (Ger)	Wohler
4	(2)	White Heart (GB)	Johnston
5	(3)	Gonlargo (Ger)	Ostmann
6	(5)	Nicolaos (Ger)	Steinmetz

This looks to be a battle between the English-trained four-year-old Docksider (Diesis {GB}) and the German-trained three-year-old Gonlargo (Big Shuffle). Docksider has already traveled to Germany this season to win the G3 Laurent-Perrier Meile at Baden-Baden May 30 and then went under by a short head to Cape Cross (Ire) in the G2 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 15. Gonlargo was runner-up to Sumitas (Ger) in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) at Cologne May 16 and followed up by winning the G3 Grosser Preis der Dortmunder Wirtschaft at Dortmund June 21, beating Power Flame (Dashing Blade {GB}), a multiple Group winner over a mile, by a length and a half.

Today, Woodbine, post time 4:16 p.m. EDT:

DANCE SMARTLY S.-GII, $100,000, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/8mT

PP	HORSE	TRAINER	JOCKEY	ODDS
1	Genuine Emerald	O'Callaghan	Dos Ramos	7-2
2	Fly For Avie	Bell	Clark	5-1
3	Ascot Yael	Ross	Husbands	10-1
4	Forge Ahead	Attfield	Kabel	3-1
5	Ivastar	Frostad	Gulas	10-1
6a	Port Tack	Frostad	Pozansky	2-1
7a	Skytrial	Frostad	Landry	2-1
8	No Foul Play	Spencer	Bahen	8-1

Forge Ahead (Sunny's Halo) has become a consistent performer over the weeds, especially at Woodbine where in her last two starts, the four-year-old was second by a neck to allowance foes two back and more recently the runner up in the June 5 GIII Nassau S. Port Tack (Red Ransom), second in the 1997 G2C Natalma S. at two over this turf, returned from an eight-month hiatus to score a one-length victory against $50,000 optional claimers June 5. Fly For Avie (Lord Avie) won her first start of 1999 at Gulfstream Jan. 22, but is winless since. She was 10th in the Nassau and was unlucky to finish second to Genuine Emerald (Unduplicated) in a money allowance event June 20.

CRYPTODIPLOMACY (g, 3, Cryptoclearance--Tiny's Teardrop, by Dixieland Band) looked like he had a promising future when he scored two impressive wins as a two-year-old, but since a win last September, the gelding had gone five starts without reaching the winner's circle. Two races back he finished last in the Gill Flamingo at Hialeah April 3, and most recently finished sixth as the favorite against allowance types June 5 over this strip. The bay stayed on the pace early, advanced outside when roused on the turn and drew clear under steady handling to win by 1 1/2 lengths as the 11-10 choice. Lifetime Record: 11-3-2-1, $95,360. 7th-BEL, $44,000, (S), 3yo/up, 6 1/2f, 1:16 2/5, ft.

LUCKY ROBERTO (c, 3, Belong to Me--Roberto's Gal (GB), by Roberto) returned to the winner's circle for the first time since his victory in the GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga last year. The bay colt was off for five months and in his second start back finished third to Yes It's True in the Gill Swale S. at Gulfstream. After running ninth in Charismatic's GI Coolmore Lexington S., Lucky Roberto was taken off the classics trail and finished a game second in a state-bred allowance at Belmont May 8. Freshened up, the 4-5 chalk stalked the early pace, moved up to challenge on the outside approaching the stretch and drew clear late to get his picture taken by 3 1/4 lengths. Ruby Park, a $105,000 KEESEP yearling, posted solid works for her career debut in this stakes affair. Leaving the gate as the people's choice, the precocious chestnut went along easily just off the pace early on, made a powerful move to assume command on the turn and drew clear under a hand ride to prove much the best by an ever-widening margin.

Sister Fiona remained undefeated in collecting her first stakes victory. The dark bay had rallied from eighth to break her maiden over this surface June 25, and was sent off as the second choice off that effort. Drawing the 11 hole in a field of 12, Sister Fiona was rated early in fourth, angled in to save ground on the turn, swung outside to challenge and wore down a gallant Sweeping in the shadow of the wire. Trainer Marty Wolfson was thrilled with his filly's win and said, "With a little more distance, my filly will do better sitting further back. We'll have to ship her for her next start--either a stakes at Saratoga or the Sorority (GIII) at Monmouth Aug. 14.

5th-MTH, $30,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:10, ft.

GRANITE CITY (c, 3, Carson City--Pat Copelan {GSW, $202,654}, by Copelan) scored a four-length victory in his last effort, a maiden affair June 27 over this same strip. The 5-2 second choice stalked the pacesetters three-wide along the backstretch, started his advance while still racing considerably wide on the far turn, responded when set down for the stretch run and just got up late to win by a half at 5-2 odds. Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, $40,400.

MONEY IN THE SHEET (f, 4, Smokester--Dona Plata, by Sovereign Don) won her first two career outings, both against Cal-breds, before running seventh in the Melair S. for state bred last June. She had made three starts this season, all against open company, and was most recently second by 1/2 length at this trip June 19. The homebred forced the pace while three wide early, then split rivals decisively in deep stretch to prevail by half a length as the 3.30-1 second choice. Lifetime Record: 7-3-1-0, $99,175.

Dansili showed he is a top-class racehorse over a mile when second to Sendawar (Ire) in the G1 Dubai Poule d'Essai des Poulains at Longchamp May 16, but could only finish fourth to Golden Snake when tried over a further furlong in the G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly June 6 on his latest start. Reverting to a mile here, Dansili produced another superb performance, racing clear of market rival Kabool for an easy success. Dansili, in fourth position early on, was poised to challenge approaching the final quarter, led 1 1/2 furlongs out and was ridden clear from the furlong marker to win unchallenged. Kabool made his effort at the two-furlong pole but didn't have the pace of the winner and did well to hold the strong late challenge of Miss Berbere, who kept on well from the rear to be a clear third.
