CHARISMATIC TO LANE'S END Charismatic (Summer Squall--Bali Babe {Drone}), the winner of the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness before suffering a career-ending injury when finishing third in the GI Belmont S. June 5, will enter stud next year at William S. Farish's Lane's End Farm near Versailles, Kentucky. Owned by Bob and Beverly Lewis and trained by D. Wayne Lukas, the colt was dropped into a $62,500 claiming race in February, but went on to set a stakes record in the GII Lexington S. before heading onto the Triple Crown trail. He was retired with a record of five wins, two seconds and four thirds from 17 starts and earnings of $2,038,064. Charismatic will stand the 2000 breeding season for a fee of $35,000, live foal.

EXPULSED TO WIMBLEDON FARM Expelled (Explodent--Social Lesson {Forum}), the winner of the GI Eddie Read H. at Del Mar in 1997, has been retired and will begin a new career at stud at Wimbledon Farm in Lexington, Kentucky next year. The seven-year-old will stand as the property of a syndicate that includes his owner/breeder, Juddmonte Farms. Expelled raced in France as a two-year-old, winning the G3 Prix du Bois and running third in the G2 Prix Robert Papin despite losing a shoe. Overall, he won seven of his 17 starts, with one second and three thirds. He earned $406,188.

HOST TRACKS ANNOUNCED FOR "AMERICA'S DAY AT THE RACES" The Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association has selected the three host tracks for the 1999 renewal of "America's Day at the Races." Ellis Park, Hawthorne Race Course and Del Mar will be the hosts for the event, set for Labor Day, Sept. 6. A total of 20 tracks are scheduled to take part.

The newly upgraded DeFrancis Dash features an early-season matchup between two of the country's top sprinters. Yes It's True (Is It True) seeks his fourth straight victory and his first Grade I overall. The bay colt is coming off a seven-length romp in the GIII Jersey Shore Breeders' Cup S. June 19 and defeated his elders two back in the GII Maryland Breeders' Cup H. May 15. Good and Tough (Carson City) sped to a front-running victory in the GIII Finger Lakes Breeders Cup H. June 19 and looks for his third graded-stakes win of the year.

COLONIAL MINSTREL RETIRED According to published reports, MGSW Colonial Minstrel (Pleasant Colony--Minstrella {The Minstrel}) has been retired after finishing fourth in a Belmont allowance race July 9. The five-year-old mare captured the Poinciana Breeders' Cup H. at Hialeah in April, but had been off the board in her last three starts. Bred in Virginia, she won 10 of her 24 career appearances, with four seconds and three thirds. Last year was her best season, when she won six of 11 outings, including the GII Shuvee H. and GIII Humana Distaff H., and also ran third in the GI Hempstead H. She goes to the breeding shed with earnings of $556,587.

June 20 and must stare down the second- and third-place finishers in that race, Colorado Song (Pine Bluff) and Dianehill (Danehill). Colorado Song made a three-wide bid in the Princess and was caught late in her first stakes attempt of the year. Dianehill has never finished out of the money in six career starts and looks to stalk the pace.

Anthenian Thunder missed by a half length when third in the restricted New York Stallion S. at Aqueduct in April, then was second in a New York-bred allowance race going six furlongs at Belmont May 28, but didn't handle the turf in her latest and ran 10th in another state-bred allowance June 25. Back on the main track, the chestnut broke sharply, stalked the pace while saving ground on the turn, then angled to the outside for the stretch drive to take the lead and draw clear. Cryptic Rascal, a graded-stakes winner at two and three, hadn't visited the winner's circle since taking a Belmont allowance race June 24, 1998. The bay ended '98 with three straight off-the-board finishes in graded stakes, then ran out of the money in his first two outings this year before finishing third, beaten only a neck, in the May 30 GIII Jaipur H. He came back as the 9-5 favorite in a Belmont allowance June 19 and tired after setting the pace to be fourth. Unhurried early this time, he had only one horse behind him after six furlongs, but finished full of run to get the narrow victory.

BACK IN SHAPE (f, 3, Wild Again--Fit to Scout {GISW, $767,600}, by Fit to Fight) won back-to-back races over the Aqueduct inner track this winter, but was eased over a sloppy main strip at Belmont in May and finished a distant third trying turf for the first time in her most recent try, a June 24 Belmont allowance going a mile and a quarter. Shortening up with a return to the main track, the dark bay was never far from the lead, drove to the front at the top of the stretch and drew away to a 4 1/4-length score at 3-1. Tom Durkin Resigns Gulfstream Post:

Tom Durkin, a.k.a. "the Voice of the Breeders' Cup," has resigned as the track announcer at Gulfstream Park. Durkin has called the races at the track for the last six seasons. He cited "personal and business" reasons when tendering the resignation. Durkin will be at Gulfstream to call the Breeders' Cup meet, Nov. 5-7. "Leaving Gulfstream will allow me more time to focus attention on my two most important professional priorities, New York racing and the Breeders' Cup," Durkin said. "Equally important, the lighter work load will allow me more time at home in New York and more time for personal development. Obviously, leaving Gulfstream was a very difficult decision. It is one of the best jobs I have ever had." Durkin will not call the races in New York this winter, but may in the future. His replacement at Gulfstream has not yet been named.

Elated Guy Retired:

Elated Guy (Brave Shot {GB}), a stakes winner of $960,540 and a favorite at Woodbine for nine seasons, has been retired. Owners Frank Digiulio and Frank Digiulio Jr. and trainer Robert Tiller claimed the gelding for $40,000 in 1991. He went on to win five stakes races and place in 15 more, including a second in the GII Molson Million and a third in the GIII Grey S. Elated Guy picked up his final win in the 1997 Halton S. at Woodbine. He had started just three times this year, finishing fourth in a pair of optional claimers before being eased in his last appearance July 10. Tiller reported that the horse was sound after his last start, but the decision was made to retire him. "He's a grand old horse," the trainer said. "To tell you the truth, he's been a cranky old guy since day one, but he really loved training and he loved running." The 10-year-old will be turned out at a farm north of Toronto. "He's going to have a good home," Tiller said.

Rockingham Stakes Gets Purst Boost:

The purse for the 1999 edition of the Spicy Living S. at Rockingham Park, a 1 1/8-mile grass test for fillies and mares set for Aug. 1, has been raised from $75,000 to $100,000. Rockingham has also added a stakes to the Spicy Living undercard, the $25,000 Rockette S. for three-year-old fillies going a mile on the turf. The race was first run in 1968, but had not been on the calendar since 1995.

Buck's Boy Back on Track:

Last year's champion turf horse Buck's Boy (Bucksplasher), who has spent the last few months at owner George Bunn's Quarter B Farm in Illinois, arrived at Hawthorne Wednesday. "He was sent to me in Florida in mid-January," trainer Noel Hickey said. "A few weeks later he developed an abscess in his stomach and I took him out of training. Mr. Bunn wanted him back at his farm, and he has been there ever since. I understand he has been in training...for the last 55 days." Hickey has not yet mapped out a campaign for the Eclipse winner, but said the ultimate goal would be the Breeders' Cup Turf, which he won last year.
