Third behind champion Silverbulletday in the Gill Davona Dale S. at the Fair Grounds in February, On a Soapbox took four months off after that race, coming back to post a Churchill Downs allowance score at a 1 1/16 miles June 25. Stretching out to 1 1/2 miles as a distant second choice to GI Mother Goose S. winner Dreams Gallore, the bay shadowed pacesetter Strolling Belle to the top of the stretch, turned back a bid from the favorite and drew off with authority. Trainer Niall O'Callaghan revealed he nearly didn't run the filly. "We were 50-50 all week," he said. "I entered her in Delaware and thought she could win the race down there. But I also felt when I bought her last year that she was a mile-and-a-half horse. I shipped her to Delaware (from Churchill Downs), then shipped her here at 4:30 this morning." The filly will likely go next in the GI Alabama S. at Saratoga Aug. 21. Jockey Robby Albarado, aboard Dreams Gallore, said, "I can't make an excuse for her. She gave me 110 percent. I saved ground and cut the corners and still couldn't beat that horse."

Margins: 5, HF, 2HF. Odds: 3-1, 8-1, 4-1.

Also ran: Silver Patriarch (Ire), Sunshine Street, Indigenous (Ire), Oath (Ire), Daliapour (Ire).

It was thought Daylami would not stay this trip in a strongly run race, but that misconception was laid to rest in no uncertain terms as he produced a spectacular burst of acceleration to leave a field of quality rivals in his wake. It was one of the easiest victories ever seen in this race. In winning, Daylami provided jockey Frankie Dettori with his third win in the race and gave Godolphin its fourth win in five years. Daliapour (Sadler's Wells) was sent into an immediate lead ahead of the intended front-runner Nedawi and set a good pace, with Daylami biding his time in fourth. Nedawi headed Daliapour with five furlongs to go and still held the call over Daliapour and Oath as the field swung into the straight. Daylami seemed to struggle briefly at this point, but as Oath and Daliapour began to fade at the two-furlong marker, he came with his challenge on the outside, quickening 1 1/2 furlongs out and instantly going clear. He ran on strongly to the line as Nedawi kept on for a memorable Godolphin one-two. "We went a good lick, but I was worried about his inside draw so I had to get out and give him a chance," said Dettori. "When he picked it up in the straight he gave me goose pimples and we went past the rest as if they were standing still. I swear to God, Daylami would have beaten anybody today. He put five lengths between himself and the others in just half a furlong." Sheikh Mohammed added, "Maybe the field was not quite as strong as it has been for the race in some years, but he won really well. He will race again this year, but he is going to retire to the Aga Khan's Giltown Stud in Ireland at the end of the season."

Stellar Brush almost never runs a bad race. Sixth in the Mar. 14 GII Louisiana Derby in his lone off-the-board showing, the bay had been in the money in four straight stakes since, winning the June 13 Leonard Richard S. at Delaware Park before finishing second in the Iowa Derby at Prairie Meadows in his latest July 4. He picked up his first graded win with a six-wide sweep around the final turn, rallying from 10th and just holding off the another late closer, Ecton Park, to take the photo. "(Stellar Brush) really heated up before the race, and I could tell he was anxious to get in the gate and go," jockey Mike McCarthy told the Thoroughbred Times. "We were sitting pretty good, in the second group of horses in the clubhouse turn. He was a little closer than usual, but he felt comfortable the whole way." Added trainer Richard Small, "He was looking around at the eighth pole, but when (Ecton Park) came at us, (Stellar Brush) picked it up and my heart started beating again. The fractions were pretty fast and that helped my confidence as the race went on. We felt pretty confident coming into this race."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. Purses for Canadian races are in Canadian dollars.

Margins: 5, HD, SNK. Odds: 0.70, 5.00.

Also ran: Lord Pacal (Ire), Vincenslass (Fr).

The unbeaten winner of the G3 Anglesey S. at The Curragh July 11, Rossini maintained his perfect record in fine style, quickening away from a small field for an easy win. The odds-on favorite broke well and disputed the lead at a good pace from the outside with the German-trained challenger Auenklang. He took a clear advantage with 1 1/2 furlongs remaining and quickened away in the last 100 yards despite drifting left toward the rail to record a comfortable success. The runner-up ran greenly once headed and wandered slightly under pressure, but kept on well enough to hold second. Finnan ran on strongly from the rear to snatch third in the dying strides. Said winning trainer Aidan O'Brien, "The timing of this race suited us with regard to the (G1 Phoenix Heinz 57 S. at Leopardstown, Aug. 8) or the (G1 Prix Morny at Deauville, Aug. 22). Rossini could go for the Morny, but we have lots of choices."

Margins: 3/4, SNK, NK. Odds: 7.20, 11.00.

Also ran: Ben Ewar (GB), Epistolaire (Ire), Playing Hours.

Confirming the form of his win over Kashwan and Palio Sky in the Listed Prix La Moskowa at Chantilly June 15, Lucky Dream maintained his perfect record for the season, two-for-two, when employing similar tactics here for a deserved success. Palio Sky, the British raider, went straight into the lead and set a searching pace to ensure a true test of stamina. Aidan O'Brien's Playing Hours (Alleged) settled well in second, with the favorite Epistolaire (Ire) (Alzao) stalking in third and Lucky Dream sitting fifth. Palio Sky still led rounding the final turn as jockey Thierry Thulliez moved Lucky Dream into a menacing third. The winner hit the front 1 1/2 furlongs out and kept on well all the way to the line for the win. Palio Sky rallied once headed and ran on in determined fashion to hold second from Kashwan. Epistolaire, stuck on the rail, was going well as they came into the straight, but found little for the drive and finished fifth.

Outstanding older horse Ungaro (Goofalik), winner of this race last year, went to Italy May 29 to contest the G2 Premio Ellington, but went lame and had to be withdrawn. He returned to Italy June 20 and finished runner-up by only a nose to Dark Moondancer (GB) in the G1 Gran Premio di Milano over this trip. On that form Ungaro should have the measure of the two good three-year-old colts Silvano (Lomitas {GB}) and Sumitas (Lomitas {GB}), both of whom disappointed when finishing fourth and fifth, respectively, in the G1 BMW Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 4. Silvano had previously won the G2 Oppenheim-Colonia Union-Rennen at Cologne June 13, when G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) winner Sumitas was only sixth. Trainer Sir Michael Stoute has a rare runner in Germany in the progressive Dark Shell (Darshaan {GB}), who won the Listed Aston Park S. at Newbury May 15 by seven lengths on only his second start of the year.

5a	Son of a Pistol	Headley	Solis	7-5
6	Mr. Fortune	Lloyd	Espinoza	12-1

Big Jag (Kleven) rides a three-race winning streak into this test, taking the Jan. 30 GII Palos Verdes H., Mar. 6 GII San Carlos H. and Apr. 3 GII Potrero Grande Breeders' Cup H. The five-year-old had won four in a row before starting this season with a second-place finish in the Jan. 3 El Conejo H., his only loss since coming back after a 19-month layoff. Lakota Brave (Northern Prospect) makes his 10-year-old bow. The veteran sprinter hasn't been out since running third in a Santa Anita allowance last October, but he has been working bullets for his return. The gelding was two-for-two at Del Mar last year and overall has six wins and two seconds in eight starts at the seaside course. Son of a Pistol (Big Pistol), the winner of this race last year, comes off a victory in the May 30 GIII Los Angeles H. The seven-year-old has been first or second in five of his six Del Mar outings.

While the scratched On a Soapbox shipped up to Belmont to annex the GI Coaching Club American Oaks, Brushed Halory emerged triumphant in the Delaware Oaks and in the process became the third graded-stakes winner for her dam Halory. The bay filly had run well against divisional star Silverbulletday, finishing second in the Feb. 20 GIII Davona Dale S. at Fair Grounds and third in the Mar. 13 Fair Grounds Oaks. In her most recent start, the Broad Brush filly finished a tired second in a Keeneland allowance Apr. 21 and was given a break as a result. Back after the short vacation, she rated early, responded when roused and finished with good energy for a clear victory. Trainer Josie Carroll will now head to Saratoga with the winner, saying: "We thought from the moment she stretched out she would be a good horse. We're looking at the Alabama (GI, Aug. 21)."

Kissin' Jeb had won three out of her last four starts, including the Revidere S. over this course, before tiring badly to be a disappointing seventh in the July 4 Captive Miss S. Bouncing back from that effort, the bay sprinted right to the lead, set all the pace and held on gamely over the late-closing longshot Sangam. "The plan was to go to the front and stay there," jockey Stewart Elliott said. "I was a little worried that someone would try and go with us, but they just left us alone. I could hear them coming the last sixteenth; I was saying, 'come on, wire.' I knew they were starting to gang up on us, but she kept running. She had just enough." The winner could head to Saratoga for her next start, with the Gil Lake Placid H. Aug. 25 a possible target. Her long-term goal is the $200,000 Calder Oaks Oct. 23.

Bursting Forth returned to the winner's circle here with an impressive victory over eight rivals. The bay mare scored a game victory in the GIII Bewitch S. at Keeneland Apr. 22, but had a tough time of it when sixth in her next start, the Gil Sheepshead Bay H. at Belmont May 31. The second choice in this test, she stalked the early pace, advanced steadily to split horses in the upper stretch and closed determinedly for the win. Jockey Edgar Prado was pleased with his mount's effort, saying: "I was fortunate to find a hole at the quarter pole and when she found that hole, she really took off."

Jazz Club regained his winning form in fine style here. The bay colt captured the GIII Creme Fraiche H. at Gulfstream Mar. 13 and followed that with a victory in the GIII Ben Ali H. at Keeneland Apr. 23, but was an even third in the May 16 GIII Eclipse H. at Woodbine and a lackluster sixth in the June 12 Gil Brooklyn H. at Belmont. Unhurried early, he picked up the tempo on the turn and challenged three wide, took command entering the stretch and was ridden out to a daylight victory.

Ray's Approval had never won a stakes affair entering this graded event and was a soundly beaten third in his last effort, a turf allowance at Hawthorne July 14. Hustled to the front from the get-go here, the grey settled comfortably through the backstretch to set the early fractions, widened his lead slightly around the turn, was set down under heavy urging entering the stretch and showed heart to hit the wire ahead of several closing competitors. Trainer Robert Irwin said, "This horse doesn't like the dirt. The turf is his home."

The five-year-old has made a good living on the road, racing at 11 different tracks, most recently taking the May 31 Lone Star Park H. and running second in the July 5 GIII Prairie Meadows Cornhusker Breeders' Cup H. He won at Louisiana Downs for the second time in three tries here, setting a track record with an easy win. The even-money favorite was gunned to the lead from the gate, dropped back to third and then rallied three-wide to quickly open a 3 1/2-length lead at the top of the stretch on Leave a Legacy, who came from far back to get second.

Flicht Retired:

MGSW Flicht (Demons Begone--Whiffing, by Wavering Monarch), off the board against $35,000 claimers in his two starts this year, has been retired. The half brother to the ill-fated champion Prairie Bayou, who won the 1993 Preakness, but broke down in the Belmont S. and had to be euthanized, compiled a record of 32-8-4-3 over six seasons, earning $628,796. But he hadn't won since taking the 1996 GII Seneca H. at Saratoga and started only five times from 1997-99. The seven-year-old, winner of the '95 GII National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame S., was also second in the GII Arkansas Derby and GII Saratoga Special. "Plans have not been finalized, but I think he's going to stand stud duty in either New York or New Jersey," trainer Billy Badgett said.

Auntie Mame Back on Work Tab:

Auntie Mame (Theatrical {Ire}), winner of last year's GI Flower Bowl Invitational H., worked three furlongs in :39 over the Belmont main track Friday morning. "The work was her first since I got her back from Kentucky," trainer Angel Penna Jr. said. "She looks real good and it's a pleasure to have her back around the barn. After the Matriarch (she finished fifth in the Nov. 29 race), she had trouble with her splint bones, so we sent her to Kentucky. She's been back around 60 days. Everything has healed and I'm looking forward to seeing her race." Penna said he expected the five-year-old to be ready at the end of Saratoga or at the beginning of the Belmont fall meet. A winner in 10 of her 17 starts, the eight-time stakes winner has earned $961,480.

Winner of the German Oaks and German 1000 Guineas at three, Que Belle started only twice at four, running second in the G1 Prix Ganay before finishing fifth in the G2 Prix Jean de Chaudenay to prematurely end the campaign May 15. She made her U.S. bow after an 11-month layoff, finishing third in a Santa Anita allowance Apr. 16, then showed no punch when fifth in her latest try, the GIII Wilshire H. at Hollywood May 9. Last after six furlongs in a moderate 1:11.30 on her return, she angled out for the stretch drive and finished fast to get her nose in front at the wire. Trainer Ron Ellis was surprised to see his mare so far back. "I gave up on her," he admitted. "Around the turn, I said I don't know what's wrong with this filly. She's been training as good as she can train and I have no idea why she's not going to run today. The next thing I know there's this big explosion and I got pretty excited."

Easy winner of a Pontefract maiden May 18, Sainly Speech had no difficulty in stepping straight into Group company here and created a most favorable impression with this outstanding victory. She has been established as the early 20-1 favorite for next season's 1000 Guineas. The filly was settled at the back of the field as Love You Too (Be My Chief) led at a moderate pace from the favorite Journalist, who was purchased privately this week by Sheikh Maktoum bin Rashid al Maktoum. A furlong and a half out, Sainly Speech appeared to have too much to do to catch Journalist, who had come to grab the lead from Love You Too, but Robert Sangster's colorbearer found the perfect split between horses on the outside, quickened brilliantly and flew home, catching the crowd's choice inside the final 50 yards to win going away. Delighted winning trainer Peter Chapple-Hyam said, "I really like this filly a lot and she has always been one of my favorites. I was concerned at her outside draw, but I knew she stays really well and really wants further. She is entered in the [G2] Lowther S. at York [Aug. 19], but that could be a bit too quickly for her, so there are really no definite plans for her."

A second Group win for Tertullian, who captured the G3 Premio Chiusura in Italy last October. He began this year in great style, notching up a hat trick of Listed wins in his home country, but was then only placed in the G3 Benazet-Rennen at Baden-Baden June 4 and the G3 Holsten-Trophy at Hamburg July 3. El Lute (Scenic {Ire}) set the pace in front of a closely bunched field as Tertullian and favored Tomba raced in mid-division. A quarter-mile out, the winner quickened into the lead, pursued by the 1997 hero of this event, Tomba, and these two fought it out through the final furlong before Tertullian asserted his superiority.

A perfect start to the day for the Godolphin team, with Josr Algarhoud, without a run since winning the G2 Gimcrack S. at York last August, confirming the promise he had shown as a juvenile. After tracking the leader Haami until 1 1/2 furlongs out, the colt quickened well, grabbing the lead in a few strides and going clear for an impressive win.
