Approximately 20,000 people turned up to witness one of the highlights of German racing this season, billed as a showdown between Sumitas and Ungaro, second by a nose in the G1 Gran Premio di Milano June 20 in his latest start. The pair provided a battling display, with the latter just prevailing in a tight finish. Only five contenders assembled at the start, but a lack of quantity did not mean a lack of quality. Andrasch Starke sent last year's winner Ungaro straight to the lead as Sumitas raced in second. Both traveled well within themselves and, once into the straight, Ungaro quickened from the front, but Sumitas was still there to challenge. Both hooked up for a duel, with the topweight Ungaro going slightly better than his unrelenting rival. The effort went some way toward the redemption of Sumitas' reputation, and he regained his position as the leader of the Classic generation with this performance.

Margins: 5, 2HF, 2HF. Odds: 2.80, 1.60A; 9.40.

Also Ran: Big Jag, Lakota Brave, Mr. Fortune.

Christmas Boy took a Santa Anita optional claimer by 5 1/2 lengths last October, but didn't resurface again before running second in the June 27 GII Triple Bend Breeders' Cup H. at Hollywood Park. The dark bay gelding, third choice of the California bettors, sprinted out to set the pace and widened his advantage at every call for an easy victory. "He was really running," admitted winning rider Corey Nakatani. "I'd ridden him one time before in a route race and he ran great. I knew he was a better horse sprinting. I knew I could make the lead out of there, so I just helped him get started. He was running all the way." Winning trainer John Sadler added, "I've had a lot of great sprinters. This horse is turning into a great sprinter. We wanted to be in front in this race. We thought that the favorites were stalkers. We wanted to take advantage of any pace scenario that might be favorable for us. And it worked out. Those splits were really realistic for these kinds of horses (:22.36, :44.66, :56.14)." As for what's next for Christmas Boy, Sadler said, "The (Aug. 14 GII) Pat O'Brien is possible. When they run this big a race you want to make sure the spacing is right for the next race. We don't want to run him back too quick." Son of a Pistol chased the pacesetter but could never mount a serious challenge, while favored Big Jag (Kleven), winner of three straight, including the Apr. 3 GII Potrero Grande Breeders' Cup H., lacked a late rally and finished fourth.

BELMONT NUMBERS UP Belmont Park concluded its 55-day spring meeting yesterday, with figures for total handle shooting up 20.9 percent from last year and on-track handle increasing 2.2 percent. Total handle reached $621,924,775 compared to the 1998 figure of $514,519,158. On-track handle was $112,297,380--up from $109,860,598 in 1998. On-track attendance was 493,155--up slightly from last year's 491,604. "We're extremely pleased with the results of this meeting," said New York Racing Association President and COO Terry Meyocks. "Wagering from all sources reached almost $12 million per day, much higher than any other Belmont meeting. And all our numbers were up." Racing begins Wednesday at Saratoga.

THE GROOM IS RED SIDELINED A condylar fracture has sidelined last year's GI Champagne S. winner The Groom is Red (Runaway Groom), according to Daily Racing Form. The injury was discovered after the three-year-old colt worked five furlongs at Belmont Monday. The Groom is Red was operated on at Rood and Riddle Equine Hospital in Kentucky and trainer Nick Zito told the Form his charge could return to training in 60-90 days. Winless in five starts this year, most recently finishing eighth in the May 23 GIII Peter Pan S., The Groom is Red has won three of 12 starts for earnings of $329,220.

Daylami Points to Arc:

Saturday's G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. winner Daylami (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}) is now being aimed towards the Oct. 3 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, with the G1 Esat Digifone Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown Sept. 11 likely to be his warm-up race. Godolphin's Racing Manager Simon Crisford said yesterday, "Obviously, those two races are under serious consideration by (owner) Sheikh Maktoum, because timing-wise, they fit into Daylami's schedule very well. The Arc is a big target for any of the top older horses and that's the race I think we'll be aiming him at." Fruits of Love (Hansel), third in the race, is being aimed at the GI Canadian International at Woodbine Oct. 17, with the Breeders' Cup also on the agenda.

A seven-and-a-half length winner in his last, a Belmont state-bred allowance July 1 in his first start for trainer Bill Mott, Sophisticated Man was sent off a narrow favorite to earn his first stakes win. Sent to vie for the lead after a quarter-mile, he took over leaving the backstretch and went clear under a drive.

BRENDAN SHINE (g, 3, Comet Shine--Rose de France, by Ben Fab) earned his maiden victory with a 12-length romp against state-bred company in an off-the-turfer May 19 and was coming off a runner-up finish over the turf July 8. In his first start against open company, the gelding settled off the pace early, was boxed in at upper stretch before finding room with a furlong to run, and pulled off to a 1 1/4-length victory at 9-2. Lifetime Record: 10-2-1-2, $72,840. O-Kerrigan Hugh. B-Gus Schoenborn, Jr (NY). T-Leo O'Brien.

STORM'N EDDY (c, 3, Woodman--Midway Squall, by Storm Bird) broke his maiden June 27 at Belmont before an eighth-place effort in his turf debut over 1 1/8 mile July 11. The tepid 3-1 favorite was outrun early, rallied four wide as the field approached the stretch to take over inside the final furlong and gamely held on for a neck win. Lifetime Record: 5-2-1-0, $57,800.

Tap to Music, winner of last year's GI Gazelle H., was third in her last two outings, the May 22 Gil Shuvee H. and the July 5 Gil Molly Pitcher Breeders' Cup H. Third choice in the field of 13, the filly raced near the pace for a mile, shook clear with a furlong to run and held favored Keeper Hill safe to the wire. "We opted to go ahead and let her come away from there and just try to conserve her and sit still and not call on her, not use her at all until as late in the race as possible," explained winning rider Pat Day. "When we came off the corner, she changed leads and I went ahead and put her back to the task and she came on to the wire running."

Trainer Joe Orseno added that Tap to Music will likely race next in the Aug. 27 GI Personal Ensign at Saratoga.

Dismissed as the third-longest shot in this eight-horse field after three straight stakes losses on the grass, including a tiring third in the Lamplighter H. at Monthmouth July 3 at a sixteenth of a mile shorter than this event, North East Bound entered this race with just one stakes win to his credit. He was overshadowed by the heavy favorite, Swamp, who had three graded wins under his belt, including the Gil Jersey Derby in his most recent start May 30 at Monmouth. Expected to set the pace, North East Bound did just that, but on this day, never looked back, holding on for a narrow win over the closing Courtside. The latter had made just two lifetime starts, winning a maiden special weight July 2 at Belmont in his last outing and made an impressive stakes debut for trainer Michael Dickinson. Swamp, never far back, was brushed by the winner at the top of the stretch and continued willingly through the lane, but couldn't get past the top two. "He is a natural speed horse and they let him go in :25 and :49," commented winning rider Jose Velez, Jr. "When he gets those fractions, it is going to take a good horse to beat him. When they came to me, I had a lot of horse left. He just did not want to get beat."

Margins: 1, 4HF, 3/4. Odds: 13.25, 0.60, 4.50.

A winner of her debut Dec. 3 at Woodbine in a five-furlong maiden special weight event, Gandria entered the second leg of Canada's Triple Crown still looking for her second win. She had performed admirably against top-flight company, however, finishing second in the April 11 Star Shoot S., the May 9 Fury S., and in the first leg of the Canadian Triple Crown, the June 27 Queen's Plate S. in her last start at the hands of Woodcarver. Despite that showing, she was sent away the second-longest choice in the eight-horse field, while Woodcarver was bet down to 3-5. The favorite took the lead at the top of the stretch, but was collared at the sixteenth pole by the filly, who went on to win with something left.

MATCH Pts: 1st-6, 2nd-4, 3rd-3, 4th-2, 5th+1.

Winner of the Gil Prioress S. at Belmont as a three-year-old, Hurricane Bertie concluded her sophomore campaign with disappointing performances in the Gil Test (9th) and the GIII Honorable Miss S. (5th). Rested over five months after those two losses, she returned with an allowance win in her four-year-old debut Jan. 29 at the Fair Grounds, and has since added a Churchill allowance win and a score in Belmont's GIII Vagrancy H. June 20 in her last start. Sent away the second choice here, she wired the field under a hand ride for an easy win.

Second in her career debut June 12 at Churchill, Miss Wineshine ran into a tiger in her next start in the form of stablemate Chilukki in the GIII Debutante S. two weeks later. Beaten 5 1/4 lengths that day while best of all the rest, she came into the Silver Spur seeking her first win and achieved that goal in stellar style. The heavy favorite, she went right to the front and increased her advantage at every call.

Magic Broad, winner of last year's Gill Selima S., was coming off back-to-back runner-up finishes in Maryland optional claiming efforts, June 11 and July 3. The bay filly sat just behind the pacesetters, ranged up three wide at the top of the stretch and drew clear late for her first win of the year.

Bright Magic, fourth in her June 4 debut, graduated with a 3 1/2-length tally in her last trip to the post July 7. The California-bred miss dueled for the early lead through fractions of :22.35, :44.82 and 1:09.42, before driving clear at the quarter pole en route to an easy score. "She was full of run," said winning rider Kent Desormeaux. "She just ran great. He (trainer Warren Stute) doesn't call often, but when he does, the call is serious."

Mike K, coming off back-to-back scores in the June 13 John Longden 6,000 and in the July 1 Gill Lieutenant Governors Breeders' Cup H. at Hastings, made his first start south of the border as the second choice in the field of seven. The Canadian-bred gelding raced on or near the lead throughout and battled unyieldingly down the lane for a narrow win despite bumping with Thetruthisoutthere at midstretch. "I have ridden this horse 14 times," said winning rider Gerry Olguin. "This is the best race he ever ran." As for tackling the Aug. 22 Gill Longacres Mile next time out, Olguin added, "It is $250,000 US. I'm living in Canada. That is a lot of Canadian dollars."
