TO THE "VICTOR" BELONGS WHITNEY SPOILS Victory Gallop (Cryptoclearance) drove past Behrens (Pleasant Colony) in the final sixteenth and held on as the five-year-old came back at him to win yesterday's GI Whitney H. at Saratoga by the bob of a head. It could have gone either way. "I didn't think I got beat," winning jockey Jerry Bailey said. "I thought maybe it was a dead-heat or maybe I got the nod. But when Behrens saw my horse, he dug in. It was so close, I couldn't be sure." Behrens now leads the "NTRA Champions on FOX" with 46 points, but trainer Jim Bond said yesterday that the colt will not go to California for the final race in the series, the $1 million GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar Aug. 29, instead waiting for the Oct. 10 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont. Victory Gallop, second in the standings with 26 points, is possible for the Pacific Classic, which would set up a rematch with archenemy Real Quiet (Quiet American). Real Quiet is now third in the NTRA series with 22 points. The two rivals have not met since Victory Gallop spoiled Real Quiet's Triple Crown bid with a nose win in the '98 GI Belmont S. "(The Pacific Classic) is something we have thought about," Victory Gallop's trainer Elliott Walden said. "We've intended to do it. We'll sure take a look at the race. If he runs in the next four to six weeks, it will be in the Pacific Classic."

GARY STEVENS HEADED HOME Jockey Gary Stevens yesterday confirmed that he has signed to ride for The Thoroughbred Corporation and will leave his job as Sir Michael Stoute's stable rider in Britain late this month. "He is going and it is very disappointing," Sir Michael said. "I understand the situation and it has been a pleasure to be associated with him." Stevens added, "It was only for somebody like Prince Ahmed [Salman] that I would consider leaving England so soon. Prince Ahmed has set up a highly successful organization. He is a very knowledgeable horseman and is one of the emerging major players in world racing." Salman, who has most of his horses in training in the U.S., although he also has significant interests in Britain, said, "It is very exciting news that Gary has agreed to join us. I am sure the experience he has gained from riding in Britain through the summer will add an extra ingredient to his overall ability." Stoute has yet to decide what to do about a jockey, but a link-up with Kieren Fallon does look likely.

Victory Gallop, winner of last year's GI Belmont S. by a nose, had won two of his three starts this season, taking an allowance race at Gulfstream Mar. 3 before traveling halfway across the world to run third in the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 28. He showed no ill effects from that long journey when he came back for the GI Stephen Foster H. at Churchill Downs June 12, putting in an explosive move to win by five in track-record time. The odds-on choice to do it again, the four-year-old was last after a half, but came with a three-wide sweep on the final turn as second choice Behrens rallied even wider in front of him. Behrens took a short lead as they straightened for home; jockey Jerry Bailey kept Victory Gallop out in the middle of the track for his late run and they took over in the final yards, but Behrens battled back and just missed in a tight photo. "It was just a fantastic race," winning trainer Elliott Walden said. "The two champions showed up. Victory Gallop is a real professional with a lot of confidence right now. When he makes that run, it's scintillating to watch."

Joe Who was the best miler in his native Brazil in both 1997 and 1998, and his only stakes victories in the U.S. had all come at that distance, including his last start, the June 27 GIII Firecracker Breeders' Cup H. at Churchill Downs. Trainer Bob Baffert had only sent his South American charge nine furlongs twice and he was fourth both times, in the 1998 GII Citation H. on the turf and the GIII Native Diver H. on the dirt. Returning to the West Coast from his three-race Churchill junket while looking for two in a row and his second graded win north of the equator, the chestnut was angled in quickly from his outside post position to challenge longshot Bouccaneer on the front end. He dropped back slightly turning for home, then led a charge through the stretch to take the photo. "When we turned for home, he was running," said jockey Chris Antley. "He just wasn't running as fast as the others. But when that horse [Ladies Din] came up next to me, my horse dug in." Baffert wasn't concerned when his horse lost ground. "I told Chris Antley that when they seem to get away from you, you might think you're out of horse, but you're not out of horse," he said. "He will fight. He will kick in."

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. Purses for Canadian races are in Canadian dollars.

June 13, Crown Attorney stretched out to 1 1/4 miles in a July 11 allowance at Woodbine last time out and earned his first victory of the season. Meeting his two nemeses at 1 3/8 miles this time, the dark bay closed to reach contention after six furlongs and drove home with determination to turn the tables as the crowd's second choice. The favorite, 13-10 Crowd Pleaser (A.P. Indy), made his bid after a mile, but flattened out in the stretch and could do no better than fourth.

The odds-on favorite Tiger Hill made no mistakes in a small field to take his second Group 1 event. Racing in second as his stablemate Saugerties set strong fractions which spread the field apart, Tiger Hill had everything in his favor. He closed once into the straight, but the pacemaker fought back gamely once headed and finished a deserved second. Rose Of Zollern, the German 1000 Guineas winner, finished fast to take third.

Also ran: Prairie Runner (Ire), Side Saddle (Ire), Endorsement (GB), White Star (Ire), Bryony Brind (Ire), Moteck (Fr), Erudite (GB), Bravo Gori (Ger).

Having won the G3 Premio Legnano at Milan June 20, Bimbola continued her winning streak in highly impressive fashion as she quickened away from a quality field for a deserved score. Innuendo led until passing the winning post for the first time, where Endorsement (Warning {GB}), marking Kieren Fallon's last ride for Henry Cecil, took over at the head of affairs. Innuendo held her place in second, with Bimbola reserved off the pace towards the rear. Entering the straight, Innuendo regained the lead from Endorsement who, despite her rider's strongest urgings, had nothing left. Native Justice took up the challenge at the quarter-mile marker, but Bimbola, who had encountered slight traffic problems early in the straight, found a perfect split between the two leaders and readily accepted the challenge to go through. A powerful burst of acceleration at the furlong marker quickly put the matter beyond doubt and the winner ran on strongly, leaving her rivals toiling for the minor honors. Innuendo was game in second and safely held Native Justice's best attempts.

Margins: 1HF, 1, 2HF. Odds: 1.00, 2.00.

Also ran: Bardonecchia (Ire).

A comfortable winner of the G3 Prix du Chemin de Fer du Nord at Chantilly June 10, Field Of Hope added a first Group 2 to her portfolio when coming with a well-timed run to score in easy style. The English challenger Presumed went straight into the lead and set a decent gallop from the Italian-trained Bardonecchia (Indian Ridge {Ire}) as Field Of Hope was patiently ridden. The pacesetter was three lengths clear and appeared to be going well up front entering the final quarter, but looks can be deceptive and she came under strong driving at the point where Miss Berbere and Field Of Hope became very real dangers. Field Of Hope had been switched to the outside with 1 1/2 furlongs to run and, having been ridden approaching the final furlong, led inside the last 150 yards to win going away. Last year's winner Miss Berbere ran on bravely, but had nothing to offer by way of resistance and had to be content with a safe second.

Case Of The Blues broke her maiden with a decisive score at Delaware in May, then shipped to Belmont for a pair of stakes starts and finished fourth in both the June 3 Fashion S. and the July 2 Astoria S. Facing an easier task this time, the bay was sent off the favorite. Next-to-last for three furlongs, she was steadied hard on the turn, but came running while wide down the stretch to catch Chez Allie in the final strides.

Off at 4-1 to put them back-to-back, the bay stalked the pace to the stretch, took over inside the eighth pole and held on over the fast-closing 9-2 Prospectheus (Gone West) to take it by a head. Germany's leading juvenile filly of 1998, the U.S.-bred Miss Tobacco, hasn't showed any brilliant form thus far this season, but she has at last found her winning ways again with this, her first pattern race triumph. Taking up the running from halfway in the straight, the three-year-old quickly passed the leaders El Divino and Up And Away. The winner, acquired for $220,000 at the Keeneland November Sales as a weanling, attracted an offer of $1.7 million at the end of her juvenile career, but the offer was rejected by her connections.
