IT'S ALL IN THE FAMILY FOR MENIFEE, FASLIYEV

It was a family affair on Sunday, as Menifee took the GI Haskell while Fasliyev, out of a half sister to the Haskell winner, scored in Ireland's G1 Heinz 57 S. Menifee fulfilled the high expectations held for him when he was a rallying winner of the GI Blue Grass at Keeneland Apr. 11. The big bay bulled his way down the Churchill stretch in the Kentucky Derby, just failing to catch Charismatic, and came back two weeks later to run second again to that rival in the Preakness. In his last appearance, Menifee was in contention to the quarter pole of the Belmont S. June 5, ultimately fading to a disappointing eighth. As Forestry and a three-wide Cat Thief disputed the early pace, jockey Pat Day positioned Menifee in a pocket just behind the frontrunners. Rounding into the stretch, Forestry was still in front, with Cat Thief breathing down his neck and Menifee ranging up three wide. Menifee continued a steady advance into the final sixteenth and finally wore down his two rivals to report home a narrow winner. Cat Thief just bested Forestry at the line, while Unbridled Jet (Unbridled), snatched up off heels at the furlong marker, finished full of run to be fourth. Said winning trainer Elliott Walden, "This was the true Menifee who showed up today. It's great to see him back in great form after the disappointing Belmont. If he comes back well, we'll go to Saratoga for the (Aug. 28 GI) Travers."

FASLIYEV REMAINS PERFECT IN HEINZ 57

PHOENIX STAKES Michael Tabor's colt Fasliyev, winner of the G3 Coventry S. at Royal Ascot June 15, duly extended his unbeaten record to a perfect four-for-four in Sunday's Heinz 57 Phoenix S., but not without causing his supporters great concern in the closing stages. Taking the lead from the start, Fasliyev did not find it easy on the very soft ground, but began to quicken away from his rivals over a furlong out, then veered sharply towards the stands rail. His rider, Michael Kinane, managed to straighten him eventually inside the final 100 yards and he plugged on, with the filly Yara finishing well to grab second, her seventh runner-up spot in seven lifetime starts. Winning trainer Aidan O'Brien said, "He wants racing now and could possibly go for the [G1] Prix Morny at Deauville [Aug. 22] or the [G2] Champagne S. at Doncaster [Sept. 10]. He had got very relaxed at home since winning at Ascot and probably wasn't concentrating today."

 Also ran: Vision Of Night (GB), Tomba (GB), Keos, Sam-power Star (GB), Bianconi, Special Discount, Orpen.

Maintaining his perfect record for the season, Diktat took his first Group 1 race when coming from last to first to win in good style. He had previously been successful in the Shergar Cup Seven at Goodwood May 8, and in the G3 Van Geest Criterion S. at Newmarket June 26. Diktat struggled to go with the unforgiving pace as Special Discount (Nureyev) headed Bertolini for the early lead. Vision Of Night (GB) (Night Shift) was surprisingly close to the front, along with Orpen (Lure), who raced freely to post, and Bianconi (Danzig), as Keos (Riverman), Gold Away and Diktat trailed. Bertolini went to the front at halfway and maintained the fast tempo, while Diktat was switched to the wide outside to deliver his challenge entering the final quarter, where he came under pressure from Frankie Dettori. Running on strongly, Diktat got to the front just over half a furlong from the line and, despite drifting slightly left, kept on well for a comfortable success. Gold Away ran on well from the rear and wrested second from Bertolini in the last 50 yards. Dettori said, "They went very, very quick and, as he has been running over seven furlongs, he had trouble in staying close at the beginning. As they had gone so quick, the field came back to me and he won well in the end. He had no problems with the ground and it was just about perfect for him."

After finishing 12th as part of the mutuel field in the May 1 Kentucky Derby, Ecton Park returned for an easy win in a Churchill Downs allowance June 23, followed by a close second-place effort in his most recent start, the GII Ohio Derby July 24. Sent off the fifth choice in the seven-horse Jim Dandy field, Ecton Park raced close to the pace early, advanced three wide on the second turn, took command approaching the stretch and drew away in the drive under a hand ride to win his first graded stakes as much the best. "We had been hoping to win a graded stakes with him," said Ecton Park's 41-year-old owner Mark Stanley, from Lexington, Kentucky. "I had no idea how he would run over the mud. He had never run over it. It seems like he kind of liked it." When asked what's next for the Jim Dandy winner, Stanley said, "I think he might go next in the (GIII, $300,000) Pennsylvania Derby (at Philadelphia Park Sept. 6) and then in the (GI, $500,000) Super Derby (at Louisiana Downs Oct. 2). But of course, (trainer) Elliott (Walden) is the manager and I trust his judgment. (Ecton Park) has already established himself for a solid stud career." Runner-up Lemon Drop Kid, unraced since his score in the GI Belmont S. June 5, is slated to run next in the $1 million Travers S. at Saratoga Aug. 28. Bill Mott, trainer of Vision and Verse (Storm Cat), who finished sixth as the 2-1 favorite, said, "(Jockey) Shane (Sellers) said he didn't handle the track at all...We're going to run in the Travers only if it's a fast track."

Winner of an optional claimer over the Hollywood turf in her last start June 24, A Lady From Dixie tracked pacesetter Yolo Lady through the early stages, gained a short lead at the top of the stretch and held on gamely to hold off heavily-favored Manistique for her first stakes win. "She ran good," said winning jockey Chris Antley. "No, she ran dynamite. This is about as good as she gets." Manistique, winner of the GI Vanity H. in her last start June 26, rallied from off the pace for the place spot. "I just don't understand," said her jockey Chris McCarron. "She seemed to handle the track okay. She just wasn't there this afternoon."

Belenus was having his first start since his victory in the German Derby at Hamburg July 4, and was made the favorite. He was quick out of the stalls, as was the English contender Peshtigo (Kris S.). Both colts fought for the lead and Belenus eventually settled in second in the closely bunched field, with Ituango third, Bedford Forrest (Law Society) fourth with the Polish Derby winner Country Club the backmarker. Into the straight Peshtigo was soon tackled by Belenus, who ran on well to dispute the lead with just under two furlongs to run, and he went clear very easily, winning in the style of a good horse. Ituango just held on for second from the fast-finishing Country Club. In winning this race, Belenus became only the second Derby winner to win this race as well, emulating All My Dreams (Ire) in 1995. Belenus is a member of Lomitas' first crop.

The winner of the Gill Grey Breeders' Cup at two, Black Cash was put onto the Triple Crown trail after finishing third in the Gill Derby Trial last year. After fifth-place finishes in the Preakness and Leonard Richards S., the homebred went to the sidelines, resurfacing to win an Aqueduct allowance Apr. 3 by 10 lengths. Sixth in the GI Carter off that effort, the bay was most recently third to Frisk Me Now in the July 4 GII Iselin at Monmouth Park. Heavily favored in this spot, the gelding was content to sit in second off sensible fractions to the stretch, took over at will and was eased down in the final 100 yards. GSW City By Night (Slew City Slew) was with the pace early but dropped out of it soon thereafter and was eased through the stretch.

Marquette (Spectacular Bid) won the Budweiser Challenger S. in only his third start on the green, was second in the Gill Palm Beach S. at Gulfstream Feb. 15 and was a powerful five-length victor of Keeneland's Fore-runner S. Apr. 16 in his most recent racetrack appearance with Lasix added. Three outstanding recent turf breezes, including a local six furlongs in 1:12 3/5, should have the bay ready for the comebacker. One look at the running lines of Monkey Puzzle (Country Pine) shows that the bay can be relied upon to come running late. He was a fast-closing fourth in the Gill Hill Prince at this trip two back and finished well to be second by 1 3/4 lengths in the Gill Lexington July 18 at Belmont Park. Phi Beta Doc (Doc's Leader) won the Nick Shuk Memorial at Delaware Park and Monmouth Park's Lamplighter S. back to back, before coming home fourth by 1 1/4 lengths to North East Bound (D'Accord) in the Gill Kent Breeders' Cup July 25. He wheels back on short rest, but zipped a bullet five furlongs Aug. 4 over the local green.

COUNTESS VICTORIOUS IN RETURN Countess Diana (Deerhound), winless since her victory in the 1997 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, made an overdue return to the winner's circle with a 5 3/4-length victory in yesterday's sixth race at Saratoga. In her last race-track appearance, the Champion two-year-old filly was sixth in the GI Gazelle H. at Belmont Sept. 12. Showing the good early speed which was her trademark as a two-year-old, the bay sped to the early lead and never looked back. The winner was making her first start for trainer Mary Jo Lohmeier. "She was training great, it was just a question of whether mentally she was going to be back in the game or not," the trainer said. "It was extremely rewarding. I think it was the first time I cried watching a horse cross the wire." Although Countess Diana is nominated to the seven-furlong GI Ballerina Aug. 21, the goal is to stretch her out, according to Lohmeier, who was registering her first-ever win at the Spa.

Diamond was the winner of an Aqueduct allowance Apr. 17 by three parts of a length, but followed that effort with a pair of subpar, off-the-board performances, but rebounded nicely with a strong third-place finish in the July 5 Who Wouldn't S. at Laurel, beaten 3/4 of a length. The homebred bided his time towards the rear, drove up along the rail into the stretch and was up in time for the narrow victory.

Countess Diana, winner of the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies, had been on the shelf since running in the GI Gazelle H. at Belmont last September. The classy filly took no time getting back to the winners circle, as she broke running early, put the field away after a half-mile and cruised to a five and three-quarter length score at even money odds with plenty in reserve.

Also ran: Sister Bella (Ire), Fun In The Sun (Fr), Filly

Bergere (Ire), Trefula (Ire), Summer Breeze (Ire),

Shebane (USA), Green Rose (USA).

Note: Hijaz finished first, disqualified to third.

Having finished a fine third to G1 Vodafone Oaks runner-up Noushkey (GB) in the G3 Lancashire Oaks, String Quartet was entitled to more respect than her 11-1 starting price. She belied those odds in fine style, running on well to be second past the post, but was awarded the race, and rightly so, in the stewards' room. She raced in third as Kansa led from Hijaz, and it was only these three who figured at the business end of the race. Kansa led into the straight, but was immediately tackled and headed by String Quartet. Kansa was game and refused to give in, but as she was once again pressing String Quartet for the lead approaching the final furlong, Hijaz swooped on the wide outside. She was erratic in her challenge and veered across Kansa who, in turn, bumped into String Quartet. Hijaz kept on best and was in front at the line, but the damage had been done and the stewards had no alternative but to place her behind the affected horses. String Quartet stayed on well and got the better of her duel with Kansa. Sister Bella, third in the G1 Irish Oaks, finished best of the rest and was nearest at the finish.

+ WIND SILENCE (USA) (f, 2, A.P. Indy {USA}--Wild Planet {USA} {SW-Fr, GSP-GB}, by Nureyev {USA})

raced in third as Zurita (Fr) (La Balafre {Fr}) led at a modest pace. She moved into the lead rounding the home turn and quickened soon after entering the straight. She drew progressively clear from her rivals for a highly impressive four-length debut success. Lifetime Record: 1 start, 1 win, FF90,000.

raced in second as stablemate Borneo Boy (USA) (Danzig {USA}) led. He led soon after entering the straight and was ridden clear for an easy 2½-length win. He is a half to Anna Palariva (Ire) (Caerleon {USA}), GSW-Fr. Lifetime Record: 1 start, 1 win, FF90,000.

STRIKE TWO MEANS NINE DAYS FOR CALLAN

Neil Callan, second on the apprentice wins list with 31, was hit by another significant suspension, with a three-day ban yesterday at Ascot triggering a six-day previously suspended sentence. The stewards decided that his ride on Pas de Memoires (Ire), second in the Mail On Sunday Mile H. Qualifier, was careless as he had been responsible for causing interference at the start of event. He will be out of action Aug. 17-25.

ASCOT FLOODED, RACE CANCELED

Heavy rain at Ascot yesterday caused waterlogging at a road crossing, making the round course unusable and thus causing the abandonment of one race, the 1 1/4-mile Kleenex H. S. The one-mile Bovis Homes Valiant S. was switched from the round course to the straight course. A total of 13 horses were withdrawn from the card.

HAYDOCK TO LIGHT UP THE NIGHT

Floodlit racing will happen at Haydock Park within a few years, making it the first British turf course with lights. Managing director Richard Thomas said, "At present, it is a rush for people to get to evening meetings, but if we floodlit the straight course, we could run the later races on that course and therefore start the program later and not have to stop at 9 p.m."

DNF: Comprehension (Ire), refused to race.

Scratched: Rich In Love (Ire).

With only a maiden win at Salisbury June 8, Pink Cristal won her first stake and accounted for the G1 Nassau S. third Diamond White in the bargain with a determined finish. Pink Cristal settled in fourth as Samut (Danehill {USA}) led, followed by Be Thankfull (Linamix {Fr}) and Qhazeenah (Marju {Ire}), as Susu, Out Line (Beveled {USA}) and Diamond White raced in the rear. As the field entered the final quarter, Samut began to drift toward the rail, and in doing so severely hampered Out Line, who lost all hope at that point. Pink Cristal went to the lead soon after, but was pursued by Diamond White and the pair began to draw clear entering the final furlong. Diamond White looked as though she had her rival's measure, but Pink Cristal kept finding more when asked and ran on strongly for a deserved win. Susu emerged from the rear and proved best of the rest in third with Out Line an unlucky fourth. David Pinder, representing winning trainer Henry Candy, explained, "We thought the rain would help as she has always gone well at home with cut in the ground. It was a bit too firm for her last time and we've been waiting for the ground. She is a nice filly."

She veered violently left upon leaving the stalls and lost up to six lengths as Mrs P (GB) (First Trump {GB}) and Queensmead (GB) (Rudimentary {USA}) disputed the lead. She was pushed along and made headway approaching the last two furlongs and, despite running green, led well inside the final furlong for a ridden out 1 1/2-length success from Garota Do Leblon (USA) (Thunder Gulch {USA}). She is a half to Courteous (GB) (Generous {Ire}), GSW-GB. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £5,550.

UMBRIAN GOLD (IRE) (f, 3, Perugino {USA}--Golden Sunlight {Ire}, by Ile de Bourbon {USA}) led from the outset and was three lengths clear with two furlongs to run. Staying on well, she only had to be pushed out for a comfortable 2 1/2-length victory as the 9-4 favorite. Lifetime Record: 6-1-4-0, £10,171.

PROMISING TWO-YEAR-OLDS AT NEWMARKET by David Milnes

Sir Michael Stoute is beginning to make waves both on- and off-course with his youngsters at the present time, and has some juveniles primed for introduction at the Ebor meeting at York, which starts Aug. 17. Ki Yase (USA) (Chief's Crown {USA})--Questionablevirtue {USA}, by Key to the Mint {USA} is a half-brother to Among Men (USA) (Zilzal {USA}), winner of last year's G1 Sussex S. for Stoute. Shadwell Estates signed for this one at the Goffs Orby sales last October, where he was knocked down for Ir130,000 guineas. The trainer is also very familiar with the background of Executive Order (GB) (Rainbow Quest {USA})--Exclusive Order {USA}, by Exclusive Native {USA}). Homebred by Cheveley Park Stud, Executive Order is a half-brother to another talented former stablemate, Entrepreneur (USA) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), winner of the the English 2000 Guineas in 1997, as well as G1 Coronation Cup winner Exclusive (GB) (Polar Falcon {USA}). Eight of his dam's 10 foals of racing age are black-type placed or better. He will run in the red and blue colors of his breeders. The same connections are also responsible for Vigour (GB) (Lion Cavern {USA})--Brave Revival {GB}, by Dancing Brave {USA}), the first foal of a Listed-placed mare. Michael Bell has the promising Welsh Valley (USA) (Irish River {Fr})--Sweet Snow {USA}, by Lyphard {USA}). A half-sister to Chilly Billy (GB) (Master Willie {GB}), winner of the G2 Gimcrack S., Welsh Valley cost his connections 120,000 guineas at the Tattersalls Houghton Sales last September. Also showing promise at Fitzroy House Stables is Autonomy (GB) (Doyoun {GB})--Debbies Next {USA}, by Arctic Tern {USA}), a half-brother to Caffè Latte (Ire) (Seattle Dancer {USA}), winner of the Listed Prix Melisande at Maisons-Laffitte and second in the GII San Clemente H at Del Mar.
