YAGLI DEFEATED IN SWORD DANCER

Just two weeks after he stamped himself the top turf horse in the country with a decisive victory in the GI United Nations H. as the 1-10 favorite, Yagli (Jade Hunter) struggled home last under 125 pounds on a rain-softened turf course in Saratoga's GI Sword Dancer Invitational H. While the 3-5 favorite failed to fire, Honor Glide (Honor Grades), winner of the GII Bowling Green H. in his last start July 10, earned his first GI win since a score in the GI Secretariat completed his sweep of the mid-America triple at three. Yagli was unhurried early and asked for run by jockey Jerry Bailey down the backstretch, but had nothing to give. Said Bailey, "He handled the turf reasonably well. He bobbed once going into the first turn. I was pretty happy going up the backside; I was ready to start creeping up on them, but he wasn't ready to do that. You've got to give them one bad race, then turn the page." Trainer Bill Mott would not second-guess his decision to run Yagli despite the 'good' condition of the course. "We thought about (scratching), but not with the amount of rain we had," said Mott. "I thought the turf was fairly good." Winning trainer Christophe Clement was pleased with his horse's performance and preparation. "He's trained remarkably well here with two good works on the turf," said Clement. "I was pretty sure he would run very well today." The trainer said the five-year-old would either run back in the $500,000 GI Man o'War Sept. 11 or the $600,000 GI Turf Classic Oct. 9.

REGAL THUNDER BY A NOSE AT DEL MAR

Though sporting classic dirt breeding, Regal Thunder (Chief's Crown), purchased at the 1995 Keeneland September yearling sale for $150,000, was sent to Great Britain to try his hand on the grass. Nine starts and zero wins later, the gelding was back in the states, where a win in yesterday's GII Pat O'Brien H. at Del Mar gave him his fifth win in 10 outings. The victory represented a major step up in class for the gelding, whose prior victories had come in allowance and optional claiming company. Second last out July 23 in a Del Mar allowance, he was sent away at 11-1 to earn his first stakes yesterday. Dropping back early, he was steered four wide on the turn and prevailed in a game stretch drive to get the bob for a nose victory. "He was a very nice horse from the beginning on dirt," said trainer Julio Canani. "He is bred for dirt. Good horses get beat a lot of times, but this horse is very honest and he's never (been) worse than third in this country. It looks like he's coming around at the right time." The 6-5 favorite, Christmas Boy (Well Decorated), winner of the GII Bing Crosby Breeders' Cup H. July 25 at Del Mar, turned for home with the lead, drifted slightly in the stretch, and just missed at the wire.

Having finished a fine fourth in the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot July 24, Silver Patriarch, the yardstick of consistency, displayed his battling qualities once more when outgunning Craigsteel to win in tremendous style. The runner-up led at an even pace from Sadian, Silver Patriarch and Blueprint (Generous {Ire}), but steadied the pace at halfway. The order remained the same until the race began in earnest from the three-furlong marker. Craigsteel then quickened as Richard Quinn began to ride his mount vigorously and soon all four runners were under pressure. Silver Patriarch was hemmed in on the rail, but was switched out to make his challenge with 1 1/2 furlongs to run, and his determined bid brought dividends as he led with 150 yards to run. Sadian, despite being hampered at the two-furlong marker, ran on resolutely and took third in the dying strides. Winning jockey Pat Eddery said, "I definitely think he is a better horse than last season. He's got that spark about him and he is not finished yet."

Also ran: Commander Collins (Ire), Port Bayou.

The combination of a 1 1/2 kilogram weight advantage, an extra furlong and soft underfoot conditions gave Val Royal just enough advantage to reverse the form of the G3 Prix Daphnis at Chantilly July 27 with Alrassaam. The Mask, third in the Prix Daphnis, upheld the form further by once again finishing third. Port Bayou (Ghazi) broke well and set a good pace, but raced alone against the rail as the remainder raced in the center of the track in search of better ground. Alrassaam headed the main body, closely pursued by Val Royal, Commander Collins (Sadler's Wells) and The Mask. As the field entered the straight, Port Bayou's exertions were beginning to tell and he was headed by Alrassaam with 1 1/2 furlongs to run. Val Royal then gave chase to the new leader, who still led at the distance, but Val Royal was just about on terms. Alrassaam pulled out all the stops and looked to have poached a decisive half-length with 100 yards to run, but Val Royal responded to Olivier Peslier's strong urgings and started to reel in the leader. With a persistent effort, Val Royal grabbed the lead in the last few strides to deny the game English challenger. The Mask ran on best of the others and finished a safe third. Roland de Longevialle, racing manager for Jean-Luc Lagardere, said, "Val Royal has run only one bad race in his life, in the (G1 Vodafone) Derby, and that is probably because he failed to stay. He has now proven that he is a real 10-furlong horse and if the (G1) Irish Champion S. (at Leopardstown Sept. 11) is too soon, the (G1) Dubai Champion S. (at Newmarket Oct. 16) can be a target for him later this season."

High King and Sunshine Street set a suicidal pace up front, which eventually told on them, with Zomaradah coming through to grab the lead 1 1/2 furlongs out, only to be briefly headed inside the final furlong by Strategic. But Reid and his mount would not be denied, getting back up close to the line for a gallant victory, the second of a Group race double for the jockey.

Sister Fiona broke her maiden in her debut June 25 at Calder on a sloppy track and came right back to earn her first stakes win in her next start, the July 10 Masao Moriya S. Continuing her march up the ladder here, she handled graded company with equal aplomb, sitting behind horses and taking command in the stretch to edge clear, giving her freshman sire (by Deputy Minister) his first graded winner. "I was concerned about the slop this morning," said trainer Marty Wolfson, "but when I saw the track was drying out, I knew it would suit her. She's been closing in all of her races, and that was the plan. She'll go back to Calder now, then she'll be turned out on the farm for a few weeks as we'll make some plans. The Canadian-bred filly broke her maiden June 3 before rolling through three straight allowance outings, winning her last by 5 1/2 lengths just 13 days prior to this effort. The 6-5 favorite in her longest start to date, she stalked an early speed duel, drew even with the leaders around the turn and took over in the stretch for an easy win. "She proved her worth today," said winning trainer Brian Morgan. "She rose to the challenge and beat four horses who have won stakes already, so I'm really happy with her."

In doing so, he gave rider John Reid, only just returned to action after breaking a leg in a fall in early April at Kempton, the first leg of a memorable Group race double completed later by Zomaradah. Of the two older horses, Ungaro (Goofalik), winner of the G1 BMW Deutschlandpreis at Dusseldorf July 25, is the pick. He made all the running at Dusseldorf and leading jockey Andrasch Starke takes the ride again. Three three-year-olds take up the challenge. The G2 Preis der Diana winner Flamingo Road (Acatenango {Ger}) went on to finish third in the G1 German Derby at Hamburg July 4. She should relish this track and has a chance of beating likely favorite Ungaro. Acambaro (Goofalik) finished second in the German Derby, but could still find this trip testing. Win For Us (Surumu {Ger}) is a filly still improving and was third in the G3 Prix Minerve at Deauville July 14. She has a much stiffer task here.

With persistent heavy rain falling over Deauville Saturday afternoon, trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre has announced that his star Sendawar (Ire) will not run in today's race. "We will not take any chances with such a valuable horse on ground much too soft for him," he said. "Everything being well, he will return in the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp on Sept. 5." With Sendawar (Ire) a non-runner, this race has a very open look to it. Dubai Millennium (Seeking the Gold) was impressive when streaking to success in the G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte July 18, and his only defeat in five starts came in the G1 Vodafone Derby. He possesses plenty of speed and can give the others a run for their money. Dansili (Danehill) was impressive when scoring in the G3 Prix Messidor over this course and distance July 10 and will appreciate the prevalent soft conditions. He has the necessary class to win in Group 1 company, but will have to at his best to get his head in front here. French-based Slickly (Linamix {Fr}), like Dubai Millennium, suffered his only defeat in five starts in his domestic Derby. He bounced right back to form to win the G1 Grand Prix de Paris at Longchamp June 27, and is another with strong claims. Way Of Light (Woodman) finished behind Dansili when fifth in the G1 Prix Jean Prat at Chantilly June 6 on his latest start. He is not without a chance and his break should have freshened him up.

The final leg of Canada's Triple Crown is headed by Apalachian Chief (Bold Executive), three-for-six on the turf with wins in a division of the Toronto Cup H. July 18 and last year's Cup and Saucer S. to his credit. Super Red (Rahy) had no luck on the dirt but took to the green with three straight wins before a fifth in Monmouth's Lamplighter H, his first stakes. Stablemate American Falcon (Dynaformer) is a turf specialist who has been constantly improving. His first stakes start was a third in a division of the Toronto Cup H., where his come-from-behind style forced him five-wide on the turn for home. Zaha (Kingmambo) has never raced on turf but his breeding suggests that he will take to the surface and distance. Trainer Kiaran McLaughlin said Zaha handled neither an off track in the Queen's Plate, nor a dry surface in the Prince of Wales S. "We're just hoping that the turf is the answer," he said.

STRONACH EMPIRE EXPANDS Frank Stronach's racing empire is about to annex Golden Gate Fields in Albany, Calif., according to the Thoroughbred Times. The Canadian-based industrialist has purchased Santa Anita and Gulfstream and is in negotiations to buy histledown and Remington Park. "I did get a call from Frank Stronach [Thursday] and he told me he had signed a letter of intent with the intention to buy," Golden Gate General Manager Peter Tunney told the Times. "I found out two weeks ago Frank Stronach had met the chairman of our company for lunch." British bookmakers Ladbrokes currently own Golden Gate.

JOCKEY BAEZ MAKES PROGRESS AFTER ACCIDENT Jockey Rudy Baez, severely injured in an Aug. 4 racing accident at Rockingham Park, has made notable progress in the past several days. Friday, Baez regained full consciousness for the first time since the accident and now remains in serious, but stable condition at Massachusetts General Hospital. Two steel rods were inserted to realign his damaged spinal column one day after the horrifying spill. "He's a fighter," said agent Mike Szpuk. "If there's anybody who can come out of this strong, with a clear head, to live his life in good mental spirits and be an example for others, it's Rudy." A fund to benefit Baez's rehabilitation has been established: The Rodolfo Baez Fund, c/o Eastern Bank, Attn: Rachel Sosnowski, 125 Washington St., B309, Salem, MA 01970. Those interested in additional information may contact Suffolk publicity director T. D. Thornton at (617) 568-3220.

Early Warning, winner of the Gill Discovery H. and Gill Queens County H. at Aqueduct last fall, found much tougher going in stakes company outside of New York this spring. Most recently, the colt was seventh in the W.D. Schaefer H. at Pimlico May 15 while encountering a troubled trip and never entering the mix. Back in his home state, the bay broke well to take the early lead, set a honest pace along the backstretch, widened the advantage slightly when asked on the turn and gamely came home under a drive for the victory.

Turf Horse-Can & MGSW, $922,943, had a solid work Aug. 5 at Saratoga to foreshadow his effort here. Wheeled right back in this spot, she earned her first stakes win as the even-money choice in a five-horse field with a wire-to-wire score, easily holding off the closing kick of the runner-up.

 Clever Gem breezed through his first four starts undefeated, but tired in his first black-type attempt when third in the July 17 Long Branch Breeders' Cup S. at Monmouth after dueling through sharp fractions. The dark bay changed tactics this time, rating off a quick early pace, and rallied three wide on the turn to emerge the clear winner. "When he gets it together, he's going to be a nice colt," said winning jockey Steve Hamilton. Trainer Mary Eppler indicated that Clever Gem would start next in the $300,000 Gill Pennsylvania Derby at 1 1/8 miles at Philadelphia Park Sept. 6.
