DUBAI MILLENNIUM WINS AT DEAUVILLE

Dubai Millennium (GB) (Seeking the Gold), adding to Godolphin's already stellar season, left a high-class field in his wake with a pillar-to-post win in yesterday's G1 Prix du Haras De Fresnay-le-Buffard-Jacques Le Marois in Deauville, France. It was the 11th time this year a Godolphin colorbearer had come home first in a Group 1 race. Dubai Millennium suffered the first loss of his career when he finished ninth in the Vodafone Derby, but he quickly rebounded to take his first group race with an easy win in the July 18 G2 Prix Eugene Adam at Maisons-Laffitte. The colt set a good pace and, as the field reached the quarter-mile marker, Dubai Millennium had his rivals off the bridle and, with minimum encouragement from Frankie Dettori, he ran on well all the way to the wire. "I was not worried about the ground as he likes it soft," said Dettori. "The distance was perfect, but 2000 meters will also be good for him. This horse is a champion. By the time we got to the two-furlong marker, everybody else was dead." Owner Sheikh Mohammed added, "This has been a very good season for us, we have many good horses. He is one of the best we have although he is still a baby. We have enough good horses for the Arc, so we will be aiming him for the Dubai World Cup (next March)."

TWO IN A ROW FOR UNGARO

German champion Ungaro (Ger) (Goofalik) earned his second Group 1 in a row with a well-measured half-length triumph over Wins Fiction (Ger) (Platini {Ger}) in yesterday's G1 E.L.E.Pokal-Grosser Erdgas-Preis in Germany. The five-year-old will now head to Australia where he will contest either the G1 Caulfield Cup over 1 1/2 miles at Caulfield Oct. 16 or the G1 W.S. Cox Plate over 1 1/4 miles at Moonee Valley Oct. 23. Coming off a win over the highly regarded three-year-old Sumitas (Ger) in the July 25 G1 WGZ Bank Deutschland-Preis at Düsseldorf, Ungaro went straight to the lead here, but was quickly joined by the fillies Win For Us (Ger) (Surumu {Ger}) and Flamingo Road (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}) while Wins Fiction trailed several lengths behind. Early in the straight, Ungaro quickened well down the middle of the track with Flamingo Road pressing him closely while Win For Us fell away and Wins Fiction began to make progress along the rail. Flamingo Road failed to go through with her effort and the danger to Ungaro came from Wins Fiction, but the eventual winner was always holding his rival safe in the closing stages.

FRUITS OF LOVE TO MISS INTERNATIONAL

Fruits of Love (Hansel) will miss the G1 Juddmonte International S. at York tomorrow. Trainer Mark Johnston said, "Fruits Of Love doesn't run on Tuesday. The going would be on the soft side for him and there are showers forecast. He's a bit heavy, really, at the moment, on 505 kilos compared to 500 kilos in Dubai, which is the heaviest he's won off, and it also reflects that considering the York race was a late decision. We haven't ruled out putting him in the [G1] Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown [Sept. 11], but that is an expensive race to supplement for and we may face the same problems again with the going. His main targets are three Group 1 races, the Canadian International Oct. 17, the Breeders' Cup Turf Nov. 6 and the Japan Cup."

Satish Sanan paid $1.1 million for Magicalmysterycat (Storm Cat) at last year's Keeneland September sale and she has not disappointed. Undefeated after four starts, she won her first three at Hollywood Park, including a three-length score in the GII Landaluce S. Shipped east for the July 28 GII Schuylerville, she showed her usual speed and held on for a three-quarters of a length score. Bob Baffert, who trains division leader Chilukki, sends out Miss Wineshine (Wolf Power {SAf}), who chased her stablemate in a second June 26 in the GIII Debutante S. at Churchill Downs and broke her maiden in her third try by 5 1/2 lengths in the Silver Spur S. at Lone Star Park. Regally Appealing (Valid Appeal) and Finder's Fee (Storm Cat) were third and fourth, respectively, in the Schuylerville, although Finder's Fee was closing well.

Pleasant Temper sailed to the lead and collected her second graded stakes win while giving owner Mark Stanley his second straight Spa stakes winner--he also owns Ecton Park, impressive winner of last Sunday's GII Jim Dandy S. The dark bay mare, coming off a sharp score in the July 17 River Downs Breeders Cup, was reunited with jockey Jerry Bailey. Bailey, sensing a slow early pace, sent Pleasant Temper to the front. She carved out moderate fractions on the good going, carried a three-length advantage into the straight and was kept busy to the wire. "When no one took it [the lead] I went for it," said Bailey. "Turning for home I thought I was in good shape. She just cruised today." Trainer Elliott Walden was somewhat surprised at the tactics. "She likes to come from behind better," he said. "We're hoping to go longer with her. We'll try to stretch her out in the Diana (GII, Sept. 5, 1 1/8m). Favored Anguilla lacked her usual late punch and wound up fourth. "When I pulled the trigger and called on her to run, I got no response," said jockey Pat Day.

Eagleton, second in last year's GII Norfolk S., won three straight stakes at Turf Paradise this past winter before running eighth in the GII San Rafael and seventh in the GII San Felipe. After a two-month freshening, the gelding was switched to the turf where he promptly won the GIII Will Rogers H. May 8 and ran second in the June 5 GIII Cinema H. last time out. Eagleton settled off the early pace, angled out five wide for the stretch run and forged to the front in deep stretch to eke out a narrow victory. "He's a real honest horse; a sound horse," said winning trainer Kevin Lewis. "He does everything we ask him to do, whether it's right or wrong. He probably overcomes a lot of what I put him through."

Having finished a fine fourth to El Condor Pasa in the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud July 4, dual-Derby winner Dream Well returned to the winner's circle with an effort that can best be described as an exercise canter, taking the lead entering the straight and winning as he pleased. Res Judicata, acting as Dream Well's pace-maker, led soon after the start and set a generous pace. As the runners came around the final turn, Dream Well was sent on by Sylvain Guillot and the race was effectively over. Guillot was succinct in his appraisal, saying, "He accelerated perfectly and it was a big help having the pacemaker." Winning trainer Pascal Bary said, "If he remains in good form and if the ground is soft enough, we might take him to Ireland for the [G1] Irish Champion S. [at Leopardstown Sept. 11]."

Free Vacation scored back-to-back romps over Woodbine's main track in May before running third in the G2 Canadian Oaks and fourth in the Bison City S. at Fort Erie July 4. She was coming off a fifth-place finish in the GI Coaching Club American Oaks at Belmont July 24 and was making her third turf appearance. The only filly in the field of 13, she spotted her rivals three lengths after breaking in the air, but closed the gap around the first turn to be in a stalking position down the backstretch. Free Vacation split horses to take charge at the top of the lane and held John the Drummer safe to the wire. The victory made Laurie Gulas the first female jockey ever to win a Canadian Triple Crown race. "What a great little filly," Gulas said after the win. "I had a less than ideal beginning, but it sure turned out the way I hoped it would. The horse overcame everything. She finished very easily and she galloped out like she could have gone around again."

ROUND TABLE FOCUS ON TVG TVG was among the central topics of discussion yesterday at the 47th annual Jockey Club Round Table on Matters Pertaining to Racing, with key figures in the racing and television industries throwing their support behind the network. TV Guide President and COO Peter Boylan III was particularly enthusiastic about TVG, saying that he fully backs the network and the way it has been presenting racing. TVG has come under criticism for its offbeat approach to the sport and how it has attempted to attract new fans. Boylan said that testing conducted among potential and existing racing fans shows that TVG is a big hit. "Preliminary results are very encouraging," Boylan said. "Among all fans tested, 76 percent rated TVG's programming good or excellent overall. Sixty-one percent said it increased their interest in racing and 58 percent said it increased their desire to go to the racetrack. And these positive responses came from watching just a few minutes of TVG. So we believe we're on the right track." Boylan added that TVG can only help expose horse racing to the masses. "Horse racing is a diamond in the rough," he said. "Historically underexposed on television, horse racing can prosper like other sports leagues by increasing consumer demand through TVG." National Thoroughbred Racing Association Commissioner Tim Smith also pledged his full support to TVG and also spoke about the momentum horse racing appears to be building. "Handle, purse levels and even on-track attendance in many markets are up," Smith said. "Public sales have been healthy and encouraging, reflecting not only the strong economy and stock market, but also a sense of renewed optimism about the industry's future potential, both internally within our sport and also in the eyes of the general public and mass media. Whatever the combination of reasons, it is clear that there are some very positive current trends for horse racing and the Thoroughbred industry, which obviously we all want to sustain and build on." Donald Disney, a Jockey Club steward, and Jim Gallagher, the executive director of the NTRA's task force on racing integrity and drug testing, both spoke about racing's efforts to combat illegal drug use and to come up with uniform drug regulations. Gallagher said the NTRA is not interested in infringing on state racing commissions, but would like to see a set rule whereby no information concerning drug positives is made public until confirmed by a second referee lab.

An impressive winner on his only previous start at Longchamp June 17, the choicely bred Espionage recorded his first stakes win with a battling display to hold off Christophene, giving owner Khalid Abdullah a one-two. The British challengers World Alert (Alzao {USA}) and Ten Kingdoms (Mr. Prospector {USA}) set off at a good pace and raced five lengths clear of the main field. The remainder were headed by L'Olympique (Machiavellian {USA}), followed by Boulevard (Sadler's Wells {USA}) and Christophene, as Espionage was settled in last. Turning into the straight, Christophene and Espionage filled the back two places but both made good headway to share the lead with 1 1/2 furlongs to run. The duo hooked up for a battle and it was Espionage who proved just the better, asserting superiority close home. Le Rhone ran on well from out of the pack to take third in the last half-furlong.

Orso, a regular on the handicap circuit, kept on well from the rear to record victory in the most valuable handicap in the French racing program. In doing so, he improved greatly on his latest start when unplaced in a valuable handicap at Chantilly June 6. Blue And White (Northern Crystal {GB}) and Takamatsu (Hours After {USA}) disputed the early running, but gave way when the British challenger Dancing Kris took over inside the final quarter. Orso and La Juriste, who had settled well off the pace at the rear, were ridden strongly at this point and made steady progress towards the leaders. Orso got first run on La Juriste and grabbed the lead with 100 yards to go. He kept on stoutly and ran out a decisive winner as La Juriste finished to good effect for second. Dancing Kris stayed on well for third and made the overseas trip for connections worthwhile.

DEBENHAMS TO SPONSOR PAUL NICHOLLS

Department store operators Debenhams are the new sponsors of trainer Paul Nicholls' horses, as well as his jockeys. Terry Green, the Debenhams chief executive, said, "Investing in the cream of British National Hunt racing supports our policy for encouraging and sponsoring the best of British talent, from fashion designers to artists and now sportsmen and women." Nicholls, who sent out 110 jump winners last season, said, "It's brilliant for jump racing that a company like Debenhams have got involved, as the deal takes in the whole yard from stable staff to owners, and we are delighted to be part of it."
