REAL QUIET INJURED

Real Quiet (Quiet American), coming off a victory in the $1 million GI Hollywood Gold Cup, suffered a fractured splint bone in his right front leg and will be sidelined for at least three months. The four-year-old, prepping for the Aug. 29 GI Pacific Classic, worked seven furlongs in 1:23 2/5 at Santa Anita Sunday. "(The injury) probably happened in the work," trainer Bob Baffert said. "He was fine until then." The fracture will not require surgery, but could prove career-ending if it does not heal perfectly. "We need 90 days to see how it heals up," owner Mike Pegram said. "The big thing would be to bring him back at the top of his game. If that can be done, he will definitely be back. If not, he's going to go to that good life we all wish we could have." Real Quiet, last year's champion three-year-old after winning the GI Kentucky Derby and GI Preakness and missing the Triple Crown by a nose, is scheduled to stand stud at Vinery in Midway, Kentucky at the end of his racing career, but Pegram hopes that end is not imminent. "We are all hopeful he will come back," he said. "It's Bobby's decision, but we hope he will be able to run in the year 2000."

STRAVINSKY STAKES CLAIM ON SPRINT TITLE

Stravinsky (Nureyev), who put in a spectacular performance to win the G1 July Cup, has surely set the seal on this year's European sprint championship with his victory in yesterday's G1 Nunthorpe S. The colt's connections had attempted to make him into a 2000 Guineas horse, but after he finished off the board in a pair of seven-furlong starts, he was dropped back to six furlongs for the July Cup. That proved something of a master stroke as he fairly pulverized the opposition at Newmarket, and he proved much the best once again in this test, flying past pacesetter Sainte Marine (Ire) (Kenmare {Fr}) in the final furlong to win going away. Jockey Mick Kinane said, "I was about six or seven lengths down at halfway, but he picked them up in two strides. He is an exceptionally fast horse." Next stop is the Breeders' Cup Sprint at Gulfstream Park. The Nunthorpe was marred by a spill. Tipsy Creek (Dayjur), who stopped badly at the halfway point, hampered Rambling Bear (Sharrood), causing him to fall; his jockey, Ray Cochrane, was unhurt.

Also ran: Rowaasi (GB), Asturian Lady (Ire), Warrior Queen, Crimplene (Ire), Journalist (Ire), Red Letter (GB).

In something of a shock, with Rowaasi (Green Desert), Warrior Queen (Quiet American) and Journalist (Night Shift) all disappointing, Jemima came from the back of the pack with a determined run to overhaul Seraphina in the dying strides for a deserved win. Having disappointed in her debut when only sixth to Hammer And Sickle (Ire) and Connect (GB) at Ripon Apr. 15, Jemima then showed her true ability on her next four starts, winning twice with two seconds. She was settled at the rear as Rowaasi went to the lead from the outset. Asturian Lady (Zieten) raced close up in second, followed by Warrior Queen, Crimplene (Lion Cavern), Tabheej and Journalist. Seraphina and Red Letter (Sri Pekan) kept company with Jemima at the back. As the field passed the quarter-mile marker, the expected battle between Rowaasi, Warrior Queen and Journalist didn't develop and the unconsidered 66-1 shot Seraphina, who had obviously not read the script, swept into the lead. Jemima, racing wider, came under pressure, but responded to Lindsay Charnock's questions with positive answers. The two drew away from the others in the final furlong, but it was only with 25 yards to go that Jemima got her nose in front. Seraphina proved game in second and was clear of Tabheej in third, who proved best in the battle for the minor placing.

LYCIUS TO STAND IN FLORIDA Lycius (Mr. Prospector--Lypatia {Fr}, by Lyphard) will stand the 2000 breeding season at Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slack's Stoneriggs Farm in Ocala, Florida. The nine-year-old stallion was purchased by the Slacks and B. E. Stables. A Group 1 winner in England and second in the 1991 English 2000 Guineas, Lycius has already sired six graded-stakes winners. Among his progeny are Hello (Ire), winner of the 1996 G1 Gran Criterium and Gill Generous S.; Ivan Luis (Fr), a group winner in Italy this year; and Media Nox (GB), winner of the 1997 GII Buena Vista H. Previously at Sheikh Mohammed's Kildangan Stud in Ireland, Lycius will stand in Florida for a stud fee of $10,000 live foal.

10th-SAR, $41,000, Msw, 3/up, 9.5fT, 1:54 1/5, fm. TARQUINIUS (c, 3, Broad Brush--Tarquina {SW-Fr}, by Niniski) had a rough trip when seventh in his turf debut June 23 at Belmont and returned on the main track with a fifth July 18. Back on the grass, the 6-1 shot was bumped at the start and rated at the rear of the pack, bid four wide on the turn for home and finished determinedly to edge Grigri (Devil's Bag) by three-quarters of a length. Lifetime Record: 5-1-0-1, $31,540. O-Stronach Stable. B-Frank Stronach (KY). T-J Orseno.

Travers Notes:

David (Mt. Livermore) will miss the Aug. 28 GI Travers after suffering a bruised right front foot. The three-year-old was injured while running in Wednesday's eighth race, a turf allowance going a mile and an eighth, and finished last. "It's not serious or career-threatening," trainer Mike Hushion said. "It will probably take from two to six weeks for him to recover."

Best of Luck (Broad Brush), pointing for the Travers, worked a half in :50 over the Saratoga main track yesterday morning.

Running Stag Preps for Saratoga Breeders' Cup:

Running Stag (Cozzene) worked a half mile in :48 at Lingfield in England yesterday morning. Trainer Phillip Mitchell said the winner of the GII Brooklyn H. went the last three furlongs in :35 2/5. The five-year-old will arrive in New York Sunday morning to get ready for the $300,000 GII Saratoga Breeders' Cup H. Aug. 29.

ARC GETS NEW SPONSOR; BIG PURSE BOOST

France's premier race may become Europe's richest race in 2000 following yesterday's announcement of a new sponsor for the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. The Lucien Barriere Group, a French luxury hotel, restaurant and casino group, will back the Arc for four years beginning with this year's running Oct. 3. The prize money for the first running of the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Lucien Barriere at Longchamp will rise 25 percent to FF8.75 million (£900,000). In 2000, prize money will rise to FF10.5 million (£1.080 million), which would be more than the current level of the Vodafone Derby, which this year came to £1.065 million. France Galop president Jean-Luc Lagardere said, "Since its creation, the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe has been an outstanding test of performance. The Lucien Barriere Group's confidence and its commitment to this event represents an exciting new page in its history. France Galop is delighted to associate such a prestigious name with this exceptional race." The race has been without a sponsor for the last two years, and the new arrangements will enable the race to enter the Emirates World Series Racing Championship next year.

RAMRUMA GOES FOR ST LEGER GLORY

Ramruma (USA) (Diesis {GB}) will attempt to win her third European Classic in the Rothmans Royals St Leger at Doncaster Saturday, Sept. 11. A spokeswoman for trainer Henry Cecil said, "Prince Fahd Salman has told us that as long as Ramruma is well, she will run in the St Leger." Ramruma won the Aston Upton Yorkshire Oaks Wednesday following victories in the Vodafone Oaks at Epsom and the Kildangan Stud Irish Oaks at The Curragh. Coral now bet 5-4 Ramruma; 7-1 Nowhere To Exit; 10-1 Mutafaweq, Endorsement; 12-1 Glamis; 14-1 All The Way, Iscan, Tchaikovsky; 16-1 and above the others.

MISCELLANY

Doncaster Bloodstock Sales has appointed Michael White, already a director and auctioneer, as vice chairman of the sales company, succeeding the late Ken Oliver...John Lovelock, who won £172,000 last Saturday when winning the Tote's Scoop6 bet, will collect a £200,000 bonus if he is able to pick the winner of the 26-horse Sunley H. at Sandown Saturday...Jockey Jimmy Quinn is off to Hong Kong this weekend to start a new role as stable jockey to Brian Kan. "The job to ride for Mr. Kan was a once-in-a-lifetime offer that I could not turn down," he said. Quinn has ridden 77 winners in Britain this year.

Yesterday's Results:

EBF GALTRES S.-Listed, £28,250, York, 3yo/up, f/m, 11f 195ydsT, 2:32.24, gd.

1--INNUENDO (IRE), 130, f, 4, Caerleon (USA)--Infamy (Ire) (GISW-Can, MGSW-GB, $744,973), by Shirley Heights (GB). O/B-Gerald Leigh; T-Luca Cumani; J-John Reid; £18,763. Lifetime Record: 8-4-4-0, £64,881. *1/2 to Barafamy (Ire) (Barathea {Ire}), Hwt. 2yo Filly-Ity, GSW-Ity, GSP-GB.

2--Credit-A-Plenty (GB), 120, f, 3, Generous (Ire)--On Credit (Fr), by No Pass No Sale (Ire). £5,600.

3--Sheer Sorrow (Ire), 130, f, 4, Lahib (USA)--So Long Boys (Fr), by Beldale Flutter (USA). £2,675.

Margins: NK, 1 1/4, 1 3/4. Odds: 6-4, 9-2, 33-1. Also ran: Auspicious (GB), Rada's Daughter (GB), Clandestine (GB), Sena Desert (GB), Spry (GB).

A fine second to Bimbola (Fr) in the G2 Prix de Pomone at Deauville Aug. 1 provided the perfect platform for Innuendo to give trainer Luca Cumani his eighth winner of this race in the last 10 years. Innuendo raced prominently in third as Sena Desert (Green Desert {USA}) set a sensible pace from Spry (Suave Dancer {USA}), as Sweet Sorrow raced in midfield with Credit-A-Plenty at the rear. Sena Desert held a three-length advantage at the three-furlong marker, but the pack closed quickly as she began to falter. Innuendo was ridden at that point and challenged for the lead approaching the final quarter, leading soon after and holding a two-length advantage into the final furlong. Credit-A-Plenty, who was last into the straight, looked in trouble when 10 lengths off the pace with two furlongs to run, but with Pat Eddery at his urgent best, she began to pick up and weaved her way through the field. Innuendo's lead was diminishing quickly as Credit-A-Plenty finished with a great rattle, but the post came just in time for Innuendo.

Despite finishing second to Desert Prince (Ire) in last season's G1 Irish 2000 Guineas, Fa-Eq had disappointed, apart from an easy win in a conditions event at Kempton May 10, followed by a fourth in the G2 Queen Anne S. at Royal Ascot June 15, and a 12th in the G1 July Cup at Newmarket July 8. He settled well in midfield as Yorkies Boy (Clantime {GB}) towed the field along from Peculiarity (Perpendicular {GB}), Eastern Purple (Petorius {Ire}) and Nigrasine, with Tumbleweed Ridge and Royal Arrow (Dayjur {USA}) restrained in the rear. Pulau Tioman (Robellino {USA}) led briefly entering the final quarter, but Fa-Eq cruised to the lead soon after as Tumbleweed Ridge made his bid on the outside, leading briefly inside the last half-furlong. Fa-Eq responded gamely and quickened again close to home, winning with a little in hand.

 + FATH (USA) (c, 2, Danzig {USA}--Desirable {Ire}, by Lord Gayle {USA}), about whom the vibes had been very positive beforehand, was well backed to odds of 13-8 and won like a highly promising colt. Always traveling well behind the pace, he quickened brilliantly over a quarter-mile out and soon put the result beyond doubt, winning easily by two lengths from two other debutants, Tough Speed (USA) (Miswaki {USA}) and the favored Ballydoyle representative, Van Dantzig (USA) (Danzig {USA}). There are no immediate plans for Fath, but his trainer Marcus Tregoning said, "He was a late foal [May 2] and he'll be a nice horse next year. I'm glad we waited so long to run him as he will improve physically. He will stay at six furlongs for now, but he will make up into a nice miler in time." He is a half to AESOPS (USA) (c, 3, Diesis {GB}--Affirmative Fable out of the question and starting the 1-3 favorite, turned this into little more than an exhibition gallop, leading throughout and going well clear down the middle of the track, extending his advantage with every stride and winning by 12 lengths. Lifetime Record: 4-1-1-1, pursued the pace early on, smoothly took the lead at halfway and soon went clear and was not hard-riden to hold off the late finish of Inching Closer (GB) (Inchinor
