EIGHT FACE OFF IN TRAVERS

A field of eight three-year-olds were entered yesterday for Saturday's 130th running of the GI Travers S. at Saratoga. Trainer Elliott Walden, whose Victory Gallop ran second in this race last year, will be represented by two runners. Menifee (Harlan), the 9-5 morning-line favorite, will break from post position one while stablemate Ecton Park (Forty Niner), installed as the 7-2 third choice, drew the five post. The duo captured the two traditional Travers preps, with Menifee winning the GI Haskell Invitational at Monmouth Park and Ecton Park victorious in the GII Jim Dandy at Saratoga. Since 1968, five of 11 Haskell winners have also won the Travers. Since 1960, only four horses have parlayed Jim Dandy wins into Travers victories. "This is the premier race of the summer," said Walden. "There are big races throughout the year, but winning this one means a lot. There is a lot of history in this race." Four of the six trainers represented in the Travers are members of the Hall of Fame, including Bill Mott who entered GI Belmont S. runner-up Vision and Verse (Storm Cat) and Unbridled Jet (Unbridled), a troubled fourth in the Haskell. "We waited on Unbridled Jet for the Haskell and Vision and Verse in the Belmont and we were almost right with both of them," Mott said. "But they have both convinced me that they can get the trip and I'm looking forward to the Travers and to the races this fall." Both Mott trainees are listed at 12-1 on the morning line. Belmont S. victor Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo), 9-2, turned in his final Travers work yesterday morning at Saratoga, breezing three furlongs in :35 3/5 for Hall of Famer Scotty Schulhofer.

All carry 126 pounds.

MALEK HEADS PACIFIC CLASSIC FIELD

With 8-5 morning-line favorite Malek (Chi) (Mocito Guapo {Arg}) leading the way, a field of eight was entered yesterday in Sunday's GI Pacific Classic at Del Mar. The $1 million race is the final stop of the NTRA Champions on FOX series which began at Gulfstream Park in January. In addition to the Chilean-bred favorite, trainer Richard Mandella will saddle 8-1 shot Lazy Lode (Arg) (Lode) in an attempt to win his third Pacific Classic. "Malek is a hard campaigner who always seems to be right there in big races," Mandella said after the draw yesterday. "Lazy Lode had a good work coming into this race. Although he's run mostly on the grass, he has won on the dirt, too." Lazy Lode, fourth in last year's renewal of this race and the only repeat performer, will have the services of repatriated jockey Gary Stevens. The 2-1 second choice is the Bob Baffert-trained General Challenge (General Meeting). The California-bred three-year-old was second in the July 18 GI Swaps S. in his last start. Complete field see p. 2

4	Beautiful Pleasure	Ward	Chavez	4-1
5	Keeper Hill	Frankel	Albarado	5-1
6	Banshee Breeze	Nafzger	Bailey	4-5

Banshee Breeze (Unbridled) looms a heavy favorite here to retain her status as pro-tem division leader. Last year's Alabama winner is unbeaten in four starts this year, including the Aug. 7 GI Go For Wand H. at the Spa in her most recent effort. The only chink in her armor may be that she is spotting the field six to 12 pounds, no small task over 10 furlongs. Tap to Music (Pleasant Tap) exits a sharp win in the GIII Delaware H. July 25 over this distance and has good tactical speed. Keeper Hill (Deputy Minister) is still looking for her first win since defeating Banshee Breeze in the 1998 Kentucky Oaks, but showed some of her old flair when closing to be second in the Delaware H.

MIGHT AND POWER NAMED HORSE OF THE

YEAR Might and Power (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) became the first horse ever to claim consecutive Australian Horse of the Year titles after beating Tie The Knot (Aus) (Nassipour) by just one vote. Might and Power polled 71 from 171 votes, although the six-year-old hasn't raced since winning the G2 Queen Elizabeth S. in November. Might and Power is back in training with Jack Denham and owner Nick Moraitis is optimistic about his return following a year off with a bowed tendon. Grand Archway (Aus) (Archway {Ire}), a four-time Group 1 winner, claimed best three-year-old and best filly or mare. Best sprinter was Isca (Aus) (Rory's Jester {Aus}) and Catbird (Aus) (Danehill), who has won five of 10 starts, won best juvenile trophy.

STEWARDS INVESTIGATE NANI ROSE Speaking on behalf of trainer Pat Byrne, owner Bob McNair explained yesterday that Nani Rose (Peteski) was scratched from Saratoga's Gll Lake Placid H. Wednesday because she had mistakenly been given a shot of a nutritional supplement prior to the race. In New York, horses cannot be treated with anything but Lasix once their name appears in the entries. At the time the filly was scratched, the Byrne stable said the horse had spiked a fever, but she was in fact scratched by the New York Racing Association stewards after the treatment was discovered. According to Byrne, veterinarian Greg Fox was treating other horses in the barn and mistakenly gave the medication to Nani Rose. Blood and urine tests have been taken on the filly, but the results have not yet been disclosed. According to McNair, Nani Rose was mistakenly given a shot of CRE-O-PAN. The active ingredient in CRE-O-PAN is creatinine, which is a substance present in all animals that stimulates muscle function. It is not a banned substance, but cannot be given within 48 hours of a race. It is not clear how or why NYRA investigators discovered the mistake or why as many as a dozen investigators swooped down on Byrne's barn Wednesday afternoon. "As far as rumors go, there was no tubing or no illegal medication given to the horse," Byrne said. Byrne put the blame on Fox. "We will no longer use his services," he said. "A mistake was made and it was unfortunate. But you can't have somebody come in and make a mistake like that, one that is that costly." The New York State Racing and Wagering Board confirmed yesterday that an investigation into the incident is on-going. Fox declined to comment.

EXPLOSIVE RED COLT TOPS OBS WEDNESDAY Love Red, a colt by freshman sire Explosive Red out of Love Child (Mugassas), brought a final bid of $90,000 to top the second Open session of the Ocala Breeders' Sales Company's August Yearling Sale, held Wednesday in Florida. Consigned by Plumley Farms, agent, and purchased by Century Ventures VI, the chestnut is a half brother to stakes winners Poppi's Andrew (Out of Place) and Snuck In (Montbrook), who captured this year's Dr. Fager division of the Florida Stallion S. and was third in the Gll Bashford Manor S. The Open Yearling Sale concluded yesterday; final-session results will be in tomorrow's TDN.

LADBROKES THE LATEST TO GO OFFSHORE

Pressure on the British government to cut the betting tax mounts as Ladbrokes, Britain's biggest bookmaker, yesterday become the latest and most significant company to announce that it is establishing a major offshore betting center open to U.K. residents that will avoid Britain's usual nine percent deductions. The offshore companies will instead levy a service charge of three percent. Ladbrokes will be massively expanding its facility in Gibraltar, opened in 1992 and servicing overseas high-rollers to date with 20 staff, by putting in a call center and employing 200 staff by the year end. Victor Chandler International started the trend to undercut British deductions rates earlier this year when becoming the first company to offer U.K. residents similar deductions. Peter George, chief executive of Ladbrokes parent company, the Hilton Group, said, "An important part of betting and gaming's future lies in services distributed via telephone, Internet and interactive television. Over the next year, we will expand our existing facilities in the U.K. and Gibraltar to offer sports and gaming products to a worldwide market through both telephone and e-commerce channels." In response to the announcement, Peter Bell, the British Horseracing Board's communications director, said, "We are naturally concerned about the impact on the levy if a sizeable proportion of telephone betting goes offshore, and any drop in income will need to be taken into account in the forthcoming negotiations on a new levy agreement." The Gibraltar operation is opening accounts now, but will not start taking bets until October, and an Internet site offering worldwide betting will start in the first quarter of next year. While Victor Chandler moved his entire operation to Gibraltar, Ladbrokes is creating a parallel operation in harness with its British one.

The $32,000 KEESEP yearling purchase kept finding more when asked and kept on to challenge for the lead at the distance. ### EURO WIN IN BREEDERS' CUP NOT LIKELY SAY CORAL

Coral rates a European win in the Nov. 6 Breeders' Cup a near impossibility, with a complete shutout a 4-7 chance. Europe has fared poorly at Gulfstream Park, site of this year's Breeders' Cup, recording no wins and only one second in the two previous runnings at the Florida track, where the weather was 79 and 87 degrees in 1989 and 1992, respectively. Stravinsky (USA) (Nureyev {USA}), at 6-1 in the Sprint, is Europe's best hope, with Aljabr (USA) (Storm Cat {USA}) and Sendawar (Ire) (Priolo {USA}) both at 8-1 for the Mile. Daylami (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}) and Royal Anthem (USA) (Theatrical {Ire}), both Group 1 winners this year, are 12-1 and 20-1, respectively, in the Turf.

BREEDERS' DAY AT DONCASTER

Doncaster Racecourse has announced that the first day of its Rothmans Royals St Leger Festival, Wednesday, Sept. 8, will be known as "Thoroughbred Breeders' Day." The card has £19,000 in breeders' prizes and includes the European Breeders' Fund Carrie Red Fillies' Nursery H., the second running of the £200,000 St Leger Yearling S. and a new race, the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association Maiden S. Members of the TBA will have exclusive use of a private facility.

GOLDEN SILCA MIGHT MAKE IT BACK THIS YEAR

Golden Silca (GB) (Inchinor {GB}), who has finished runner-up in both the G1 Coronation S. and G1 Irish 1000 Guineas this season, could make her comeback in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot Sept. 25. "She has had a bit of muscle and ligament problems since her last run and they have taken longer than expected," trainer Mick Channon said yesterday. "We will see how she goes, and if she is ready for the race at Ascot, she will run in that. Otherwise we will wait for next year as she stays in training."

FAIRYHOUSE RECORDS DUE TO SHORT COURSE

The two six-furlong world records set at Fairyhouse Aug. 21 were actually run at a distance about 50 yards short, according to the Racing Post. After Ardlea House (Ire) won a handicap in 1:06.9 and Oyster Catcher (Ire) clocked 1:06.3 in the Belgrave S. a half-hour later, the starting point was found to be in error. Due to work on the course, the finishing post had been moved, but the start for the six-furlong races hadn't been adjusted accordingly.

PROMISING TWO-YEAR-OLDS AT NEWMARKET

by David Milnes

Surprisingly, Luca Cumani is yet to register with his juveniles, but he is set to introduce a couple of likely looking-types across the country this weekend. First up is My Retreat (USA) (Hermitage {USA}--My Jessica Ann {USA}), by Native Rythm {USA}), primed to debut in a six-furlong maiden at Newmarket Saturday. A 16,500 guineas purchase at the Tattersalls October Yearlings Sale, My Retreat is a half-brother to a number of state-side winners, including stakes winner Near Silver (USA) (Lac Ouimet {USA}). Likely to face the starter later the same evening at Nottingham is Sea Drift (Fr) (Warning {GB}--Night At Sea {GB}), by Night Shift {USA}). A homebred full-sister to winning miler Nautical Warning (Fr), Cumani trained the dam to sprint successes in the early 90s. One for the future from Bedford House is River Coln (USA) (Irish River {Fr}--Erwinna {USA}), by Lyphard {USA}). An Ir75,000 guineas purchase at the Goffs Orby sale last October, River Coln is a half-sister to five winners, including the seven-furlong to one-mile performer Wild Sky (Warning {GB}). In the same category is Silver Colours (USA) (Silver Hawk {USA}--Team Colors {USA}), by Mr. Prospector {USA}), a half-sister to useful winning and GSP juvenile Desaru (USA) (Chief's Crown {USA}). Henry Cecil has plenty of juvenile ammunition to play with over the next couple of months and is ready to unleash Shibboleth (USA) (Danzig {USA}--Razyana {USA}), by His Majesty {USA}). Khalid Abdullah's youngster is a full-brother to winning stablemate Nuclear Freeze (USA), top stallion Danehill (USA), freshman sire Eagle Eyed (USA) and GSW Harpia (USA). Also progressing is Thermal Spring (GB) (c, Zafonic {USA}--Seven Springs {USA}), by Irish River {Fr}). This one is bred to go a bit as he is a half-brother to freshman Distant View (USA) (Mr. Prospector {USA}), winner of the G1 Sussex S. for Cecil back in 1994.

★ U.S. PREMIERES ★

6th-Saratoga, $48,000, Alw, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/16mT
Two U.S. debutantes, Italian 1000 Guineas winner Shenck (GB) (Zafonic {USA}) and Circle of Gold (Ire) (Royal Academy {USA}), who hadn't run since a 14th-place finish in the May 2 Sagitta 1000 Guineas, were the two favorites in the field of seven. Both sat near the rear early, but it was Circle of Gold who was the stronger, finishing second, while Shenck flattened out in the stretch and ran fifth.
