JUVENILES FACE OFF IN DEL MAR FINALE

Five two-year-olds will head to the post today for the 52nd renewal of the GII Del Mar Futurity. The likely favorite is Dixie Union (Dixieland Band). Unbeaten in three career starts, the Richard Mandella trainee has already won the July 18 GIII Hollywood Juvenile Championship and the Aug. 18 GIII Best Pal S. Trainer Bob Baffert, who became the first trainer to sweep all five of Del Mar's Grade I races this summer, will saddle three of the five runners: Forest Camp (Deputy Minister), Cameron Pass (Mr. Greeley) and Captain Steve (Fly So Free). Forest Camp won his only previous start, an Aug. 7 five-furlong Del Mar maiden race, by two lengths, despite stumbling at the start. Cameron Pass has won both his starts, most recently taking a 5 1/2-furlong Del Mar allowance Aug. 20, while stablemate Captain Steve, third in the Best Pal, will wear blinkers for the first time in this effort. The D. Wayne Lukas-trained Commendable (Gone West) rounds out the field. The chestnut colt was an impressive four-length winner of his Aug. 14 debut. The Futurity is the closing-day feature at Del Mar.

Today, Del Mar, post time 5:30 p.m.

NORTHERN EXPOSURE AT LONGCHAMP

He had only one previous win to his credit, but Northerntown (Manila) picked a fine time to double that total yesterday at Longchamp, winning the G3 Prix de Lutece by one length. A winner of a conditions race at Saint-Cloud May 19, Northerntown employed forcing tactics here to win a shade cleverly and provide Freddie Head with his first group race win as a trainer. Fractious beforehand, the Kentucky-bred colt had his mind in the right place once the race got underway. He initially raced in fifth but strode to the head of affairs after a half mile. He and First Ballot (Ire) (Perugino) raced five lengths in advance of the remainder, who were headed by Rhagaas (GB) (Sadler's Wells) as Amilynx (Fr) (Linamix {Fr}) was settled in last place. Rhagaas closed the gap at the entrance to the straight and threw down a challenge approaching the final quarter, but that effort was short lived as Northerntown extended his advantage to three lengths entering the final furlong. He kept on well and was eased down close home to win a bit in hand. The winning trainer said, "He is a tough little horse who runs his heart out everytime. It is not easy to make all at a strong pace, but he would have no chance in a slowly run race. All being well, he will return in the G2 Prix Hubert de Chaudenay at Longchamp (Oct. 2), a race restricted to three-year-olds."

Alluring Act scored a sharp victory in her career debut Aug. 15 and returned here for another impressive win to remain unbeaten. Off a step slowly, the bay filly steadily improved her position, accelerated at the top of the stretch and sped through the heavy showers for her first stakes win. "She showed us a good turn of foot as I imagined," said winning jockey Shinichiro Akiyama. "I think she can compete at a mile."

Margins: HF, 3HF, HF. Odds: *1.80, 5.50, 5.80.

The winner of her racetrack debut July 24, Gaily Funky kept her perfect record intact with a narrow victory. The bay broke alertly under jockey Teruo Eda who settled the filly in midpack in the early stages. She advanced to make the lead rounding the far turn and dueled down the stretch with Berg Ticket, but dug in gamely for her first stakes success. Said Eda, "We didn't go to the front by force because we were in the outside gate. She still had enough energy around the turn so I thought we would have a chance to win. She ran very well."

All horses in the International TDN were bred in North America unless otherwise indicated.

T-Todd A Pletcher; J-J R Velazquez; $120,000.

Lifetime Record: 3-2-1-0, $165,900.

It must be some considerable time since a stallion starting out at a stud fee of $5,000 has succeeded in siring a Grade 1 winner in each of his first three crops. That, however, is the feat achieved by Belong To Me. A son of Danzig trained by Allen Jerkens, Belong To Me flashed tremendous speed as a three-year-old when he won six of 13 starts including the GIII Boojum H. and GIII Best Turn S. Retired to stand in New York, Belong to Me sired the multiple Grade I winning filly Jersey Girl in his first crop, the GI Hopeful S. victor Lucky Roberto in his second and completed the treble with Circle of Life's victory in the GI Spinaway S. last Friday. Belong To Me moved to Lane's End Farm in Versailles, Kentucky for the 1998 breeding season and stood his first two years there at a fee of $20,000.

As a grandson of Northern Dancer out of a mare by a son of Raise a Native, Belong to Me is a cross of two of the strains which are most predominant in the North American population and Circle of Life is inbred to both horses. She is actually the third Belong to Me stakes winner out of a Northern Dancer-line mare--following Chasin' Wimmin (Deputy Minister) and Belongs To Money (Gate Dancer)--and the second with a Raise a Native duplication, the first being Terreavigne (out of Im A Star Prospect, by Mr. Prospector).

Circle of Life's Northern Dancer inbreeding comes through Danzig and Nijinsky II. There have been at least 24 Danzig-line stakes winners with inbreeding to Northern Dancer through Nijinsky, including Group 1 winners Redoute's Choice (Aus) (Danehill--Shantha's Choice {Aus}, by Canny Lad {Aus}) and Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}--Songline {NZ}, by Western Symphony), as well as British champion sprinter Iktamal (Danzig Connection--Crystal Cup, by Nijinsky). Twenty of these stakes winners (12 group/graded, five Group/Grade 1) are out of mares which descend from Nijinsky in direct male line.

We have observed that, in general, breeding a mare back to a sire from her immediate male line tends towards disappointing results. There are, however, some exceptions to this observation and Circle of Life's pedigree features two of them. The first of these is that inbreeding to sons of a stallion seems to work well when sons of a somewhat different physique or aptitude are involved. This includes duplicating Northern Dancer through Nijinsky II and many of the other sons of Northern Dancer; Raise a Native through Mr. Prospector and Majestic Prince and Bold Ruler through Secretariat and other sons.

Another exception which seems to work quite well is when a stallion in the male line of the sire and in the dam (or the sire and dam themselves) are bred on a similar cross. This kind of parallel pattern is found in Circle of Life. As we have said, Belong to Me is by a son of Northern Dancer out of a mare by a son of Raise a Native, and if we look at the pedigree of her dam Concentric we find that she is by Shadeed (grandson of Northern Dancer) out of a mare by Alydar (son of Raise a Native). That this type of pattern should work well is not particularly surprising. Horses which are recruited as sires tend to be high-class performers, and so duplicating the "nick" which produced the sire frequently reinforces a proven affinity.

PEDIGREE SHORTS

English 2000 Guineas winner Mister Baileys (GB) was represented by a stakes winner from his freshman two-year-old crop when Cool Ashlee (f, 2, Mister Baileys--Ideal Index, by Copelan) flew home eight lengths clear in the Critical Miss S. at Philadelphia Park. Cool Ashlee is bred on a cross--Roberto line-sires over Tri Jet-line mares--which has a very good strike rate with nine other stakes winners, including Grade I winner Diplomatic Jet. We can also note that her dam has three crosses of the very fast Olympia, and Olympia's sire Heliopolis is bred on a very similar cross to Tudor Minstrel, a brilliant champion two-year-old and miler who is in the pedigree of Mister Baileys.

There was another success for the pattern of inbreeding to the broodmare sire of the sire when Deputy Warlock (c, 2, Silver Deputy--Date Stone, by Forty Niner) captured the Miller Genuine Draft Cradle S. Silver Deputy is out of a mare by Mr. Prospector, and Deputy Warlock's dam is by a son of Mr. Prospector, so Mr. Prospector appears 3x3 in the center of the pedigree.

KEENELAND PRESIDENT TO RETIRE William Greely, whose 28 years as a Keeneland executive includes 14 years as president of the organization, announced plans to retire in February. He will remain on Keeneland's board of directors. Greely, 61, became Keeneland's fifth president in 1986, succeeding James Bassett III. "With Keeneland's sales enjoying unprecedented success and racing purses at record levels, I felt it was an ideal time in my career to retire," Greely explained. "We have walked a fine line over the years, trying to grow and change enough to keep things fresh, but always mindful that we must protect and enhance Keeneland's great traditions for future generations."

SARATOGA CLOSES WITH NUMBERS UP Saratoga concluded its 36-day 1999 meeting Monday with figures up across the board. The average daily on-track handle was $3,110,265--up 5.4 percent over last year. The daily average for total handle was $15,486,599. The average daily attendance was 25,562, an increase of 3.7 percent over the 1998 figure of 24,660. Jerry Bailey was the meet's leading rider with 47 winners while Bill Mott was the top trainer with 16 victories. Racing resumes at Belmont Park on Friday.

ST LEGER SALE OFF TO FLYING START

Records in average and aggregate that marginally surpassed those set two years ago began the 1999 St Leger Yearling Sales at Doncaster in the best possible fashion yesterday. The turnover of 1,325,800gns compared favorably to an opening day 1,271,400gns in 1997 and the average that year was 8,256gns, just below the 8,338gns figure recorded yesterday. Geoff Lewis was one of the busiest buyers, but the difference this year was that the Epsom trainer, who saddles his last runner on Friday, was acting for others. Lewis bought the day's joint top-priced offering, a 30,000gns colt by Lugana Beach (GB), who is a full-brother to the speedy handicappers Pure Coincidence (GB) and Pure Elegancia (GB), both one-time inmates of his Epsom yard. Mike Baker, formerly an owner with Lewis, will race this colt with Michael Jarvis in Newmarket. The 30,000gns price tag was also reached when Newmarket trainer Chris Wall got the better of agent Sam Bullard for a daughter of Shareef Dancer (USA) offered from the Swinburn family's Genesis Green Stud. Although much of yesterday's trading was done by British buyers, one lot that will be heading abroad is a Desert Style colt who was bought for 23,000gns by Florida-based trainer Frank Maurier on behalf of his client Cameron Express Inc to sell at an American breeze-up sale next year. (Today's Doncaster preview see p2)

TODAY AT DONCASTER.....

Doncaster St Leger Sales traditionally step up a gear at tonight's post-racing session beginning at 5.10pm with 95 lots set to go under the hammer. Timmy Hyde's Camas Park Stud in Co Tipperary, for many years one of the leading vendors at this sale, sells its four-lot draft tonight. This includes a Common Grounds (GB) colt (lot 192) who is the first foal of Midnight Oasis (USA) (Java Gold {USA}), a winning daughter of Storm Bird's Gr.1 Canadian Oaks winning sister Northernette (Can) (Northern Dancer {Can}). Rathbarry Stud sells lot 106, the only yearling catalogued by its resident Barathea (Ire), a filly out of the unraced mare Polish Mission (GB) (Polish Precedent). Whitsbury Manor Stud offers lot 237, a Pursuit Of Love (GB) half-sister to this year's Coventry S. runner-up Sir Nicholas (GB) (Cadeaux Genereux). Of those sold as foals, the most expensive was lot 245, a son of Efisio (GB) out of Patiala (Ire) (Nashwan {USA}), who comes from the family of Irish Oaks winner Regal Exception (USA). Offered from Yeomanstown Stud in Co Kildare, this colt was bought for 21,000gns by Mags O'Toole at Tattersalls last December.

ASCOT NAMES NEW AUCTIONEERS

Russell, Baldwin & Bright has been awarded the licence to run Ascot Bloodstock Sales from the end of 1999 for an initial three years. The Herefordshire-based firm, major auctioneers of livestock and non-thoroughbred horses, started thoroughbred auctions eight years ago from Malvern but has yet to break into the big time. The Ascot move represents a considerable development for the company which plans to offer owners and trainers new incentives linked to specific races and racecourses. Nick Cheyne, Ascot's clerk of the course, said, "We were very impressed with Russell, Baldwin & Bright's enthusiasm and professional approach in their tender for the licence. They have built up a strong bloodstock business in a relatively short space of time at Malvern and are clearly determined to make a huge success of Ascot Sales." The company takes over from brothers Michael & John Botterill who retire in November after a family involvement stretching back to 1946. Michael's son Richard, who left the family business about three years ago, is a shareholder of Russell, Baldwin & Bright. He said, "I am thrilled that the Botterill name will continue to be associated with the on-going history of the Ascot Sales."

ISCAN ST LEGER BOUND AFTER ALL

Iscan (Ire) (Caerleon {USA}) will run in Saturday's G1 Rothmans Royals St Leger after passing his stalls test at Leicester yesterday. With the senior starter Peter Haynes supervising, Iscan, with work rider Duncan McMurray in the saddle, walked into the stall without a problem.

French-based jockey Cash Asmussen has been given the all-clear to return to the saddle this weekend, after breaking his right shoulder in a fall at Chantilly at the end of July. He said yesterday, "The doctors have said I'm okay so I'll be back this weekend. I rode some work at Chantilly the other day and I am raring to go again. It looks like I'll be in Ireland on Saturday to ride Dream Well. Maybe I'll have another one or two at the meeting then I'll be back in France on Sunday."

GROSSER PREIS VON BADEN WRAP UP

Baron Georg von Ullmann's impressive G1 Grosser Preis von Baden winner Tiger Hill (Ire) (Danehill {USA}) has come out of the race in good order. He took his lifetime earnings past the DM2 million mark, which makes him the fourth highest earner in German turf history. Tiger Hill will now attempt to improve on his 1998 third placing with another crack at the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at Longchamp Oct. 3, with Terry Hellier set to continue as his intended jockey. Runner-up Flamingo Road (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}) will also point to the Arc having proven her ability in the highest company. Plans are still fluid for third placed Belenus (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}). Trainer Peter Schiergen is at a loss to explain the poor showing of Sumitas (Ger) (Lomitas {GB}). The three-year-old was certainly not suited by the suicidal pace set by Saugerties (USA) (Tremolino {USA}) and could not take the pressure after starting to fade as early as the final turn. If he pleases Schiergen in the meantime, Sumitas will go for the G1 EMS-Europa Preis at Cologne Sept. 26.

MONSUN LEADS THE WAY

The current leading first season sire in Germany is Gestut Schlenderhan's Monsun (Ger) (Königsstuhl {Ger}) with six individual winners, including one black-type performer to his credit. Next in line is Gestut Rottgen's Sternkonig (Ire) (Kalaglow {Ire}) with three individual winners, including the triple-winning Stella Di Re in Italy. Gestut Hof Ittlingen's G1 Japan Cup winning champion Lando (Ger) is now well off the mark as well. From a total of only five runners in Germany and Italy he has sired three individual winners. The Gestut Karlshof based G1 Irish Derby hero Winged Love (Ire) (In The Wings {GB}) can boast two winners. This past weekend also saw Hubert Hasler's middle distance champion Komtur (USA) sire his first when Pamri won a maiden race in Austria.

Trained in France by Helena van Zuylen, Lexa won the 1998 G3 Prix Corrida by a neck and when last seen at the races, was a two-length winner of the G2 Prix de Royallieu at Longchamp last Oct. 3. She faces males in this event, but has demonstrated the ability to handle that competition as witnessed by a conditions win against the boys in her third career start. The chestnut debuts with the addition of first-time Lasix and should contend for a top-three placing.

Hastenby will try to end her role as bridesmaid as she makes her U.S. debut this afternoon. The bay was second by 1 1/4 in a Bath maiden May 24, runner up by a head in a similar event at Salisbury June 8, but was most impressive when beaten just half a length against colts in Ascot's Listed Chesham S. in her last appearance June 17.
