WHITE STRIKES GOLD... Henry White has made his living in the horse business forever. But, for the life of him, he had never sold a horse at public auction for $1 million or more. Not until Wednesday and the third day of the 1999 Keeneland September Yearling Sale. White, acting as agent for the Estate of Paul Mellon, sold an attractive and athletic Seeking the Gold filly for $1 million to Eugene Melnyk. It was the top price of the day in a sale that has already broken the record books. "This is the first time I've ever sold a horse at public auction for $1 million," said White, a few minutes after the Seeking the Gold filly went through the sales ring. "It's a great feeling. It really is." The bay filly is by Seeking the Gold, one of the world's top young sires and a popular son of the late, great Mr. Prospector. Out of the graded-stakes placed mare Key Witness, she is a half sister to GISWs Key Contender and You'd Be Surprised. The entire package was enough to impress bloodstock agent Mike Ryan, who signed the sales slip for Melnyk, one of the top buyers at this year's sale. "I thought she was exceptional," said Ryan. "Obviously, the pedigree is as strong as it can be. I told Mr. Melnyk that if she can jump up and win a stake then she is worth something around $7 million or more. She is from one of the best Rokeby families. It is so solid. You just don't get a chance to buy into families like this at the top very often. I thought this was a great opportunity. This filly, I think, will get better with age. She is like a lot of the Seeking the Golds, she will keep improving and will get better and better, I think."

...Oxley Settles On Silver

The second highest price on Wednesday was reserved for another filly. A Silver Deputy filly, out of the Wild Again mare Wild Seven, was purchased for $575,000 by John C. Oxley. Silver Deputy is the sire of Silverbulletday, the top filly in North America. The underbidder was Maurice Miller, who has become a regular seller at the annual Keeneland Two-Year-Old In Training Sale.

Day's Top Colt to Sheikh Mohammed

The top selling colt of the day was Hip 692, a bay colt by the popular young sire Unbridled's Song and out of the Secretariat mare Buzz Me Miss Blue, a half sister to 1996 Kentucky Derby winner Grindstone. After a fierce bidding session, the colt was purchased for $525,000 by Sheikh Mohammed al Maktoum and his Godolphin Racing stable. Bloodstock agent John Ferguson, who regularly purchases for Sheikh Mohammed, signed the sales slip. "We think that he is a very nice individual," said Ferguson, who has been on a buying spree so far this week. "He looks like he could have a lot of class."

Day 3...By The Figs

While there was a noticeable drop-off at yesterday's third session, overall numbers continue to skyrocket. Wednesday's average of $98,579 and median of $67,500 represented increases of 42.1 and 32.4 percent respectively against the figures from one year ago. Through the first three days of this year's sale, the cumulative average is running 43.9 percent higher than last year, while the median is up an impressive 26.4 percent. Day three was ladies' day in the sales pavilion, as three of the session's top four sellers were fillies, including the afternoon's topper from the Paul Mellon dispersal. Interestingly, a filly which sold for $420,000 accounted for the top figure from session three a year ago. Not to be outdone, there was plenty of interest in the colts as well, with five selling in excess of $300,000. The sale continues this morning at 10 a.m.

WRITERS UP

AT THE SALES ... with Bill Oppenheim

Let's do some summarizing from Book 1...with 50 fewer horses sold, the gross was up a third, from $90-million last year to $120-million, and the average was up 49 percent, from $172,115 to $256,665. Even the median was up 43 percent, from $105,000 to $150,000. That's pretty impressive, to have nearly 500 listed sales in twenty hours of selling, and for every one that went through for under $150,000, one went through for over $150,000 ...

I mentioned in yesterday's column how Sheikh Mohammed had come down from the Big Room and was in the thick of the action...and how John Ferguson Bloodstock was the name on the ticket 25 times, at prices ranging from $17,000 to $3.9-million. The total was $15,437,000, the average $617,480. Sheikh Hamdan bought 13 more, totalling $8,295,000, and averaging $638,076. Between them, the brothers bought 38 yearlings in Book 1, for $23,732,000 (a hair under 20 percent of the total), and averaged just under $625,000. They bought six of the sale's 21 seven-figure ($1-million plus) yearlings. Sheikh Mohammed is trying his level best to make this a truly global business, and the advent of global betting technology (which also has the potential to create real purse money for owners in Britain, which would double the price of European racehorses because people could afford to keep them instead of racing to value them for export) moves things in that direction as well. (Cont. p3)

Oppenheim cont.

By contrast, Demi O'Byrne and the Coolmore crowd bought but six--five colts and the sale's top filly at $2-million--but Canadian Eugene Melnyk bought 17 yearlings for more than $6.8-million, and Bob and Beverly Lewis were the buyers of another twelve. Narvick Interntaional also bought 12, probably mostly for Japanese clients.

We have to think about what this all means, besides a few more spikes in stud fees. It never has felt like the Eighties, but this 50 percent hike in the average is getting closer, especially when we start to hear rumors (as yet unconfirmed) of big farms biting the dust. One thing we have to remember about the September sale, though... since the early 80s it has never stopped growing. This sale has been the true auction market (and therefore industry) barometer, because of the volume of quality. It could just still be growing. On the other hand, one can't help feeling if the Dow Jones suddenly dropped to 9,000, or wherever you like, the money might not flow so freely. We can say this: as long as the Dow Jones is at 11,000, this market can keep rolling right on...but what's that really saying?

Sunday, Woodbine

ATTO MILE-GI, $1,000,000, 3yo/up, 1mT

Dockside (Diesis {GB}), second to Aljabr in the G1 Lanson Champagne Vintage S. in his last start, will not start in Sunday's GI $1,000,000 Atto Mile at Woodbine in Toronto. "He bruised his left front foot about 10 days ago, lost about three days of training, then a couple of more getting back," said trainer John Hills. He will instead run in the Sept. 25 G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. at Ascot. Other European-based runners bound for the Mile are Cape Cross (Ire) (Green Desert), Charge D'Affaires (GB) (Kendor {Fr}) and $50,000 supplemental entry Lonesome Dude (With Approval).

Olivier Peslier has been named to ride the François Doumen-trained Jim And Tonic (Fr) (Double Bed {Fr}), replacing Gerald Mosse, who has a prior engagement to ride for the Aga Khan. Peslier was third in last year's mile aboard Poteen. Jim And Tonic was second, beaten a head by Labeeb. Pat Day will replace Alex Solis on Hawksley Hill (Ire) (Rahy) for trainer Neil Drysdale. The chestnut six-year-old was a tough-luck runner up in the 1998 Breeders' Cup Mile, but is winless in his last seven starts dating back to the 1998 GIII Oak Tree Breeders' Cup Mile.

WALDEN SELLS VINERY SHARE Vinery founder Ben Walden, Jr. has sold his remaining 10-percent interest in the 12-year-old Midway, Kentucky farm, according to Daily Racing Form. Walden will stay on as a consultant to his former partner George Hofmeister who purchased 90 percent of Vinery last summer. Walden told the Form that none of the 28 stallions based at Vinery is scheduled to move. The operation includes a farm in Australia and two American divisions.

6th-BEL, $44,000, Alw, 2yo, f, 6f, 1:10 4/5, ft. DREAM SUPREME (f, 2, Seeking the Gold--Spinning Round {GISW, $639,221}, by Dixieland Band) scored one of the most impressive debuts at Saratoga Aug. 29, rallying from seventh to equal the track record for five furlongs (1:03 2/5). Sent off as the 2-5 public choice, the bay filly did not disappoint her backers as she stalked the pace, hit the front in midstretch and drew clear by a length over Lucky Livi (Mr. Greeley). Repatriated this spring, the chestnut filly captured her first two starts and finished well Aug. 9 for fourth in her last out to Khumba Mela (Fr) (Hero's Honor). Largely ignored by the bettors here, she raced close up early, rallied three wide approaching the stretch and drew clear steadily for her third stateside victory.

The bay colt captured a Churchill allowance May 28 before running sixth to Ecton Park (Forty Niner) at Churchill June 23. Off since then, the homebred colt made his turf debut a winning one, rallying in the stretch for his first black-type win. "This is the first time he set foot on it (the grass), but with the way he ran, we're very happy," said winning trainer Dave Carroll. "If we were going to try the Hawthorne Derby (Gill, $250,000, Oct. 10, 9fT), this was the spot to be in."

AGA KHAN HORSE TESTS POSITIVE According to the Daily Racing Form, the Aga Khan's Zalal (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), trained by Luca Cumani, tested positive for the banned substance phenylbutazone after winning an allowance race at Goodwood June 27. This is the second such incident for Cumani involving one of the Aga Khan's horses. The Italian horseman also trained Sharera (Ire) (Kahyasi {Ire}), who came up positive for the same medication after finishing second in a race at Newmarket last October. This second positive could cost Cumani the Aga Khan string, which numbers 20. The Aga had removed all of his horses from Britain after his filly Aliysa (Ire) was disqualified from her win in the 1989 Epsom Oaks following a positive test for camphor, but returned to British racing in 1994. He was quoted by The Press Association as saying, "You can make a mistake once, that's all I have to say." Cumani will appear at a Jockey Club hearing Sept. 23.

John Reid Retained by Sheikh Maktoum?

Sheikh Maktoum Al Maktoum is on the verge of signing John Reid as his retained rider to partner all his horses other than those trained by Sir Michael Stoute. The news is a fillip for Reid, 44, who was replaced as first-choice rider to Robert Sangster last year and has missed most of this season with a broken leg. His agent Peter Shoemark said yesterday: "Nothing's been confirmed--John hasn't signed on the dotted line yet. He needs to have further discussions with the owner's racing manager Joe Mercer, but it should be all sorted out soon. It looks like he will ride all of them apart from the Stoute ones, as Kieren Fallon will be in for those."

Wolverhampton to Improve All-Weather Track:

Wolverhampton racecourse will make improvements to its Fibresand all-weather surface and, as a result, visiting horses will not be able to work out at the facilities from Sept. 19 to Oct. 1. This will allow a major analysis of the all-weather track and its foundation prior to any renovation. No racing fixtures will be affected. Michael Prosser, Wolverhampton's clerk of the course, explained: "During the last 12 months we have noticed that some areas have been retaining moisture for longer periods of time than others. This clearly needs to be investigated thoroughly and any underlying problems need to be addressed immediately before the weather deteriorates and our busy period of winter racing begins."

Aussie Group 1 Winner to Plantation Stud:

Plantation Stud in Newmarket has announced the addition of Dracula (Aus) (Quest For Fame {GB}--Awards Ceremony {Aus} {Kaoru Star (Aus)}) to its stallion roster for next year, standing at a fee of £4,000, Oct. 1 terms. The four-year-old has been standing at Woodlands Stud in Australia. A champion in Australia at two, Dracula won seven races, including the G1 Moet et Chandon Champagne S., G1 Sires' Produce S. and G1 George Main S. Leslie Harrison, the Plantation Stud manager, said: "We are very pleased to make Dracula available to European breeders and look forward to supporting him ourselves. His speed and class, coupled with his excellent conformation, must recommend him to many breeders in Europe." Luke Lillingston of the Kern/Lillingston Association initiated the agreement with Trevor Lobb to send Dracula to Europe.

Alborada Headed to Champion S.

Alborada (GB) (Alzao {USA}), who finished fifth in the G1 Vodafone Nassau S. last month, is reported to be on course to try and win the G1 Dubai Champion S. at Newmarket for a second year. Trainer Sir Mark Prescott said yesterday: "She had a corn after the Nassau. In itself it is nothing but it took me a long time to get it right. She is all right now and in good form, and after the Champion she will go abroad for some of those funny races in America with which I am unfamiliar!"

Cheltenham News:

The 2000 Cheltenham Festival, the most successful jump racing meeting in the world, will be all-ticket in all three enclosures for the first time, it was announced yesterday. For the past two years, the Thursday of the meeting--Tote Cheltenham Gold Cup day--has been all ticket, but record attendances this year on the first two days has prompted this move.

Cheltenham racecourse will establish a Breeders' Club open to all National Hunt breeders who are members of the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association. The club aims to reward breeders whose involvement in the sport is often overlooked and will offer badges and a private facility on three specific racedays, including Smurfit Champion Hurdle day, at a cost of £125 plus VAT. Also new at Cheltenham this season will be the introduction of owners' premiums for British-bred horses in all novices' chases and National Hunt Flat races to a value of 25 percent of the minimum prize money. Further initiatives for British breeders are promised, including the development of a special breeders' raceday in April.

Lightly raced Pedro broke his maiden over the all-weather surface at Wolverhampton in September of 1997 for Sir Mark Prescott and won his only start of 1998 at Thirsk going a flat mile.
