ART, NOT CRAFT, IN VOSBURGH

Crafty Friend (Crafty Prospector) was the 4-5 chalk in yesterday's GI Vosburgh S. at Belmont Park, but he chased 4-1 Artax (Marquetry) through a half in :44.69 and tired to be fifth as the pacesetter went on to a convincing 3 1/2-length score. The winner of the GI Carter H. back in May, Artax then ran into fan interference, finishing fifth after narrowly avoiding a man on the track in the GIII Maryland Breeders' Cup H. May 15. He was second or third in his next four starts, all graded sprint stakes, but ran an even fifth in the Sept. 6 GII Forego H. last out. "The whole game with him is the break," owner Ernie Paragallo said. "If he breaks, they can't beat him." A slight hesitation at the start yesterday didn't cost him. "He broke a little slow, but he recovered pretty fast," winning jockey Jorge Chavez said. "I knew we were setting fast fractions, but I didn't want to fight him...he's a tough horse to ride. He dug in today and proved he's one of the best sprinters in the country." Crafty Friend was looking for his third straight graded-stakes win at seven furlongs after taking the July 4 GII Tom Fool H. and Sept. 6 GII Forego H., but couldn't run back to those efforts. "He just was totally flat today," jockey Gary Stevens said. "He was real lethargic before the race and he was empty when I called on him. I think he ran too fast in his last race."

ASCOT'S GROUP ONE RACES RESCHEDULED

The G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. and the G1 Meon Valley Stud Fillies' Mile were rained out yesterday, but could be run at Ascot this afternoon if conditions allow. Ascot officials, who scrapped Saturday's program after heavy morning rains turned the course into a quagmire, will hold another inspection at 7 a.m. today. A dry afternoon left a chance that the expanded nine-race card, with the two Group 1s from yesterday added, can go ahead. The Fillies Mile and the Queen Elizabeth II are scheduled to run at 1:05 and 1:35 p.m., respectively. Clerk of the Course Nick Cheyne said, "The course is drying out well and, providing there is no significant overnight rain, we are hopeful that racing can go ahead." If racing is called off once again, the two Group 1 events may be reopened for entries and moved to Newmarket Tuesday. That may be good news for The Aga Khan's Sendawar (Ire) (Priolo). Europe's top miler skipped the Queen Elizabeth II to avoid the heavy going, but will be entered if the race is rescheduled for Tuesday. "If the QE II is to take place at Newmarket, and if the ground conditions are suitable, then Sendawar will travel to take his chance," trainer Alain de Royer-Dupre said. "The horse is in tremendous condition and I am keen to run him, but only if the conditions are not against him." Sendawar has won three straight Group 1 races going a mile at Longchamp and would be making his first foray outside of France. "I don't think that the straight mile (at Newmarket) will prove a problem," de Royer-Dupre said.

Da Devil had scored in back-to-back allowance races at Ellis Park, winning on turf in July and on dirt in August, but failed to threaten in a pair of subsequent stakes starts, most recently running fifth in the prep for this race, the Sept. 11 GIII Kentucky Cup Classic Preview H. Understandably ignored this time, the outsider trailed the field for a half, swept six wide around the far turn to catch the front runners, opened up a clear lead in midstretch and held on as Social Charter came back at him in the closing yards. "I told (jockey Calvin Borel) the only shot we've got is if you take him back," trainer Forrest Kaelin said. "I said, 'We can't go with these horses. Let's hope they burn themselves out--it's the only shot we've got.'" Favored Cat Thief won the July 18 GI Swaps S. and missed by a half length when second in the Aug. 8 GI Haskell Invitational, but was a tiring seventh in his latest, the Aug. 28 GI Travers. The three-year-old set the pace, lost the lead at the top of the lane, but continued on gamely to the wire.

All horses in the International TDN were bred in North America unless otherwise indicated.

With the Flow, who started his career in France, had won half his eight career starts, including the G3 Prix de Fontainebleu Apr. 19, 1998. A badly blocked fourth in his U.S. debut, the GII Jamaica H. last Oct. 18, he was given a rest until Mar. 6, when he was dropped into the allowance ranks, ran fourth and was sidelined for another three months. He came back to win a June 4 Belmont allowance, but had not been out since finishing third as the overwhelming favorite in an allowance over that course June 30. Vergennes (Dynaformer) set the early pace, with With the Flow and jockey Jose Santos on his flanks. Santos asked for run entering the stretch and his mount responded, drawing clear inside the eighth pole and digging in to repel the late challenge of Comic Strip. "He came back a little sore from his last race and that's why he has been off," trainer Christophe Clement said. "I had him ready to run, but the ground wasn't to his liking. This horse needs turf with some give in it to run at his best." Tangazi (Jade Hunter), the 3-2 favorite, was shut off in the stretch, had to be checked sharply and ended up sixth.

A # will distinguish first-time stakes-winners, a @ will indicate first-time graded stakes-winners, a + will denote winners who are first-time starters, an (S) will be used for state-bred races, a (C) will be used for maiden-claiming races and an (R) will be used for other restricted races. Purses for Canadian races are in Canadian dollars.

Successful Appeal, somewhat overlooked in the waging due to the presence of speedball Five Star Day, rallied from just off the pace to capture his third graded stakes of the year. Winner of the GII Withers S. over a mile at Aqueduct May 1, the dark bay tried a route several more times without finding the winner's circle, including a third to Forestry and Doneraile Court in the GII Dwyer S. at Belmont July 11. Shortened up, the Florida bred strong-armed a nice field in the GIII Amsterdam S. at Saratoga going six furlongs and, in his most recent start, chased a hot pace in the GI King's Bishop Aug. 28 before finishing gamely for third behind Forestry and Five Star Day. Breaking well here, he raced forwardly while outside as 3-5 Five Star Day, pressed by Freespool (Geiger Counter), went through fractions of :21 2/5, and :44 4/5, moved to challenge that rival five wide into the stretch and kicked clear for a daylight win. "I wanted to be a little farther back, but he went to the leaders on his own," winning jockey Edgar Prado said. "He took the lead early in the stretch and I hadn't even asked him. He found another gear and went right past them." Plans for the winner have not been announced, but Five Star Day will make his next start in the Nov. 6 GI Breeders' Cup Sprint at Gulfstream Park. "(Freespool) kept pressing him and wouldn't let him get away and he got a little bit tired," jockey Alex Solis said of the runner-up. "But my colt is maturing with every start and I'm not the least bit disappointed in him. He's right on schedule for the Breeders' Cup."

Runners from Germany, France, England and even Slovakia feature in Germany's end of season middle-distance feature, but the absence of top older horses Tiger Hill (Ire) and Ungaro (Ger) somewhat diminishes the event. However Germany's three leading members of this year's Classic generation, Belenus, Hibiscus and Sumitas, are in the field. Belenus won the G1 BMW Deutsches Derby July 4 and followed with an easy five-length success in the G1 BMW Europachampionat in early August, but then could manage only third behind Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe contenders Tiger Hill and Flamingo Road (Ger) in the G1 Mercedes-Benz Grosser Preis von Baden Sept. 5, when Sumitas was fourth. Hibiscus was sixth in the Derby after two straight Listed victories, but bounced back with a good win in the G3 Furstenberg-Rennen at Baden-Baden Aug. 29. Sumitas was rated the leading three-year-old male after winning the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) in mid-May, but has been beaten in his last four starts. English-trained filly Silver Rhapsody looks the best of the overseas contingent after being placed in four straight group races, including a third to Craigsteel (GB) in the the G2 Princess Of Wales' S. at Newmarket in early July and a good third to dual Oaks heroine Ramrumba in the G1 Aston Upton Yorkshire Oaks at York Aug. 18 on her most recent run.

Cool Ashlee is undefeated in her two starts, breaking her maiden at Woodbine in August, then shipping south of the border to score by eight lengths in the Sept. 6 Critical Miss S. at Philadelphia Park. The Kentucky-bred filly stretches out beyond six furlongs for the first time. Hello Seattle makes her stakes debut after only one outing, but that was a 12-length romp over Woodbine maidens at seven furlongs Sept. 4. Golden Path is the most experienced of this group. The dark bay makes her seventh start after taking the Sept. 6 Muskoka S. going seven furlongs at Woodbine last time out.

All carry 123 pounds.

Best Of The Bests caused a surprise when winning at odds of 20-1 in the G3 Solario S. at Sandown Aug. 20, but the manner of his win was such that his starting price was something of an insult. He had previously finished third to leading G1 2000 Guineas fancy Distant Music in a maiden event at Doncaster July 28 and so had the form to merit more respect than was afforded him. Royal Kingdom, the standard bearer of the Aidan O'Brien stable, was an 11th-hour withdrawal from last week's G1 National S. at The Curragh. He is unbeaten in two starts to date and was impressive when scoring in the Listed Flame Of Tara Tyros S. at The Curragh Aug. 14. Chinatown would be a poignant winner and represents one of the last opportunities for the Robert Sangster/Peter Chapple-Hyam axis to record a group win before the trainer's imminent departure for Hong Kong. The colt was third in a maiden race at Haydock Aug. 6, but showed marked improvement to break his maiden on his next start at Newcastle Aug. 30.

11 (2)	Show Me The Money (Ire)	Mujadil	Meade	121

The ability to handle testing conditions is a necessary qualification and the likes of Warningford, Vision Of Night and Tomba fall into that category. Warningford revels in muddy conditions and has finished first or second, in equal measures, in each of his six races this season. Off since finishing second in the G3 Prix de la Porte Maillot at Longchamp June 27, he just missed on his return, getting caught on the line when second in the Listed Dubai Airport World Trophy at Newbury Sept. 19, where Tomba was an encouraging third. Vision Of Night was a battling winner in the G3 Prix de Meauty at Deauville Aug. 29 and had previously finished fourth in the G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at the same track Aug. 8. Tomba, winner of last year's G1 Prix de la Foret on heavy ground, seeks his first group win of the season and has a penchant for testing conditions. Before his third last week he was a respectable sixth in the G1 Stanley Leisure Sprint Cup.

A deserved group win for El Divino, who was placed in both the G3 Preis der Dortmunder Wirtschaft and G3 G3 Ostermann-Pokal earlier this season, but who disappointed when only seventh in the G3 Oettingen-Rennen last out Aug. 31. Going straight to the front, he was challenged by Up And Away early in the straight, but answered every call from his jockey and kept finding more to run out a comfortable winner. Odds-on favorite Mus-if (Lahib) never showed with a chance.

Another major Italian stakes win for the lightly raced English-based, but Italian-trained, Zomaradah. The filly picked up her second group race of the year after taking the G2 Royal Whip S. at The Curragh Aug. 14. She maintains her dominance of the highly rated Italian-trained Bardonecchia, whom she beat by almost four lengths when winning the 1998 G1 Oaks d'Italia in Milan, and has now won three of her four starts this year. Sent straight to the front here, Zomaradah was always in command and, although Calando made a move to challenge her early in the straight, she galloped on resolutely to the line. Bardonecchia came late and would have been closer, but became trapped on the rail behind the two leaders entering the final furlong.

Wandering had won just twice before, beating $50,000 claimers at Santa Anita both times, and had been claimed twice this season, selling for $50,000 after finishing second at Hollywood June 18 and for $62,500 in his next start, another runner-up showing June 30. Moved up the ladder by his new connections, the dark bay was third in the July 22 Oceanside S. on the Del Mar turf and most recently ran third in the Richmond Derby Trial over this track Sept. 4. The 4-1 shot settled in the middle of the pack to the turn, charged between horses to take the lead as they headed into the stretch and held off longshot Yaletown to take the photo.

Boasting a 1 1/2-length score in her last start, the Wabash S. Sept. 11 at Hoosier Park, the filly held off the late bid of Let despite drifting in slightly. "They didn't give her enough credit," Martinez said. "This is a nice filly." Favored French Braids, third in the Wabash last out, made a move around the final turn, but lacked a strong late bid. Countess Diana (Deerhound), one-for-seven since her juvenile championship year in 1997, showed her usual early speed, but ran out of gas.

Mula Gula tried turf for the first time in the July 22 Oceanside S. at Del Mar and came home a 2 1/2-length winner, then stepped up for the Aug. 15 GIII La Jolla H. and finished a weakening fourth after fighting jockey Alex Solis early. Getting the services of Rafael Meza this time, the bay rated in sixth through a half, came with his run while wide on the final bend, drove to the lead at the eighth pole and inched clear to set a new course record. The lone filly in the field, Miss Chryst finished fastest of all, but ran out of ground. Even-money favorite Fighting Falcon had a rough trip and did well to be third. He broke in a tangle and trailed for a half, but rallied willingly to get the minor award.

The pair teamed up again to record a comfortable victory here, running down pacesetting Personal First in the stretch and drawing away willingly. "The Breeders' Cup is in the back of my mind," said trainer D. Wayne Lukas. Mild favorite Deputy Warlock, who had come from far back to win the Miller Genuine Draft Cradle S. at River Downs Sept. 6, was wide on the first turn and made a mild bid, but never threatened the top pair.

Dawson's Legacy, a champion in Canada and second to Favorite Trick in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile in 1997, started only four times last season, winning a Gulfstream allowance in January and one at Woodbine in November. He failed to hit the board in the GII Clark H. to end that campaign, then ran out of the money in three straight to start this year, but picked a win last time out, taking an Aug. 28 Woodbine allowance in his second start after a five-month layoff. The fourth choice facing last year's Eclipse Award-winning turf horse Buck's Boy and three others here, he stunned the crowd, shadowing the champ through steady fractions and coming up the inside in the stretch for a decisive score in a time two ticks faster than the previous course record. "I was very confident coming into the race," trainer Norm McKnight insisted. "(Jockey Constant Montpellier) had a lot of respect for Buck's Boy, but I said that if that horse is going to get beat, this is the horse that's going to beat him. I told Constant not to concede to (Buck's Boy), make him run." The 1-5 favorite, Buck's Boy was making only his second start since winning last year's GI Breeders' Cup Turf. He came back to capture a Woodbine allowance by 10 lengths Sept. 10, and was giving 10 pounds to the winner. "I was not disappointed with how he ran," trainer Noel Hickey said. "The other horse just ran better today, that's all." Hickey has not committed to a future plan for Buck's Boy. The winner will go next in the GI Canadian International at Woodbine Oct. 17.

A state-bred terror, Common Objective won her first career start by 12 lengths at 23-1, then was 3-5 and 1-2 in her next two, both smashing victories. The 8-5 choice to continue her winning ways, the bay was sent to challenge Winloc's Glorious (Anjiz) from the gate, with the pair clipping off fractions of :22 2/5 and :45 2/5. The pace did in Winloc's Glorious, but Common Objective just kept on going, opening up in the stretch and coasting to another easy victory. "This filly is good," understated trainer Juan Ortiz. "I was never worried and I think she'll get the longer distances. The Iroquois [Oct. 23 at seven furlongs for state-breds] is next."

The bay colt resurfaced with a 7 3/4-length romp in the Carpenter Memorial H. at Delaware July 24, but was eased in his next out, a money allowance, over a muddy track at Saratoga. Sent off as the second choice in a field of four, Jazz Club rated off the pace, swung wide for the drive and drew clear in the final furlong.

The crowd's choice, Regally Appealing was stretching out in her first start since a rallying head victory in the Aug. 16 GII Adirondack S. going 6 1/2 furlongs at Saratoga. Never far from the lead while racing wide in her two-turn bow, the dark bay took over from Asher after six furlongs in a moderate 1:13 4/5 and held the late-closing dark horse Humble Clerk safe to the wire.

Native Brass, who couldn't get it done when facing $12,000 maiden claimers in two starts last year, began what is now a five-race winning streak in her third appearance this season. The chestnut romped to a 10 1/2-length maiden score over this track July 2, most recently bested the boys in the GIII Canadian Derby Aug. 28 and was odds-on to overcome a field of older fillies here. Unhurried early, she came with a stretch run that carried her to a popular victory.

FASLIYEV IN FOR THURSDAY'S MIDDLE PARK S.

Newmarket's G1 Saudi Arabian Airlines Middle Park S., to be run Thursday, attracted 11 two-year-olds at yesterday's five-day stage. Irish trainer Aidan O'Brien is responsible for four, undefeated Fasliyev (USA) (Nureyev {USA}), Bernstein (USA) (Storm Cat {USA}), Brahms (USA) (Danzig {USA}) and Pissaro (GB) (Green Desert {USA}), while John Gosden has three, Warm Heart (USA) (Diesis {GB}), Bachir (Ire) (Desert Style {Ire}) and Zoning (GB) (Warning {GB}). The others are Fath (USA) (Danzig {USA}), Invincible Spirit (Ire) (Green Desert {USA}), Primo Valentino (Ire) (Primo Dominie {GB}) and Trinculo (Ire) (Anita's Prince {Ire}).

DUNLOP HITS CENTURY WITH FIVE WINS

Trainer John Dunlop sent out five winners at two meetings yesterday at the accumulative odds of 55,901-1, and ended the day with 104 winners for the season. He had a treble at Haydock and a double at Nottingham.

BADAAYER (USA) (f, 3, Silver Hawk {USA}--Katiba {USA} {SP-Ire}, by Gulch {USA}) was impressive at a generous 10-1, never looking in danger after having tracked Lila (GB) (Zafonic {USA}) early. She began striding on over a half-mile out, eventually winning by two lengths. The 11-10 favorite Alhasad (USA) (Sheikh Albadou {GB}) could not get on terms with the winner, but held on for second. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, £11,427.

DOLLAR BIRD {IRE} (f, 2, Kris {GB}--High Spirited {Ire}, by Shirley Heights {GB}) was behind early as Funny Girl {Ire} (Darshaan {GB}) stole a healthy advantage after two furlongs, but the leader drifted to the right shortly after. Purple Heather {USA} (Rahy {USA}), the 4-5 favorite who was fourth in the G3 May Hill S. last time out, took over inside the final furlong, but Dollar Bird, who had traffic problems on the turn, was flying at the finish and snatched the race on the line by a short head. She is a half to Amfortas (Ire) (Caerleon {USA}), GSW-GB, $108,360; and Legend Maker (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), GSW-Fr. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, £4,695.

GALANTY SHOW (GB) (f, 3, Danehill {USA}--Sacristy {GB}, by Godswalk {USA}), the 9-4 favorite, happily bowled along on the bridle until the two-furlong pole, when Willie Ryan started to get to work. The response was impressive, the winner then galloping three lengths clear of Cherish Me (GB) (Polar Falcon {USA}). Kuwait Sand (GB) (Lugana Beach {GB}) ran a promising race, but ran green when under pressure and could only finish fourth. Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-1, £6,210.
