MONTJEU EST MAGNIFIQUE!

The script for yesterday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe Lucien Barriere at Longchamp was written to determine who would be crowned the middle-distance champion of Europe: Montjeu (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), El Condor Pasa (Kingmambo) or Daylami (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}). It was a sporting decision of the highest order by Sheikh Mohammed to allow Daylami to run on clearly unsuitable going and it was no surprise to see him play only a minor role as the race unfolded. El Condor Pasa's bold bid to lead from start to finish would have succeeded but for Montjeu, whose lightning acceleration inside the last quarter-mile took him not only from second to first, but to a European championship. El Condor Pasa set such a strong pace that Montjeu's intended rabbit, Genghis Khan (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), had to be content in second with Tiger Hill (Ire) (Danehill) third as Montjeu and Croco Rouge (Ire) (Rainbow Quest) were settled in seventh and ninth, respectively. Turning into the straight, El Condor Pasa still maintained a three-length advantage over the field, which was now headed by Tiger Hill and Greek Dance (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), as Montjeu had to check after becoming momentarily boxed in on the rail. Approaching the final quarter, Masayoshi Ebina kicked El Condor Pasa into a seemingly insurmountable four-length lead as Montjeu, having been extricated from his situation on the rail, gave chase with Croco Rouge traveling well on the outside. "I did not think he [Montjeu] would catch El Condor Pasa when that horse went so far clear after turning for home," said winning trainer John Hammond. El Condor Pasa's advantage had been reduced to two lengths by Montjeu by the furlong marker and Mick Kinane's repeated urgings began to pay dividends as Montjeu got on terms in the last half-furlong. His momentum carried him to the lead in the last 50 yards and he crossed the line to rapturous applause. Kinane said, "I had to be patient because I had Richard Quinn [aboard Leggera (Ire) (Sadler's Wells)] on my outside and he was entitled to hold his ground...but I wasn't patient for long, and once I got into the clear, I was always confident that I was going to pick him [El Condor Pasa] up. [Montjeu] showed amazing acceleration, he has the acceleration of a miler really, but you are always worried when the going gets this heavy it might blunt their speed." (Chart P. 2)

SOARING SOFTLY SPRINTS TO VICTORY

Soaring Softly (Kris S.) sashayed through her first five turf starts, capping the quintet with a 5 1/2-length romp in the May 31 GII Sheepshead Bay H. at 1 3/8 miles and a game nose decision in the July 17 GII New York H. going 1 1/4 miles. The chestnut saw her winning streak snapped last time out, coming back after a short break to be fifth in the nine-furlong GII Diana H. Sept. 5 at Saratoga, but she got back on track in yesterday's GI Flower Bowl Invitational. With jockey Jerry Bailey getting the call this time, the four-year-old settled off fractions of :25.09, :50.83 and 1:15.01, came up to join the leaders after a mile in 1:38.66 and drove past Coretta (Ire) (Caerleon) in the stretch to run her grass record to six-for-seven. "There were negatives in the Diana with the way the track was playing," trainer Jimmy Toner said. "It was speed conducive, it was pretty well chopped up, she had an outside post and was cutting back in distance off a layoff. Soaring Softly vindicated our faith in her by the way she came back and performed today. She showed she can kick with the best of them." As for what's next, Toner said, "The Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf was our goal early in the year and it is now. She'll go to Payson Park, then to Gulfstream." The runner-up also will head to the Nov. 6 Breeders' Cup. Mossflower (Affirmed), runaway winner of the GI Hempstead H. on the dirt last year, but now winless in four tries this season, ran on well to get third in her second turf try. Trainer Rick Schosberg said, "We'll go to the Breeders' Cup, but I don't know which race." The 5-2 choice Heritage Of Gold (Gold Legend), winner of the Diana, set those slow fractions, but weakened in the final furlong and finished fourth. "I think...coming here, with a heavier course and higher grass, compromised her chances of getting a mile and a quarter," jockey Shane Sellers said. "Hopefully, the course at Gulfstream will be a bit harder." (Chart P. 2)

The longest shot by far in this six-horse field, Mash One had not visited the winner's circle since Dec. 28, 1997, when he won the G2 Gran Clasico Coronacion in his native Chile. His two U.S. starts were on opposite coasts, a second in the GI San Gabriel H. at Santa Anita last Dec. 28 and a badly beaten sixth in the GI Man o' War S. at Belmont Sept. 11 on soft turf. Back on a firm surface, Mash One challenged right from the start, but was taken back slightly by David Flores, settling in third behind Lazy Lode and Docksider (Diesis {GB}). He continued to fall back, dropping three off the leaders, but charged up the rail through the stretch to win going away. "He came out of [the gate] really sharp," said Flores, who saw that Gary Stevens and Lazy Lode were keen for the lead. "I just took a nice hold and was patient to see what they were going to do. At the three-eighths pole, I asked to him pick it up and this guy moved really nice." About Mash One's future, trainer Bobby Frankel said, "He's not eligible, so we won't consider the Breeders' Cup. We could go to Japan if they invite us. We've also got the [GI Carleton F. Burke Oct. 31] at the end of the meet here."

The winner of a conditions race at Longchamp Sept. 5 on her only start to date, Lady Of Chad attempted to make all on the very heavy ground. Her bold bid was successful as she routed a quality field in impressive style. She went straight into the lead followed by Issey Rose (Bigstone {Ire}), Darakiyla (Last Tycoon {Ire}) and Dignify (Rainbow Quest {Ire}), as New Story raced in company with Lady Vettori in midfield, the pair well covered. Racing to the final quarter, Lady Of Chad had all her rivals under pressure and it wasn't until entering the last two furlongs that Olivier Peslier began to get busy on his mount. She responded well and readily pulled clear of the field inside the final furlong, keeping on strongly all the way to the wire. Lady Vettori, only sixth with a furlong to run, finished best of all and grabbed third on the line. Winning trainer Richard Gibson said, "I'm very lucky to have such a good filly. I've only been training for three years and that was my first runner in a Group 1 race. We have nothing definite planned, although I am sure we will have some big plans for the future. I am just so thrilled."

The winner of his last two starts in his native Japan, Agnes World continued an excellent run for Japanese-trained horses in France by becoming the fourth individual Group 1 winner in a little over a season. Running over five furlongs for the first time on ground completely foreign to what he had been accustomed, he was in the van throughout and kept on gamely when challenged by Imperial Beauty throughout the final furlong. Breaking smartly from the gate, Agnes World disputed the lead with the lightning-fast Sainte Marine (Kenmare {Fr}) as Imperial Beauty raced in third, just ahead of Sampower Star (Cyrano De Bergerac {Ire}), with Keos well off the pace. Imperial Beauty was ridden from the quarter-mile marker and challenged for the lead with 1 1/2 furlongs to run as Sainte Marine began to fade. Sampower Star threatened briefly, but it was left to Imperial Beauty and Agnes World to battle it out. They did so with gusto, battling nip and tuck throughout the final furlong, with Agnes World proving just superior in the last few strides. Keos finished with a rattling run and collared Sampower Star in the shadows of the post to grab third. Winning part-owner Teruya Yoshida said, "We will now think about the [G1] Breeders' Cup Sprint and we want to go to England next year for the [G1] July Cup. We were worried about the ground as he is a better horse on faster going, but it was the same for everyone."

Trans Island was the winner of a valuable handicap at Leopardstown Sept. 11, and then followed up by winning the Listed Dubai Duty Free Cup at Newbury Sept. 19, despite jockey Olivier Peslier ignoring trainer Ian Balding's instructions by holding him up instead of racing to the fore. Kieren Fallon followed instructions to the letter this time and Trans Island led from start to finish, holding on well as the pack closed up in the closing stages. Trans Island set a sound pace in advance of Slip Stream (Irish River {Fr}), Sand Falcon and Sugarfoot. He was ridden soon after entering the straight and Fallon kicked him into a three-length lead approaching the final furlong. Sand Falcon tried to give chase as Sugarfoot came under strong driving from Pat Eddery on the wide outside. Trans Island looked to have the prize safely within his grasp with 150 yards to run, but began to tire as Sand Falcon and Sugarfoot began to close, but Trans Island hung on to hold their bids. Balding said, "That was terrific, it is always nice to have a winner on Arc day and I have been lucky enough to have done it twice before. I was hopeful beforehand, he moved very well and he likes soft ground which is a big help. He likes to be in front and the front-runners today have done very well. He deserves this, he was disqualified from a Group race, wrongly in my biased opinion, in Italy last year. His best distance is perhaps seven furlongs so he may run in the [G2] Challenge S. at Newmarket [Oct. 16] or come back here for the [G1] Prix de la Foret [Oct. 17]."

Also ran: Elle Danzig (Ger), Zahrat Dubai (GB), Dazzling Park (Ire), Pink Cristal (GB), Bardonecchia (Ire), Star Of Akkar (GB), Tycoon's Dolce (Ire). DNF: Visionnaire (Fr) (fell).

Sensation preceded the race when Star Of Akkar (Distant Relative {Ire}) became distressed at the start and unseated Thierry Gillet before crashing heavily to the ground herself. The action continued during the race, when with just over a furlong to go, Thierry Jarnet was sent crashing to the turf in a sickening fall as his mount Visionnaire (Linamix {Fr}) clipped the heels of Zahrat Dubai (Unfuwain) and fell. Jarnet's woes continued as he was lifted from the turf, with his rein wrapped around his neck, when Visionnaire hauled herself up from the ground. The pair escaped beaten, but not bowed. These incidents detracted somewhat from an excellent performance for the ultra-tough Diamond White, who deservedly recorded her first group race success in her 22nd start of the season. The race started with Zahrat Dubai going into the lead from Star Of Akkar and the Italian challenger Bardonecchia (Indian Ridge {Ire}), as Juvenia and Diamond White raced in midfield with Miss Berbere last of 11. Straightening for the run home Juvenia, Diamond White and Miss Berbere made the challenges on the wide outside as misfortune befell Jarnet on the inside. Diamond White struck the front at the distance and ran on strongly for a determined win.

While his Tiger Hill ran fifth in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe in Paris, trainer Peter Schiergen enjoyed a Group race double at home, sparked off by his three-year-old colt Terek, who landed his first Group race success here in a thrilling finish from the veteran Kalatos. The latter had led from the start, with Terek racing in third. Around the final turn, Terek moved into second, but Kalatos still battled on hard, with Euryanthe finishing well. Halfway down the straight, Terek joined Kalatos on the lead and these two engaged in a head-to-head duel to the line, with the younger horse gaining the day right on the line.

Capping a brilliant day for French-based trainer John Hammond, who saddled Montjeu to win the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, Nuclear Debate recorded his first group success, having been third in the G3 Prix de Meautry at Deauville Aug. 29 and in the Listed Dubai World Trophy S. at Newbury Sept. 19. Italy's champion sprinter Late Parade was sent off a hot favorite, despite his preference for fast ground, and he ran his usual game race, but had no response in the closing stages when Nuclear Debate, relishing the conditions, powered away under a strong ride from jockey Darryll Holland for an emphatic success. Winner and runner-up may renew their rivalry in the G2 Hong Kong International Sprint in December.

Image Maker was second in each of his first two lifetime starts, finishing 10 lengths behind Entrepreneur in a Saratoga state-bred maiden Aug. 5 before improving on that effort to finish as the runner-up in the Aspirant S. at Finger Lakes Aug. 21. The dark bay graduated in style last out with a 6 3/4-length victory in the New York Breeders' Futurity at Finger Lakes Sept. 6. The second choice was hustled away from the gate to stay close to the leaders early and circled four wide into the stretch before switching to the inside to run down Entrepreneur late. The latter hit the gate at the start and bumped with a rival early on, but was game in defeat.

8th-BEL, $48,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 1mT, 1:34 2/5, fm. SWEETSOUTHERNSAINT (c, 4, Saint Ballado--Sweetsoutherncross, by Tri Jet) won the first three starts of his career, including the Gill What A Pleasure S. at Calder. The chestnut went to the shelf for over 18 months after a third-place finish as the even-money favorite in the 1998 Gill Holy Bull S. Eighth in the Spend A Buck H. at Calder Sept. 6 in his return to the races, he made a successful move to the lawn here, contesting the pace from the outside and rallying four wide to just get his head down on the line at 7-1. Lifetime Record: GSW, 6-4-0-1, $131,400.

SANDANGRAVEL (c, 4, Siberian Express--Gracious Belle, by Caucasus) was three wide on both turns in his latest, a maiden event over the Saratoga turf Sept. 1, and took the lead in the stretch, but tired late and ended up third. The 9-5 favorite this time, he went right to the lead, set the pace while saving ground on the inside and drove clear to the wire for a 3 3/4-length tally. Lifetime Record: 5-1-0-2, $34,220.

FRENCH MADAM (f, 2, Rahy--Mme. Mitterand, by Mr. Prospector) was bounced around at the start in her debut at Belmont Sept. 12, but still managed a solid third-place showing. She came back as the 3-1 second choice but proved best, taking over after a half and holding her own to the wire to win it by 2 1/4 lengths. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-1, $29,110.

Dixieland Diamond continued the sparkling stretch of success for Sam-Son Farm, scoring his first stakes victory. The winner of two races in a row to begin his career, the homebred was well-backed at 2-1 for his first stakes engagement, but lumbered home fourth, beaten 5 1/2 lengths in the GII Summer S. Sept. 11. Favored off the drop into restricted company, the dark bay was in hand along the rail early, was blocked in upper stretch, but angled out and finish full of run for the victory. He will switch to the dirt for his next start, the Coronation Futurity S. at Woodbine Oct. 30.

Dawn Princess stepped onto the turf for the first time in her latest and galloped to a 10-length triumph in a maiden special weight event over this course Sept. 11. Jumping right into stakes company off the effort, the chestnut kept in contact with the early leaders while fourth, moved up while wide on the turn, hit the front at the eighth pole and drew clear despite lugging in.

10th-WOX, $46,600, Alw, 3yo/up, 7fT, 1:24 4/5, yl. CLEVER RESPONSE (g, 4, Clever Trick--Little Star Vicky, by Bold Ruckus), winner of the GII Nearctic H. at the end of June, picked up a pair of thirds before pressing the pace and tiring slightly to be a close-up fourth in the GIII Play The King S. at this trip Aug. 28. Dropping back to the allowance ranks, the dark bay sat third to the far turn, swept up to take control and pulled away to a two-length tally. Lifetime Record: GSW, 20-5-4-4, $236,369.

Forty One Carats showed promise this spring, winning back-to-back races at Gulfstream before running second in the Apr. 3 Gill Flamingo S. in his stakes debut at Hialeah. Off for five months after that effort, the chestnut came back to take a six-furlong Calder allowance Sept. 4. The crowd's choice to get his first stakes victory here, he was on the pace from the starter's bell, drove past Zanetti on the final bend and edged clear. First American, winner of the Flamingo, rallied at the top of the lane, but weakened late and had to settle for third. A Hoosier Park record crowd of 10,063 was on hand for the race.

Cover Gal was completely ignored at the windows for her July 31 debut at Del Mar, but rewarded her backers with a powerhouse 12-length score over Cal-breds and returned a handsome $47 mutuel. The odds were different, but the result the same, when she made her stakes debut in her last, as she registered a wire-to-wire three-length victory in the Aug. 27 Generous Portion S. for state bred at 1-5. Odds-on once again, the bay broke outwardly, but quickly pulled herself to the lead, set the pace while off the rail and was never challenged. Olympic Charmer established herself as arguably the top three-year-old filly sprinter on the West Coast with a powerful front-running victory in the Gil Railbird S. three starts back. She was tried against Excellent Meeting in the Gil Princess S. at two turns June 20, but could do no better than fourth. Switched back to a sprint for the GI Test S. at Saratoga, the homebred never got involved and finished a disappointing 10th, beaten over 17 lengths. Trying turf for the first time in this spot, she broke alertly to set relatively easy fractions along the rail and never had a rival within two lengths of her en route to the gate-to-wire victory.

Also ran (not classified): Diane Fontenaille (Fr); Six Ways (Fr); Siobhan (GB).

First or second in all five previous career starts, Histoire Sainte followed up her good second in the Listed Prix Madame Jean Couterie at Vichy July 22 to win her first stake, extending clear in the final furlong for a comfortable win. Mamamia soon went into the lead ahead of Sao (Dolphin Street {Fr}) and Star Brightly (Tremolino {USA}), as Histoire Sainte raced in sixth, followed by Dinner Time. Turning into the straight, Mamamia still led from Sao, but Histoire Sainte was traveling smoothly and looked menacing in third. She challenged at the quarter-mile marker, took the lead with 1 1/2 furlongs to go and was ridden clear from the furlong marker, keeping on all the way to the line for an easy win. Dinner Time progressed into third at the quarter-mile and kept on dourly to take second in the last half-furlong. Mamamia did her best to keep going once headed and held on well for third.

How They Fared:

9th-Santa Anita Park, Yellow Ribbon S.-GI, $500,000, 10-2, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/4mT, 1:59.52, fm.

SHABBY CHIC (USA) (f, 3, Red Ransom {USA})--Style Setter {USA}, by Manila {USA}) sat with the second flight, saving ground down the backstretch. She came out at the top of the stretch, but didn't have the same finishing kick of Spanish Fern (El Gran Senor) and Caffe Latte (Ire) (Seattle Dancer), who rallied past the 24.90-1 shot, who settled for third. Shabby Chic had finished third in the Prix Chloe July 16 and fifth in the Prix de Psyche Aug. 7, beaten less than two lengths in both. She drew away easily to take the Prix de Liancourt Aug. 31 in her previous start.

O-Gary Tanaka; B-W S Farish (KY); T-Jean de Roualle.

6th-Belmont Park, Flower Bowl H., GI, $500,000, 10-3, 3yo/up, f/m, 11/4mT, 2:01.41, fm.

INSIGHT (FR) (f, 4, Sadler's Wells {USA})--Or Vision {USA}, by Irish River {Fr})

Insight had only three previous starts in '99, a second in the Listed Coupe de EBF Aug. 21 being her last race. She has been second or third in seven stakes, with one win, that being last year's G2 Prix de l'Opera. The full-sister to G1 Irish 2000 Guineas winner Saffron Walden (Fr) and half-sister to Group 1 winner Dolphin Street (Fr) (Bluebird {USA}), Germany's top three-year-old miler in 1993, stayed in mid-pack for the entire trip, finishing fifth at 10.50-1.

O-Jurt Alois; B-Stavros Niarchos; T-John Hammond.

7th-Santa Anita Park, Oak Tree Turf Championship-GI, $300,000, 10-3, 3yo/up, 1 1/4mT, 1:59.07, fm.

DOCKSIDER (USA) (c, 4, Diesis {GB})--Pump {USA}, by Forli {Arg} had three wins two seconds and a third in six European starts, highlighted by two German Group wins by daylight. His last race, the G1 Sussex S. July 28 at Goodwood, was a good one, as he was beaten only a length by Aljabr (USA). A miler he his, though, and here, Docksider was a bit eager, racing with the leaders early. He moved into second at the half and made his bid after a mile, but had nothing to give. The tired 4.30-1 chance drifted in slightly in the stretch and backed up through the field, finishing last of the six runners.
