BEHRENS IS THE ONE TO BEAT IN GOLD CUP

Behrens (Pleasant Colony), the leading contender for top older horse this season after winning the GI Oaklawn H., GI Gulfstream Park H., GI Suburban H. and GI Massachusetts H., drew the rail for Sunday's $1 million GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park. Facing eight rivals in the 10-furlong event, he will try to join the likes of Affirmed, Buckpasser, Cigar, Citation, Forego, Gallant Fox, John Henry, five-time hero Kelso, Man o'War, Shuvee, War Admiral and Whirlaway, all winners of the race. "Being a New York-bred, the Jockey Club Gold Cup means a lot to me," trainer Jim Bond said. "I've been lucky enough to win the Travers and to have won the first running of the Cigar Mile. This race is a high priority to me as a trainer." And Bond feels Behrens, off since finishing second by a nose in the Aug. 1 GI Whitney H., can win it. "I train this horse very hard," he said. "Basically, since last Dec. 6, he has been in tough training. We knew that there would come a point when he would need to rest his legs and to get his mind re-focused. He had about three weeks with no speed work, but he kept training. That freshened him, and then we started back training him hard. Believe me, he is ready to run." The William Clifton Jr. and Rudlein Stable colorbearer faces the talented three-year-olds Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo) and Vision and Verse (Storm Cat), first and second, respectively, in the GI Belmont S. and GI Travers. "I have respect for the three-year-olds, but I don't fear them," Bond said. "All I know is that if it's the same Behrens who shows up that has shown up the last five races, they're all in a lot of trouble."

DEJA VU FOR VAL'S PRINCE IN TURF CLASSIC?

They might start calling Val's Prince (Eternal Prince) the "Comeback Kid" if he can pull off a victory in today's GI Turf Classic at Belmont Park. The seven-year-old, who took the Turf Classic in 1997, was winless in six 1998 starts and away from the racetrack for nearly a year, but he returned to top form when second in the GI Sword Dancer Invitational for trainer Jimmy Picou two starts back, then dominated the Sept. 11 GI Man o' War S. over this course with a 4 1/2-length victory in his first outing for trainer Jim Bond. "He's a gift," said Bond. "He does everything right and he's an easy horse to train." The gelding should be able to stalk what will most likely be a slow pace, giving him an advantage over morning-line favorite Yagli (Jade Hunter), the winner of the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H., GI Manhattan H. and GI United Nations H. earlier this year. Yagli has not raced since a last-place finish in the GI Sword Dancer H. at Saratoga Aug. 14. Explaining the sub-par performance, Bill Mott, elected to the Hall of Fame just last year, said, "A bad trainer ran him back too quick. He was dull." The wild card in this bunch is Dream Well (Fr) (Sadler's Wells), winner of the 1998 G1 French and Irish Derbies. Never out of the money in five starts against Europe's top runners this year, he was most recently third, but beaten 11 1/2 lengths to Daylami (Ire), in the G1 Irish Champion S. at Leopardstown Sept. 11. His connections decided to skip a rematch with Daylami in last Sunday's G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe. "It's difficult to think we could run in the Arc and turn around that many lengths," Alan Cooper, racing manager for the colt's owners, said. "This race is out alternative. It's a good opportunity to figure out if we'll go on to the Breeders' Cup."

☆ PREVIEW ☆

Today, Keeneland, post time: 4:40 p.m. EDT
QUEEN ELIZABETH II CHALLENGE CUP-GI, $500,000,
 3yo, f, 1 1/8mT

PP	HORSE	SIRE	JOCKEY	ODDS
1	Emanating	Cox's Ridge	Santos	15-1
2	Ronda (GB)	Bluebird	Boeuf	9-2
3	Gandria	Green Dancer	Cheadle	20-1
4	Smooth Player	Bertrando	Delahoussaye	4-1
5	Wannabe Grand (Ire)	Danehill	Albarado	20-1
6	Benedicida	Silver Ghost	Lanerie	10-1
7	Tout Charmant	Slewvescent	Antley	4-1
8	Perfect Sting	Red Ransom	Day	3-1
9	On a Soapbox	Mi Cielo	Nakatani	6-1
10	Badouizm	Sheikh Albadou (GB)	Davis	15-1

On A Soapbox (Mi Cielo) won two of four starts this year, all on the main track, including the GI Coaching Club American Oaks. However, a switch to the turf should not be problematic as the bay filly scored an allowance victory and ran second in the Green River S. over the Keeneland grass last fall. Probable favorite Perfect Sting (Red Ransom) has won four of her last five, most recently the GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. over the soft Belmont course Sept. 12. Longshot Benedicida (Silver Ghost) hasn't faced the toughest competition, but she is undefeated in four starts and has done everything asked of her. The bay filly won her first two starts over the main track at Lone Star earlier this summer, then scored in the Aug. 7 Chapel Belle S. at Louisiana and the Sept. 6 Summertime Promise S. at Hawthorne in her only two grass attempts.

Today, Santa Anita, post time: 4:00 p.m. PDT
OAK LEAF S.-GI, $200,000, 2yo, f, 1m

PP	HORSE	SIRE	JOCKEY	ODDS
1	Abby Girl	Meadowlake	McCarron	4-1
2	Chilukki	Cherokee Run	Flores	2-5
3	Crown of Crimson	Seattle Slew	Pincay	12-1
4	Spain	Thunder Gulch	Bonde	5-1
5	She's Classy	Boundary	Solis	12-1

Chilukki (Cherokee Run) gets the big two-turn test today after she spent most of the summer sprinting her peers into submission. The winner of four graded stakes got her first Grade I victory last time over Spain (Thunder Gulch) in the Aug. 29 Del Mar Debutante. Abby Girl (Meadowlake), a winner of her first two starts by a combined 12 lengths, may be the biggest threat to Chilukki's undefeated record.

Today, Belmont Park, post time: 4:38 p.m. EDT
CHAMPAGNE S.-GI, $400,000, 2yo, 1 1/16m

PP	HORSE	SIRE	JOCKEY	ODDS

2	More Than Ready	Southern Halo	Velazquez	1-1
3	Bulling	Holy Bull	Smith	30-1
4	High Yield	Storm Cat	Bailey	5-2
5	Chief Seattle	Seattle Slew	Prado	9-2
6	Settlement	Kris S.	Sellers	15-1
7	Traditionally	Mr. Prospector	Chavez	20-1

More Than Ready (Southern Halo) dominated fellow juveniles in his first five starts, where he won four stakes, including the GIII Tremont S. July 4 and the GIII Sanford S. July 29, before coming down with a fever while preparing for the Sept. 4 GI Hopeful S. at Saratoga. His connections passed on that race, and the colt returned to action in the Sept. 19 GI Futurity S. at Belmont where he finished third, a half-length behind the winner, as the 2-5 favorite. With that race under his belt, he should be more than ready to return to his winning ways here. The $1.05 million yearling High Yield (Storm Cat) has been improving in each of his four starts, most recently posting a runaway score in the Hopeful. Chief Seattle (Seattle Slew) won his first outing by 9 3/4 lengths and, despite a stumbling start and a troubled trip, managed to finish a close fourth in the Futurity. He gets Lasix for the first time here.

9	Joe Who (Brz)	Jolly Quick (Brz)	Antley	3-1
10	Kahal (GB)	Machiavellian	Ramsammy	15-1

Ladies Din (Din's Dancer) has gone 11 months without a win, but its not for a lack of trying. The four-year-old gelding suffered a heartbreaking nose defeat after experiencing a troubled trip in the GII Shoemaker Breeders' Cup Mile at Hollywood June 13. He then came back after a short rest to miss by a neck in the GI Eddie Read H. at Del Mar Aug. 1. Third behind slow fractions in the GII Del Mar H. last time, he should be in perfect position behind a hot early pace today.

Last year's G1 Melbourne Cup winner Jezebeel (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}--Passefleure {NZ}, by Vice Regal) has been officially retired. The seven-year-old mare has been covered by Danehill. Jezebeel, who became the first horse to win both the G1 Auckland and the Melbourne Cups, was trained by Brian Jenkins. "Her win in Melbourne last year was absolutely amazing," Jenkins said. "She won the race everyone wants to win. She gave us huge enjoyment. I'm already looking forward to training her foals."

PYRAMID PEAK MOVES TO DARBY DAN MGSW

Pyramid Peak (Mt. Livermore--Way It Should Be, by Stalwart) will stand at Darby Dan Farm in Lexington, Kentucky as the property of John Oxley next year. The seven-year-old, a stakes winner at three, four and five, captured eight of his 22 career starts, including three graded-stakes wins, for earnings of $871,556. He was also second in the GI Travers and GI Haskell Invitational. "The Blushing Groom (Fr) sire line is one of increasing importance, especially as manifested in Pyramid Peak, who is free of both Raise a Native and Northern Dancer," said John Phillips, owner of Darby Dan. Pyramid Peak's 2000 stud fee will be $5,000 live foal.

LITE THE FUSE SOLD TO STRONACH Frank Stronach has purchased Lite The Fuse (Buckaroo--Annie's Dream, by Droll Role) from the partnership of Vinery and Victoria Dutrow and will stand the eight-year-old stallion at his Adena Springs South in Ocala, Florida for the 2000 breeding season. The top-class sprinter won both the GI Frank J. DeFrancis Memorial Dash and the GI Carter H. twice; he was also twice runner-up in the GI Met Mile and earned $1,036,882. "You have to be a special kind of horse to compete on the level that he did," Stronach's son, Andy, said. "He narrowly missed in the GI Met Mile twice, each time conceding weight to the winner. We've been strong supporters since he first entered stud." Lite The Fuse, whose first foals are yearlings, will stand for a fee of $3,500, live foal.

Bumped at the start, the chestnut colt steadily made up ground on pacesetting French Envoy (Deputy Minister) while racing wide and finished well to wear down that one and win by a head. The third winner for her freshman sire (by Halo), she is a half sister to Sinstress (Gold Legend), SW, $100,956. Lifetime Record: 2-1-0-0, $12,895. O-Primrose Racing Stable. B-Glenary Farm Inc. Churchill Announces New Derby Seating Prices:

Churchill Downs has announced a new pricing structure for reserved seats at its premier events, the Kentucky Derby and the Kentucky Oaks. The new structure establishes several levels of pricing for all reserved seating at those events, based on the quality and location of the seats, and will be effective for the 126th renewals of the historic races, slated for May 5 and 6, 2000, respectively. "Our new Derby and Oaks seating price structure is fair to all of the patrons who join us for these two marvelous days of racing," said Churchill Downs President Alex Waldrop. "The Kentucky Derby is one of the world's premier sporting events and this new method pulls it into line with other events of that stature." Third-floor boxes will now range from $1,290 to $1,920, the latter being a prime box on the finish line. These boxes were previously priced between $1,200 and $1,500. Only reserved seating will be affected, as general admission prices will remain at the current level.

Voyagers Quest was a promising prospect at three overseas, capturing the G3 Thresher Classic Trial at Sandown before finishing seventh in Peintre Celebre's G1 Prix du Jockey-Club. Purchased by stateside interests, the bay colt was second in the GII Oak Tree Derby and went to the sidelines after a rough trip in the GI Hollywood Derby. Off for 18 months, he made a late bid in an optional claimer at Hollywood May 19 in his most recent outing. Lightly regarded here, he saved ground early, came through on the rail in the stretch and edged away late for his first U.S. win.

FRUITS OF LOVE TO SKIP BREEDERS' CUP The Racing Post reports that Fruits Of Love (USA) (Hansel {USA}) will bypass the GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Gulfstream Park Nov. 6 and instead take aim at two other races in the Emirates World Series, the GI Canadian International at Woodbine Oct. 17 and then the G1 Japan Cup in November. "We had targeted all three races, but we've now had second thoughts," trainer Mark Johnston told Racing Post. "The travel costs from Toronto to Miami were huge, and it doesn't seem worth it when he can go to Canada and Japan for nothing. If he wins in Canada, we might change our minds, but we probably won't." The four-year-old, who survived a van accident last winter, went on to win the June 18 G2 Hardwicke S. at Royal Ascot, then finished third to Daylami (Ire) in his latest outing, the July 24 G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. Jockey Kieren Fallon will be aboard the colt in the Canadian International.

DETTORI DECIDES ON APPEAL Contrary to initial indications, jockey Frankie Dettori will appeal against the four-day whip ban that he picked up at York on Wednesday. The suspension at present rules him out of the Oct. 16 £880,000 Champions' Day at Newmarket. Dettori's business manager Peter Burrell said on Thursday that an appeal was unlikely, but a Jockey Club spokeswoman announced yesterday: "A letter has arrived from the jockey stating that he wishes to appeal and the hearing will take place next week, though it won't be on Monday." The ban, incurred for the jockey's winning ride on Strahan (Ire), is due to begin on Friday.

He was ridden clear from the furlong marker and recorded an impressive 2 1/2-length victory from the running on 8-11 favorite Alva Glen (USA) (Gulch {USA}), with the pair nine lengths clear of the remainder. Cape Town becomes the sixth winner for his freshman sire (by Green Desert {USA}); he was an 18,260gns GOOC1 yearling and a 12,376gns GONOV weanling. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, £3,753.

She led on the approach to the final furlong and battled on gamely to keep Bitter Sweet (GB) (Deploy {GB}) at bay by three-parts of a length at odds of 5-1. Lifetime Record: 4-1-2-0, £6,036.

DISAPPOINTMENT AT DORTMUND

This year's edition of the Spatlese Mixed Sale, held Thursday at Dortmund racetrack, proved to be a disappointing affair as only 27 of the 69 lots through the ring were sold. The aggregate was DM452,500, down about 20 percent from last year's total. The average of DM16,759 was mainly due to the sales topper, a strapping full sister to G2 Grosse Europcar Meile winner El Divino (Ger) (Platini {Ger}) who was purchased by Mrs. Carde Ostermann-Richter for DM100,000. She will be trained by Andreas Wohler in Bremen.

Trained by Luca Cumani during her British campaign, Ratatui won two of her last three starts before crossing the Atlantic, taking a maiden race going a mile and 70 yards at Windsor by a nose in April, then adding a one-mile handicap at Thirsk in her final European appearance June 15.

DREAM WELL (FR) (c, 4, Sadler's Wells {USA}--Soul Dream {USA}, by Alleged {USA}) Lifetime Record: 12-4-3-4, $1,288,769.

Dream Well, who beat Croco Rouge (Ire) by a neck in last year's G1 French Derby and went on to win the Irish Derby by 4 1/2 lengths, tries his luck in the U.S. after passing the Arc because of the soft going. On the board in all five starts this season, the bay won the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron at a mile and a quarter Aug. 15 at Deauville before running third, beaten 11 1/2 lengths by Daylami (Ire) with blinkers on, in the Sept. 11 G1 Irish Champion S. at the same distance at Leopardstown. He gets Lasix in his American bow.

Sunshine Street has managed only one career win, that in the Listed Ballyroan S. going a mile and a half at Leopardstown in August of 1998. He was beaten 15 1/4 lengths when ninth in Dream Well's Irish Derby and has been off the board in his last four starts, but was only a half length behind Dream Well when fourth in the Sept. 12 G1 Irish Champion S. last time out. Last year's G1 Cheveley Park S. heroine, Wannabe Grand has not had the same success this year, earning her only win in the Aug. 22 Listed Flying Fillies S. going six furlongs at Pontefract. The bay has never been a mile and an eighth, but ran well going a mile at the beginning of this campaign, finishing second, beaten a half length, in the G1 1000 Guineas at Newmarket and third, missing by 1 3/4 lengths, in the G1 Coronation S. at Royal Ascot. She was most recently seventh facing top sprinters in the Sept. 4 G1 Haydock Park Sprint Cup, and adds Lasix in her U.S. debut.

The 6-5 favorite, never far back, was steadied on the turn for home and chased Excite (Gone West) to the wire. PROMISING TWO-YEAR-OLDS
AT NEWMARKET
by David Milnes

Sir Michael Stoute, the master of the late-maturing two-year-old, has an embarrassment of such riches at Freemason Lodge at present and has a number assembled to debut at Leicester next week.

Sun Charm (USA) (c, Gone West {USA}--Argon Laser {GB}, by Kris {GB}) is from a family that his handler knows plenty about--being a half brother to the enigmatic Dr Massini (USA) (Sadler's Wells). A one-time ante-post favourite for the 1996 Epsom Derby, Dr Massini was successful on three of four starts for Stoute, including the Listed Magnolia S. at Kempton.

Showing plenty of potential on the home gallops just now, Sun Charm made $220,000 when knocked down to Gainsborough at the Keeneland September Sale last autumn.

Also progressing is Green Casket (Ire) (c, Green Desert {USA}--Grecian Urn {GB}, by Ela-Mana-Mou {Ire}), homebred by his owner Lord Weinstock.

Related to a number of winners, Green Casket is, more notably, a half brother to stablemate Dark Shell (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}), winner of the Listed Aston Park S. at Newbury in May.

Rum Punch (GB) (c, Shirley Heights {GB}--Gentle Persuasion {GB}, by Bustino {GB}) is the property of Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II. A half brother to four winners, including smart seven-furlong performer Sharp Prod (USA) (Sharpo {GB}), the colt is likely to need middle distances next year.

Also set to sport the famous purple colours with a black cap and gold fringe is New Assembly (Ire) (f, Machiavellian (USA)--Abbey Strand {USA}, by Shadeed {USA}). Set to debut in Monday's EBF Hare Maiden Fillies S., she is a half sister to the four-year-old Celtic Cross (GB) (Selkirk {USA}), now back at the Royal studs after winning a seven-furlong maiden for Stoute at Haydock in June.

Delius (USA) (c, A.P. Indy {USA}--Hot Novel {USA}, by Mari's Book {USA}), owned by the Magnier/Tabor axis, is progressing as well. A $500,000 buy at the Keeneland July Sale, he is a half brother to MGISW Behrens (Pleasant Colony), who goes in tomorrow's $1 million GI Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park.
