VAL TURNS BACK CLOCK IN TURF CLASSIC

He's seven years old, but Val's Prince (Eternal Prince) can still turn it on in the stretch. The 3-1 third choice in the $600,000 Turf Classic at Belmont Park yesterday afternoon, he turned the clock back to 1997, driving past 40-1 Sunshine Street (Sunshine Forever) and holding off 5-2 Dream Well (Fr) (Sadler's Wells) to repeat in the Grade I event. "I had them the whole way around," jockey Jorge Chavez said. "I was waiting for the stretch and when I asked him to run, he was ready. You can't hold this horse, you have to let him do what he wants." The chestnut gelding was picking up his second Grade I victory after taking the Man o'War S. Sept. 11, and he will try to make it three in a row in the GI Breeders' Cup Turf at Gulfstream Park Nov. 6. The 9-5 favorite Yagli (Jade Hunter), who put together three consecutive Grade I wins earlier this year before finishing a lackluster seventh in the GI Sword Dancer Invitational in his latest Aug. 14, found himself in rush-hour traffic when he tried to make a move from fifth at the top of the stretch and couldn't get it into gear once clear, finishing a non-threatening fourth. "I had a horrible trip," jockey Jerry Bailey said. "I could never get off the rail. I saw a hole at the three-sixteenths pole--I just couldn't get to it." Trainer Bill Mott said, "My intention is still to run in the Breeders' Cup."

CHAMPAGNE FLOWS FOR GREENWOOD LAKE

The tactics, the trainer, the closing odds and the outcome were identical. Last year, trainer Nick Zito saddled The Groom Is Red in the GI Champagne S. and watched as the 6-1 shot closed from last to catch 5-2 second-choice Lemon Drop Kid and draw off for a 2 3/4-length victory. The 13-10 favorite, Tactical Cat, finished fifth. Zito was back in the Belmont Park paddock for the Champagne yesterday afternoon, sending the 6-1 chance Greenwood Lake (Meadowlake) against one-time superstar More Than Ready (Southern Halo), the 7-5 chalk in the 1999 edition of the race. Once again, Zito's horse had only the ambulance behind him as he raced down the long Belmont backstretch. "I was not confident as the horse was turning for home," Zito admitted. "He was nine lengths out of it at the top of the lane." But More Than Ready had spit the bit and 2-1 second choice Chief Seattle (Seattle Slew) was tiring after leading through six furlongs in 1:10.81. Greenwood Lake, runner-up in the Sept. 19 GI Futurity last time out, was full of run, catching the pacesetter at the sixteenth pole and drawing off to win by 2 1/2 lengths. "These closers are the most exciting kind of horses," Zito said. "What a thrill!" As for the colt's future, the New York-bred trainer said, "It would be nice to make the trip (to the Breeders' Cup) and win the thing, but I am going to monitor this horse...if he is not 100 percent, we are not going to go. If he's right, we'll go. But the slightest thing, we would not go. That's what I have to do, because this is a special horse." John Kimmel, trainer of runner-up Chief Seattle, said, "He's still learning. I feel he'll improve with experience. Assuming all goes well, the Breeders' Cup is next." Third-place finisher High Yield (Storm Cat) is also Breeders' Cup bound, but plans for More Than Ready, who faded to fifth after pressing the pace, are up in the air. "He just didn't fire," jockey John Velazquez said. "He broke flat and once the dirt hit him in the face, it took him even more off his game. When we got to the turn, he had no punch. That's all I have to say." Trainer Todd Pletcher added, "He made a big middle move down the backstretch. He was head-and-head for the lead and then he flattened out. I don't know that the middle move is the reason that he did not run well. We'll see how he comes back and go from there."

Perfect Sting lived up to her name as she fought her way home through a driving rain for her second straight Grade I score. With a half-length loss to sidelined Nani Rose in the Aug. 2 Gill Lake George H. keeping her from five straight wins, the bay filly was favored off an impressive win the GI Garden City Breeders' Cup H. at Belmont Sept. 12. The bay tracked pacesetter Smooth Player (Bertrando) while sixth through a half in :48 2/5, then began to advance, reaching contention at the top of the stretch. GI Del Mar Oaks victress Tout Charmant held a narrow advantage in midstretch, but was unable to hold off the Red Ransom filly, who won going away. "It was tremendous win," jockey Pat Day said. "This filly really didn't like the racetrack at all today. At no point did I think she was handling it. But she still won, and that is the mark of a very good horse."

In a scene more reminiscent of his native Britain than a Kentucky autumn afternoon, Kirkwall battled valiantly through the rain for his second straight graded-stakes triumph. Front-running winner of the Gill Bay Meadows H. last out Sept. 18, the chestnut was dismissed at long odds despite being one of only two runners in the field with a win over yielding ground. Rating just behind the leaders here, he edged closer through the turn, poked a head in front at the top of the stretch and outfought a courageous Delay of Game to the line. Favored Joe Who (Brz) (Jolly Quick) clipped heels with Garbu (Strawberry Road {Aus}) on the backstretch and fell, but he and jockey Chris Antley were uninjured.

Also Ran: Crown of Crimson, She's Classy.

After she won five straight sprints including the Aug.

29 GI Del Mar Debutante in her most recent start, the only speculation surrounding Chilukki's greatness reolved around her ability to navigate a route of ground.

After yesterday's Oak Leaf, no more speculation is necessary. The bay filly sat outside off the moderate fractions set by second-choice Abby Girl and Crown of Crimson, challenged the leaders on the second turn, gained command at the top of the stretch and, despite drifting in late, got the victory. "She's just so gifted," said trainer Bob Baffert. "I love the way she relaxed today. She does not need the lead. Maybe (the rider) needs to wait even longer to get her up there. When she made the lead, she wanted to put the brakes on."

Only the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies stands between Chilukki and a perfect season and Baffert compared her to last year's Juvenile Fillies winner. "She's like

Silverbuletday in that she's great, and those kind take their racetrack with them," he said.

8 Lemon Drop Kid	Kingmambo	Santos	4-1
9 Stephen Got Even	A.P. Indy	Velazquez	6-1

Morning-line favorite Behrens is three-for-four over the racetrack, proven at the distance and, although he didn't win his last start against Victory Gallop in the GI Whitney at Saratoga Aug. 1, he turned in one of the most impressive performances of the year in defeat. In that race, the five-year-old accelerated into a fast pace while racing five wide on the far turn, was seemingly put away by Victory Gallop in midstretch, yet managed to come back on the inside only to lose the head bob. Should Behrens not be ready after being away for nearly 2 1/2 months, Godolphin's Almutawakel, who missed by a nose in the Sept. 18 GI Woodward, could capitalize. The winner of the G1 Dubai World Cup has acclimated well to life in the states, according to Godolphin's Rachel Doré. "He's been very full of himself and he seems to have taken to the American way of training," said Doré. Of the three-year-olds, Lemon Drop Kid has the most impressive resume. He looks to become the first horse since Easy Goer in 1989 to win the Belmont, Travers and Gold Cup.

Silverbulletday, winner of 11 of her last 12 starts, meets older fillies and mares for the first time in this event. Mike Pegram's bay filly was devastating two starts back in the GI Alabama at Saratoga when she won by nine and she most recently took the GI Gazelle H. over this trip Sept. 11. Beautiful Pleasure finds herself in position to upset a champion for the second straight time, as she most recently defeated Banshee Breeze in the GI Personal Ensign H. at Saratoga Aug. 27. There is no question that she will be going straight to the front from the rail. "I think this race plays to speed more than a two-turn race would," said trainer John Ward Jr. Catinca, fresh off a score in the GI Rufian H. Sept. 18, will come from off the pace and could pick up the pieces should the two favorites wear each other out early.

Darling My Darling dueled through quick early fractions in the GI Matron S. Sept. 19 and still held on to finish a close second behind Finder's Fee. Darling My Darling should find the pace much more to her liking today. "To run the way she did in the Matron in only her second start was pretty impressive," said trainer John Ward. "She really dug in when challenged by Finder's Fee and she learned a thing or two." Finder's Fee responded to Lasix for the first time with the Matron score after unplaced efforts in the GII Adirondack and GII Schuylerville. Surfside won her first two starts at Saratoga and ran a game second in the GI Spinaway Sept. 3. She is the daughter of 1994 Champion Two-Year-Old Filly Flanders, who won this event by 21 lengths.

For the second time in 10 years, this Group 1 juvenile contest has attracted only four runners, but at least there are two previous group winners in Jokerman and Ocean Of Wisdom and a Listed winner in sole English challenger Barathea Guest. Michael Tabor and Aidan O'Brien, who won with Second Empire (Ire) in 1997, are represented by the highly rated Ciro. Beautifully bred Ocean Wisdom looks set to start favourite after an impressive pillar-to-post win in the G3 Prix La Rochette on his second start at Chantilly Sept. 21, while Jokerman has won three of his four starts, including the G3 Prix des Chenes here Sept 12. Barathea Guest has also won three of his four starts, including most recently the Listed Criterium du Fonds Europeen de l'Elevage at Deauville Aug. 21. Ciro is an unknown quantity by comparison, but won a Galway maiden on his second start Sept. 7 by an impressive seven lengths.

Margins: SNL, 2 1/4. Odds: 10-9, 5-2, 25-1.
 "Determination and will to win, you can't beat them, mate," declared jockey Jim Cassidy moments after Redoute's Choice rallied to best arch-rival Testa Rossa. Redoute's Choice set a reasonable tempo in front, but when he rolled out entering the straight, Testa Rossa ducked though on the fence and grabbed the lead. "He got on the wrong leg and hung out; I had to get him balanced again and keep going forward," said Cassidy. Trainer Rick Hore-Lacy, who revealed he has heavily backed the colt to win the Oct. 23 Cox Plate, said, "I couldn't believe he'd just surrender like that. This is my biggest thrill in racing." Commands signaled he's on the way to emulating his full brother, five-time Group 1 winner Danewin (Aus), with a fast-finishing third. Redoute's Choice is now 7-2 equal favourite with an easing Tie The Knot (Aus) for the Cox Plate, with Hore-Lacy confirming Melbourne Cup winning rider Chris Munce has the mount as Jim Cassidy can't get down to the colt's weight of 48.5 kilograms. Cassidy will still ride Redoute's Choice in the A$1 million Victoria Derby Oct. 30.

Margins: 4HF, HFNK. Odds: 8-1, 9-10, 16-1.

A battle of tactics came unstuck for odds-on favourite Tie The Knot, as 8-1 shot Northern Drake led all the way to snatch an astonishing 4 1/2-length win. Northern Drake, who hadn't won for 18 months and was overlooked as runner-up in Might And Power (NZ)'s record-breaking Cox Plate last year, was flying early and rounding the turn scooted to a two-length lead that proved impossible for Tie The Knot, who raced wide, to match. The winner is raced by Domelands Pty Ltd, an Asian company that has spent several million dollars on bloodstock in the past four years, but until today had only one other Group 1 winner in Flight S. victor Only A Lady (Aus).

Umrum came from barrier 17 to gun down early leader Go Flash Go. The 5-2 favourite Nina Haraka returned with blood streaming from her foreleg and her Caulfield Cup tilt is now in doubt. The pacesetter was a further 1 1/4 lengths away third after being hampered by a riderless Machine Gun Tom (Aus) (Corporate Raider {Aus}). That one lost his rider when the Lee Freedman-trained Marble Halls (NZ) (Nassipour), who had earned almost A$960,000 in stakes, broke down fatally at the 1200-meter mark, leaving rider Patrick Payne with a suspected broken collarbone.

Supreme Sound captured the listed Winter Derby at Lingfield over the all-weather track earlier this year, then made four more starts over the British turf, including a second in the Listed Huxley S. in May before heading to American shores. Making his stateside debut in the GI United Nations H., the British bred set the pace before running second to Yagli over a firm course. He followed that up with a sixth in GI Sword Dancer at Saratoga Aug. 14. Given some time off, Supreme Sound shipped to Hawthorne to make his first start on the main track. Breaking from the seven hole, he set a moderate pace through six panels in 1:11, leaving plenty in the tank to hold off favored Golden Missile in a stretch-long drive. "It was a superb performance," said assistant trainer Joan Wakefield. "He had the one run on the dirt in England, which he did win. We were hopeful, but not confident."

Group 1 placed in France at two and the winner of the G3 Prix Minerve at three, Isle de France registered two firsts and two seconds from her first four starts in this country after being imported in early 1999. In her first attempt against graded-stakes company two back, she finished a close third in the GIII Palomar H. at Del Mar Aug. 11. She came into this race off a fourth-place finish in the GI Ramona H. at Del Mar Sept. 4. The odds-on choice raced just off the pace on the outside to the far turn, where she bid three wide, took over at the furlong pole and drew off for the score.

In the Listed Riggs Bank Harvest S. at Ascot Sept. 26, Signorina Cattiva proved too strong for Mazaya (Ire) (Sadlers Wells) and New Abbey in the heavy ground conditions she adores. Back at the same course here, she was always travelling well off a fast pace, tracking Mazaya first and then New Abbey when that one was sent to the front by jockey Richard Quinn. Asked to go on two furlongs out by Frankie Dettori, she lengthened impressively to leave the runner-up behind, forging clear despite slightly hanging to the right. Trainer John Dunlop said: "It's a pity the Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe was last week. That was a competitive field of fillies and she annihilated them. She loves soft ground and I feel we would be very stupid to think about things like the E.P. Taylor S., as North American ground wouldn't suit her--Newbury's (G3) St Simon S. is a possible."

A much improved horse, Tarry Flynn showed fine progression from handicap company to win his first group race in comfortable fashion with a dominating display here, making all before being ridden clear from three furlongs out. The runner-up, the British-trained Late Night Out, took closer order to Tarry Flynn at halfway, but made no further impression despite staying on inside the final furlong. The pair finished clear of Oyster Catcher, who proved best of the remainder.

Kier Park had an easy task on very heavy ground at Lingfield eight days ago after showing real promise when being touched off by Tabheej (Ire) at Doncaster Sept. 11 on his previous start. A quick return to racing paid off when he delivered a strong challenge on the outside of The Tatling, who had taken to the front two furlongs out from the struggling favorite Littlefeather (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) and the eventual third Watching. Heavily gambled down from 9-1 early in the morning prices, the winner showed a good turn of foot and was going away at the finish. Trainer Michael Jarvis commented: "We're having our best season since the days of Carroll House (Ire). We've got half a dozen group performers, but it has taken this one a couple of races to get the hang of it. I had this race in mind for him as (jockey) Philip Robinson said he wasn't getting six furlongs this year...that is why we put him back to five. I think he'll get six next year and he'll be a much better horse then."

Margins: 3/4, 3/4, 4 1/4. Odds: 14.20, 0.80, 8.40.

Also Ran: Seaside Deli, Southern Reveille, Gaelic Bay, Fresh Aire, Seducer. Scratched: Kissin' Jeb, Tres Coronas, Rehearse, Polaire.

Wild Heart Dancing came off a four-month layoff and collected her first graded-stakes victory. The dark bay miss captured the Palisades S. at Keeneland in April over a yielding course, but could do no better than sixth to yesterday's GI Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup heroine Perfect Sting in the GIII Sands Point S. at Belmont June 6. Showing no signs of rustiness here, the longshot stalked Confessional's early pace, found a seam at the top of the stretch and came running for the score.

New Rider for Sunline:

Jockey Larry Cassidy has been dumped as rider of Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}) following three consecutive defeats, with co-trainer Trevor McKee saying he wants a Melbourne jockey for the A$1.8 million Cox Plate. He will give Greg Childs the mount in the Group 1 event at Moonee Valley on Oct. 23. "Larry had been aware of the situation early in the year and I promised him I would tell him if he wasn't required before he read about it in the papers," McKee said. Sunline beat Tie The Knot (Aus) first-up in the Warwick S. on Aug. 21, but was second in the Theo Marks S. and again in the George Main S. at Randwick, then finished fourth in the Epsom H. last time out.

"Cups King" Takes Over Son's String:

Trainer Bart Cummings, also known as the "Cups King," has been granted permission by the Victoria Amateur Turf Club to take over the Caulfield stables of his son Anthony Cummings, who was suspended during the trenbolone scandal. The younger Cummings's 18-month disqualification took effect Tuesday, although he lodged an appeal against the severity of the penalty Friday. The elder Cummings, meanwhile, will likely have four Caulfield Cup contenders after former galloper Rogan Josh (Aus) (Old Spice {Aus}) won the G2 Two Perrier Mineral Water H. yesterday and firmed from 80-1 to 20-1 for the A$1.7 million feature set for Oct. 16. Melbourne doubles bookmaker Michael Eskander has declared Sky Heights (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}) will win the Caulfield Cup by three lengths and has him as 13-4 early favourite.

WEEKEND PEDIGREE PERSPECTIVES
by Alan Porter

PEDIGREE SHORTS...

The combination of Raise a Native through the very similarly bred Mr. Prospector and Alydar is beginning to appear in stakes winners, the latest of which is Forty One Carats (c, 3, Tactical Advantage--Aly's July, by Alysheba), winner of the Indiana Derby. Forty One Carats is by a grandson of Mr. Prospector out of a mare by a son of Alydar.

Spanish Fern (f, 4, El Gran Senor--Chain Fern, by Blushing Groom {Fr}), winner of the GI Yellow Ribbon S., is another stakes winner to combine the three-parts relatives Tom Fool and Spring Run. Tom Fool appears as sire of El Gran Senor's own broodmare sire Buckpasser, and Spring Run is dam of Blushing Groom's sire, Red God. Lord Flasheart (c, 2, Blush Rambler--Miss Henderson Co., by Silver Hawk), who showed himself to be among the best of the French two-year-olds with a win in the G3 Prix de Conde, also has Spring Run and Tom Fool.

An unusual version of the very successful inbreeding to Lalun struck the big time when Lady In Waiting (f, 3, Kylian--High Savannah, by Rousillon) won the G2 Sun Chariot S. at Newmarket last Saturday. Lady In Waiting--who might well go for the GI E. P. Taylor S.--is by an unraced son of Sadler's Wells who stands in Ireland for $4,000. Her dam is by Rousillon, a son of Riverman who was an excellent runner, but a disappointing sire. Lady In Waiting has Lalun 5x5 through Bold Reason, the broodmare sire of Sadler's Wells, and through Never Bend, the sire of Riverman.

FTBOA Elects 1999-2000 Officers:

At their annual meeting yesterday, the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association elected Donald R. Dizney as president for the 1999-2000 term. Also elected were first vice president J. Michael O'Farrell Jr., second vice president Leverett S. Miller, secretary Steven A. Silver and treasurer Diane Dudley.

Woodbine Ready for Slot Construction:

The Harnes Tracks of America newsletter reports that the Ontario Jockey Club has asked the Ontario Racing Commission for permission to end its Thoroughbred meet five days early so it can complete construction to accommodate the 1,700 slot machines that will be installed by Feb. 1. Woodbine has already moved the start of its fall harness meet from Nov. 22 to Dec. 26.

Silverleaf Stallions to Bridlewood for 2000:

Five stallions who previously stood at Silverleaf Farm in Ocala, Florida will stand the 2000 breeding season at Arthur Appleton's Bridlewood Farm, also in Ocala. Briggs & Cromartie Bloodstock Agency was elected the new Syndicate Manager for the stallions: Future Storm, Hazaam, Hunting Hard, Silver Buck and Top Account. The changes were a result of Silverleaf owners David & Ann Hutson's decision earlier this year to sell their breeding stock and the property.

DETTORI DISCUSSES APPEAL

Champion rider Frankie Dettori revealed yesterday why he has decided to appeal against the four-day whip ban he received after winning aboard a two-year-old maiden at York on Wednesday. The Italian feels that the suspension, which would rule him out of Champions' Day on Saturday, was an injustice. "Champions Day is very important, but I am not appealing just for that but because I feel I didn't break the rules," he said. "I wouldn't appeal unless I thought I had a chance. And I feel I've got a good chance as I feel I was within the guidelines."

At Doncaster Sept. 8 and then Newmarket Sept. 28, Out of Africa showed a good attitude and an ability to quicken from behind in her races. Set a tougher task in this, her jockey Ray Cochrane nevertheless adopted the same tactics, dropping her at the back of the field from the start. Miss Orah (Unfuwain {USA}) set the pace and was only beaten when a line of three challenged strongly inside the final quarter of a mile. Those were Rudik on the rails, Out Of Africa on the outer and Bally Pride between them. They stayed together for a desperate driving finish, with Cochrane just inching out the others before the line.

The last time French Fellow met King O' The Mana (Ire) (Turtle Island {Ire}) in a nursery handicap at Newcastle Aug. 30, he met with defeat, although he looked unlucky coming from a long way behind that day. This time, after a workmanlike win last time at Doncaster Sept. 9, he went off the 5-2 favourite to reverse placings and he did so emphatically, with King O' The Mana trailing home in sixth. The winner looked threatened two furlongs out by the One Step At A Time, but he responded gamely after a tough battle for a half-length advantage at the line. Total Love made up at least five lengths in the straight to finish a close-up, unlucky third. "This is an extremely tough horse", said Grainger Morgan-Evans, travelling head lad for winning trainer Tim Easterby. The winner is now likely to go for the Listed Tote Silver Tankard S. at Pontefract Oct.18.

Back to full fitness in this event, he delivered his challenge on the outside of Sobriety (Ire) (Namaqualand {USA}) over one furlong out before running on well under pressure to hold the challenges of the following pair, Compton Bolter (Ire) (Red Sunset {Ire}) and Glen Rosie (Ire) (Mujtahid {USA}). Penang Pearl, a model of consistency all year, had not been out of the first four in seven starts prior to this, but was well beaten when fourth in a handicap at Haydock Sept. 25 on her latest start. Showing much improved form here, she was in behind early leader Hawriyah (USA) (Dayjur {USA}) and later Sheba Spring (Ire) (Brief Truce {USA}) until she made steady headway nearing the two-furlong marker. The runner-up was slowly away from the start, but after briefly taking to the front over one furlong out, was soon headed and proved one-paced against the winner's finish.

DREAM WELL (FR) (c, 4, Sadler's Wells {USA}--Soul Dream {USA}, by Alleged {USA}), the hero of the 1998 French and Irish Derbies, captured the G3 Prix Gontaut-Biron at a mile and a quarter Aug. 15 at Deauville before running third, beaten 11 1/2 lengths by Daylami (Ire) with blinkers on, in the Sept. 11 G1 Irish Champion S. The 5-2 second choice in his U.S. bow, the bay was rated while racing along the inside, found himself caught in tight quarters on the final bend, got through as they straightened for home and finished well to get second, a length behind 1997 Turf Classic winner Val's Prince (Eternal Prince). "I thought he ran a lovely race," jockey Cash Asmussen said. "He was tight going into the stretch, but I was able to get through on the rail.
