TATTERSALLS SALE A RECORD-SETTER

The 1999 Tattersalls October Yearling Sale, Europe's largest yearling auction, came to a close yesterday with records broken for median, average and aggregate. Tattersalls chairman Edmond Mahony said "This year's October Yearling catalogue was significantly larger than last year's, with intense demand for places in both this week's sale and the Houghton. Our yearling inspection team looked at nearly 3,000 horses this spring, which made it hard to keep both sales at manageable levels, and it has been encouraging to see last year's level of trading matched. This year's sale included 19 lots who realized 100,000 guineas or more, compared to 17 last year. Another feature, in addition to the traditionally strong presence from Central Europe, has been the major impact that buyers from Eastern Europe have made upon the sale, after promotional visits to the Czech Republic and Poland this year." The top price of the week came Friday night, when a client of Peter Doyle Bloodstock paid 400,000 guineas for a Sadler's Wells filly offered from Raffin Stud, the property of Thrup Bloodstock. Yesterday's final session was topped by Lot 984, the first foal of Marina Park (GB), an eight-time winner in Britain and the United States. Her colt by Gulch, his only lot in the sale, was offered for Greenland Park Ltd from Collin Stud and fetched 72,000 guineas from trainer Peter Harris. Agent Peter Doyle paid 60,000 guineas for Lot 960, a daughter of Roar, offered by American consignor Highclere Stud. Lot 961, a Shirley Heights (GB) colt out of the Fairy King mare Fajjoura (Ire), offered from Fieldspring Stud, was bought by agent Charlie Gordon-Watson for 62,000 guineas.

A CHAMPION IS CONFIRMED

After his initial outing in a maiden at Doncaster July 28, where he had subsequent G3 Solario S. Aug. 20, winner Best of the Bests (Ire) behind, Distant Music (Distant View) was a name on many people's lips. He imposed himself again on the same course in the G2 Champagne S. Sept. 10, rushing clear of Rossini. As he entered the parade ring today, he held the position of 4-1 favorite for next year's G1 Sagitta 2000 Guineas S. May 6, such had been his impression on all involved. Zentsov Street (Nureyev) set a mild pace as both Brahms (Danzig) and Distant Music sat in behind. When Michael Hills asked the winner to quicken two furlongs out, the response was immediate and he forged to the front, pursued only by the runner-up. Although Brahms closed the gap in the final hundred yards, Distant Music was not threatened. Hills was emphatic after the race when he said, "I think he's exceptional. He's the best I've ridden." Trainer Barry Hills, recording his 100th winner of the season, added, "He really needs a fast pace, which he didn't get here, but he can't do more than win. He has done it very well and he would have been even better on faster ground. Every time he does a piece of work at home, the riders all say that the leading horse is no good, that they don't go fast enough for him. When you set him alight he just goes." Distant Music is now as short as 9-4 for the first Classic of 2000.

Trainer Bobby Frankel's hot streak continued as Keeper Hill put in a strong run to upset Banshee Breeze in the 44th renewal of the Spinster. The bay recorded her first victory of the year, adding a third Grade I to her Kentucky Oaks and Las Virgenes wins. Last spring, Keeper Hill and Banshee Breeze took turns beating one another, with the latter outfinishing Keeper Hill in the Breeders' Cup Distaff for the Eclipse Award. Keeper Hill finished fourth in her first two starts this year, both on the Hollywood main, before rallying for third in the GI Beverly Hills on the turf. Shipped east, she continued to run well, finishing second in the GIII Delaware H. July 25, third in the GI Personal Ensign at Saratoga to Beautiful Pleasure and Banshee Breeze, and third in the GI Ruffian. Settling on the inside just four lengths off front-running Lines of Beauty (Line In The Sand), Keeper Hill advanced along the rail, burst through in deep stretch and drove home an impressive winner. "I was kind of looking for her [Banshee Breeze]," said winning jockey Kent Desormeaux. "But when the doors opened up, my filly was so full of run, I didn't think anybody could catch her. She was awesome." Trainer Bobby Frankel, winning his third Keeneland stakes this meeting, said, "I don't know if I have been giving the jockeys bad instructions or putting her in the wrong spots or what, but she really ran a huge race today." Banshee Breeze raced five wide much of the way, but rallied well for second.

Since winning this race 12 months ago, Alborada has encountered numerous setbacks and has had only one race, a creditable fourth to Zahrat Dubai (GB) in the G1 Nassau S. at Goodwood July 31. Trainer Sir Mark Prescott has enjoyed a trouble-free month as he prepared Alborada, who is the first to win this race twice in a row since Triptych did so in 1987. Salford Express (Be My Guest) led in the early stages, but was soon running fourth as Kabool took over as the field turned into the long straight in advance of Alborada and High-Rise (High Estate {Ire}). The favorite Shiva was restrained by Richard Quinn in midfield. The race began in earnest with three furlongs to run, where the principals all came under pressure, still headed by Kabool. George Duffield became urgent aboard Alborada; she was on terms entering the final quarter and hit the front with 1 1/2 furlongs to run. Shiva had made good progress from the three-furlong marker, was third at the furlong pole and ran on well to be closest at the finish. Prescott said, "This is one of the most enjoyable days I have had. Last year was so straightforward when she won, but it has been a real struggle this time due to all the niggles. She has come back at the right time and all credit to [owner] Miss Rausing who has been so patient. Good horses are normally easy to train so this is a great relief."

Only off the board once in his nine-race career prior to this start, Pleasant Breeze broke his maiden at third asking for the Behrens connections, going 10 furlongs at Saratoga in August of 1998, and hasn't missed a beat since. The gelding came into his first stakes test with a five-length triumph at the Spa Aug. 30 and a front-running, seven-length victory at Belmont Sept. 26, both at the Med Cup distance of nine furlongs. Pleasant Breeze broke alertly from the two hole and was joined immediately from the outside by Jazz Club and the pair raced together down the backstretch, while favored Vision and Verse galloped along in midpack and in the clear on the outside. Turning for home, Pat Day, aboard Jazz Club, turned up the pressure on the front runner and forged a narrow lead from Pleasant Breeze in mid-stretch, but the latter was unyielding along the inside and fought back gamely for the victory. Travers runner-up Vision and Verse rallied wide into the stretch and finished with good energy without menacing the top pair.

In a race billed as a match between General Challenge and Old Trieste for West Coast leadership, the venerable Budroyale emerged victorious and now heads to the Breeders' Cup as the winner of the last major California prep. The bay gelding, always consistent, came into the Goodwood with an excellent record on the season, with only one unplaced effort in nine starts. After romping in the GII Mervyn LeRoy by eight lengths, he chased home Old Trieste in the GII Californian S. May 29. Budroyale then finished second to Real Quiet in the GI Hollywood Gold Cup, but could only manage a fourth to Mazel Trick and River Keen in the GIII San Diego H. at Del Mar Aug. 7. Shipped up to Washington, he fought his way home in the GIII Longacres Mile at Emerald Downs Aug. 22. Lightly regarded at 9-1 here, Budroyale settled in third early, about six lengths off the front-running Hollycombe and Old Trieste. The six-year-old made his move between horses, took a short lead in midstretch and outgamed General Challenge to the wire for a Calbred exacta. "I've never ridden a guttier horse than this one," said winning jockey Garrett Gomez. Budroyale may have punched his ticket to Gulfstream with this victory. "If he comes out of the race good and doesn't give us any reason not to, then I'd say we're running in the Breeders' Cup Classic," said winning trainer Ted West. "He beat two of the best horses in the world today in General Challenge and Old Trieste, and the others were no slouches either. The fact that he can look those horses in the eye and gun them down means we'll have to consider [the Classic]. He's completely eligible."

What a long strange trip it's been for this one-time Triple Crown hopeful. The flashy bay raised eyebrows when he left Kelly Kip, among others, in his wake during his track-record setting performance in the seven-furlong GI Carter H. in April, and then endured the wrath of a crazed fan who ran into his path in the Maryland Breeders' Cup H. in his next start on Preakness day. A smattering of runner-up finishes ensued, but he scored his first victory since the Carter when scoring by 3½ lengths in the GI Vosburgh in his last start. A notoriously slow starter, Artax would have to overcome the inside post in this heat. With a bullet drill Oct. 9, the four-year-old was on his toes and broke alertly to lead in the early stages from the returning Bet Me Best (Barberstown), who trailed by only a head after a quarter of :22 1/5 and a half in :44 3/5. Entering the stretch, Artax was full of run, put away Bet Me Best to lead by 4½ lengths past the eighth pole and broke Groovy's 1987 track record by one fifth of a second. "He's phenomenal," commented trainer Louis Albertrani. "He's an amazing animal. He will not miss an oat tonight. He loves what he does." After toying with the idea of running Artax in the Breeders' Cup Mile, the plan is now clear. "We're going to the Sprint," said owner Ernie Paragallo.

All horses in the International TDN were bred in North America unless otherwise indicated.

When Susu came back from Dubai earlier this year to race in the colors of Sheikh Mohammed's son, Sheikh Rashid al Maktoum, she carried with her a tall reputation. However, it wasn't until the Listed Kyoto Sceptre S. at Doncaster Sept. 9, that she showed her real ability by quickening impressively to win with plenty in hand. After an even break, it was Presumed (Dynaformer) who took them along at a fast pace, tracked by Sugarfoot (Thatching {Ire}). As they quickened past halfway, none seemed to be going better than Lend A Hand, with Olivier Peslier biding his time. When the favorite was asked, he readily put distance between himself and the chasing group and looked set for a facile success until Susu was brought to challenge by Kieren Fallon on the outside and she wore down Lend A Hand to take the race. "That is the way to ride her, she likes to come from off the pace as she has a very good turn of foot," said trainer Sir Michael Stoute. "It was all down to the owner that she ran. He was very confident when he looked at the field." Of the runner-up and the third-placed horse, John Ferguson, bloodstock agent for Godolphin, said, "We will wait and see how Lend A Hand is and talk to Sheikh Maktoum about the Breeders' Cup. I think going round two bends at Gulfstream Park will suit him fine, seven furlongs looks his trip here in England, but a mile in Florida might be all right for him. You are never pleased to be beaten, but he has run well. We thought he would win today and he hasn't, so that is why there is going to be a question mark about the Breeders' Cup. Josr Algarhoud ran very well and he will be a nice horse next year."

Silic had only one win in the States after a successful career in France for Pascal Bary. He has been close in three other races, with a two-length defeat in the GI Atto Mile H. at Woodbine Sept. 19 his latest effort. Here, he had only horse beat until the final turn, where jockey Corey Nakatani started to urge his mount, who swung out three wide for his drive. Bouccaneer was just in front of Silic the whole trip, hitting the front midway through the lane, but couldn't hold off the winner.

Fourth behind highly regarded Dream Supreme in her racetrack debut at Saratoga Aug. 29, Silentlea gutted out a front-running maiden-breaking victory by a head over this dirt Sept. 12. Away awkwardly and bumped just after the outset, she was guided to the rail by Robbie Davis, advanced along the inside, altered course for running room in the lane and was up just in time to light up the board. Jimmy Jerkens, whose father is more noted for his upsets, got one of his own. "I couldn't see her running head-to-head with those fillies and the plan was to take back. We've been training without speed in the mornings. She worked a couple of days ago and I really didn't like the work, but I blew her out [Friday] and that made a difference. She showed her class today and I think she could be something special." Added Davis, "She was a little bit green about being down inside. I followed a couple of horses and they tired right in front of me, so I had to wiggle my way through." Favored Shawnee Country was sixth in a dull effort. "She was just flat," said jockey Jerry Bailey.

Also ran: Icicle (GB), Princess Ellen (GB), Boast (GB), Aunty Rose (Ire), Double Platinum (GB), Perugia (Ire), Al Desima (GB), Broadway Legend (Ire), Nasaieb (Ire).

The winner of her only start to date, a maiden event at Redcar Oct. 2, Lahan belied her relative lack of experience to gain a first group-race win in game style, holding on well as Clog Dance finished strongly. She was settled in fourth as Princess Ellen (Tirol {Ire}) set a good pace from Nasaieb (Fairy King) and Al Desima (Emperor Jones), with Total Love positioned in midfield and Clog Dance in the rear. Lahan was traveling well and eased to the lead at the quarter-mile marker as Total Love and Clog Dance were busied to make their challenges. Lahan came under pressure at the distance, where Richard Hills started to get down to some serious work as Total Love and Clog Dance emerged from the pack to become the main dangers. Lahan answered her jockey's call with enthusiasm and stayed on well up the hill to land the spoils. Total Love couldn't quite get to Lahan's quarters and looked booked for second until Michael Hills conjured a strong late burst from Clog Dance. She finished best of all up the final rise and was gaining hand over fist on Lahan, but the winning post came too soon and the partnership had to be satisfied with second. Lahan will now be aimed at next year's G1 1000 Guineas, for which she is quoted at odds varying between 33-1 and 20-1. Winning trainer John Gosden explained, "She is a good filly, I think she could maybe be my Guineas filly, her dam is by Mr. Prospector. She was in front for a long time and had a harder race than I had hoped she would have on what was only her second appearance, and that was a bit different from a Redcar maiden."

Twilight Time continued his pattern of improvement and came away with his first graded-stakes triumph here. After two lackluster efforts in his first two starts at Monmouth this summer, he was off nearly two months and returned with a third in a maiden claimer at Belmont Sept. 22. Wheeled right back, he stormed home by 10 lengths in a maiden special at Belmont Oct. 2. Despite showing a bullet work in the interim, the Kentucky bred was dismissed as the longest shot on the board. Saving ground early, he switched to the outside in the stretch and finished with good energy for the score. "We broke well and he just relaxed," said winning jockey Mike Luzzi. "I tried to stay right behind Bailey's horse [Outrigger] and when he took the lead, I knew I was going to go past him." Nunzio was scratched due to a fever.

Having previously won his only start, a maiden race at Gowran Park June 3, Lermontov retained his unbeaten record here, but was made to work hard to do so, regaining the lead once headed to provide yet another group win for the Ballydoyle juvenile machine. He was one of trainer Aidan O'Brien's eight entries for the G1 Dewhurst S. at Newmarket, but was rerouted to this perceived easier race as one of four O'Brien entries. He set out to make all, but was headed by stable companion Barrier Reef with 1 1/2 furlongs to run. He was squeezed for room and pushed to the far rail as Barrier Reef drifted to the right and impeded him, but he ran on again with vigor to regain the lead in the last stride for a game win.

9	Tanaasa (Ire)	Sadler's Wells Day		10-1

Dawson's Legacy, who first came on to the national scene when second behind Favorite Trick in the 1997 Breeders' Cup Juvenile, has won his last two starts over the Woodbine turf in easy fashion. Showing amazing versatility, he took the Gill Play The King S. by 1 1/2 lengths going seven furlongs Aug. 28, then came back to defeat Turf Champion Buck's Boy in the 11-furlong Gill Sky Classic H. Sept. 25. Foreign invaders looking to challenge the hometown favorite include Fruits of Love, winner of the Dubai Turf Classic in March and the G2 Hardwick S. at Ascot June 18. He most recently finished third behind Daylami in the July 24 G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. at Ascot. Beautiful Dancer, a Group 1 winner in Brazil, won his American debut at Saratoga Aug. 20 before running fourth in the GI Man o' War S. Sept. 11. In that event, trainer Rick Violette said he "hated" the soft turf at Belmont. Expect a better account of his abilities today.

Winner of this event last year against a much tougher, international field, Silver Patriarch looks a certainty here, especially if he reproduces last year's form and the form he showed when winning both the G2 Sagitta Jockey Club S. at Newmarket in April and the G2 Geoffrey Freer S. at Newbury in mid-August, after which he finished a distant third to Kayf Tara (GB) in the G1 Jefferson Smurfit Irish St Leger at The Curragh Sept. 18. Ivan Luis, winner of the G2 Premio Ellington in Rome in May, looks the only possible danger to cause an upset, but he has failed to win in three starts since then and was beaten in a conditions event in Rome on his last start Oct. 3. Best Grey finished third in the G1 Derby Italiano May 30 and was runner-up in the Listed Premio Villa Borghese in Rome on his last start Sept. 5.

Irish challenger Major Force is unbeaten in three starts this year, including the G3 MacDonagh Boland S. at The Curragh on his last start Sept. 18 and has been trained specifically for this race. Trans Island stepped up on all previous form to win the G2 Prix Rond-Point here Oct. 3, with Mahboob, winner of the G3 Prix Quincey at Deauville Aug. 28, fourth.

Way of Light was one of Europe's leading juveniles last year, but has failed to win this season and will be racing further than he has ever tried before, but he was runner-up in the G3 Prix du Prince d'Orange over 1 1/4 miles on his last start Sept. 18. The Aga Khan's Tiraz won the G1 Prix Royal-Oak in October of last year, but is making his seasonal debut here. Fragrant Mix was one of the best older horses in Europe last year, winning the G1 Grand Prix de Saint-Cloud and finishing sixth in the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, but failed to win in three starts Stateside over the winter and early spring. Having returned to France, he was runner-up in a conditions event at Chantilly Sept. 8. First Magnitude won the Listed Prix de Reux at Deauville in August and was third to Montjeu (Ire) in G2 Prix Niel here Sept. 12. Three-year-old Okabango has been racing in the provinces, winning three Listed races, but takes a major step up in class here.

CAULFIELD CUP-G1, A$1,570,000, Caulfield (Melbourne), 10-16, 1 1/2mT, 3yo/up, 2:30.10, dead.

1--SKY HEIGHTS (NZ), 124, g, 4, Zabeel (NZ)

1st Dam: Moet Heights (NZ), by Engagement

2nd Dam: Anaheim (NZ), by Amalgam

3rd Dam: Claudine (NZ), by Battle-Waggon (GB)

O-R P Legh, Gurners Bloodstock, N D Bell, P F

O'Mara, N J Griffin, Mrs L B Alderson & J T Kennedy;

B-Mrs E M & Mr R F Douglas; T-Colin Alderson;

J-Damien Oliver; A$1,000,000.

2--Laebeel (NZ), 112, m, 5, Zabeel (NZ)--So Like Lae (NZ), by Marceau (Aus). O-M L Marker, I F Morris, Mrs M Gray, Mrs B D & A P Duff & M R Attenborough; T-John Sadler; A$290,000.

3--Inaflury (NZ), 117, f, 4, Zabeel (NZ)--Gentle Flurry (Aus), by Zephyr Bay (Aus). O-D J Rose; T-Colin Alderson; A$140,000.

Also ran: Rogan Josh (Aus), Rose O' War (Aus), Referral (Aus), Joss Sticks (Aus), The Hind (Aus), Arena (Aus), Lahar (Aus), Seasquill (Aus), Figurehead (NZ), Nina Haraka (Aus), Maridpour (Ire), Allez Suez (NZ), Miss Danehill (Aus), Vita Man (NZ), Light Work (Aus). Scratched: Inshallah (NZ), Able Master (NZ), Go Flash Go (Aus).

Margins: SHD, 1HF. Odds: 5-2, 12-1, 9-1.

Trainer Colin Alderson savored a particularly sweet victory as Zabeel's offspring recorded a clean sweep of the Caulfield Cup. Alderson prepared Our Unicorn for a Caulfield Cup tilt last year only to be denied a berth in the 18-horse race when the VATC controversially decided to allow Taufan's Melody to run. This year, Alderson, not a man given to brash statements, predicted Sky Heights and stablemate Inaflury would quinnella the race--and he was nearly right, with only Laebeel separating the pair. "It got very aggressive from the start, but the last 300 meters was harder than I expected," said Sky Heights' jockey Damien Oliver after the 5-2 favorite wore down Laebeel, whose rider Steven Baster thought he had the race won with only a short half head between them. "He's a bulldog of a horse and he will be hard to beat in the Melbourne Cup," added Oliver. Inaflury's jockey Larry Cassidy said his mare was trapped too far back and peaked on her run with 150 meters to go. Sky Heights has been penalized 1.5kg for the Melbourne Cup, so he'll carry the same weight he did today, 56.5kg (124 lbs), in the two-mile race Nov. 2. He's third favorite at 5-1, behind Kayf Tara (7-2) and Tie The Knot (9-2) with Laebeel firming from 25-1 to 8-1.

Zabeel Overtakes Danehill Atop Aussie Sire List:

The best of Danehill's five Caulfield Cup representatives today was fifth-placed Rose O'War while Zabeel swept the top three positions, putting the New Zealand sire on top of the sires' table.

Police Looking Into Possible Drugging Incident:

Victoria's chief steward Des Gleeson has called the Police Racing Squad to assist investigations into whether two horses who were favorites for minor feature races at Caulfield Friday were drugged. Trainer Tony Vasil became suspicious about the health of his runners Pareto (Aus) and Marstic (Aus) after both appeared listless Friday. The Melbourne Herald-Sun reported it was believed the two had been injected in the neck and that police were interviewing a man in his 20s who is the son of a well-known racing identity. Both horses were scratched from their races Friday night and Gleeson beefed up security and testing on all runners. Gleeson said the horses, two of 40 stabled at Vasil's were "obviously not well" when stewards were alerted, but their condition was no longer life threatening. Three-year-old Pareto was the 5-2 early favorite for the Permastall Plate and Marstic was 7-4 co-choice for the G2 Schillaci S.

Jockey and Girlfriend Get Prison for Race Fixing:

The South China Morning Post reported yesterday that jockey Stanley Chin Kin-ming, 25, has been jailed for 3½ years while his girlfriend, Denise Yeung Ka-ye, 28, was jailed for two years and nine months after being found guilty of fixing two races at Sha Tin in 1996. The pair approached 11 apprentice jockeys not to finish in the top three in a race March 30, and also paid jockeys to lose in a race Jan. 27. The gamblers who provided the bribe money reportedly lost HK$700,000 when their horses didn't finish in the right order.

Mi Narrow came into this event with only one win in 10 starts this year, but it was the right kind, a game score in the Gill Oceanport H. at Monmouth July 11. Fifth in the Gill Cliff Hanger over this course two weeks ago, the chestnut was rank early, but settled down and rated along the inside. Angled out three wide, he rallied down the lane and just got up in the final yards.

THRILLS THE HOME CROWD

capturing her third Grade I win in the Spinster S. at Keeneland.
This victory keeps her on the board in sixteen out of eighteen starts.

Perfect To A Tee's last local appearance was a most impressive one, as the gelding rambled home a 10-length winner of an 8½-furlong money allowance event Aug. 14. Given six weeks off from that effort, her shipped to Philly Park and came from behind to take the Pa-Tha President's Cup by 3/4 of a length. Reined in to run behind horses for much of the early going, the bay swung wide into the lane, took over in midstretch and then held gamely despite drifting out late.

3--Katsumi, 119, f, 2, Williamstown--Rivaled, by Ascot Knight. $17,803.

Margins: 6HF, 30. Odds: 1.80, 7.55, 18.70.

Talk Back broke her maiden over this strip in her Sept. 11 debut going five furlongs at Woodbine by two lengths, then came back to score by nine in a Woodbine allowance Sept. 25. Yet she was the second choice in this field behind Hello Seattle (Deputy Minister), who had won her first two starts by a combined 26 lengths. After stumbling at the start, Talk Back pressed the easy pace set by Hello Seattle, who stopped after four furlongs and was pulled up. Talk Back inherited the lead and was never threatened en route to an easy score. Hello Seattle was vanned off the track and diagnosed with a lateral condylar fracture. Her condition does not appear to be life threatening.

Gin Talking led home a one-two finish for her connections in garnering her first black-type score. Favored after breaking her maiden at Laurel Aug. 22, the bay filly was wide early, swept to the lead in midstretch and came home a clear winner over stablemate Case of the Blues.

Margins: 3 3/4, 7 1/4, 3/4. Odds: 1.80, 16.70, 32.10.

Darwin picked a good spot to break his maiden. Green in his first two outings, including a fourth to GI Hopeful winner High Yield at Saratoga Aug. 7, the gray colt was headed at the wire by Traditionally in his last out at Belmont Sept. 18. Sent off as the second choice here, he stalked the pace, challenged from the outside and drew away easily.

Hurricane Irene Aftermath:

Hurricane Irene swept through South Florida late Friday afternoon (Oct. 15) dumping 12-16 inches of rain on the area. The three Thoroughbred tracks, Calder, Gulfstream and Hialeah all sustained cosmetic damage. Calder president C. Kenneth Dunn said, "There was some water seepage, trees down and we lost electricity on the backside. Thankfully there were no injuries to humans or horses." Calder canceled racing the day the hurricane hit. The Festival of the Sun, which included five stakes races, will be held on Saturday, Oct. 23. Gulfstream, host to the Breeders' Cup Nov. 6, had part of its backside under six inches of water and its entire clubhouse parking lot was submerged. Some trees were down and two corporate tents recently erected were ripped to shreds. The tent used to house the auxiliary press box was damaged. There are about 100 horses on Gulfstream's backside and no injuries were reported. Hialeah general manager Rick Sacco said, "We're assessing the damage right now, but there only seems to be water damage and downed trees."

Richter Scale, the beaten co-favorite in the 1997 Breeders' Cup Sprint, had spent the entirety of 1999 racing on the turf. Although he had won an allowance at Churchill June 6, he was well beaten in his last three starts and most recently sixth in a Saratoga allowance. The five-year-old gained the lead soon after the start and set a pressured pace, was challenged by three horses at the top of the stretch and prevailed by a neck. "I missed the earthquake in California, but I think we created one at Keeneland," said jockey Kent Desormeaux. "What was this on the Richter Scale? About an eight?"

Some Actor was a head victor in a Fair Grounds turf allowance in his second start for Tom Amoss and parlayed that victory into his first stakes success with a hard-fought victory in the Lecomte H. on the main track in New Orleans. The bay reappeared with a fourth-place finish over the Hawthorne turf before his last, a distant seventh in the Prelude S. at Louisiana Downs Sept. 11. Back on the infield for this start, Some Actor raced last of eight through a pedestrian six furlongs in 1:13, but jockey Robby Albarado swung the sophomore seven wide into the stretch and got his last quarter mile in :22 3/5 to win going away.

A WEEK OF TATTERSALLS

Horses in Training Sale Oct. 25-28:

There are 1,153 lots catalogued for the 1999 Tattersalls Autumn Horses In Training Sale, running from Oct. 25-28, although, as is always the case, a significant number of these will be withdrawn. Among the better-known names still in the sale are the popular stayer The Fly (GB) (Pharly {Fr}), G1 Gran Premio d'Italia winner Posidonas (GB) (Slip Anchor {GB}) and the two-year-olds Bally Pride (Ire) (Pips Pride {GB}) and Vita Spericolata (Ire) (Prince Sabo). This is a sale at which useful potential jumpers often command some of the best prices, and there are various sorts for that market, especially among the Aga Khan's draft. Selling begins at 9.15 a.m. each day.

Autumn Yearling Sales Oct. 28-29:

The Tattersalls Autumn Yearling Sales, held Oct. 28-29, sports a 465-lot catalogue this year, a record number. Graduates qualify for the £100,000 sales race. Dancing Spree (USA) (Nijinsky II {Can}) boasts the largest draft with 14 representatives, followed by first-season sire Mind Games (GB) (Puissance {GB}) with 12 and Bin Ajwaad (Ire) (Rainbow Quest {USA}) on 11. The locally based Collin Stud consigns the biggest team of 18 (including eight of the Dancing Sprees) while sales agent Ted Voute has 16 and Egerton Stud 15. Selling is scheduled to begin at about 11 a.m. Thursday, after the horses-in-training session closes, and at 9.15 a.m. Friday.

Tote Cesarwitch H. Cont.

A durable winner of top handicaps on the flat and over hurdles, Top Cees proved once more it is folly to consider him past his best. Providing Kieren Fallon with his 199th winner of the season, Top Cees showed all his battling qualities to win this marathon handicap in the style befitting a true stayer. He was settled in midfield, tracking the top weight Generosity (GB) (Generous {Ire}), as Mutanassib (Ire) (Mtoto {GB}) led the way. Fallon coaxed his mount forward at the three-furlong marker and was positioned in third, traveling smoothly entering the final quarter where the 5-1 favorite Far Cry (Ire) (Pharly {Fr}) held the lead. Eastwell Hall took up the running approaching the final furlong, but became unbalanced momentarily and bumped Top Cees. Fallon soon had his mount back on an even keel and Top Cees grabbed the lead with 150 yards to run. He kept on in determined style and passed the line a deserved winner.

NEW AWARDS SPONSOR

Weatherbys and the Racehorse Owners Association has taken over sponsorship of what were the Courage Racehorse Awards, which honors the owner of the horse who has contributed most to the public's enjoyment. The 1999 flat award will be announced Nov. 17.

Impressive on his first two starts when winning as a juvenile, Rolo Tomasi has been something of an enigma this year, but proved he his getting back to somewhere near his peak form by finishing second in his two previous starts, most recently when a fast-finishing second in a five furlong handicap at The Curragh Oct. 2. Stepped up slightly in trip here, he was reserved off the early pace and was still last with two furlongs to run. Getting into top gear, he found his trademark fast finish in good time to grab the lead in the last 150 yards, running on well for the win.

Having been held up off the pace, she joined the front rank at the furlong marker, led soon after and stayed on well to hold the late rally of Castanetta (Ire) (Dancing Dissident {USA}) by a short head. BIENAMADO (USA) (c, 3, Bien Bien {USA}--Nakterjal {GB}, by Vitiges {Fr}) Lifetime Record: 6-2-3-0, $137,139.

Bienamado won his first two starts but has dropped his last four, although he was second three times. His last run was a head loss to Montjeu (Ire) in the G2 Prix Niel, about as close as anybody has been able to come to the subsequent Arc winner.

FRUITS OF LOVE (USA) (c, 4, Hansel {USA}--Vallee Secrete {USA}, by Secretariat {USA}) Lifetime Record: 17-4-2-4, $587,057.

A very serious threat in this race is Mark Johnston's international star Fruits of Love. He has won two of his last four, with a smashing three-length win over Royal Anthem (USA) in the G2 Hardwicke S. June 18 at Ascot the highlight. That was good for a Timeform rating of 127, the same figure he received for his Dubai Turf Classic win at Nad al Sheba in March. His last start was a third to Daylami (Ire) in the G1 King George VI & Queen Elizabeth Diamond S. July 24, when he came from last and suffered through some traffic problems. He gets Lasix here and Kieren Fallon, who last rode him in Dubai, is in for the ride.
