FIRST FLORIDA BREEZE FOR THE 'KID'

GI Travers and Belmont S. winner Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo), most recently fifth in the Oct. 10 GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, had his first serious piece of work over the Gulfstream oval yesterday morning, drilling four furlongs in :47 2/5 handily for trainer Scotty Schulhofer. The bay won his 1999 debut in allowance company at the Hallandale oval and hopes to maintain his undefeated local record in the Classic.

SCHOSBERG AFTER SPRINT SUCCESS

The Rich Schosberg-trained pair of Sprint candidate Affirmed Success (Affirmed) and Distaff or Filly and Mare Turf possible Mossflower (Affirmed) were out for work at Gulfstream yesterday morning. The former, unraced since a neck second in the GII Forego at Saratoga Sept. 6, breezed his five furlongs in 1:01 3/5. Mossflower, third in the GI Flower Bowl over the Belmont turf Oct. 3, went a similar distance in 1:01 flat.

YAGLI LOOKS TO REBOUND IN TURF

Allen Paulson's Yagli (Jade Hunter), a troubled fourth to Val's Prince in the GI Turf Classic at Belmont Oct. 9, logged the second-fastest clocking of the day yesterday, getting his five panels in 1:00 4/5 breezing. The chestnut will try to improve on his second-place finish in the 1998 Turf over the same course where he captured the 1999 GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup H. in track-record time.

WARD DUET STRONG AT KEENELAND

Darling My Darling (Deputy Minister), tough luck runner up in the GI Matron and GI Frizette in her last two starts, blazed five furlongs at Keeneland in a handy :59 Wednesday, easily the best of 25 works at the distance. She goes in the Juvenile Fillies. Stablemate Beautiful Pleasure (Maudlin), conqueress of Silverbulletday in the GI Beldame, posted the only six-furlong work Wednesday, stopping the clock in 1:11 2/5, as she preps for the Distaff. John Ward is the trainer of both fillies.

Make No Mistake Likely to Miss Plate:

Irish challenger Make No Mistake (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}) pulled up sore after a track gallop yesterday and is unlikely to represent trainer Dermot Weld in Saturday's A$1.7 million Cox Plate at Moonee Valley. The four-year-old suffered a hoof bruise earlier in the week, but connections were hopeful he would improve by post time. "Before he went out to gallop today we were very confident, but the concussion of hitting his feet on the ground seems to have aggravated the injury," said Weld. "The worst thing you can do if a horse is not right is run him." Make No Mistake would have been the first international entrant in the race regarded as Australasia's weight-for-age championship, but Weld, who snatched the Melbourne Cup with Vintage Crop in 1993, hasn't given up hope and VRC veterinary steward John McCaffery will inspect the horse Friday.

McCaffery said Northern Drake (Aus) (Varick), who appeared sore after a work Monday, had galloped freely and would take his place in the field.

Redoute's Choice (Aus) (Danehill) remains the early favorite for the Cox Plate, although only four three-year-olds in almost 30 years have won the race; Octagonal (1995), Red Anchor (1984), Surround (1976) and Taj Rossi (1973). "Every three-year-old who has won this race in recent years has been voted Horse of the Year, so Redoute's Choice has very big shoes to fill," said jockey Chris Munce, adding he had a "gut feeling" the colt would make the grade.

Sunline (NZ), the forgotten Cox Plate contender, is primed for her mission according to trainer Trevor McKee. Her pristine gallop Tuesday dispelled rumors that all was not right as she went over 1600 meters in 1:50.5, reeling off her last 400 meters in :25.25.

AMERICAN HORSES BANNED IN HONG KONG

Reacting to the recent outbreak of the West Nile-like fever on the East Coast, Hong Kong has temporarily banned the import of horses from North America, according to the a report from Reuters. "This is a precautionary measure to prevent the possibility of the virus responsible for the fatal neurological disease from getting into the local mosquito population and infecting people, birds and animals in Hong Kong," the Hong Kong Jockey Club said, adding that they will begin testing horses for exposure to the virus. "This will enable importation of horses into Hong Kong from the United States to resume as soon as it is considered safe to do so." Hong Kong's three international races, the Cup, the Bowl and the Vase, are set to be run Dec. 12. American-bred horses destined for the annual International Sales the same week, are also in jeopardy of being banned.

No Lack of Entries for Hong Kong Races:

A total of 442 entries have been received for this year's four international races in Hong Kong Dec. 12 at Sha Tin. The featured G1 Hong Kong International Cup, run over 1 1/4 miles and the final event of the Emirates World Racing Series Championship, has attracted Alborada (GB) (Alzao {USA}), Fruits of Love (USA) (Hansel {USA}), Running Stag (USA) (Cozzene {USA}) and Daylami (Ire) (Doyoun {GB}). The selection of overseas horses and reserves will be announced Wednesday, Nov. 10.

MODERATE OPENING TO DONCASTER SALE

The sale of a Piccolo (GB)--Spun Gold (GB) (Thatch {USA}) colt for 10,000 guineas proved enough to top the first day of Doncaster's October Yearling Sales yesterday. Offered from Brockencote House Stud, the colt's next destination is unclear after his buyer, who had seen off trainer Patrick Haslam, put the purchase down to cash and declined to elaborate on plans. The Komaite (USA) daughter of the 1992 Wokingham S. winner Red Rosein (GB) (Red Sunset {GB}) was bought by her co-breeder Captain Jimmy Wilson, who also trained that Royal Ascot winner. Wilson, who went to 9,500 guineas for the bay, reported that she will go into training with his daughter Geraldine Rees. Local trainer Richard Fahey went to 8,000 guineas for a colt from the final crop of Doncaster favorite Clantime (GB), by Off Camera (GB) (Efisio {GB}), while the same amount was paid by Tim Finch of Scottish Bloodstock for a filly from the first crop of Definite Article (GB), out of Miss Springtime (GB) (Bluebird {USA}), who will be probably be trained by Linda Perratt at Ayr. The sale concludes today with what is traditionally the stronger session.

Prix Casmir Delamarre

Having won a conditions event at Chantilly May 11 on her debut, Shemaya then finished a respectable third in the Listed Prix Melisande at Maisons-Laffitte June 1 and was seventh on her most recent start, the Listed Madame Jean Couturie at Vichy July 22. Fairy Star (Fairy King {USA}) disputed the lead with Shemaya, but held the outright lead at halfway, followed by Comillas (Kaldoun {Fr}) and Dinner Time, as La Frou Frou was positioned in seventh on the rail. Shemaya led into the straight as Fairy Star faded, closely pursued by Dinner Time. Shemaya was ridden strongly from the quarter-mile marker as Dinner Time made her challenge and both La Frou Frou and Maramba finished strongly from mid-pack. The four made their drive for the line and Shemaya proved best in an exciting finish.

SUSPENSION OF BARATHEA GUEST UPHELD

France Galop yesterday backed the decision to disqualify Barathea Guest (GB) (Barathea {Ire}) from first place in the G1 Grand Criterium at Longchamp Oct. 10. The George Margaron-trained colt beat the Aidan O'Brien-trained Ciro (USA) (Woodman {USA}) by a neck, but the placings were reversed after the Longchamp stewards decided that Barathea Guest had caused interference. The appeal was heard in Paris Wednesday evening, but judgement was not issued until yesterday. Tim Corby, racing manager to owner John Guest, said, "We received a fair and professional hearing. Although disappointed that the appeal was not upheld, Barathea Guest was the moral winner of the Grand Criterium at Longchamp. The colt will not run again until next year." France Galop spokesman Olivier de Malherbe said, "The appeal panel, after taking everything into account, have decided that the decision to demote Barathea Guest was the correct one. Obviously, the fact that it was a two-year-old race, run on very soft ground, was taken into account when reaching a verdict. However, what is undeniable is that Barathea Guest did encroach and that Ciro's rider, Michael Kinane, was forced to react."

CUMANI FINED FOR DRUG POSITIVE

Trainer Luca Cumani was fined a total of £1,500 by the Jockey Club Disciplinary Committee yesterday after prohibited substances were found in the post-race sample from the Aga Khan-owned Zalal (Ire) following a win in the EBF Triumvirate Classified '95' S. at Goodwood in June. The horse was disqualified for the presence of phenylbutazone and oxyphenbutazone. Zalal was the second Aga Khan-owned Cumani runner in the last year to fail a post-race drug test. Cumani said yesterday, "I am sorry about the incident and sorry for the connections. I have no comment to make about anything else, it is up to His Highness the Aga Khan to say what he feels. Horses require treatment from time to time. It is naive to expect a stable today to run without medication. The excretion times are not very helpful, but let's not make a criminal issue out of what is a painkiller. It is not a performance-enhancing drug, no one was cheating or trying to gain an advantage. And the only intention was to try and keep the horse in training to do what it was bred to do." The £1,000 fine was for the positives and £500 in regard to the rule requiring the keeping of proper medication records.

FALLON WINS 200TH FOR THIRD STRAIGHT YEAR

Kieren Fallon yesterday rode his 200th winner of the season, becoming the first jockey since Sir Gordon Richards in 1952 to complete a third consecutive double-century when Alva Glen (USA) won the Oath Maiden S. at Nottingham. The 34-year-old said, "I'm just glad it's all over. When I went down south to ride for Henry Cecil, I didn't find that nerve-wracking and even when going out on Oath (Ire) in the Derby I wasn't too worried. But this week was the first time I was starting to get worried. I'd had some good rides earlier in the week, but when you get to the fourth day you wonder whether you are going to do it. It was disappointing to leave Henry [Cecil]. He had a lot of good horses and we had a lot of Classic winners together. I did not expect it to happen and I was the last person to find out. It was a great day winning the Derby and it's just a shame that Oath got injured in his next race because the sky was the limit with that horse." Fallon is hoping to pass his best yearly total of 204 before he leaves for Hong Kong Tuesday.

DIAMOND WHITE OUT FOR THE YEAR

Diamond White (GB) (Robellino {USA}), winner of the G2 Prix de l'Opera at Longchamp, will miss the Breeders' Cup and not run again this season. "She had a little bit of a blood disorder, which may or may not have just been lurking on her," trainer Mick Ryan said. "There's a little sign of a slight infection and her coat's gone. She will be all right, but she's done enough for this season."

BOOKMAKERS' LOOK FOR CLARIFICATION

The Bookmakers' Committee yesterday appeared to play for time in the levy negotiations, something which is in short supply as agreement has to be reached by Oct. 31. The committee met yesterday and its chairman, Warwick Bartlett, said, "We have agreed unanimously to write to the chairman of the Horserace Betting Levy Board requesting comprehensive observations on our proposals and inviting him to substantiate in detail the Board's rejection of our offer. We also note that we have received no commitment from the BHB to support our campaign to reduce betting tax, despite the manifest advantages to all involved in the racing industry." The committee has scheduled another meeting for Thursday, Oct. 28, the day after the Levy Board is due to consider revised proposals from the bookmakers.
