A DAY IN THE SUN

Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}) delivered a stinging blow to many critics who claimed she would not cope with the pressure-cooker conditions by leading all the way to post a resounding victory in yesterday's G1 BMW Cox Plate at Moonee Valley in Australia. "She really let go when she was asked to go and this is the way we planned it," said co-trainer Steve McKee. The forgotten runner in a pre-race media frenzy, New Zealand's champion took the lead from Redoute's Choice (Aus) (Danehill) very early in the race and coasted to a two-length advantage 800 meters from home. Jockey Greg Childs calmly let her slip four lengths ahead of the 10-horse field at the turn and, although Tie The Knot (Aus) (Nassipour) put in his usual barnstorming finish, the tenacious mare held him off. "The track played into Sunline's hands," said runner-up jockey Shane Dye of a rain-affected surface that seemed to suit leaders. "I needed to grab Sunline's tail to catch her," said Damien Oliver, who rode third-placed Sky Heights (NZ) (Zabeel {NZ}). "If you can get the others off the bit and chasing in this race then you have got it won, and that is exactly what she did." Added Childs, "She went and did it in fine style. I felt confident when I had a quick glance at the big screen. As we all know, it can be done--leading from start to finish--as Might And Power (NZ) did it last year. It was up to her to go and run it out strongly and she did." Sunline has now won 14 of 19 outings, including the G1 Doncaster and G1 Flight S., and more than A$4.5 million in purses. Make No Mistake (Ire) (Darshaan {GB})'s jockey Pat Smullen said the Irish challenger was feeling his sore hoof. "At the 800 meters he was going as good as any of them, but when I asked him to quicken he wasn't willing to stretch out," he said. Redoute's Choice faded to fifth. "He wasn't quite up to the pressure today," said his jockey, Chris Munce. The Cox Plate was the fifth race in the Emirates World Series Racing Championship, which continues with the G1 Breeders' Cup Turf and G1 Breeders' Cup Classic at Gulfstream Park Nov. 6. ## O'BRIEN PHILOSOPHY AT WORK

Trainer Aidan O'Brien has been as famous for his multiple entries in Group races for juveniles recently as he is for producing the winners of those races. When it was announced in mid-week that he would be running three from Ballydoyle in yesterday's G1 Racing Post Trophy at Doncaster, it was clear that he has considerable strength-in-depth at home this year. The winner, Aristotle (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), had only won a minor maiden at Galway previous to this, but he had done so by an impressive margin and he was highly regarded coming into this race. As Optimaite (GB) (Komaite) faded after cutting out a strong early pace, it was left to Lermontov (Alleged) to take them along. Then Ekraar (Red Ransom), who had been moving sweetly in behind, took to the front three furlongs out while cruising on the bridle and the race looked won, so easily was he going at that stage. But it was Aristotle who emerged from the chasing pack as the danger inside the last quarter of a mile, lengthening on the outside as Ekraar shortened his stride in the closing stages and forging past to win going away at the line. Lermontov, another of Aidan O'Brien's three runners, eventually got the better of Ekraar for a memorable one-two for his connections. The trainer said, "He's so lazy it's unbelievable. All he does is eat and sleep, but he's a very good horse. He has improved, as he's only had one run." George Duffield, the winning jockey, was having his first ride for O'Brien, but was in fine form following his success on Alborada (Ire) last weekend in the G1 Champion S. How did he pick up the mount on the Ballydoyle horse? "They phoned me," he said. As for his strategy aboard Aristotle, he added, "Aidan said to be handy, but I was rowing four out. It was a good test of a horse in that ground and staying won the day. He has...guts and wants to win. He's a great walker and a good moving horse." The Racing Post Trophy, over a mile, is often seen as a stepping stone to the G1 Epsom Derby the following year. Aristotle was therefore priced up afterwards at 16-1 for that race. With Gary Stevens aboard for the first time, Mula Gula sat third as Fighting Falcon (Manila) opened up three early and held the lead into the stretch, where Stevens set down his colt who ran past the tiring pacesetter as Egleton, Manndar (Doyoun {Ire}) and Super Quercus all closed well, but were no match for the winner. Favored Prime Timber (Sultry Song) lacked a late run when asked. "Our goal was this race," said winning trainer Jerry Hollendorfer, "and I really didn't have a plan after that. I don't think you'll see him in the Breeders' Cup."

The consistent Princess Pietrina had been on the board in all nine starts this season, but had met defeat at the hooves of U Can Do It in her last two, missing by a nose when second in a Sept. 24 Calder allowance last time out after running third, beaten 1 3/4 lengths by that rival, in an allowance test Aug. 19. Given little chance to get the better of U Can Do It and 19-10 favorite Extended Applause (Exbourne) with a jump into graded-stakes company, the chestnut was last after a quarter, had one horse behind her after a half, but moved into striking position in the stretch and came flying through the final furlong to catch Hurricane Bertie as they hit the wire. "We considered retiring her...but when she only got beat a nose by U Can Do It, who won this race last year, we decided to go ahead with her," trainer Frank Carlisi said. "This is the biggest win of my career. We'll see how she comes out of this and we might think about bringing her back in the Chaposa Springs S. here (Jan. 2)." U Can Do It, bumped at the break, finished well to be third. Extended Applause was at the back of the pack through the opening fractions and mounted only a mild bid to be fifth.

Gimmeakisse picked up back-to-back allowance wins at Delaware Park Sept. 15 and at Colonial Downs Oct. 3 before finishing fifth in a Keeneland allowance test Oct. 13. Trying the graded ranks, the longshot overcame a bumpy start to press the pace, came with a four-wide move at the top of the lane, grabbed the lead while drifting out and had enough left to hold off the late surge of The Happy Hopper. "I rode this filly last time and I learned a few things," winning jockey Patricia Cooksey said. "The last time, I started to really push her head and she resented that, she pushed her head back up into me. The...last time I hit her with the stick and she really resented that, too." Miss Chrissy (Indian Ridge {Ire}), the 13-10 favorite, was wide throughout and failed to fire, finishing sixth.

Signorina Cattiva hinted on her last two starts that on a soft surface she was a very solid middle-distance campaigner. The filly thrived last time in those conditions at Ascot in the G3 Princess Royal Willmott Dixon S. Oct.9, storming clear of a good field to win by seven lengths. Here, she looked to have a harder task against the top-weight Craigsteel (Suave Dancer), who had looked a likely candidate for the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe at one point of the season. However, it wasn't Craigsteel who gave her most to do, as he floundered in the loose ground, but Salford Express and the veteran performer Salmon Ladder. The three drew clear in the straight and Signorina Cattiva wore down Salford Express as Salmon Ladder buckled under pressure. The winner was not to be denied her hat-trick--she quickened again at the finish, running on strongly to score again by seven lengths. Trainer John Dunlop said, "She will definitely not stay in training, but we might run her once more in the Premio Roma. In these sort of conditions she is a good filly and she's beautifully bred."

This will be a true stayers' test under the prevailing ground conditions, with Tajoun attempting a hat-trick of wins and likely to start favourite after winning both the G3 Prix Gladiateur Sept. 5 and the G1 Prix du Cadran Oct. 2, both at Longchamp. But he faces two tough English opponents in the filly Leggera and Arctic Owl. Leggera was runner-up in the 1998 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe and returned to win the Listed Doonside Cup at Ayr Sept. 18 after a four-month break; she finished a fine fourth in this year's Arc on Oct. 3. Arctic Owl won the G3 Henry II S. at Sandown at the end of May and has since finished runner-up in three straight Group races, including the G3 Jockey Club Cup at Newmarket on his last start Oct. 2. Amilynx and Northerntown are both proven stayers, too, having finished first and second in the G2 Prix Hubert de Chaudenay here Oct. 2. The latter had previously beaten the former into third when winning the G3 Prix de Lutece over this course Sept. 7. The German filly Win For Us also proved she stays when winning the G2 Deutsches St. Leger at Dortmund Oct. 3.

RIVER KEEN BACK ON TRACK

GI Woodward and GI Jockey Club Gold Cup winner River Keen (Ire) (Keen {GB}) has returned to training and should make the Breeders' Cup Classic, trainer Bob Baffert reports. The seven-year-old has been suffering from a quarter crack in his right hind foot, which became infected, but Baffert said the condition has improved and the former claimer is back on target. "He's looking great and is back training," Baffert said. "He'll work Tuesday. He's got the green light for the Breeders' Cup." Because of the quarter crack, River Keen stayed behind in New York following the Jockey Club Gold Cup while the rest of Baffert's Breeders' Cup starters shipped to Gulfstream. River Keen is scheduled to fly to South Florida Nov. 2

MORE OPEN RACING IN JAPAN The Japan Racing Association has said it will open up more races to overseas horses by the end of 2004, including the Japanese Derby and the Emperor's Cup. There are currently 12 races open to overseas horses. The Emperor's Cup will be opened next year, followed by the Japanese Derby and the Kikka Sho in 2001, the Satsuki Sho in 2002, the Oaks in 2003 and the Oka Sho (Japanese 1000 Guineas) in 2004.

BIANCONE WITHDRAWS LICENSE REQUEST

Trainer Patrick Biancone, who has been banned in Hong Kong after several horses tested positive for a prohibited substance, has withdrawn his application for a license in New York, according to published reports.

Gander galloped to a 5 1/4-length victory over New York breds in the Sept. 2 Albany H. at Saratoga, but was sent off at 38-1 in his next start, the Sept. 18 GI Woodward S. at Belmont. The gray finished a respectable fifth in the race and came back to be second in the Paterson S. at the Meadowlands Oct. 2. Facing restricted company as the choice this time, he was out-run down the backstretch, found room up the rail on the turn, made his way to the outside as they came into the stretch and ran down Phil the Grip to take the photo. "He should have won his last race," trainer Charles Assimakopoulos insisted. "He got squeezed back at the start and was only beaten a length. But he proved he could run with open company." As for what's next, the trainer said, "I would really like to rest the horse, because he has been running hard."

Office Miss hadn't been close in her four previous starts this year and, in fact, hadn't won since taking an allowance at Belmont June 25, 1998. The gray was sixth, beaten five lengths by Terreavigne, last time out in a Belmont allowance on a firm course Sept. 25, but turned the tables over soft turf this time. Getting Lasix for the second time, she broke slowly and sat at the back of the pack through six furlongs in 1:16 3/5, but had an answer when jockey Joe Bravo asked the question as they raced down the stretch, weaving her way through traffic to get up in the final jump. "When I asked her to run, she just exploded," Bravo said.

Margins: NO, 1 1/4, 3/4. Odds: 11.80, 3.55, 3.50.
 Top C Jim teamed up with jockey Mike Luzzi to win a Saratoga turf allowance over fellow state bred two starts back Aug. 29, but finished fourth in the Oct. 2 Ashley T. Cole H. with Joe Bravo in the irons last time out. Joined by Luzzi once again, the bay settled off the early pace, moved up while inside on the far turn, switched to the far outside for the stretch run and battled Adcat down the lane before taking the victory by the bob of a head. "Adcat got a head in front of us, but my horse was determined to beat him," Luzzi said.

Pooska Hill underlined his consistency with a game effort here. After finishing third in a Belmont allowance Sept. 22, the four-year-old rallied to defeat Gil Wood Memorial winner Adonis by a head in an allowance Oct. 9. The bay gelding attended the pace while inside, split rivals in midstretch and drove past pacesetter Sharcan in the final strides for his first stakes win. "He really seems to like Belmont Park," said trainer Michael Daggett. "He runs his heart out every time." This is the first Hudson victory for Daggett, but the win will be credited to trainer Pat Myer. Myer had taken over horses for Daggett, who has been out for two weeks while undergoing hip replacement surgery, and he is the trainer of record for this race. "I just made sure not to undo anything that Mike had done," said Myer.

 Fourth in the Maid of the Mist S. on New York Showcase Day, 1998, Jena Jena headed to the West Coast to begin her three-year-old season, but was winless in three California starts while managing a second-place finish in a Hollywood turf allowance in April. The bay romped with a return to New York, however, taking a New York-bred allowance on the Belmont main track by nine lengths Sept. 23, and was the crowd's choice to make it two in a row. Hustled right to the front, she was joined by 105-1 outsider Winloc's Glorious from the inside, but turned back that challenge to avoid a spectacular upset. "The track wasn't playing in our favor today, so that was a big effort," winning jockey Jerry Bailey said. "Nobody could keep up with her--they would have had a hard time trying. She is extremely fast."

Maddie May debuted impressively Oct. 1, whistling home by 12 lengths over state bred at Belmont, but was sent off as the second choice to Dat You Miz Blue, who had finished second to Surfside in a Saratoga allowance before romping by 10 lengths in the Joseph A. Gimma S. Under wraps early, Maddie May pressed the favorite through three quarters, drew even in the stretch and pulled away easily. "It was a tall order making the class jump off of a maiden win," said winning trainer Todd Pletcher. "We'll survey our options. I think she might like added distance." Pletcher won the Maid of the Mist for the second straight year, saddling Electric Shock in 1998.

Entrepreneur was in over his head in the Sept. 19 GI Futurity, finishing sixth, but shortened up off that mile test to be second after setting the pace in the seven-furlong Bertram F. Bongard S. for state bred Oct. 3. The odds-on favorite facing only three rivals here, the bay, who was running without blinkers for the first time, was under wraps while sitting just off a half in :49 3/5, came with his challenge after six furlongs in a leisurely 1:14 and outfinished Storm the Gate for a narrow decision.

North Lake Jane stalked the pace and drew off for her first black-type victory. Sixth after dueling for the lead in her debut at Saratoga Aug. 9, the bay filly rebounded with a 4 1/2-length score over this surface Sept. 30. Favored here, she raced three wide, made her move in midstretch and pulled away from her rivals.

Miz United States made all the running to capture the My Dear Girl S. in stakes record time. Winner of her Aug. 8 debut at Calder, the bay filly was fourth in the Susan's Girl S. Sept. 4. Breaking from the two hole, she set her own pace, held a two-length lead at the stretch call and was all out to hold off the graded stakes winner Regally Appealing. "I thought she'd improve off her last race," said winning trainer Eddie Plesa, who also won last year with the ill-fated Three Ring. "I wouldn't rule out the Breeders' Cup, but if not, we'll point her for the Three Ring (Dec. 12, $100K, 8.5f). That would be emotional." Fast Dispersal broke down on the turn and was humanely euthanized. Jockey Abdiel Toribio was unhurt.

Kiss a Native, extremely impressive in two starts, continued his rise to the top of the Florida juvenile scene with this emphatic score and denied Snuck In a sweep of the Florida Stallion Series. After breaking his maiden by 20 lengths for a $32,000 tag Sept. 20, the bay colt trounced winners by 11 lengths Oct. 9 going seven panels at Calder. Stretching out to two turns for the first time here, the homebred prompted the pace along the rail, took command heading into the far turn and never looked back on his way to smashing Holy Bull's stakes record by nearly two seconds (1:46 1/5). "Having an extra week (after postponement) was a big break, although because of the hurricane I couldn't do much more in the way of training," said winning trainer Bill White. "I think we just saw something special. I would think the Mr. Franks and I will talk seriously about the Breeders' Cup." Winning jockey Cornelio Velasquez was also thrilled, saying, "He has such a long stride...He's one of the best two-year-olds in the country right now."

The winner of the Lulu's Ransom S. at Gulfstream Park in February, Crystal Symphony was then second in the Mar. 21 Patricia S. at Hialeah before heading to the sidelines for five months. She showed little in her return, running eighth in a Saratoga allowance contest Aug. 29. Back in the Sunshine State, the bay was not well backed, but belied her odds, producing a late kick after angling to the outside that carried her to a daylight victory. "After her last race at Hialeah, she came back a little dinky," trainer Joseph Calascibetta said. "We X-rayed and there was nothing serious, but she was a little tender and we decided to give her a little time off." The 6-5 favorite Bendecida (Silver Ghost) came with a rally while wide around the turn and nearly made the lead, but tired in the drive to be fourth. Nevertheless, her trainer, Michael Stidham, earned a bonus of $50,000 for compiling the most points in the "Trainers' Turf Challenge." Stidham ended the three-race series with 20 points. Arthur Silvera, who saddled Sangam here, was second in the Challenge with 15 points, netting a $30,000 bonus.

Speedster Daisies and Nites led gate to wire to take a Calder allowance over a sloppy strip Aug. 2, then came back over a similar surface and scored a front-running victory in the Aug. 14 Shocker T H. Switched to the turf for her latest, the chestnut once again cut out all the fractions on her way to a 4 1/4-length triumph in the Sept. 11 Noble Royalty H. The second choice to make it four in a row, she once again used the tactic which has served her so well, setting a moderate pace over the good turf, getting headed while bumping with Holy Capote inside the final furlong, but coming back gamely to prevail at the wire. There was a stewards' inquiry into the stretch run, but the original order of finish was allowed to stand. "The big difference for her since the spring, I think, is going two turns," trainer Jim McMullen said. "She has had a chance to relax more in her races than when she was sprinting. We'll keep her going as long as she keeps bouncing back so well after each start." The filly could go next in the Nov. 7 Gaily S. at Gulfstream Park.

Wicapi had already pocketed two Calder stakes this year, taking the May 31 Memorial Day H. and adding the July 4 Americana H. He was third, beaten only three-quarters of a length, in his most recent outing, an optional claimer over a sloppy Calder surface Sept. 20, but had been held winless in eight prior turf attempts. The longshot to put one in the winning column here, the veteran settled just off very slow fractions of :50 1/5, 1:17 2/5 and 1:42 3/5, snuck up along the hedge to take over in the stretch and was all out to get home by a half-length. "This horse is remarkable," trainer Joseph Calascibetta said. "He's seven-years-old now and has decided to become a turf horse. But as good as he's been doing, I think he'd run big on the parking lot." The gelding could come back in the Gil W.L. McKnight H. at Calder Dec. 18.

Shag dashed through her first three races without a loss, capping the streak with a 14-length allowance win at Delaware July 24, then shipped to Saratoga to finish second in an allowance Aug. 20. The chestnut made her stakes debut in her latest and was second again as the 13-10 chalk in the Sept. 6 Dowery S. at Philly Park. The favorite once more, she stalked the pace, took command on the turn and galloped away to remain undefeated on her home track.

Looking for his first trip to the winner's circle since taking the Fair Grounds Breeders' Cup H. back in February, Aboriginal Apex was dropping down to the allowance ranks for the first time this year. Trainer Henry Cecil has had a notably light campaign with regards to his juveniles this year, and so was hoping for a promising type to emerge in late-season. One such could be Corinium, who followed a debut third when running green in a Beverley maiden with a very easy victory on a soft surface at Warwick. Here, on the heavy ground she evidently revels in, being on the face of it a typical example of Turtle Island's progeny, she managed to snatch a race which had looked a lost cause until close to the finish. Almost last turning for home as the field moved over to the stands-side rail, Willie Ryan had to switch her to pursue the front-running Iftiraas and Aretha, who delivered what looked a decisive surge inside the last two furlongs. However, as that horse weakened in the ground inside the final furlong, Corinium was quickening all the time on her outside. Iftiraas rallied well, but was held by the shortest of margins in the end.

Margins: 3/4, HF, 3. Odds: 7-1, 5-1, 9-4.

Also ran: Trinculo (Ire), Lagoon (Ire), Kelso Magic (USA), Labrett (GB), Jarn (GB).

Halland Park Girl, a marvel of consistency all year, had scored a previous best in the Tattersalls Breeders S. at The Curragh Aug. 29 on good to yielding ground. She was unfavored in the market here, but showed a willingness and sound turn of foot to deny some more touted rivals. The field was taken along by Seven No Trumps throughout, and as Jarn (Green Desert {USA}) weakened at the two-furlong marker, it was left to Amethyst under Mick Kinane to challenge the front-runner. However, a stronger challenge was appearing out of the pack as Dane O'Neill went for the gap between the leaders. Halland Park Girl's finish was too strong for the game runner-up, who got the better of Aidan O'Brien's filly in the dying strides.

4.45 Doncaster, www.racingpost.co.uk Conditions S. (Cond.) (Class B), £16,425, 3yo/up, 7fT, 1:32.14, sf.
GRANNY'S PET (GB) (g, 5, Selkirk {USA}--Patsy Western {GB} by Precocious {GB}) had tried his luck before in Conditions class, but to no avail, although he had a good record in handicaps. On this ground, the 7-4 favorite was always traveling easily, and when he came to challenge Iftitah (USA) (Gone West {USA}), the leader had no answer. The winner drew away readily to score by a length. Lifetime Record: MSP-GB, 31-6-7-3, £85,202.

CALVER GOES OUT A WINNER; WALWYN DOESN'T
 Peter Calver ended his long training career with a winner when Perryston View (GB) won yesterday's Doncaster Writers Rated S. "My last runner was to have been Mantles Pride on Tuesday," Calver said, "but he's not sound, so this is it. But this is something special and it is great to go out with the old boy, in fact, we've named our new house Perryston." Peter Walwyn, on the other hand, ended his 38-year career more quietly, as Oare Pintail (GB) beat just two horses in the Levy Board Nursery at Newbury yesterday.

FREE BHB SEMINAR ON TAXATION
 The British Horseracing Board has produced a new and comprehensive bloodstock taxation guide on both direct tax and VAT issues for breeders, owners, trainers, jockeys and others involved in the British racing and breeding industries. To launch the guide, Ian Barlow, chairman of the BHB taxation group, will give a free seminar Tuesday, Nov. 16 at 3 p.m. at the Montcalm Hotel in London. He said, "It is the some 10 years since detailed guidance was last issued on direct taxation to taxpayers involved in racing and breeding. The taxation group believes that the new guide will provide a valuable reference source, not only for those involved in the sport, but also for their tax advisers."

Tycoon's Dolce doesn't win often, but she has been running against the likes of Diamond White, Russian Revival, Valentine Waltz and Juvenia. When she finds a bit softer field, she gives a good account of herself. She won the Listed Prix de Lieurey at Deaville two back, although her last was against one of those fields where she didn't quite belong, as she was 10th in the G2 Prix de l'Opera at 48-1. PROMISING TWO-YEAR-OLDS
AT NEWMARKET
by David Milnes

William Jarvis is finishing the present turf campaign with something of a flourish and is set to introduce something out of the ordinary at Newmarket's final meeting of the old millennium Oct. 30. Set to make a splash on her belated debut in the EBF Balaton Lodge Maiden Fillies S. is Papabile (USA) (f, Chief's Crown {USA})--La Papagena {GB}, by Habitat {USA}. Homebred by her owners, the Howard de Walden family, Papabile is certainly bred for the job, being a full-sister to ex-Jarvis trainee Grand Lodge (USA). The latter, now a successful second-season sire, won the G1 St. James's Palace S. at Royal Ascot in 1994 after finishing a gallant second in the G1 2000 Guineas at Newmarket.

Jeremy Nosedá has similar hopes for his gray juvenile Kalypso Katie (Ire) (f, Fairy King {USA})--Miss Toot {GB}, by Ardross {Ire}. Likely to start in the EBF W H Smith Maiden Fillies S. at Lingfield Monday, Kalypso Katie is a full-sister to Kool Kat Katie (Ire), winner of the GII E.P. Taylor S. at Woodbine. Owned by Edward St. George, Kalypso Katie was led out unsold after bidding halted at 270,000 guineas at the Tattersalls Houghton Sale last September.

Henry Cecil has some equally well-related sorts who may be given one run before being put away for the millennium. Possessing plenty of scope is Return (USA) (f, Sadler's Wells {USA})--Slightly Dangerous {USA}, by Roberto {USA}, who is from one of Prince Khalid Abdullah's most famous bloodlines. A half-sister to champions Commander-In-Chief (GB) (Dancing Brave {USA}) and Warning (GB) (Known Fact {USA}), Return is also a full-sister to G2 winner Dushyantor (USA). No less well-related is the same owner's All the Luck (USA) (f, Mr. Prospector {USA})--All At Sea {USA}, by Riverman {USA}, whose dam won the G1 Emirates Prix du Moulin de Longchamp.
