AMILYNX CLAIMS TOP BRANCH

Having served an apprenticeship in Listed races earlier this year, Amilyn (Fr) (Linamix {Fr})'s last two starts were a third in the G3 Prix de Lutece at Longchamp Sept. 9 and a win in the G2 Prix Hubert de Chaudenay at the same course Oct. 2. He turned it up another notch and won his first Group 1 race yesterday in the Prix Royal Oak at Longchamp. Northerntown (Manila) set the pace ahead of Amilyn and Tajoun (Fr) (General Holme). Amilyn struck the front with 1 1/2 furlongs to run, but was immediately tackled by Tajoun. The pair drew a comfortable distance away from the remainder and were inseparable entering the final furlong as Leggera (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) moved into third. Amilyn asserted his superiority inside the last half-furlong and stayed on in determined style for the win. Leggera was later disqualified from third as her rider, Richard Quinn, weighed in without the shammy leather he used to weigh out and was a pound below his allotted weight. Quinn was fined FF8,000 and suspended for eight days by the local stewards as a result of his indiscretion.

WOLF NIPS RIVAL IN MISS GRILLO

Wolf Alert (Wolf Power {SAf}), whose only previous victory was a 4 1/2-length tally over a sloppy Saratoga track in early August, nipped 3-1 second choice Windsong (Unbridled) by a nose at the wire to take yesterday's GIII Miss Grillo S. at Belmont Park. The grey filly had been winless in three turf starts, but ran a strong second against allowance company over this course Oct. 8. Sent off at 9-2, Wolf Alert was always in contention and began drawing off on the turn for home. She dug in gamely deep in the lane to hold off the late-closing Windsong. "When (Jerry Bailey) approached me to ride her, I was ecstatic," said winning trainer Gary Contessa. "When Bailey calls you up and asks to ride your horse, you know he's already handicapped the race and thinks you have the best horse. Last time out, she had a difficult post and might have been able to turn the tables on Danzig's Edge with any kind of ground-saving trip. This time, she got the post, the trip, and everything was in her favor." Contessa added that Wolf Alert will likely get the rest of the year off.

Kachemak Bay travelled to the allowance ranks to earn his first win over a yielding Meadowlands turf course last time out Oct. 8. Dismissed at 29-1 in his jump to graded stakes company, the dark bay colt was rated off the pacesetters, angled out for the stretch drive and got up late to overtake heavily favored King Cugat for the score. "I was in a bit tight at the half-mile pole and I wasn't sure if I was going to get there because they were going so slow up front," said winning rider John Velazquez. "When we got to the eighth pole, I knew I was going to win it."

A winner of three of his four previous starts, Manzor won the Listed Criterium de Vitesse at Maisons-Laffitte Oct. 1 in his most recent outing and the juvenile recorded his first group win at the expense of some notable and more experienced rivals. He was held up in the rear, as Repertory blazed a trail ahead of Terroir (Fairy King), Areion (Big Shuffle) and Sakha (Wolfhound), who raced line abreast. Manzor made progress on the outside at halfway and hit the front approaching the furlong marker as Nuclear Debate challenged on the inside. The pair went on, but Manzor had the extra reserves to pull out a little extra close to home. Winning trainer Xavier Nakkachdji said, "Manzor had not been well after his run in May and he showed a lot of quality when he won three weeks ago as he was not fully fit. He quickened well that day to win very safely and had come on a lot for that run. There was no other option to run him again this year except against these older horses and the result proves that a juvenile can beat them. I think he will stay six furlongs next year, but certainly not much further, and we will aim him at all the top sprinting races."

Having finished seventh to Tiger Hill (Ire) in the G2 Gerling Preis at Cologne May 9 in his first start this season, Laveron won his next race when taking a minor conditions event at Düsseldorf Sept. 4. He returned to the scene of his latest win and reveled in the conditions, leading from pillar to post to record an easy win. Montalban kept on well and emerged from the pack to be a clear second as Vishnu stayed on from the rear to be a remote third. The French-trained challenger Ben Ewar (Old Vic {GB}) was pulled up lame at halfway.

Cent Home made it two wins from two starts in Group 1 company by taking New Zealand's second Group 1 race of the season. The gelding took the G1 Kelt Capital S. win three weeks ago and may start next in Melbourne's G1 MacKinnon S. Oct. 30. Hero had the pace very honest throughout and shot away at the top of the long Trentham straight, with Cent Home well back of the leader. Jockey Lance O'Sullivan rode patiently and gave Cent Home a clear run down the outside and he showed a ton of talent to wear down the leader in a sustained finishing run of about 500 meters. Wallace wasn't pleased about how far back the horse had got in the running, but was thrilled with his response in the run home. "We learned about his class last time," said Wallace. "And today we learned about his heart." Wallace and his father (who owns the horse) have turned down five recent overseas offers of more than NZ$1 million for the gelding. Their long-term mission is the International Classic in Singapore next March.

Cox Plate Wrap-Up:

Fresh off her win in Saturday's G1 Cox Plate, Sunline (NZ) (Desert Sun {GB}) is likely to tackle the G1 MacKinnon S. Saturday at Flemington over 2000 meters before a tilt at the Hong Kong International Cup at Sha Tin Dec. 12. "We'll just have to see how she does and play it by ear," said trainer Trevor McKee of the four-year-old who is now the richest Australasian stakes-winning mare, and the fourth Australasian mare to exceed Aus$3 million in stakes money.

Three-year-olds Testa Rossa (Aus) (Perugino) and Redoute's Choice (Aus) (Danehill) won't back up in Saturday's Aus$1 million Victoria Derby after finishing fourth and fifth, respectively, in the Cox Plate. Trainer Dean Lawson said Testa Rossa will only have a short spell before returning to prepare for an autumn campaign that will encompass the Aus$1 million G1 Doncaster H. and the Aus$1 million G1 Stradbroke H. Rick Hore-Lacy reported Redoute's Choice suffered a superficial wound on his near hind pastern during the race. Hore-Lacy intends to bring the colt back for the G1 Australia S. and the G1 Futurity.

FASIG-TIPTON FALL YEARLING SALE STARTS TODAY

Last year, Four on the Floor (Academy Award) brought $2,700 at the Fasig-Tipton Kentucky Fall Yearling Sale. This year, the colt has gone undefeated in three starts, taking the GI Summer S. and adding the GI Grey Breeders' Cup S. via a stewards' disqualification, for earnings of $191,160. The 1999 Fall Yearling Sale gets underway this morning at Newtown Paddocks in Lexington, selling the first of 651 catalogued yearlings. Top sires represented in the offering include Cherokee Run, Danzig, Kingmambo, Miswaki, Mt. Livermore, Phone Trick, Pine Bluff, Red Ransom, Silver Deputy, Storm Cat and Woodman. The lone Danzig, hip no. 443, is a colt out of GISW Buy the Firm (Affirmed), who is a half to GSW Storm Broker (Storm Cat) and a three-quarter brother to SW Royal Arrow (Dayjur). Storm Cat is represented by hip no. 299, a filly out of MSW Testy Trestle (Private Account). Bidding begins at 10 a.m. The two-day sale continues tomorrow.

HANDLE UP AT BELMONT FALL MEETING

During Belmont Park's Fall Meet, which concluded Sunday, the total handle average rose 14.6 percent from last year's figures. In 1998, the average for the 33-day meet was $9,032,103. In 1999, the 32-day average was $10,350,416. The average on-track handle declined 3.3 percent, from $1,842,434 to $1,780,697. The average on-track attendance was also down. The 1998 figure was 7,428 and the 1999 figure was 6,694--a decrease of 9.8 percent. "We're very pleased with the total handle," said New York Racing Association President and COO Terry Meyocks. "Meanwhile, we would have hoped for a better meet on track, so naturally we're disappointed. But with the weather not on our side, it took its toll. Also, when you add in all the competition for the attention of the New York sports fans this fall, it makes it even more understandable." Racing at Aqueduct begins Wednesday with a first post of 12:30 p.m.

John's Call was favored here after being disqualified from a narrow first-place finish in the Sept. 6 Sussex H. at Delaware Park. The eight-year-old veteran saved ground early, inched into contention around the final turn and swept to the lead a furlong out en route to a convincing victory. "He is the most honest hoose I have ever ridden and he is so game. Even when we were galloping out, he was competitive and tried to kick the other horses," said winning rider Steve Hamilton. Grapeshot, a narrow winner of the GIII Laurel Dash just last Sunday, took a short lead at midstretch, but could not hold on.

Always close to the pace, the Irish-bred chestnut angled to the rail at the top of the stretch, took the lead with three-sixteenths of a mile remaining and gradually pulled away. "We were in a comfortable position, right behind the leaders the whole way around there," explained winning rider Pat Day. "We had to move out to go around Thesaurus (With Approval) (5th) at the top of the stretch, but we were able to get back to the inside. At the quarter pole, I called on him and he really responded. It was a great effort for him, that's for sure."

Gall Wins Training Debut:

David Gall, who retired in September as the fourth leading rider of all time, began his training career the same way he ended his riding career last month--with a win. The 57-year-old Canadian scored in his training debut with Ms. I.D. in the third race Sunday at Hawthorne Race Course. Gall missed the race, but jockey Mark Guidry got the job done for his old mentor. "He wasn't here today, so I said to myself, 'Just ride him the way David would have ridden him.' I gave him a typical David ride. I stayed right on the rail. I'm glad I won it for him."

The New York Racing Association has banned the use of equine nasal strips in races, but the strips will be allowed during training hours. "We need to find out more about their effect before we can allow them to be used," said NYRA President and COO Terry Meyocks. "There are a lot of questions that need to be answered before we can allow them in a pari-mutuel race." The New York stewards will investigate the strips effects.

★ BRITAIN ★

TIMES CLAIMS RACING LAUNDERING DRUG MONEY

Britain's leading broadsheet Sunday paper, the Sunday Times, yesterday had a lead story which claimed racing "has been infiltrated by organized crime gangs seeking to launder millions of pounds of drug money," and that "as many as one in 10 jockeys is believed to have been corrupted by gangsters" with bribes of "prostitutes and drugs." The crime syndicates then place large wagers of "dirty" money with bookmakers with "the knowledge that they are likely to win, the winnings paid out in 'clean' cash." Jockey Club spokesman John Maxse said yesterday the alleged scale of the problem was overplayed, but added, "It covers some of the concerns we have already expressed publicly. We said...that the Jockey Club is concerned that some criminals are trying to influence the outcome of races. We are also aware of the amount of illegal betting on- and off-course, which may be used to launder money. The Jockey Club's power is quite limited, only those people who are licensed by us come under our jurisdiction, and we can only pass things on to the police. It is a shame for racing as people may read the piece and believe the generalizations that racing is corrupt, which it isn't. But it highlights that racing is vulnerable, like any betting medium, and maybe we need better protection from the law."

AGA KHAN TO CUT BACK STRING WITH CUMANI

The Aga Khan indicated yesterday that he will sharply reduce the number of horses he has with Newmarket trainer Luca Cumani. This follows the £1,500 fine on Cumani and the disqualification of the Aga Khan-owned Zalal (Ire) after the discovery of prohibited substances when winning at Goodwood in June. Zalal was the second horse owned by the Aga Khan and trained by Cumani in a year to test positive. The owner-breeder said yesterday, "On two occasions, the Jockey Club has drawn attention to his [Cumani's] medical records. It's up to him to look at the situation. In the meantime, I'll have three three-year-olds in training with him next year, Daliapour (Ire) included." He had 22 horses listed in training with Cumani at the start of the year.

RAIN FORCES LINGFIELD TO CHANGE RUNNING ORDER

Heavy rain has caused Lingfield to change its running order for today. The three turf races, which are under threat of waterlogging, have been put after three all-weather races. Clerk of the course Fergus Cameron said yesterday, "We have had an inch of rain in the last 24 hours, but the forecast is for dry weather."

+ HIDALGUIA (IRE) (f, 2, Barathea {Ire}--Halesia {USA} {MGSW-Fr, $161,361}, by Chief's Crown {USA}) broke best of all, but was settled in last as Regal Star (GB) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) set a moderate pace. He was pushed along entering the straight to go second at the quarter-mile marker and eased into the lead approaching the final furlong. He kept on in good style to record an easy 1 1/2-length debut success. Lifetime Record: 1 start, 1 win, FF90,000.

2.10 Longchamp, Prix des Feuillants (Class B) (Cond.), FF180,000, 2yo, c/g, 1 1/8mT, 2:03.80, vsf.
HIGHTORI (FR) (c, 2, Vettori {Ire}--High Mecene {Fr}, by Highest Honor {Fr}) raced in second as Entisar (GB) (Nashwan {USA}) led, but was shuffled back to third as Time for Fame (USA) (Quest For Fame {GB}) went second entering the straight. He was ridden to challenge against the rail approaching the final quarter mile, led nearing the furlong pole and stayed on well for a comfortable two-length win. Lifetime Record: 4 starts, 2 wins, 1 place, FF197,000.
