SWEET FINAL WORK FOR LEMON DROP

The pattern is an eerie one. Third in the GII Peter Pan S. over a sloppy Belmont main track, Lemon Drop Kid (Kingmambo) returned in his next start to take the GI Belmont S. Given time off, the "Kid" was second to Ecton

Park (Forty Niner) in Saratoga's GII Jim Dandy S., also on a wet strip and he came back three weeks later to win the GI Travers. Rested for the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup, the bay caught yet another off track in a fifth-place finish behind River Keen (Ire) (Keen {GB}). Lemon Drop Kid had his final pre-Classical drill yesterday, over, you guessed it, a sloppy Gulfstream main track, getting five furlongs in 1:00 1/5 around the dogs. "I wasn't keen on working him in the slop," said trainer Scotty Schulhofer, who expressed confidence in his colt. "I think he's as good as anybody and I think he fits right at the top," he said.

STEVENS ARRIVES FOR CUP

After catching a red-eye from Los Angeles, jockey Gary Stevens had only a couple of hours of sleep Saturday night, but was up early to guide Juvenile contender Anees (Unbridled) through a six-furlong drill in 1:13 1/5 over the sloppy going at Gulfstream Park Sunday. "I was really impressed with his work," Stevens said. "He went nice and straight all the way around and he galloped out good." The California jockey's other rides Saturday are Vision and Verse (Storm Cat), Classic; Royal Anthem (Theatrical {Ire}), Turf; Docksider (Diesis {GB}), Mile; Spain (Thunder Gulch), Juvenile Fillies; and Pleasant Temper (Storm Cat), Filly/Mare Turf.

KIMMEL PAIR WORKS IN COMPANY

GII Kentucky Cup Sprint winner Successful Appeal (Valid Appeal) and GI Champagne runner-up Chief Seattle (Seattle Slew) worked five furlongs in company yesterday in 1:01, though the work was somewhat eventful for one of the John Kimmel trainees. "I didn't see it, but I'm told that (Successful Appeal) tried to jump the dogs at both the five-eighths pole and three-eighths pole," said Kimmel.

FAVORITE FAILS IN FINAL FRENCH GROUP 1

The Criterium de Saint-Cloud was the last French Group 1 race of the season, but trainer Aidan O'Brien's bid to take all bar one of France's top juvenile events came unstuck on the rain-sodden Saint-Cloud turf. O'Brien's 2-5 favorite Royal Kingdom (Fairy King) could do no better than fifth as Goldamix (Ire) (Linamix {Fr}) led home a French 1-2-3-4, giving trainer Carlos Laffon-Parias his second consecutive win in the event, following Spadoun (Fr) last year. The winner, the lone filly in the race, remained unbeaten, having taken a conditions event at Maisons-Laffitte Oct. 1 on her only other race-course appearance. She raced keenly in the early stages alongside Crystal D'Ass (Fr) (Northern Crystal {GB}), but was given her head to stride into the outright lead after a quarter mile and brought the field up the center of the track turning for home as her opponents fanned out behind her waiting to make their bids. Goldamix was ridden into a two-length lead at the quarter-mile marker as her rivals came under pressure as one. Petroselli (Ire) (Grand Lodge), trained by Laffon-Parias' mother-in-law, Criquelette Head, closed slightly inside the last half-furlong, but Goldamix kept on resolutely despite showing signs of inexperience to record a deserved win, with Dominique Boeuf punching the air as he passed the finish. Laffon-Parias said, "She is a talented filly who was taking a big step up in class for only her second start. She had worked so brilliantly on Tuesday that I was quite confident going into the race even if I thought that Royal Kingdom would be hard to beat. My main concern was that, as a daughter of Linamix, she might have run her race in her work and not repeat. She proved brave and courageous and it is quite hard to make all like she did. She will return next year with high hopes that she will make it in the Classic races." Boeuf was celebrating his fifth winner of the race. Petroselli lost no caste in defeat as the pair finished well clear of third-placed Cosmographe (Fr) (Lomitas {GB}). (Criterion chart, p2)

America's hope for the Cup, Amerique (St. Jovite), was withdrawn Friday after Joan Wakefield, who arrived last weekend to supervise for trainer Michael Dickinson, said the six-year-old was tying up after he worked. The withdrawal of Amerique leaves Yavana's Pace, Travelmate and Godolphin's Central Park as the remaining international visitors. Godolphin's trainer Saeed bin Suroor said, "This is a very important race for us--it is one of the top five races in the world. We learned from Faithful Son (seventh last year) to send the right sort of horse. Next year we will try a different system, a different horse and maybe we will send more than one horse for the Cup." All week, bookmakers were predicting Tie The Knot would start the shortest-priced Melbourne Cup favorite in modern history at around 2-1, but Sky Heights firmed to 7-2 after drawing barrier one. Tie The Knot was eased to 7-1 after a flop in Saturday's G1 Mackinnon S. The gelding has been cleared to run following a veterinary check after the Mackinnon S., but trainer Guy Walter stressed his horse wouldn't run unless he was "100 percent right." He plans to use blinkers for the first time.

Two-for-three with a pair of group wins in France last season, Public Purse had four European starts to his credit this year, winning the G2 Prix Jean de Chaudenay in May and ending the campaign with a third in the G2 Grand Prix de Deauville Aug. 29. Making his U.S. bow following a two-month break, the bay was bet down to 7-5 with the benefit of first-time Lasix. He pressed the pace cut out by 3-1 Yaqthan (Ire) (Kris {GB}) while saving ground, switched to the outside as they raced around the final bend, took over at the top of the lane and edged clear. "I've only had him here for about a week," trainer Bobby Frankel said. "This is a really nice horse. He's as good as any horse I've seen right now going a mile and a half. He'll probably go on to the Hollywood Turf Cup (GI, Dec. 4)." Added jockey Alex Solis, "We didn't really know what to expect, with him just coming off the plane. He was very relaxed down the backstretch--very, very professional. You're going to see a lot more of him around here."

Sixth in this race a year ago, Littlebitlively followed that performance with a narrow loss to Silver Charm in the GII Clark H. A pair of subpar efforts ensued before the Franks homebred got back on the beam, but the five-year-old now has been on the board in eight of his last nine starts. Runner-up behind Behrens in the Apr. 3 GI Oaklawn H., he picked up his second straight GIII Texas Mile win two weeks later and missed by a nose in the May 31 Lone Star Park H. A fourth-place finish in the GII Iselin H. at Monmouth July 4 led to a layoff, but the dark bay returned with a perfect prep for this when second in a Keeneland allowance Oct. 15. As the gates opened, the speed came from the outside as Run Johnny established a short lead and Littlebitlively kept within striking distance in the four path. As the field reached the top of the lane, Pat Day still had Run Johnny in front, but Littlebitlively began to advance while still four wide, collared the pacesetter inside the final sixteenth and proved just best to eclipse $1 million in career earnings. "I didn't think we were going to get (Run Johnny)," trainer Bobby Barnett said. "I thought we were going to run out of ground first. But (Calvin Borel) rode him superbly. He laid off the pace and maybe we learned something today." The dark bay goes next in the Nov. 26 GII Clark H. at Churchill. Tactical Cat, making his second start off a lengthy layoff, closed well from midpack to get the show.

Antoniette stepped onto the turf for the first time for a Keeneland allowance test in April and romped home by 7 1/2 lengths. She tired to be ninth in the May 1 GIII Ashland Mile next time out, but had won three of her four starts since, taking the Aug. 14 Valnor Breeders' Cup H. at Hawthorne and the Sept. 25 River Cities Breeders' Cup S. at Louisiana Downs in her last two appearances. The crowd's choice to make it three in a row, the bay stalked the pace from the inside, angled to the outside to launch her bid in the stretch, caught up with pacesetter Dominique's Joy at the eighth pole and drew clear. "This was one of her best races so far," trainer Joseph Schlich said. "She may start once more (this year), or we may just give her the winter off."

Back on her home track and trying turf for only the second time, the bay tracked the leaders through the opening mile, raced into the stretch head-and-head with the even-money favorite, Canadian champ Kirby's Song (Sultry Song), and 29-1 Katherine of Ascot (Ascot Knight), put those two away and held on over the late-closing Native Brass. The filly will now get a well-deserved vacation. "She hasn't run a lot, but she has run hard over the season," trainer Mark Frostad said. "She has four wins--she's done plenty for us."

He finished second in the G3 Grosser Sprint Preis at Munich Oct. 19 on his latest start, and that proved to be an ideal grounding for him to take this race for the second straight year. He was to the fore as usual and was allowed to hold a clear lead at halfway. He stayed on strongly and was never in danger.

OTHER CUP WORKOUTS...

Possible Classic favorite Behrens (Pleasant Colony) put in six furlongs at Payson Park in 1:15 1/5, much to the delight of trainer Jim Bond. "I though it was a really good work," he said. "I wouldn't trade places with anybody." Behrens will remain at Payson until Saturday morning. Sprint contender Big Jag (Kleven) clocked five furlongs in 1:02. "I didn't really want to work him on a track like that, but they say it is going to rain again tonight and I would have the same problem tomorrow," commented trainer Tim Pinfield. Juvenile hopeful Graeme Hall (Dehere) worked five furlongs in 1:00 3/5 for trainer Todd Pletcher; Finder's Fee (Storm Cat) went an easy five furlongs in 1:05 prepping for the Juvenile Fillies; GII Walmac Int'l Alcibiades winner Scratch Pad (Notebook) stopped the clock in 1:00 3/5, also prepping for the Juvenile Fillies; and at Churchill Downs, Nelson Bunker Hunt's Charlie's Beau (Beau Genius) covered seven furlongs in 1:28 in advance of the Juvenile.

PESLIER HAS BUSY BREEDERS' CUP BOOK
 Jockey Olivier Peslier has four rides booked for the Breeders' Cup at Gulfstream Park, Florida, Saturday, according to agent Shippy Ellis. "He will be riding Louve (USA) (Irish River {Fr}) in the Filly & Mare Turf and she looks to have a good chance," said Ellis. "He has also been booked for Louve Mystérieuse (USA) (Seeking the Gold {USA}) in the nine-furlong Distaff and First Magnitude (Ire) (Arazi {USA}) in the 1 1/2-mile Turf. Then he will be on one of Aidan O'Brien's runners in the Juvenile race." Louve, Louve Mystérieuse and First Magnitude are trained by Andre Fabre and owned by Daniel Wildenstein. Peslier has had six previous Breeders' Cup rides and is still seeking his first success. He will be riding in Japan again this winter.

BLUE SQUARE TO OFFER REDUCED-TAX WAGERING

British-based online bookmaker Blue Square will be offering all bets with a reduced deduction rate of 2.5 percent from today. Blue Square is an off-shoot of spread betting firm City Index, and its move comes at a time when off-shore bookmakers are offering deductions of three percent, compared to the general nine percent seen in Britain.

KAYF TARA'S CAREER MAY BE DONE

Kayf Tara (GB) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) may have run his last race and could be retired on his return to Dubai, according to trainer Saeed bin Suroor. The five-year-old suffered a suspensory ligament injury last week during his preparation for the Melbourne Cup. "It is really disappointing what happened to him," said Suroor. "We think he was the right horse to win the Melbourne Cup and we had planned for him to win. But now we'll take him back to Dubai and give him some rest and we might think about retiring him."

JULY COURSE TO GET A MUCH-NEEDED REST

The July Course, used all this year for racing at Newmarket because of the building of the Millennium Grandstand on the Rowley Mile course, will be given as long a rest as possible to recover. Newmarket chairman Peter Player explained, "The Sunday meeting next year on the July course is on June 11, but I think we may make a decision at a meeting on Wednesday to switch it to the other course. So we won't be back until the end of June and that will give the course that little bit more time to recover."

SANDERS TO RIDE IN JAPAN

Seb Sanders will be riding in Japan from the end of December for two months. "I went out there last winter and had a great time, riding nine winners," he said. "To go and ride in Japan, you have to be sponsored by an owner and a trainer and they only allow five professionals from abroad. Michael Roberts and Johnny Murtagh are already out there and Olivier Peslier will be going too, it should be a good experience again."

PUBLIC PURSE (USA) (h, 5, Private Account {USA})--Prodigious {Fr}, by Pharly {Fr} won the G2 Prix de Chaudenay, G2 Prix Maurice de Nieuil and G3 La Coupe for Andre Fabre, but was a disappointment as the 9-5 favorite in his last start, the G2 Grand Prix de Dauville Aug. 20. Nonetheless, he went off as the 7-5 favorite and did not disappoint. Kept on the rail in third by Alex Solis, Public Purse was taken three wide on the turn and drove past the pacesetters to a 1 1/2-length victory. O/B-Juddmonte Farms Inc (KY); T-Bobby Frankel.

ACHILLES (GB) (g, 4, Deploy {GB})--Vatersay (USA), by Far North {Can} finished in the money in six of his last seven starts for Karl Burke, with two wins, all in handicaps. He broke slowly here and saved ground under David Flores, running seventh in the eight-horse field. Flores took him out in the stretch and he closed willingly, but too late, finishing third, beaten by three lengths, at 4.40-1.
