NORTHERN DANCER MARE HEADS KEENELAND DAY 7

Northern Aspen (Northern Dancer), a Grade I-winning half-sister to eight stakes winners, including 1994 Two-Year-Old Champion Timber Country (Woodman), topped Saturday's session of the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale, selling for $325,000. The 17-year-old was consigned by Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency as agent for Brookside Farms and was bought by Aisling Cross, as agent. Youth was served as four-year-old Green Chartreuse (Green Dancer), a half-sister to millionaire GISW Victory Speech (Deputy Minister), went for $285,000 to Gainesway as agent. The top weanling, who brought $285,000 from Cam Allard, is by Dixieland Band out of Honey Bee Gold (Drone), whose second dam, Gold Sun (Arg) (Solazo), is also the second dam of two-time Horse of the Year Cigar (Palace Music). The record-breaking sale, which has grossed more than $284 million so far, still has six days to run. (Statistics P. 3)

LET GOES...SCORES FIRST GRADED WIN

Let (A.P. Indy) added considerably to her residual value in capturing her first graded stakes score. The dark bay, second in the GI Ashland as a sophomore, started the year off indifferently, finishing unplaced in her first four outings. She turned things around with a sharp tally in Monmouth's Inside Information S. in July and, after being headed by Roza Robata in a Saratoga allowance Aug. 9, returned to the Jersey Shore for a game victory in the Personal Ensign S. Aug. 28. Shipped to Kentucky, Let rallied to be second in the Gill Turfway Breeders' Cup before running a lackluster ninth in the GI Spinster S. at Keeneland Oct. 19. Unhurried early, she settled at the back of the pack and moved into contention approaching the half. Making a sweeping five-wide move on the turn, Let caught pacesetter Ruby Surprise (Farma Way) after three-quarters in 1:09 3/5 and quickly opened up on the field. Jockey Calvin Borel took a peek behind at the sixteenth pole and geared the four-year-old down in the final strides. "I worked this filly about four days ago and she went in 46 and change," said Borel. "It was just unbelievable." Assistant trainer Jack Bohannon added, "We've looked at her poor race in the Spinster and we still don't know what happened to her."

A Group 3 winner in England and third in last year's G1 English Oaks, Midnight Line had cashed a check in each of her six U.S. starts to date. She was third in the GII Santa Barbara H. and GIII Yerba Buena H., second in the GI Gamely Breeders' Cup H. and fourth in the July 3 GI Beverly Hills H. before getting a rest. She returned with a third in the GIII Canadian H. at Woodbine Sept. 19, and was third again in the GI E.P. Taylor S., beaten 3 1/2 lengths. With the scratch of likely pacesetter Free Vacation (Fly So Free), jockey Jerry Bailey decided to put the newly blinkered Midnight Line on the lead and nursed the field through very pedestrian fractions, including six furlongs in 1:16 3/5 and the mile in 1:42. As the field turned for home, Midnight Line repulsed a challenge to her lead from Black Mystery (Miswaki), shook loose to lead by 1 1/2 lengths at the eighth pole, then held on for an easier victory than the margin indicated. "She's got a long and steady stride and I wanted to keep it smooth," said Bailey. "Once we turned for home, she responded and no one could really close."

Having broken his maiden at the second attempt at Longchamp Aug. 31, Hightori was fifth in the G3 Prix de Conde at Longchamp Oct. 2. He returned to winning ways in a conditions race at Longchamp Oct. 24. He was restrained in midfield as Loyal Tartare (Astair {Fr}) led. Crystal D'Ass assumed the mantle of leader at the quarter-mile marker, but was soon tackled by Hightori, who grabbed the lead approaching the final furlong. Hightori was ridden clear inside the final half-furlong to record a comfortable victory with Crystal D'Ass staying on to be a safe second.

Making his first start since a third over the Saratoga lawn Aug. 30, 1998, the 7-2 shot could not have been more impressive, setting the pace and drawing off to a nine-length victory. He is a 1/2 to Solar Splendor (Majestic Light), MGISW, $1,386,468; Sultry Song (Cox's Ridge), MGISW, $1,616,278. Also Ran: Shabab, Fight for Silver, Hurricane Carter, No Curfew, Remember Sheikh, Fleet Victor.

A nose loss to Shabab (Supremo) in the San Mateo S. Oct. 3 at Bay Meadows is all that stood in the way of Globalize and a perfect record. He took his revenge on that foe here with a game performance. He stalked the early pace, absorbed a solid bump on the turn and battled head and head with New Advantage, holding him off at the wire. Jockey Ron Warren Jr. didn't think it was much of a battle. "He was playing with that other horse," he said. "He only won by a head because that's as far as he wanted to win by." Globalize may next appear for the Golden Gate Derby, Jan. 15 at Golden Gate Fields.

COCHRANE CLEARED

Jockey Ray Cochrane was cleared Friday night of any wrongdoing over the riding of Keld earlier this year, following an all-day hearing. "I'm just relieved it's all over," he said. "There's been a lot of stress and this whole thing has dragged on far too long." He was charged with failing to give Keld every chance of winning or obtaining the best possible placing in the May 7 Durtnell Claiming S. at Lingfield, and that he acted in a manner prejudicial to the integrity of racing.

TOTE SUPERBET DOES SUPER BUSINESS

The Tote's Scoop6 bet achieved a record pool of £456,580 yesterday, comfortably eclipsing the previous best of £266,116 achieved in September. The Tote's PR Director Rob Hartnett said, "The close finish to the last race saw 138 tickets go down on Flagship Therese, leaving 10 winners on Tilty, one of them on-course and nine off-course. Each of them wins £38,206.40 and has a shot next week at a bonus pool of £388,556."

4th-Aqueduct, $44,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 1mT
NORTHERN SPRING (IRE) (c, 3, Common Grounds {GB}--North Telstar {Ire}, by Sallust {GB}) has speed, something usually lacking in European imports, however, this race has plenty of frontrunners. His lone victory and two of his four seconds have come over yielding courses, a surface he is unlikely to find here. He moves from the barn of Michael Heaton-Ellis to Mark Hennig and gets Lasix for the first time. Lifetime Record: 9-1-4-0, $15,471.

O-Willmott Stables; B-Clinton Investments; T-Mark Henning; J-John Velazquez.

How They Fared:

8th-Aqueduct, $150,000, Long Island H.-GII, 10-13, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/2mT, 2:29.67, fm.

HORATIA (IRE) (f, 3, Machiavellian {USA}--Ahead {GB}, by Shirley Heights {GB}) had never been worse than third in five career starts, but had only a maiden win at Bath to show for it. She broke slowly for John Velazquez, was rushed up on the outside early to run just off the leaders and closed gamely. She couldn't catch winner Midnight Line (USA) (Kris S. {USA}) or hold off Win for Us (Ger), running third at 7.70-1. O/B-Gerald Leigh; T-Luca Cumani; J-John Velazquez.

8th-Aqueduct, $150,000, Long Island H.-GII, 10-13, 3yo/up, f/m, 1 1/2mT, 2:29.67, fm.

WIN FOR US (GER) (f, 3, Surumu {Ger}--Wild Romance {Ger}, by Alkade {Ger}) has only won twice in 13 tries, but she was up against some solid competition. She won the G2 Deutches St Leger Oct. 3 at Dortmund, but followed that with a sixth (fifth on a DQ) in the G1 Prix Royal-Oak at Longchamp Oct. 24. She went off at 10.60-1 and showed some speed early for Mike Smith, sitting third down along the rail. She slipped back to fourth then rallied down the inside, falling a half-length short in a good effort.

O-Gary Tanaka; B-Gestut Rottgen; T-Peter Schiergen; J-Mike Smith.
