KEENELAND NOVEMBER BEATS THE STREET

The 1999 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale, which ended Friday in Lexington, enters the history books with the highest aggregate ever for a Thoroughbred auction. Gross sales totaled $317,666,000, topping the previous record of $264,657,700 set at last year's November sale. A record total of 3,461 horses passed through the ring. Boosted by the dispersals of Padua Stables, the late Georgia Hofmann's Wycombe House Stud, Robert and Bea Roberts, the estate of the late Paul Mellon and Silverleaf Farms, the gross was up 20 percent from 1998, while the average rose 17 percent and the median increased 18.5 percent. Irish champion Dance Design (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), part of the Padua Stables consignment, topped the 13-day marathon. The mare, who had sold for a world-record 2,500,000 guineas at Tattersalls December two years ago and is in foal to A.P. Indy, attracted a bid of $4.7 million from Hugo Lascelles, agent for an undisclosed buyer. It was the fifth-highest price ever for a Keeneland November purchase. Overall, Padua sold 12 lots for $10,845,000, an average of $903,750. The Roberts' 185-horse consignment brought $12,225,000 for an average of $66,081; the Silverleaf Farms offering of 52 lots sold for $10,583,000, an average of $203,519; and the Mellon estate realized $4,884,000, averaging $444,000 for 11 lots. Wycombe House Stud's 22 horses brought $12,262,000, an average of $557,364. Friday's finale saw a weanling colt by Pioneering top the session. Consigned by Dixiana Farm, Inc. (Bruce Kline), agent, the chestnut was purchased for $37,000 by John D. Murphy, Sr. The top-selling broodmare yesterday was Cherub (Halo), in foal to Williamstown, who brought $35,000. A winning half sister to MGSW Darien Miss (Mr. Leader) and GSW Andover Man (Mr. Redoy), the nine-year-old was consigned by Dunford Farm, agent, and purchased by Gus Bell, agent.

"PERSIAN" RULES RED SMITH?

New York's final graded turf stakes of the season, the GII Red Smith H., has attracted an overflow field, including highweight Persian Ruler (GB) (Don Roberto), who carries 120 pounds. The four-year-old, a Group 3 winner in France and a Listed winner in Spain, comes off a seventh-place finish in the G2 Prix du Conseil de Paris at Longchamp Oct. 17. Christophe Clement saddles the colt for trainer Dominique Sepulchre. "He only arrived here on Sunday, so I have not had a lot of time to evaluate him," Clement said. "He seems to be a horse that is just a cut below the very best horses in Europe. But he is a good horse and very consistent. He will stay the distance and that is important." Veteran John's Call (Lord at War {Arg}) is sure to get the distance as well. The eight-year-old gelding has finished first in three in a row, losing out on the Sept. 6 Sussex H. via a stewards' disqualification, but picking up wins in the Oct. 24 Bald Eagle Breeders' Cup H. at a mile and a quarter and the Nov. 11 GIII Laurel Turf Cup at a mile and a half. He has tried out the Aqueduct turf only once before, breaking his maiden by a nose over the course just over five years ago.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

LONESOME GLORY RETIRED Four-time American steeplechase champion Lonesome Glory (Transworld) has been retired after injuring a tendon during training Wednesday. The 11-year-old gelding, who raced over hurdles for nine seasons and captured four Eclipse Awards, was getting ready to try for his fourth win in the GI Colonial Cup when he was injured. The chestnut's career highlights included earning the King's Novice Series Bonus for winning a race in America and one in England during his four-year-old season in 1992; and taking the last Breeders' Cup Steeplechase, held at Belmont Park in 1993, by his biggest winning margin in the U.S., eight lengths. In 1995 he returned to England and won a race at Sandown by 11 lengths. The champ retires with 19 wins--10 in Grade I 'chases--from 35 steeplechase starts and earnings of over $1.3 million.

Six Arrive for Japan Cup:

Three of the competitors headed for the Nov. 28 Japan Cup arrived in Tokyo Thursday. Indigenous (Ire) (Marju {Ire}) had the shortest trip, shipping in from Hong Kong. Fruits of Love (Hansel) and High Rise (Ire) (High Estate {Ire}) came in from England, Montjeu (Ire) (Sadler's Wells) and Borgia (Ger) (Acatenango {Ger}) arrived from France and Mash One (Chi) (Mashkour) flew in from the U.S. All were reported to have traveled well, and will be quarantined at the Japan Horseracing School before moving on to Tokyo Racecourse.

U.S. Reserves Make Hong Kong Fields:

Ladies Din (Din's Dancer) will join Buccaneer (Fr) (Hero's Honor) and Breeders' Cup Mile winner Silic (Fr) (Sillery) as the U.S. representatives in the G2 Hong Kong Mile, to be run Dec. 12 at Sha Tin. Following the withdrawal of Kona Gold, Lexicon (Conquistador Cielo) and Riviera (Fr) (Kris {GB}) will join Big Jag (Kleven) as America's hopes for the Listed Hong Kong Sprint, the world's richest five-furlong race. Big Jag was third behind Artax in the Breeders' Cup Sprint at Gulfstream Park Nov. 6.

DICKINSON LINKED TO BREEDERS' CUP

INTRIGUE Trainer Michael Dickinson has been connected to two private investigators who were ejected from the Gulfstream Park backstretch on Breeders' Cup Day. Gulfstream disclosed yesterday that two men had made their way onto the Gulfstream backstretch with guest passes that initially had been issued to Dickinson, who ran Supreme Sound (GB) in the Breeders' Cup Classic. Reportedly, the Thoroughbred Racing Protective Bureau, which conducted the investigation into the incident, has reason to believe the two private eyes were there to observe horses trained by other individuals, trying to catch them in the act of administering prohibited substances. Dickinson did not return phone calls yesterday, but told the TRPB he has "done nothing wrong." Gulfstream declined to identify the investigators or say which trainers they were targeting, but one of the men was first noticed at Payson Park on Breeders' Cup Day and appeared to be watching horses trained by Jim Bond. That person then followed Bond's van from Payson to Gulfstream and at one point, Bond said, tried to run it off the road. Another private eye was observed on the Gulfstream backstretch near horses trained by Bond, Elliott Walden and Jimmy Toner. Gulfstream has confirmed that one of the two individuals was carrying a gun. "Why did (Dickinson) do it? I'm puzzled," Bond said. "I'm totally shocked. There doesn't appear to be any rhyme or reason to what he did. I hope Michael Dickinson will tell me or someone else what was going through his mind." Walden also had a difficult time coming up with an explanation for Dickinson's alleged actions. "I don't know what to think about it," he said. "It's just an odd situation." The Walden and Bond stables both had unsuccessful Breeders' Cup Days, but neither trainer would blame the incident for their horses' poor showings.

HUSBANDS BREAKS WOODBINE MARK Jockey Patrick Husbands raced past the Woodbine single-season earnings mark yesterday afternoon, bringing this year's bankroll at the Canadian track to $5,123,693 after winning the second, third and seventh races on the card. The 26-year-old surpassed the record of $5,117,385, set by Todd Kabel in 1995, with seven days left in the 1999 season. A candidate for the Sovereign Award as the year's top rider, Husbands leads the Woodbine standings with 168 wins.

Miss Tobacco Coming to America:

Rudolf Eisemann's three-year-old filly Miss Tobacco (Forty Niner), winner of the G3 Ostermann-Pokal Aug. 1 at Cologne, has been sold to an undisclosed American owner. The $220,000 KEENOV weanling has won four of her 10 career starts, including two of her last three. She will head to New York next week, where she will be quarantined. It has not yet been decided whether she will remain in training or head to the breeding shed.

Margins: 3/4, NO, 3. Odds: 4.10, 2.65, 3.70.

Flamingo Way ruled the inner track at the Big A last winter, garnering four straight wins, including the Correction H. Feb. 6. She found graded company a bit tough, going winless in 10 subsequent starts, but managed a second in the GIII Gallant Bloom H. at Belmont Oct. 10 before running sixth in the GII First Flight H. here Nov. 6. Facing softer competition this time, the chestnut was in touch with the leaders early, moved wide approaching the lane and prevailed in a hard drive.

American Spirit underlined his versatility and consistency with this score. Winner of the Gill Baldwin S. over the Santa Anita turf in March, he notched his next victory in an optional claimer over the Hollywood main and made his subsequent six starts over six different surfaces. Second to Stellar Brush in the $250,000 West Virginia Derby over a sloppy track, he then finished third in the Gil Kentucky Cup Sprint before a narrow loss in the Seattle Slew S. over the Keeneland lawn Oct. 16. The public choice forced the pace, gained command at the quarter pole and kept himself clear to the wire.

STUD NEWS

ITALY: A group of four new stallions are due to stand in Italy for the forthcoming breeding season. Roi Danzig (USA) (Danzig {USA}), back from Germany, will stand at Allevamento Grifone, a new stud near Torino, at a fee of L12,000,000. Northern Flagship (USA) (Northern Dancer {Can}), purchased by Eugenio Colombo for $100,000 at Keeneland last week, is due to join Roi Danzig at Allevamento Grifone, but his fee has yet to be decided. Top Northern Italian stud Allevamento Besnate will stand Elmaamul (USA) (Diesis {GB}), who continues to get good results with his imported progeny at a fee of L8,500,000. Meanwhile, Siena-based Allevamento Renaccino has leased Treasure Kay (GB) (Mummy's Pet {GB}), sire of Irish juvenile champion and Group1 winner Mantovani (Ire) and Italian Classic winner Treasure Hope (Ire).

GERMANY: Tannenkonig (Ire) (Fairy King {USA}) will take up stud duties at Gestut Hof Weserland in the northern part of Germany next season. The four-year-old bay will be the first and only son of Fairy King at stud in Germany. A winner at two, Tannenkonig placed in several big races, including a third to Tiger Hill (Ire) and Docksider (USA) in the G2 Mehl Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas), as well as in the G2 Grosser Muller Brot-Preis, behind Tiger Hill and Scorned (Ger). His stud fee will be announced shortly.

A difficult horse to keep sound, Top Way didn't make his racing debut until last year. He has been almost perfect, tasting defeat only once in his 10-race career, and jumped from the handicap ranks to take his first Listed race here with ease. Top Way may have the ability, if healthy, to step up to the Group 3 ranks, even if it may only be in the Provinces.

DEMURO OFF FOR THREE MONTHS IN JAPAN

Italian champion jockey-elect Mirco Demuro is due to leave Milan Nov. 25 and will spend three months riding in Japan. He will be based at the Osaka Training Centre, riding for owner Teruya Yoshida. Patrick Barbe, who looks after Yoshida's European racing interests, has been impressed by Demuro's style of riding and performances this season, and recommended the young Italian to his patron. "It's an exciting adventure and I do hope everything goes in the right direction," said Demuro. "After I finish in Japan, I would like to go to California to spend at least one month with Richard Mandella."

BIN SUROOR FINED FOR DRUG POSITIVE

Trainer Saeed bin Suroor was fined a total of £1,000 by the Jockey Club's disciplinary committee at a Thursday hearing into a positive test for the prohibited substance pentoxifylline by Godolphin's Royal Line (GB) (Saint Estephe {Fr}) after winning the Listed Bahrain Trophy at Newmarket in July. Bin Suroor was fined £750 for the offense and £250 for failing to keep a proper medication record as required under Jockey Club Rules. Royal Line was disqualified from the Newmarket race, which has been awarded to the Aidan O'Brien-trained Moon Dragon (Ire).

FOAL CROP AT A RECORD LEVEL

There were more foals born in Britain and Ireland in 1999 than ever before, according to the just-published Weatherbys Return Of Mares. Up until Sept. 30, there were 13,115 born in 1999, compared to a final figure of 12,704 for 1998. The Coolmore duo of Grand Lodge (USA) and Perugino (USA) were the most prolific flat stallions during the 1999 breeding season in Britain or Ireland. Both sires covered books of 167, with the champion Sadler's Wells (USA) narrowly behind on 162 (he covered 196 mares last year). There were 26 flat sires who covered three-figure books, including Sri Pekan (USA), 160; Entrepreneur (GB), 152; Barathea (Ire), 147; Danehill (USA), 147; Eagle Eyed (USA), 147; Spectrum (Ire), 146; Desert King (Ire), 141; Victory Note (USA), 137; College Chapel (GB), 136; and Night Shift (USA), 131; In his first proper season, the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe winner Peintre Celebre (USA) serviced 120 mares, but he had already covered at least 10 on southern hemisphere time at the end of 1998. But as ever, it was the National Hunt stallions who led the way, headed by Oscar (Ire), whose book of mares numbered 290 with Supreme Leader (GB) close behind on 264.

GOOD YEAR FOR DONCASTER SALES

Doncaster Bloodstock Sales posted a record annual average for 1999 and a second-highest aggregate that fell just short of last year's record. Following the final National Hunt day of the November Sales yesterday, DBS managing director Henry Beeby reflected on the past 12 months, "The year in general has seen many highlights for DBS and this has resulted in us returning our highest turnover bar last year and a record average. On the flat, both of our breeze-up sales have sent out stakes winners and we are confident that in 2000 they will be as strong as ever. Our St Leger Yearling Sales were a real high and it was pleasing to return such excellent figures, as we were most confident that we had produced our best catalogue ever."

QUEEN MOTHER HONORED AT O'SULLEVAN AWARDS

HM The Queen Mother was honored last night as the third winner of the Sir Peter O'Sullivan Award. "Her Majesty's affection for, and knowledgeable appreciation of, the horse, have inspired her dedication to the sport she loves," said O'Sullivan, "and her consistent presence at the racecourse has helped immeasurably to raise to raise the profile of horseracing in Great Britain."

DAY AT THE RACES TO BE AUCTIONED FOR CHARITY

A day out at Newbury racecourse is set to be auctioned, with the proceeds going to the Children In Need charity. The auction will take place shortly after the eight o'clock news on the Terry Wogan Breakfast Show on Radio 2 one day next week, from Monday to Thursday. The highest bidder earns the opportunity to name a race at Newbury, choose the best-turned-out award and present trophies to the winning trainer, owner and jockey. He or she will also be able to entertain up to nine people in a hospitality box, can have a behind-the-scenes look around the weighing room, stewards' room, commentators' box and press room and visit a top trainer's yard to see the horses on the gallops. Included in the package is overnight accommodation for two and a gourmet dinner at the Vineyard Hotel and Restaurant at Stockcross.
