“MONARCH” RULES RED SMITH

Three-for-five on the lawn, Monarch's Maze (Kingmambo) captured the GII Jamaica H. over the Belmont turf last time out Oct. 17, but was 14-1 taking on his elders in yesterday's GII Red Smith H. at Aqueduct. The three-year-old showed the older crowd no respect, closing from dead last after six furlongs to best 8-1 Williams News (Alleged) by a length. "He's really beginning to open his eyes," winning jockey Joe Bravo said. "I turned him loose at the three-eighths pole and he really responded. He's a very special colt. He just blew them away today." Trainer Pat Kelly added, "We know we have a good horse for next year. Now we just have to decide whether we want to go to Gulfstream or wait until spring." Veteran Johns Call (Lord at War {Arg}) was the slight 3-1 favorite in the overflow field, but after winning back-to-back stakes in the Oct. 24 Bald Eagle Breeders' Cup H. and Nov. 11 GIII Laurel Turf Cup, the eight-year-old was stuck in traffic after rating on the inside early and could make no headway in the stretch, running ninth. "I had no breaks at all," said his jockey, Steve Hamilton. "I had plenty of horse, but I had to sit with nowhere to go."

LAST LAUGH FOR SILVER COMIC

St Clair Ridge (Ire) (Indian Ridge {Ire}) was the 17-10 favorite in yesterday's GII Mrs. Revere S. at Churchill Downs, but it was her less-fancied stablemate Silver Comic (Silver Hawk) who had the last laugh, rallying past the favorite in the final furlong and drawing off to give trainer Elliott Walden a one-two finish in the race. Making her stakes debut, Silver Comic was coming off two straight allowance wins, scoring at Keeneland Oct. 17 and again over this course Nov. 6. Off at 6-1 facing graded foes, the bay was rated while wide early, joined the speedier St Clair Ridge for the stretch drive and proved best, getting 2 1/4 lengths clear at the wire. "These two fillies complement each other with their running styles," Walden said. "One filly has speed and the other comes from behind. (Silver Comic) is now three-for-three here at Churchill, and (St Clair Ridge) is real nice, too, so I thought I had a good hand going into this race. They'll both go on the shelf now at Payson Park." Jockey Pat Day, aboard the runner-up, said, "We got away with some pretty realistic fractions. In the drive, she didn't hold anything back. She just couldn't finish up with (Silver Comic)."

Fifth in his debut at Del Mar Aug. 29, Grey Memo came back to break his maiden against state-breds at Fairplex Sept. 22 and added a Santa Anita allowance on the turf vs. open company in his latest try Nov. 5. Back on the main track, the Cal-bred chestnut shadowed second choice Magical Dragon and 13-10 favorite Joopy Doopy (Gilded Time) through a half in :45 4/5, sped five wide into the stretch and was gamest of all to the wire, taking a narrow decision. "The race set up just right for this horse," winning trainer Warren Stute said. "In fact, it almost looked like his last race all over again. That's three in a row now, and I couldn't be more pleased. And please give Matt Garcia some credit, too. He rode a beautiful race." As for what's next, Stute said, "I don't have any idea. (The Dec. 18 GI Hollywood Futurity) might be an option, but we'll take it day-by-day." The crowd's choice, Joopy Doopy battled on to the finish, but had to settle for fourth.

Breaking from the outside, the 1/2 to Carreras (Seeking the Gold), MSP, $174,980, quickly cleared the field, set a strong pace, dug in when challenged and outgamed Country Only (Carson City) by a head. Surgery for Scratch Pad:

Scratch Pad (Notebook), a disappointing ninth in the Nov. 6 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile Fillies after taking the Oct. 17 GII Walmac Int'l Alcibiades S., had surgery in Kentucky last week to remove a small chip from her knee. "It really wasn't much, but it needed to be done," trainer Joe Waunsch said. "Dr. (Larry) Bramlage said it went fine. She'll stay in Kentucky for a few weeks...at least until she gets to hand walking for a while. Then she'll go to Ocala and get a good long rest. I want her to have the time for mental reasons as well as physical. She's just been so screwed up, particularly when she goes to the paddock. She was a mess on Breeders' Cup Day. When I bring her back here, I'll do a lot of paddock schooling and other things to help her temperament. I think she'll be a good filly next year, but there will be no hurry. I wouldn't think she'll be ready to run any time before May or June."

Having met with defeat on his debut, Theos Quercus then won his next two starts, conditions events at La Teste de Buch Sept. 1 and Mont-de-Marsan Oct. 3. He continued in the winning vein here to claim his first stake, but had to battle hard to deny the persistent Bleu D'Altair. Theos Quercus tracked Bleu D'Altair in fifth as Glazic (Holst {USA}) led from Unitaire and Vic Toto (Kaid Pous {Fr}). Theos Quercus made his challenge inside the final quarter, as Bleu D'Altair held the lead, and went to the front at the distance. GERMAN JUVENILE STARS SOLD TO BRITAIN

Germany's leading juvenile colts, Auenklang (Ger) (Big Shuffle {USA}) and Glad Master (Ger) (Big Shuffle), were reportedly sold and will continue their racing careers in Britain. Bred by Gestut Auenquelle, both colts were trained by Hans Hiller and ran in the colors of Stall Dario and Stall Juka, respectively. Auenklang was very impressive when taking the G2 Raab Karcher Baustoffe Cup-Zukunft-Rennen at Baden-Baden after having finished second to Rossini (USA) in the G2 Prix Robert Papin at Maisons-Laffitte July 24. Glad Master, undefeated in four career starts, took the G3 Preis des Winterfavoriten Oct. 17 in great style, as well as running away with the Munchener Auktionsrennen Nov. 1. The deal, unique by German standards, was reportedly put through by Bjorne Olsson with further details on the new connections and sale price to follow.
