DANEHILL COLT TOPS TATTERSALLS MONDAY

French trainer Francois Doumen, agent for owner John D. Martin, went to 105,000gns to get the top-selling yearling at yesterday's opening session of the Tattersalls December Sales at Park Paddocks in Newmarket, England. Consigned by Genesis Green Stud, agent, the Danehill colt is out of Shamisen (GB) (Diesis {GB}), a group-placed mare who is herself a full sister to MGSW Enharmonic and a half sister to MSW Soprano (GB) (Kris {GB}). Those who were interested but dropped out included agent Charlie Gordon-Watson and underbidder Clive Brittain, who saddled the colt's dam to run second in the G2 Lowther S. and trained her first two foals, the good handicapper Lone Piper (GB) and two-year-old Wind Chime (Ire). Doumen said, "He seemed a lovely colt and we hope he does well." A daughter of Royal Academy brought 100,000gns Monday, the third highest-ever price for a filly at the Tattersalls December yearling section. Consigned by John Troy, agent, the bay was purchased by Irish agent Peter Doyle, acting for trainer Richard Hannon. A February foal, she missed the October auction because of a slight setback, but was one of the standouts of the December catalogue. She is a full sister to stakes-winner Gold Academy (Ire), a course-record holder at York who was third in both the G1 St James's Palace S, and G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. and who is also trained by Hannon. "It would be great if she could do as well as Gold Academy, and she seemed a really nice filly," the conditioner said. The only two December yearling fillies to make more were a daughter of Sir Ivor, who sold for 165,000gns 10 years ago, and a daughter of Sadler's Wells who went for 125,000gns in 1994. The December Sales resume Wednesday with four days of foals.

Agnes World ventured to France for his last start, winning the five-furlong G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp Oct. 3, one of Europe's premier sprints. The 6-5 favorite was sent to the lead here by jockey Yutaka Take and he never looked back, widening his margin in the stretch. "We had a good break," said Take, "so I let him go as he wanted." Masa Lucky, who defeated Agnes World in the May 23 Takamatsunomiya Kinen, closed well but fell a half-length short. After winning three of his first 10 starts, Agnes World has now taken four straight races.

Rosado captured his first two career starts, a maiden and the G3-Jpn Niigata Sansai S., but then dropped nine straight. With jockey Katsumi Ando content to wait until mid-stretch to make his move, he was settled in 16th position behind a quick pace, then shot through the field in an instant, drawing off for 1 3/4-length win. "He still had a lot energy in the stretch," said Ando.

$381,783.

A French mare called Ginger Candy has twice reminded me over the last 10 days of a phrase penned by an American schoolboy over 200 years ago--that "Tall oaks from little acorns grow." Those of you without a horticultural bent need to know that the botanical name for the oak family is Quercus, which forms part of the name of several of Ginger Candy's sons. Her two-year-old son is Theos Quercus (Fr), a Johann Quatz (Fr) colt who was successful on Nov. 20 in the Prix Delahante, a listed race won a year earlier by Ginger Candy's Hero's Honor colt, Super Quercus. Super Quercus has since switched continents, but he has lost none of his ability, as he showed with his Grade I victory in Sunday's Early Times Hollywood Derby.

As Super Quercus is apparently now considered a potential winner of next year's Breeders' Cup Mile, he can fairly be described as a tall oak grown from a little acorn. He is the result of a season which cost FF40,000, or roughly $7,500, and his price as a yearling was equivalent to little more than $20,000.

Although he couldn't be described as fashionably bred, don't get the idea that his bloodlines aren't worthy of a Grade I winner. His sire Hero's Honor began his stallion career at Lane's End Farm in 1985 at a fee of $50,000, his sizeable fee reflecting the fact that he was an extremely well-bred Grade I winner.

Hero's Honor's sire was the incomparable Northern Dancer and his dam is Glowing Tribute, a blue hen who now has no fewer than six graded-stakes winners to her credit, including the Kentucky Derby winner Sea Hero. Whereas Sea Hero was successfully switched from turf to the main track, Hero's Honor was very much a turf specialist, winner of the GI Bowling Green H. and GI United Nations H. in 1984, when he ranked third behind John Henry and Majesty's Prince among the older turf males.

Maybe Hero's Honor's turf background went against him in Kentucky, where he attracted only 34 mares in his final season in 1990, and he was transferred to France. The French soon had good cause to congratulate themselves, because the graded winners Hero's Love, Home Of The Free and Honor The Hero eventually emerged from his 1988 crop and his 1989 crop contained Poolesta (Ire), a smart English juvenile who later enjoyed Grade III success in the States. Hero's Honor's handful of runners in France prior to his arrival had done well enough to ensure him a warm welcome and he continued to make his mark until his death in June, 1998. Incongruously, several of his French progeny have distinguished themselves after being sent to the States, good examples this year being Khumba Mela (Ire), Bouccaneer (Fr) and now Super Quercus.

Super Quercus' dam, Ginger Candy, is one of the few notable offspring by Hilal, a high-class French miler. A tough individual, Ginger Candy was placed in several listed races over sprint distances. The next dam, Ginger Lass, was even better, twice finishing third in Group 3 events over a mile in France, but the most distinguished name in Super Quercus' female line is that of his fourth dam, My Bupers. Although her $10,200,000 son Snaafi Dancer was a total disaster, My Bupers also produced the champion sprinter My Juliet and the very good English colt Lyphard's Special. Her other descendants include Stella Madrid, Tis Juliet, the 1998 Irish Oaks winner Winona (Ire) and this year's Group III winner Isle de France.

A maiden winner at Calder in July, Watchfull shipped north to Saratoga for her next two starts, running sixth in the Aug. 16 GII Adirondack S., but redeeming herself with a powerful eight-length score in an allowance test over that track Aug. 30. The odds-on choice in her first start since, she tracked the leaders while four wide early, swept to the front as they came into the stretch and drew off to win handily.

5th-CRC, $25,000, Alw, 3/up, 1 1/8mT, 1:46 1/5, fm. VALID REPRIZED (c, 3, Reprized--Supreme Angel, by Prince Valid) started the year with a win in the Jan. 2 GIII Tropical Park Derby at Calder, then went on to be third in the GIII Palm Beach S. and the GIII Everglades S. before switching to the main track and running seventh in the GIII Flamingo S. The bay went to the bench for four months after that start, came back to be second in a Calder allowance Aug. 7, but had been off the board in three turf stakes since. Coming off a lackluster sixth-place finish in the Oct. 30 Calder Derby, he was bet down to 5-2 dropping down to the allowance ranks and closed from fifth to win by a length and a half. ### JARNET AND FABRE PART COMPANY

It was announced yesterday that Thierry Jarnet, four-time French champion jockey, is to end his association with trainer Andre Fabre. The partnership has enjoyed many big race successes in the past, most notably two Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe wins with Subotica (Fr) and Carnegie (Ire) and an English 2000 Guineas win with Pennekamp (USA). "Mr. Fabre has told me that I will not be riding for him next year," said Jarnet. "We have parted on excellent terms and that is how life goes on. I've had my highs and lows, but it has been great working for him over the years. As far as my future is concerned, I will have to see if Mr. Wafic Said will renew my retainer for next year. I will more or less be riding as a freelance jockey and be more available for anyone who would like to have me on their horse." It had been announced earlier that top apprentice Christophe Soumillon will ride as number two jockey for the Fabre stable next season. Officially employed by Cedric Boutin until June of next year, Soumillon only needs one more winner to ride out his claim following his success aboard Supreme Alliance (Fr) (Kendor {Fr}) in the last race on yesterday's Maisons-Laffitte card. The 18-year-old Soumillon has been something of a revelation in France this season, and currently has ridden 69 winners.

Prix Belle de Nuit Cont.

Unraced as a juvenile, Hijaz broke her maiden at the second attempt in a conditions event at Longchamp June 24, and then progressed to placed efforts in both the Listed Prix de Thiberville at Deauville Aug. 8 and the Listed Prix Scaramouche at Maisons-Laffitte Nov. 11. Clearly benefitting from her most recent outing, she relished the soft conditions and, despite showing an alarming tendency to drift to her right in the closing stages, kept on in fine style for a comfortable win. She was soon racing in third as British raider Robin Lane (Tenby {GB}) led from Kansa, with Dressbaby in the rear. Turning into the straight, Hijaz grabbed the lead and was soon clear of her nearest challengers, but in the style of Swain (Ire) in the 1998 Breeders' Cup Classic, she hung from one side of the track to the other although jockey Alain Junk always held his whip in his right hand. She clearly had enough in reserve and ran on well in the final quarter-mile to record her first stakes win comfortably. Kansa stayed on strongly inside the final furlong and bettered the persistent Dressbaby for second in the final strides without troubling the winner.

4.10 Maisons-Laffitte, Prix Tiffauges (Class D) (Cond.), FF140,000, 3yo, 1 5/16mT, 2:24.10, hy.

NADIRA (FR) (f, 3, Green Desert {USA}--Nabagha {Fr} {GSP-Ity}, by Fabulous Dancer {USA}), a 2.30-1 chance, tracked the leaders in seventh as Branceilles (Fr) (Satin Wood {Ire}) and Georgino (Fr) (Hero's Honor {USA}) disputed the lead, but made steady progress to move into a stalking third on the home turn. She challenged for the lead on the outside at the quarter-mile marker, led soon after and gradually drew clear for a comfortable four-length win from Georgino. Lifetime Record: 3 starts, 2 wins, 1 place, FF115,600. O-H H the Aga Khan; B-H H the Aga Khan's Studs SC; T-Alain de Royer-Dupre; J-Eric Alloix.

Aidan O'Brien heads the Irish trainers table on money won for the third successive year, but can only boast a second championship for the period as the 1998 championship, like this year, was based on win prize money alone. His two main domestic wins came via Saffron Walden (Fr) in the G1 Entenmanns 2000 Guineas and the now-retired Fasliyev (USA) in the G1 Phoenix S. O'Brien has enjoyed a landmark season Europe-wide, but his domestic juvenile record is also something to behold. The top 11 colts on the Turform ratings were all trained by O'Brien.
