SAUMAREZ SELLS TODAY AT TATTERSALLS

The largest annual European auction of breeding stock begins in Newmarket at 9:30 a.m. today. The "Mares Etc." catalogue of the Tattersalls December Sales contains 1,262 lots, several of whom would be assets to any broodmare band, with the better lots catalogued for today, Tuesday and Wednesday. These include Lot 1860, the three-year-old Rose Of Tara (Ire) (Generous {Ire}), who although only the winner of an apprentices' maiden, comes from an outstanding Kilcarn Stud family. She is a daughter of Flame Of Tara (Ire) (Artaius) dam of 11 winners, among them the triple-Classic scorer Salsabil (Ire) (Sadler's Wells), the 1991 G1 Derby runner-up Marju (Ire) (Last Tycoon {Ire}) and 1990 G1 Irish 1000 Guineas third Danse Royale (Ire) (Caerleon). The executors of the late Lord Howard de Walden sell Lot 2093, Pevna (Danzig), an unraced half-sister to brothers Kris (GB) (Sharpen Up {GB}), Diesis (GB) and Keen (GB). Ted Voute, as agent for Tsega Ltd, offers Cumbres (Fr) (Kahyasi {Ire}), Lot 1843, in foal to Desert King (Ire) and a half-sister to this year's champion three-year-old Montjeu (Ire) (Sadler's Wells). Mares offered in foal to Sadler's Wells are understandably popular at this fixture, and this year these include Lot 1781, Pleine Lune (Ire) (Alzao), a dual winner in France and a half-sister to the G1 winner and sire Pistolet Bleu (Ire) (Top Ville {Ire}). There are a small number of proven and potential stallions for sale, including Lot 1653, Saumarez (GB) (Rainbow Quest), the best sire to go under the hammer for several years. Winner of the 1990 G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe, he has produced the winners of over 270 races and more than £3 million in prize money. The sale runs through Friday, starting at 9:30 a.m. each day.

JOCKEY SERIES GOES TO SHIBATA; PESLIER SECOND

Japanese rider Yoshitomi Shibata captured the 13th annual World Super Jockeys Series, run at Japan's Hanshin Racecourse Dec. 4-5. Fourteen jockeys from around the world competed in the four-race, two-day series. Defending champ Olivier Peslier was second, with Japan's Yutaka Take third and America's Jorge Chavez fourth. Gerald Mosse was fifth, Shane Sellers eighth and Michael Kianane (Ireland) 13th.

FIVE STAR DAY RUNS AWAY IN UNDERWOOD

Five Star Day (Carson City) blasted out of the gate, opened up six lengths after a quarter-mile and held off Your Halo (Jolie's Halo) by a half-length to score his first graded victory in the GIII Vernon O. Underwood S. at Hollywood Park. There wasn't much speed in the five-horse field, and jockey Alex Solis was able to set realistic fractions while running away from the pack early. The 4-5 favorite had been knocking at the door in graded races, running second as the 3-5 choice in the GII Kentucky Cup Sprint at Turfway Park Sept. 25 and second to Forestry in the G1 Kings Bishop at Saratoga Aug. 28. He prepared for this with an easy win in the Thirty Slews at Gulfstream Park Nov. 5. Trainer Beau Greely was pointing Five Star Day towards the Dec. 26 G1 Malibu S., and entered him here instead of training him up to the race.

BIG GAINS AT FASIG-TIPTON MIDLANTIC

SALE Saving the best for last, a weanling colt by Breeders' Cup Juvenile winner Boston Harbor out of Dollar Poker (Silver Buck), a full-sister to MGISW Silver Charm, went for $240,000 as the very last lot through the ring on the opening day of the two-day Fasig-Tipton Midlantic December Mixed Sale at Timonium. Part of the 42-horse Mea Culpa dispersal, the colt was purchased by Woodford Stables. Dollar Poker herself was the second-highest lot, the nine-year-old, who is in foal to Skip Away, brought $175,000 from William Dixon. The sale registered significant gains over 1998; the average of $12,784 was up 61 percent over last year's $7,943, while the gross of $3,323,900 for 260 sold was 65 percent better than 1998, when 254 sold for $2,017,400.

SOARING SOFTLY TO RETURN IN 2000 Trainer Jimmy Toner told Daily Racing Form that his Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf champion and Eclipse contender Soaring Softly (Kris S.) would return to race next season. The chestnut has been stabled at Payson Park since her Breeders' Cup victory and will remain there for the winter, though Toner told the Form that a return to the races is not likely until late spring. Owned by John and John Phillips, Soaring Softly compiled seven victories from eight starts in 1999, including wins in the GI Flower Bowl and GI New York H.

Coyote Lakes returned from an 8 1/2-month layoff to run fifth in a Belmont sprint heat Oct. 9 and won his subsequent start when stretched out to nine furlongs 12 days later. Most recently, the gelding tested stakes waters, but could do no better than fourth in the Creme Fraiche S. at The Meadowlands Nov. 20. Second in the 13-furlong Gill Gallant Fox H. last December over this dirt, the chestnut may have punched his ticket for a return trip, laying just off the leaders for the opening mile, advancing three wide on the final turn and drawing off down the lane for the sharp score.

Tavasco became the first stakes winner for his freshman sire with a gritty victory. Dismissed for his debut, the chestnut led wire-to-wire to defeat a group of Del Mar maidens Aug. 21 by 3 1/2 lengths returning $83.60 to his supporters. Making only his second career outing, the second favorite raced forwardly early on, took a short lead entering the stretch and was able to outgame favored Overdone to the wire.

The bay resurfaced with a nondescript sixth in the GII Shadwell Keeneland Turf Mile Oct. 9, but rebounded from that effort to cross the line first in the grassy 6 1/2-furlong Gill Morvich H. at Santa Anita Nov. 6, only to be disqualified to second for interference in the stretch. Unhurried early in this event, Kahal bid three deep on the second turn, took over at the eighth pole and drew clear to a decisive victory.

Unsuccessful in his first five starts, Mont Rocher hit form with a vengeance, winning his last four starts, culminating with a win in the Listed Grand Prix du Sud Ouest over course and distance Sept. 19. He proved an 11-week absence was no hindrance and doubled his stakes tally in Europe's final stakes race of the year. He can be considered a somewhat fortuitous winner as Russian Hope seemed to have the race at his mercy with a furlong to run, but gave away what advantage he had by hanging alarmingly in the closing stages. Emitha (L'Emigrant {USA}) held the early lead from Russian Hope with Take Heed (Warning {GB}), Mawasko (Le-sotho {USA}) and Mont Rocher in a sharing third. Jafar was detached from the main body of the field and was well behind in the rear. Russian Hope took over in front at halfway and led by two lengths turning into the straight, where Mont Rocher progressed into a challenging second. The pair had the race between themselves approaching the final furlong, but Russian Hope darted to his left at the distance when still in the lead. Mont Rocher seized the initiative and his determined effort saw him grab the lead in the closing stages to deny the unlucky runner-up. Jafar made up many lengths in the straight to prove best of the distant remainder.

The winner of only one of his previous five starts, a conditions race at Vichy Aug. 18, Firyal Pursuit was an unconsidered outsider for his second attempt in Listed class. He improved from his unplaced effort in the Listed Prix Delahante at Marseille Borely Nov. 20, and belied his long odds to record his first stakes win with a stoic effort, grabbing the lead well inside the final furlong. Firyal Pursuit was reserved well off the pace behind Al Namix as Al Kendor (Kendor {Fr}) led from Le Ruffian (Balleroy {USA}) and Loyal Tartare. Loyal Tartare went to the front approaching the final furlong soon after the field swung right-handed into the short straight, but was soon challenged on his outside by Al Namix and Firyal Pursuit. It was the latter who showed the greatest drive and went to the front in the last 50 yards. Loyal Tartare battled determinedly and held on grimly for second as Al Namix closed with every stride.

French Year in Review

by Claude Beniada

It has been a great racing season indeed in France, and looking at it as it almost comes to an end, it seems certain that it will be one to remember. Montjeu (USA) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) is a champion, and his defeat in the Japan Cup will not make us change our minds. The three-year-old completed a wonderful season under the tutelage of John Hammond. He first asserted his superiority in splendid fashion over his French counterparts June 6 in the G1 Prix du Jockey Club at Chantilly, a race won with extreme ease, stamping himself immediately as a top-class colt. He confirmed it in spectacular fashion in the G1 Irish Derby, proving that he is the best of his age in Europe. The climax of the French racing season, the G1 Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe the first Sunday in October, proved the right opportunity for Montjeu to establish himself as the top horse in Europe. He did so with a terrific late kick that saw him prove best inside the final 100 yards over another true champion, the Japanese four-year-old El Condor Pasa (USA) (Kingmambo {USA}). With dual-G1 winner Croco Rouge (Ire) (Rainbow Quest {USA}) third, five lengths further away (he had been a close fourth and quite unlucky in 1998), there was no doubt that the 1999 Arc vintage was one superior quality, equivalent to Peintre Celebre (USA) (Nureyev {USA}) in 1997 or Helissio (Fr) (Fairy King {USA}) the previous year.

Older horses in training in France in 1999 have not been too successful on the international scene, the best being Croco Rouge, winner of the 1,850-meter G1 Prix d'Ispahan and third in the Arc, who ran only one bad race when unplaced as the favorite in the G1 Coral-Eclipse S. at Sandown in July. Dark Moondancer (GB) (Anshan {GB}) had a brilliant start of the season with successes in the 2,000-meter G2 Prix d'Harcourt and 2,100-meter G1 Prix Ganay at Longchamp (with Croco Rouge third on his seasonal bow) before taking the G1 Gran Premio di Milan in Italy. He did not race again until finishing ninth in the Breeders' Cup Turf.

It is true that no older horse in France could match the quality of the brilliant Daylami (Ire) (Doyoun {Ire}), who unfortunately was not seen at his best in the Arc, his sole appearance on French soil this year. Diktat (GB) (Warning {GB}) dictated his law in the 1,300-meter G1 Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville in August and Agnes World (USA) (Danzig {USA}), shipping in from Japan for the occasion, was best at Longchamp on Arc day in the 1,000-meter G1 Prix de l'Abbaye de Longchamp. The best French older miler has been Gold Away (Ire) (Goldneyev {USA}), winner of the 1,600-meter G2 Prix du Muguet, but second to Diktat at Deauville and second to Sendawar (Ire) (Priolo {USA}) in the 1,600-meter G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp and hurt while preparing for the Breeders' Cup Mile. Tajoun (Fr) (General Holme {USA}) has been the best French-trained stayer, winning the 4,000-meter G1 Prix du Cadran in October, but was well-beaten in the Ascot Gold Cup in June.

Three-year-olds trained in France have certainly been a source of immense satisfaction, as besides Montjeu, Sendawar has proven without any doubt to be the best miler in Europe. The son of Priolo won three races at the highest level, taking the G1 Dubai Poule d'Essai des Poulains (French 2000 Guineas) in May at Longchamp, the G1 St James's Palace S. in June at Royal Ascot and the G1 Prix du Moulin de Longchamp against older horses in September. On two occasions, he didn't make it to the start due to heavy going. At Deauville in the G1 Prix du Haras de Fresnay le Buffard Jacques le Marois in August and at Ascot in late September in the G1 Queen Elizabeth II S. On both occasions, Dubai Millennium (GB) (Seeking the Gold {USA}) proved easily the best and the long-awaited match between the two will hopefully take place next year.

The three-year-old filly division was dominated by Britain's Ramruma (USA) (Diesis {GB}) in Europe, but it is certain that Daryaba (Ire) (Night Shift {USA}), like Sendawar carrying the silks of her owner/breeder the Aga Khan, was the best of her age in France. She won the 2,100-meter G1 Prix de Diane (French Oaks) in June on her third career start and took the 2,400-meter G1 Prix Vermeille for her return in September, showing great class on both occasions as she led in the Diane and waited in the Vermeille. She failed to sparkle in the Arc, as she had gone in her coat and was over the top, but she was a classy filly and one that should be remembered.

When it comes to two-year-olds, it is certain that the 1999 crop trained in France failed to produce top-class animals, at least among the colts. The domination of horses trained in Ireland by Aidan O'Brien has been total. Rossini (USA) (Miswaki {USA}) won the 1,100-meter G2 Prix Robert Papin in July, Fasliyev (USA) (Nureyev {USA}) took the 1,200-meter G1 Prix Morny in August, Giant's Causeway (USA) (Storm Cat {USA}) dominated the 1,400-meter G1 Prix de la Salamandre in September and Ciro (USA) (Woodman {USA}) logically won the three-runner 1,600-meter G1 Grand Criterium in the steward's room in October.

There are more reasons to cheer with the two-year-old fillies, as the first two top-rated juvenile fillies in Europe are trained in France. Morning Pride (Ire) (Machiavellian {USA}), trained by Andre Fabre, showed outstanding potential in four starts in the spring before a setback forced her trainer to wait for next year's races. But if she trains on as a three-year-old, she will be a live contender for the spring Classics, the French or English 1000 Guineas. Lady Of Chad (Ire) (Last Tycoon {Ire}), handled by young trainer Richard Gibson, is undefeated in two career starts. After opening her account in September at Longchamp, she made all to win the 1,600-meter G1 Prix Marcel Boussac Oct. 3. She is a real nice filly-in-the-making and looks like a staying type, so the French Oaks in June could be her target.

As usual, Andre Fabre is again, by far, the leading trainer in France in terms of money won. With only one Group 1 win to his credit this year (three-year-old Slickly {Fr} {Linamix {Fr}} in the 2,000-meter Grand Prix de Paris), the leading trainer was far below his usual standards, but he probably didn't have the same quality to train this year and had a lot of his horses hit with a virus in the spring, which also explains why he has not run too many juveniles this season. With 101 wins to his credit (as of Dec. 2), he was third to Jean-Claude Rouget in number of races won. The man who had a wonderful season is Alain de Royer-Dupre, whose main patron is the Aga Khan. The trainer won eight Group 1 races in Europe this season, thanks to Sendawar (three), Daryaba (two), Dark Moondancer (two) and Tajoun (one).

Oliver Peslier regained his riding title, the third of his career, over last year's champion, Dominique Boeuf. Peslier, who concentrated more on French racing this year and traveled less to England, had clinched the title long before he left France to go to Japan a month ago. The name on everyone's lips in France is the young apprentice Christophe Soumillon. The young Belgian came to France to join the Moulin a Vent Apprentice's School in Gouvieux, near Chantilly, three years ago, and has been apprentice to trainer Cederic Boutin. After winning a few races last year, he has been a sensation this season, showing great improvement as the season advanced. he has talent, strength and ambition. The 18-year-old turned down an offer to work for Godolphin this spring, but it was recently announced that he will be the number two rider for Fabre next year.

The Wertheimer brothers will finish the season as leading owners, with French racing supremo Jean-Luc Lagardere again the leading breeder, with the Exors of Sir James Goldsmith coming second, thanks to their hombred Montjeu.
