

MCCARRON READY TO CALL IT A CAREER

Jockey Chris McCarron, a two-time Eclipse Award winner who was elected to racing's Hall of Fame in 1989, will ride his last race June 23 at Hollywood Park. The 47-year-old rider began breaking the news of his imminent retirement to those close to him last week. Born in Dorchester, Massachusetts, McCarron rode his first winner at Maryland's Bowie Racetrack on Feb. 9, 1974. He ended the season with a then-record 546 victories and earned an Eclipse as the country's leading apprentice. The red-headed reinsman, who shifted his tack to Southern California in 1978, picked up a second Eclipse in 1980, becoming only the third rider in history to win the award as both an apprentice and a journeyman (Steve Cauthen and Kent Desormeaux also accomplished the feat). During his 28 years in the saddle, McCarron has won 7,137 races (through Friday) to rank sixth in career victories and is the all-time leading rider by earnings, winning more than $264 million in purses. He won the Kentucky Derby, the Preakness and the Belmont S. twice each, and has nine Breeders' Cup races to his credit, including five Classics. "About 10 days ago, I told my wife Judy that this would be my last year," an emotional McCarron said in a press conference at Hollywood Park. "I always said that when I stopped having fun, when I stopped feeling the thrill of winning, that I'd retire." McCarron, with his wife Judy and comedian Tim Conway, established the Don MacBeth Memorial Jockey Fund to raise money for injured riders and said he will remain active in the Fund. A racing analyst for NBC on the 1986 Breeders' Cup telecast while sidelined by a broken leg, McCarron could also pursue a new career in TV. "I want to stay in the game," he told Daily Racing Form.

EASY STREET

Godolphin's Street Cry (Ire) (Machiavellian) stayed in cruise control all the way down the long stretch at Churchill Downs to take the GI Stephen Foster H. Saturday afternoon. The dark bay had earned a reputation as something of a hanger in his first two seasons of racing, but has left that far, far behind in 2002. After opening his season with a facile romp at Nad al Sheba Feb. 28, the Irish-bred was ridden out to an easy victory in the G1 Dubai World Cup Mar. 23 and was sent off as the second choice to Congaree (Arazi) in his first start back. Away smoothly under Jerry Bailey, Street Cry settled just off the pace and moved up to challenge for the lead on the far turn. He swept to the front and strode home under a hand ride. "He's a much different horse than last year," said winning trainer Saeed bin Suroor. "The way he worked, the way he looked; also mentally, he's a different horse. I think if he stays nice and sound that we will have a good chance with him in the Breeders' Cup Classic." Congaree held the lead briefly at the quarter pole, but tired to sixth.

Winner of the G3 Prix de Fontainebleau, Denon was fourth as the favorite in the G3 Prix Guillaume d'Ornano in his final European start Aug. 15. Sent to the U.S. barn of trainer Bobby Frankel, the bay made an immediate impression when he rallied from midpack to register a one-length victory in the GI Hollywood Derby Nov. 25, but things had not gone so smoothly in two starts this season. Stretched to 12 furlongs for the first time, the colt was a troubled fifth in the GII San Luis Obispo H. at Santa Anita Feb. 16 and was last seen when a disappointing fifth-place effort in the GII San Luis Rey H. over a mile and a half Mar. 16. Rested off that effort and cutting back to a more comfortable distance, Denon was let go at odds of 7-1. Night Patrol took the early lead and was angled over to the inside where he took the field along through soft fractions while Denon tucked in behind the speed while saving all the ground. The pacesetter showed no signs of slowing down after six furlongs in 1:15, but the Frankel trainee edged closer on the turn, came out at midstretch to collar Night Patrol and inched clear. Favored Skipping closed willingly for third. "He did everything perfectly," commented winning rider Garrett Gomez. "When I moved him out turning for home, he wore the other horse down and that one got away with some soft fractions." He could go next in the GI United Nations at Monmouth July 6. The patiently handled Milwaukee Brew closed strongly down the stretch to deny Chris McCarron and Bosque Redondo in the shadow of the wire. "People thought he got lucky in the Santa Anita H.," acknowledged winning trainer Bobby Frankel, "but now people will think he's a pretty good horse." As a three-year-old, Milwaukee Brew won the GII Ohio Derby, but he failed to get a win in four starts in 2001 and wasn't seen after July. He resurfaced in Frankel's care Feb. 10, finishing sixth to Valhol in the Whirlaway H., but loped home a four-length winner of the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. 2. Given a brief vacation, he was sent off as the favorite of nine runners. The Stronach colorbearer saved ground early just behind solid early fractions and angled to the outside approaching the stretch. Bosque Redondo and Momentum looked to have the race between them in midstretch, but Milwaukee Brew came rolling down the middle of the track and just got up in the final strides. "It's hard to make up ground on this track, but he came hard in the stretch," said Frankel. "I haven't seen anybody make up two lengths on a horse like Bosque Redondo in the last sixteenth." As for the five-year-old's schedule, Frankel explained, "After winning the Santa Anita H., Mr. Stronach wanted this horse for the Breeders' Cup. So we freshened him up for a summer campaign. The Hollywood Gold Cup [GI, July 14] will be next. At a mile and a quarter, he can be ridden a little more conservatively."

The leading distaff earner, Spain may not have that many more opportunities to add to her bankroll now that she is in foal to Storm Cat, but the bay mare took charge of a solid field yesterday to add $204,228 to her bankroll. The 2000 GI Breeders' Cup Distaff heroine won just once in nine starts last year, missing by just a head in her Distaff title defence Oct. 27 at Belmont. She started off slowly in 2002 as well, losing her first four starts, but got back on track with a victory in the GII Louisville Breeders' Cup H. on the eve of the Kentucky Derby, a win which took her earnings past that of fellow D. Wayne Lukas charge Serena's Song. Tucked into a ground-saving third by Jorge Chavez, Spain angled out five wide approaching the stretch and drew even with pacesetter With Ability in midstretch. She took charge passing the eighth pole and drew off to win going away. "I told Jorge to ride her like she's the best horse in the race, because she is the best horse," said Lukas. "Jorge waited and waited and then when he asked her, she took off. We'll look at the Molly Pitcher [GII, June 29, Monmouth] now as her next possible start." With Ability clung on stubbornly to the place spot, denying even-money Dancethruthedawn by a neck.

The versatile Adoration made it two straight in graded stakes with this determined effort. An eight-length maiden winner on the main track at Santa Anita Feb. 21, the bay filly got caught in a speed duel in the GI Santa Anita Oaks Mar. 9, finishing eighth. Switched to the turf, she came in second to the promising Carinae in a sprint Apr. 12, then stretched out to a mile on the Hollywood lawn May 4 and posted a front-running victory in the GIII Senorita S. Breaking from the outside, the second choice pressed the pace while four wide. Favored Saint Bernadette came through on the inside to take the lead turning for home, but Adoration surged past her in the final furlong for the win. "[Trainer] Dave Hofmans has done a wonderful job with this filly," said winning rider Garrett Gomez. "We're just trying to figure out the difference between the grass and the dirt. She settled behind the two horses in front of her like an old professional, like she had run 100 times. Then she came home nicely." Closing strongly for second was longshot Sister Girl Blues, whose only previous start had been a maiden win on the turf. "Experience got us beat," said rider Jose Valdivia, Jr. "She is definitely a nice filly, and she is headed the right way." Click here for the brisnet.com chart

Seeking Daylight took flight over the slop at Belmont, cruising home by daylight while posting a sprightly 1:46 1/5 for the mile and an eighth, just a few ticks off Secretariat's track record of 1:45 2/5. The dark bay had captured both of his starts at two, including an 8 1/4-length allowance win at Aqueduct, but spent his three-year-old season on the sidelines with a fractured cannon bone. An Edward Evans homebred, he returned from a 15-month hiatus with seventh at Gulfstream Feb. 27 and improved to second at Aqueduct Mar. 28. He caught a sloppy strip at the Big A Apr. 20 and rolled to a 5 1/4-length score, then tried stakes company for the first time, finishing a solid fourth in the GIII Westchester H. at Belmont May 8. Unhurried early as Dayton Flyer (Honour and Glory) and E Dubai (Mr. Prospector) set a solid pace, Seeking Daylight advanced along the inside on the turn and swung to the outside at the top of the lane. He glided past E Dubai, began to open up after a mile in 1:33.87 and was taken in hand in the final strides. "He did everything very easily," said winning rider Edgar Prado. "When I found a spot, you saw what happened: he just took off. He will only get better." Trainer Mark Hennig had always been high on the colt. "Unfortunately, he was hurt last year with the fractured cannon bone," he said. "I think he could have made some noise as a three-year-old." Hennig indicated that the July 6 GII Suburban H. (10f) could be next.

A three-time winner in four starts in Britain, Distant Valley posted a head victory in the G2 Rockfel S. in her European finale last October. The bay made her U.S. debut after a seven-month layoff and just missed, tiring after setting the pace to finish a close-up third in a Churchill allowance test May 25. Stepping back into the stakes ranks in her second state-side appearance, she tracked the speedy Peace River Lady from third through the opening half, edged closer on the far turn, gained control as they raced into the stretch and opened it up late to win handily. "When we ran her in the Regret prep [May 25], she was a bit rank," said winning trainer Niall O'Callaghan. "We thought she needed to be eased back. Hopefully now she'll have a future in the United States." Click here for the brisnet.com chart.

Van Minister always gives an honest effort, as witnessed by his seven on-the-board finishes from his first eight starts. The lion's share of those efforts came against maiden claiming competition, including a second-place finish versus $50,000 maidens over the Aqueduct main track Apr. 25 before finally breaking his maiden by 4 3/4 lengths over the local dirt May 15. The bay colt gave his connections something to think about in his latest June 1, his first try on the turf and first versus winners, when he came from off the pace to finish second by a neck at boxcar odds. Smoked Em (Smoke Glacken) set an easy pace over the soft going tracked by Miesque's Approval as Van Minister raced unhurriedly in last through the opening six furlongs. As the pacesetter gave way in upper stretch, Miesque's Approval inherited the lead, but could not withstand the late run of the winner, who flew down the center of the track to register the upset. "It got a little frustrating over the winter because we always wanted to try turf with him and we couldn't," winning trainer Carlos Martin commented. "He is just getting better and better. He's really improved on the turf."

Grundlefoot came from midpack to record a well-deserved first graded-stakes victory in yesterday's feature at Pimlico. The bay pieced together a three-race winning skein last fall, all in stakes company, including a 5 1/4-length victory in the Walter Haight H. at Laurel Dec. 15. Sent to the Big Apple for his seasonal finale, he was sent off the 3-1 favorite in the 13-furlong GIII Gallant Fox H. Dec. 29, but the distance proved to be too much, as he tailed off to be a well-beaten sixth. Returned to action in the GIII W.D. Schaefer H. at Pimlico May 18, Grundlefoot tired to be fourth, but was nonetheless the second choice in the wagering here. Taken over to the rail to save ground for the opening six panels, he was eased out, advanced three wide on the far turn, took command at the quarter pole and held on for the win.

*The Oceanport H. was automatically downgraded when it was withdrawn from the turf.

Persistent rains over the last few days on the East Coast forced the Oceanport H. off the turf and the race was left with a field of just three following several scratches. For Tempest Fugit, the rain proved just the right tonic. The gelding, who raced for as little as $32,500 claiming early last fall, was third in the GIII Aqueduct H. and was rested following another third-place finish in a classified allowance in Ozone Park Feb. 3. Dropped in for a $75,000 tag Apr. 5 at the Big A, the dark bay took advantage of the lesser company, scoring a front-running, 4 1/2-length victory and was claimed out of that race by current connections. A distant second to horse-for-the-course Sea of Tranquility in the May 26 Frisk Me Now S., Tempest Fugit was the odds-on favorite to earn his first stakes victory. Sent right to the front by jockey Jose Velez Jr., the Florida-bred dictated the pace to Runspastum, put away that rival nearing the quarter pole and proved much the best.

Lord Shogun broke his maiden in his fourth start, a 6 1/2-furlong test at Hastings Park last October, then was put away for seven months. The dark bay came back vs. optional claimers at that track May 12 and made it two in a row, winning by a nose. Stretching out to two turns for the first time in his stakes debut and his first appearance outside of Hastings, he went right to the lead and was pressed through six furlongs in 1:12 4/5, but dashed away from the field at the head of the lane and prevailed while being ridden out.

Sunday, Milan, Italy, post time: 5:05 p.m.
GRAN PREMIO DI MILANO-G1, €340,780, 3yo/up,

SC	PP	HORSE	SIRE	TRAINER	WT
1	5	Einstein (Ity)	Lando (Ger)	Grizzetti	118
2	1	Falbrav (Ire)	Fairy King	D'Auria	132

6	7	Sabiango (Ger)	Acatenango (Ger)	Wohler	132
7	2	Snetterton (GB)	Machiavelian	Valiani	132

Falbrav leads a select domestic defence in the face of a stern overseas challenge in this competitive renewal. Last year's G1 Derby Italiano runner-up impressed last time with a fluent 1 1/4-length defeat of Ekraar in the G1 Premio Presidente della Repubblica in Rome May 12 on the good ground he prefers. Soft ground is his Achilles heel, but he is unlikely to encounter a testing surface in his bid to provide a first home success since Tisserand (Ity) in 1990. German-trained horses do particularly well in this, having collected four renewals since 1993, and have a live chance this time in Sabiango, from the Andreas Wohler stable responsible for last year's winner Paolini (Ger). Last year, he beat subsequent G1 Coronation Cup winner Boreal (Ger) in the G1 Credit Suisse Private Banking Pokal at Cologne in August before finishing third behind Morshdi (GB) in the G1 Grosser Preis von Baden the following month. He is arguably Germany's best older horse on a fast surface and warrants the utmost respect here. Godolphin are represented by Narrative, who transferred his smart Dubai form to Europe last time when turning the G2 Premio Carlo d'Alessio in Rome May 26 into a procession. He beat stable companion Grandera (Ire) by 3 1/4 lengths in the G3 Dubai City of Gold at Nad al Sheba Feb. 24 and that form holds up to the closest inspection. Hawkeye bids to become the fourth British-trained colt to win this since 1996, but must improve on his fifth in the G1 Singapore Airlines International Cup at Kranji May 11.

The evergreen Quiet Resolve, six-for-12 lifetime over the Woodbine turf, earned his latest victory in the GIII Connaught Cup May 25 while defeating No Comprendre, Stage Classic, In Frank's Honor and Allende. The multi-millionaire is joined by stablemate Strike Smartly, who hasn't been out of the top three since switching to the turf seven starts ago. A multiple graded-stakes winner at three, Proud Man returned from a seven-month layoff to run a strong second in the GIII Fort Marcy H. Apr. 27 at Aqueduct, beaten just a neck by Pyrus.

Next Desert's stamina is on trial here as connections seek to determine whether he stays the trip and whether he will run in the G1 Deutsches Derby at Hamburg July 7. He was second by two lengths to Dupont (GB) in the G2 Mehl-Mulhens-Rennen (German 2000 Guineas) at Cologne May 20 and if he can carry his speed over this demanding trip, he will prove hard to beat. Mendosino beat Bedford Moon (Ger) and subsequent G2 Grosser Muller Brot Preis winner Belcore (Ger) last time in the Listed Preis der Firma Jungheinrich Gabelstapler at Hannover May 9 and rates a threat, as does Auenteufel, who beat Mendosino when breaking his maiden and has the assistance of jockey Mick Kinane.

Kehoe Named to NYRA Post:

The New York Racing Association has named Patrick Kehoe vice president and general counsel. Kehoe had previously been a senior attorney in the Office of Counsel to the Governor of New York State. "In addition to his skills as an attorney, he has a vast knowledge of the racing industry in this state and he knows the issues confronting it," said NYRA Chairman and CEO Barry Schwartz.

Margins: 8HF, NO, HF. Odds: 3.95, 3.40, 1.05.

Ahpohel defeated Pure Prize in a nine-furlong allowance last June before heading to the sidelines; he returned Mar. 28 to best Seeking Daylight going seven-eighths at Aqueduct. Third in the Kings Point H. for state-breds Apr. 28, he followed that up with a fourth in his turf bow in the Kingston H. May 26. Breaking alertly in this scratch-filled contest, the five-year-old glided to the front, got away with a soft pace and kicked clear turning for home to post an easy victory.

2nd-BEL, $45,000, Alw, 3yo/up, 6 1/2f, 1:14 3/5, sy.

GREATNESS (c, 3, Mr. Prospector--Harbour Club {SW & MGISP, $344,426}, by Danzig), a 3/4 brother to Holzmeister (Woodman), MSW & MGSP, $356,468, uncorked a big effort to win by 3 1/4 lengths in his May 19 bow at Belmont and was hammered down to 7-10 favoritism to continue to live up to his name. The chestnut colt tugged his way to the front down the backstretch while under wraps, began to edge clear approaching the stretch and widened to win by 10 1/2 lengths. The final time was 1/5 of a second off the track record. Lifetime Record: 2-2-0-0, $52,800.

RAISE DEVIL (f, 3, Devil His Due--Raise Heck {MGSW, $461,482}, by Buckaroo) gave trainer Allen Jerkens and jockey Ray Ganpath their second win of the afternoon. A distant fifth in her Mar. 10 debut at Gulfstream, the chestnut was second under the line 10 days later, but was DQ'd to third. She was coming into this off a 4 1/2-length success in the Aqueduct slop Apr. 20. The 2-1 favorite to go back-to-back, the homebred chased pacesetter Win's Fair Lady (Dehere) from four wide, responded when asked in upper stretch and powered past the front-runner to win by 3 1/2 widening lengths. Lifetime Record: 4-2-0-1, $56,080. O/B-Hobeau Farm, Ltd (FL). T-H Allen Jerkens.

5th-BEL, $44,000, Msw, 3yo/up, 1 1/8m (off turf), 1:49 2/5, sy.

A. P. ASPEN (c, 3, A.P. Indy--Gone for Gusto, by Gone West), a $150,000 KEESEP yearling purchase, had never really threatened in his five previous tries, including a fifth-place finish sprinting over a sloppy Churchill main track Apr. 27 and a sixth-place effort in his first crack at a distance of ground at Belmont May 17. The 8-5 favorite in this off-the-turf affair, the bay colt argued the pace from the outside, collared front-running Blooming Grove (Alzao) at the quarter pole and pulled steadily clear to win by seven lengths. Lifetime Record: 6-1-0-1, $33,925.

OUR SUMMER STORM (c, 3, Summer Squal--Tivli {MSW, $164,218}, by Mt. Livermore), the most experienced member of this field, finished third in a Gulfstream maiden Mar. 9 before checking in a distant fifth at Keeneland Apr. 17. Bet down to 3-5 for his two-turn bow at Delaware May 12, the bay finished willingly, but had to settle for second. Cutting back to a sprint, the $180,000 FTSAUG yearling purchase contested the pace from the inside, put a head in front in upper stretch and drew clear to defeat 2-5 This Guns for Hire (Norquestor) by 3 3/4 lengths. The winner is a full brother to Wind Tunnel, SW, $182,713. Lifetime Record: 7-1-1-3, $46,785.

Prather Injured in Freak Accident:

Apprentice jockey Kris Prather was injured following the fifth race yesterday at Churchill Downs. She was removing her saddle from Count Rutledge when the three-year-old colt wheeled and kicked her. The 23-year-old rider was taken to Caritas Medical Center with pain in her left side, adjacent to the pelvic area, and in her left arm and was later diagnosed with a fractured pelvis. Prather was a finalist for the 2001 Eclipse Award for apprentice jockey despite missing eight months of the year with various injuries.

Suances began his career with four victories from five starts in Spain, but successfully transferred his game to a larger stage when successful in the G3 Prix de Guiche and G1 Prix Jean Prat in his final two European starts. Sidelined after a freak accident while stabled at Arlington Park in 2000, where he sliced his leg on a steel door in the quarantine barn, the bay did not make his return to the races until Mar. 24 in the GII Explosive Bid H. when he raced on the worst part of the Fair Grounds turf and could manage only a 10th-place finish. He bounced back from that effort to account for a small but classy field in the GII San Francisco Breeders' Cup Mile at Bay Meadows Apr. 27 in gate-to-wire fashion and was the heavy chalk to make it two straight and eight for 10 lifetime. Sent immediately for the lead once again by jockey David Flores, Suances always raced well within himself through easy fractions, extended his advantage approaching the stretch and was a handy winner while never asked for his best. "This is a Breeders' Cup type horse," Flores said, adding, "I just got him on his feet in the first part of the race and he took me to the lead very easily, just pulling a bit. Then he relaxed, and I knew there was plenty of horse left. I was just guiding him to the wire--he was doing it all by himself."

Never out of the top three since his arrival in the U.S. in October 2000, Good Journey returned from an 8 1/2-month absence to run Decarchy to 1 1/2 lengths in a Santa Anita optional claimer last Sept. 26 before shipping to Chicago, where the attractive chestnut ran a solid third in the GIII Robert F. Carey Memorial H. Nov. 3. Returned to his California base, the Flaxman homebred came from off the pace to nip Decarchy by a 1/2 length in the GII Citation H. at Hollywood in his most recent start to date Nov. 24. In a possible prep for the GII Firecracker Breeders' Cup H. at Churchill July 4, Good Journey was well placed along the inside to the far turn, began to close ground on front-running Catchy Word in upper stretch and outfinished that foe for the win.

Winner of the 2001 GIII Aegon Turf Sprint, Morluc was beaten just a nose in the G2 Hong Kong Sprint in December, then travelled to Texas in February, finishing second in the Houston Turf Sprint Cup. The six-year-old got back on track with a victory in Keeneland's Shakertown S. Apr. 13, but could only manage fifth in this year's Aegon Turf Sprint May 3 over course and distance. The odds-on chalk pressed Knave through a half in :43.86, took charge turning for home and drew off to win while setting a new course record.

INTEREST ONLY (f, 4, Crafty Prospector--Clever Tide, by Clever Trick), twice favored in two starts since returning from an eight-month vacation, ran second by three lengths at this level Apr. 30 and was coming into this off a neck defeat May 24. The 2-5 favorite to ditch her bridesmaid status, the full sister to Moon Over Prospect, GSP, $242,786, doled out the fractions three wide, was hand ridden into the lane and proved six lengths best, giving jockey Pat Day three wins on the afternoon. RACING INVOLVED IN MONEY LAUNDERING SCANDAL British horseracing received another body-blow yesterday as Operation Extend, the largest investigation in UK drugs law enforcement history, was linked to the sport. It was revealed that former jockey Graham Bradley, now a bloodstock agent, admitted last year that he had provided inside racing information to Brian Wright, the subject of an international arrest warrant. Bradley now faces a possible "warning off" by the Jockey Club, who will, in the words of Senior Steward Christopher Spence, "look at what further measures are necessary to increase the effectiveness of the regulation of racing." The revelation was disclosed on Friday when the trials into the drug smuggling, which had spanned a period of several months, had reporting restrictions lifted. Bradley, a close friend of Wright, had passed on sensitive information alongside Barrie Wright--who is no relation--in exchange for money and other forms of reward. Spence told the Racing Post: "It was a long time ago, but we are still vulnerable, and I hope the message that we get across will be that we must be increasingly vigilant. Ultimately, I would hope people will be a little more understanding and realise that every barrel has its bad apples."

VINNIE HEADS GOLD 19

Vinnie Roe (Ire) (Definite Article {GB}) heads 19 entries remaining for Thursday's £220,000 G1 Ascot Gold Cup at the Royal meeting. Trainer Dermot Weld's four-year-old is quoted the 9-4 favourite with Coral Eurobet for the marathon feature, ahead of Wareed (Ire) (Sadler's Wells {USA}) and Persian Punch (Ire) (Persian Heights {GB}) on 9-1. Vinnie Roe, winner of the G1 Irish and French (Prix Royal-Oak) St Legers last year, returned to take the Listed Saval Beg S. at Leopardstown June 3. Wareed is one of three Godolphin entries, while Mark Johnston has last year's winner Royal Rebel (GB) (Robellino {USA}) engaged. Meanwhile, the Luca Cumani-trained Gossamer (GB) (Sadler's Wells {USA}), winner of the G1 Irish 1000 Guineas at The Curragh May 26, headed 19 fillies left in Friday's £250,000 G1 Coronation S. Aidan O'Brien has left in six fillies, headed by Sophisticat (USA) (Storm Cat {USA}), third behind fellow entry Zenda (GB) (Zamindar {USA}) in the G1 Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1000 Guineas) at Longchamp May 12 last time.
