SAN GABRIEL IS UP FOR GRABS

A case can be made for almost any horse in the first graded turf race of the year, the GII San Gabriel H. at Santa Anita, a wide-open affair that has drawn a field of 10. German import Atlando (Ire) (Hernando {Fr}) made a smart U.S. debut at Belmont, unleashing a furious rally to win the Oct. 30 GIII Knickerbocker H. Off since the nine-furlong event, he may be more effective at longer distances, and jockey Martin Pedroza will have to make sure he doesn't spot the field too much real estate here. Badge of Silver (Silver Deputy), making his final start before retiring to stud, tries grass for the first time. Pedigree handicappers might be enticed by the presence of top grass stallion Silver Hawk as his dam sire, though it should be noted that dam Silveroo was winless in five turf starts. Still, he's undeniably talented and trainer Bobby Frankel has had plenty of success with grass runners. The dark bay returned off a 5 1/2-month layoff to be eighth in the Nov. 26 GI Cigar Mile H. Don Incauto (Arg) (Roy) is an interesting prospect. The Argentine won four of nine in his homeland and never missed the board, and the final times of his last two stakes victories, both at 10 furlongs and both won in 1:57 4/5, raises eyebrows. He comes off a nine-month absence, but hasn't missed a work since beginning serious training in the U.S. in mid-October.

Atlando Adam Coglianesse

LIKE MOTHER, LIKE DAUGHTER

Following in the hoofsteps of her mother, Hookedonthefeelin, who won this race at odds of 5-1 in 1999, Pussycat Doll (Real Quiet) overcame a sloppy track and the far outside post to take the GI La Brea S. by an authoritative 5 3/4 lengths. Mike Pegram also bred and owned the winner's dam, and he raced her sire, Kentucky Derby winner Real Quiet. "We had a lot of good things going for us today," Pegram said. The bay filly had shown an affinity for off going in the past, breaking her maiden in the Santa Anita slop exactly one year ago. After opening her sophomore campaign with a second behind champion Sweet Catomine in the Jan. 16 GIII Santa Ysabel S., she was given time off after that effort, returning to win the Torrey Pines S. at Del Mar Sept. 2. The Mike Pegram homebred tired to be fifth in the Sept. 30 GIII Indiana BC Oaks, but was much the best in her latest, cruising to a 6 1/4-length score in the Nov. 13 Audrey Skirball-Kenis S. at Hollywood. La Brea cont. p2

There was some concern about dropping Pussycat Doll back to a sprint, and she was far back as My Miss Storm Cat (Sea of Secrets) led them along through fractions of :21.33 and :43.34. The pacesetter was still in front as they neared the top of the stretch, reeling off six panels in 1:09.08, but she was feeling the effects of her early efforts. Geared up on the far turn, Pussycat Doll and Leave Me Alone hit high gear as they straightened for home, but it was the Pegram homebred who carried the day. "She wants two turns and we'd rather not be racing in the mud, but we all had to run over the same track," the owner told HRTV. Added jockey Garrett Gomez, "She handled the track OK, but she wasn't skipping over it. I let her settle and took my time. I knew there was a lot of speed and when I dropped her in at the 3/8 pole, it was just a matter of finding a spot for her. I did and she did the rest."

NORTHERN AFLEET 2006 Fee $20,000 LF

"Northern Afleet is the sire of Afleet Alex, but, as his 2.86 'A' Runner Index (and 2.34 'B') indicates, no way is he a one-trick pony. I'd think he'd be nearly impossible to get to, but if you could, he's a steal at $20,000."

Awesome Lady had never before competed over a sloppy surface, but proved more than up to the task when this race was switched from the grass. The bay filly opened 2005 with an optional-claiming score on the Santa Anita main track in February, but finished off the board in three of her next four starts and was given a break. She returned to take the Sept. 10 Monterrey H. on the turf at Bay Meadows and finished second in a stakes on the dirt at Fairplex 16 days later, but faltered in the Oct. 23 Pine Tree Lane S. at Santa Anita to be fifth. Content to take back as 7-5 favorite Guidebook (Notebook) set fractions of :21.70 and :44.74 here, Awesome Lady charged through an opening on the rail as they wheeled out of the turn and splashed away to an easy victory. "I've been dying to run her on this kind of track," trainer Gary Stute said. "I knew she'd love it. I finally got my wish." Laurafina showed little in two starts at Gulfstream earlier this year, but returned triumphant to Florida yesterday. Freshened after those ineffectual efforts in the Sunshine State, the gray filly posted a 13-1 upset over maidens at Belmont in May and came back to be second behind Melhor Ainda in the June 5 GIII Sands Point S. She added an entry-level allowance victory 19 days later, but had not been out since finishing sixth behind Ready's Gal (More Than Ready) in the July 29 GIII Lake George S. at Saratoga. Jockey Rafael Bejarano settled the three-year-old at the back of the pack early, then sent her through an opening as they raced around the far turn. Laurafina bore out slightly as they hit the stretch, but kicked it into gear once straightened away and finished full of run to thwart a Champagne Ending to 2005. Elle Runaway (El Prado {Ire}) stumbled and unseated jockey Eddie Castro at the break. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

☆ NEWS TODAY ☆

OUIJA BOARD BACK ON TRACK Fresh ened after her victory in the G1 Hong Kong Vase last month, Ouija Board (GB) (Cape Cross {Ire}) has returned to training in Newmarket. The Horse of the Year in Europe and an Eclipse Award winner in 2004, the five-year-old was second in her title defense of the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup F/M Turf and finished fifth in the Nov. 27 G1 Japan Cup, but earned her fourth Group 1/Grade I victory at Sha Tin, and her co-owner, Lord Derby, decided to keep his options open regarding plans for 2006. "She came out of the race incredibly well without losing a lot of weight and then stayed a few days in Hong Kong," trainer Ed Dunlop told Racing Post. "While everything seems fine with Ouija Board at present and she is in very good health after a little holiday, the cold weather in Newmarket has hit her a little bit--her coat was great in the Far East, but she's losing it a little bit. But the heat lamps in the yard are keeping her warm and the heathmen are doing a very good job in keeping the horses here going." As for her training schedule, Dunlop added, "She had a week on the horsewalker and will be walking and trotting until January. Then, from early in the New Year, she will begin cantering and if we do decide to carry on, the Sheema Classic in Dubai might be a target if she is okay." The G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad Al Sheba will be run Mar. 25.

READE BAKER

readebaker.com

This week's accomplishment: Baker was named Canada's top trainer at the annual Sovereign Awards in Toronto Dec. 16.

Birthdate: Apr. 30, 1947

Birthplace: Port Dalhousie, Ontario, Can

Current Residence: Miami, Florida

Who was your biggest racing idol growing up?

When I was a kid I can't remember, but I guess when I started reading about those guys it would be the same one as today--Allen Jerkens. I think at the end of the day, he'll be considered the greatest trainer in American history. He does what he's supposed to do; he gets the most out of the animals. He never did get those high-priced super yearlings, he has just had a phenomenal run with what he's got.

Proudest moment? It's a dead heat. The other night (winning the Sovereign Award), or when Northern Dancer won the (Kentucky) Derby--because he was a Canadian.

Favorite Musician? George Strait.

What was your first job? Rubbing horses; I was 16, up at Fort Erie.

If you weren't involved in horse racing, what would you be doing? Well, it would have to be something with animals. I don't have interest in anything else. Really, if I could make money at it, I'd raise chickens. Or fish, but you'd have to be a pretty good guide to making money fishing.

What was the last thing you purchased? I just bought four dozen live shrimp to go fishing off Shug McGaughey's lawn. He's got a place in the same compound that I rent in--I don't know him that well, but I'm going to step out on that lawn anyway (laughs).

What's your favorite vacation spot? Key West--I love fishing. Do you like deep sea fishing, or...? Anything. I'd try the bathtub.

Favorite Meal? I don't eat meat or poultry--I make my living taking care of animals, so I don't kill them. I wouldn't call myself a vegetarian, because I do eat fish. But my favorite meal is probably pasta aioli.

CONGRATULATIONS! from Fasig-Tipton's
TWO Stakes Winning Stars of the Week:

TWO SIXTY FOUR -- Won $84,875 Alex M. Robb H. at Aqueduct by 3 3/4 lengths 12/28.

Congratulations to their connections

GREELEY'S LEGACY (c, 2, Mr. Greeley--Deceit Princess, by Vice Regent), a $120,000 OBSMAR two-year-old, was seventh over the Big A lawn Nov. 19, then tired to finish third after setting the early pace over the inner strip Dec. 10. Malibu Mint broke a string of second-place finishes with an optional claiming victory Nov. 20 and promptly added a 10-length success in an allowance over course and distance Dec. 16. Overlooked here, the chestnut was forced to steady sharply on the turn and nearly dropped her rider. She recovered smartly, rallied four wide in the stretch and won going away. "I bought her at [Keeneland] September with the intention of pinhooking her to the two-year-old sales [Barretts in California], but I got behind with her and she didn't make it, and we decided to keep her," explained winning trainer Jim Chapman. "She's had problems this meet with sore feet, but she's obviously doing well now. Frankly, I still think she'll be better on grass. There are plenty of opportunities for her at Gulfstream." Malibu Mint was piloted by Chapman's daughter Kristi. "I get on her every day for my father and I knew in my heart that she would run well today," said the rider. "At around the 3/8-pole, there was some trouble with the horse on the rail [Injustice], and it caused a chain reaction involving us. Getting stopped like that just made my filly mad and she ran even harder." Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Drum Major finally got a much-deserved stakes win here with a hard-charging effort. The dark bay, a debut winner over Belmont's sod in September of 2004, ran a non-threatening second to High Fly in the Aventura S. on the dirt at Gulfstream almost a year ago, but faltered badly in the Feb. 5 GIII Holy Bull S. He rebounded to win a grassy Gulfstream allowance in mid-March, then went to the sidelines. He came back to take a Meadowlands NW2X Sept. 30 and ran an even fifth in his return to stakes company, Keeneland's Oct. 13 Bryan Station S. A similar sort of effort yielded a third in the Commonwealth Turf S. at Churchill Nov. 13, but he put it all together this time. Near the back of the pack through the opening stages, he kicked into gear as they rounded the turn, split horses in mid-stretch and lengthened clear under Rafael Bejarano's drive. "We knew he was a nice horse from the start last year after his first two starts on turf," commented winning conditioner George Weaver. "Then, he showed enough on dirt in the fall to try him in the big races. He ran well in the Aventura, but after his last race at Gulfstream, he had some nagging problems. We didn't have any specific goal for him at the time, so we decided to give him 60 days off. He's come back well and we're very happy to win this race today. It looks like it will be turf, for now anyhow. We'll look for something at Gulfstream in about a month."

First or second in eight of her 12 prior Calder appearances, Mocita romped to a seven-length score in her latest, the Nov. 20 Storm Frolic S. over track and trip. The dark bay filly got off to a slow start and was settled off the early pace, but hit the gas on the final bend and closed six wide to take over at the eighth pole before edging away to her second straight stakes win.

Misty Rosette gave up plenty of experience to many of the 11 fillies lined up against her, but didn't let that stop her from making a successful stakes debut. The dark bay gave every indication she was a capable runner when she wired a field of Calder maidens by six lengths Dec. 2 and had fired two bullets in her two works since that effort. Showing good tactical speed here, she rated just quick pace of :21 3/5 and :42 2/5, then powered clear to win with something left.

He faded to finish seventh in the NATC Futurity at the same track Sept. 24, but rebounded to run a close third in a local maiden Nov. 12. Going postward without blinkers for the first time, the 6-5 favorite was prominently positioned from the start and persevered gamely to defeat a stubborn His Holiness (Holy Bull) by a half-length. Longshot Warrior Girl is likely to get overlooked today and may not be able to keep pace with J'ray late, but warrants attention from exotics players. The $150,000 KEESEP yearling tired a bit when third in her debut at Saratoga before clearing the maiden hurdle at the Meadowlands next time. Things went wrong in her stakes debut, the Oct. 29 Jessamine County S. at Keeneland, when she was pulled up out of the race, but she recovered nicely when she overcame a bobbed start in the Dec. 10 Cherokee Frolic S. (video) over course and distance, making a strong middle move and running on for third to Christmas Stocking.

Five Horses Test Positive for Equine Herpes at Turfway:

Five horses that were stabled at Barn 26 at Turfway Park have tested positive for the equine herpes virus (EVH-1) after another round of diagnostics, while 11 other horses tested negative after originally testing positive, according to published reports. The Horse reports that the Kentucky State Veterinarian's Office, which conducted the test last Wednesday, also quarantined seven horses in the outriders' barn, after a pony horse displayed signs of fever earlier in the week. Another next round of testing of horses in Barn 26 is scheduled for Wednesday, Jan. 4. Horses in Barn 26 that have tested negative could be allowed limited and restricted exercise at the Florence, Kentucky oval as early as today.

3--Along Came Jones, 117, f, 2, Bustopher Jones--Baxter's Susie Q, by Kentucky Cookin. $4,000. Margins: 10HF, 5 1/4, NK. Odds: 1.70, 2.90, 43.60.

Bully Bones broke her maiden as a 37-1 outsider in her Apr. 23 debut at Hollywood Park. The chestnut filly was given time to recoup, then made it two in a row in the Aug. 6 GIII Sorrento S. at Del Mar. Sent off at 3-1 in the GI Del Mar Debutante three weeks later, she was unable to keep pace with Wild Fit and finished ninth, earning herself a break. The crowd's choice in her return, Bully Bones grabbed the lead soon after the start, shook off a challenge after a half and was all alone down the lane.

BOLD CHIEFTAIN (c, 2, Chief Seattle--Hooked On Music {SP}, by Seattle Dancer) cruised to a 5 1/2-length maiden victory at Golden Gate Dec. 1, stopping the timer in 1:09 flat over a sloppy strip, and was the 2-5 chalk to repeat under similar conditions. The dark bay broke on top, cut out an honest pace and pulled away late to take it by 2 1/4 lengths. The winner is a half-brother to Capt. Fly Hook (Fly Till Dawn), SP, $167,300; and Hooked On Niners (Mr. Greeley), MGSP, $184,500. Lifetime Record: 3-2-0-0, $47,255. LUNAR EXPRESS (f, 2, Giant's Causeway--June Moon {Ire}, by Sadler's Wells) improved off a debut fourth at Yarmouth Aug. 10 to run second over course and distance Dec. 9. Seizing control after the break, the 1-2 favorite kicked clear rounding the home turn and was eased in the closing stages to account for Mr Floodlight (Ire) (Bertolini) by 3 1/2 lengths. The victress is a half to Zachariah (GB) (Zafonic), SW-Jpn, $1,343,595; Pacino (GB) (Zafonic), G1SP-Fr, GSW-Ger, SW-UAE; Dupont (GB) (Zafonic), Hwt. 3yo at 7-9.5f-Ger & Ity, GSW-Ger & Ity, $256,751; and Moon Dazzle (Kingmambo), SP-Eng & US, $202,854. Stalking the pace throughout, she came under a forceful drive at the top of the stretch and dug deep to foil persistent foe Chief Commander (Fr) (Commands {Aus}) by a short head in the bobber. This marks the 13th winner for her freshman sire (by Sadler's Wells). Lifetime Record: 3-1-1-0, £4,853.

WINTER SOLSTICE HEADS QUEEN'S PLATE

Winter Solstice (SAf) (Western Winter), the leading miler and reigning Horse of the Year in South Africa, heads a field of 11 for today's R600,000 ($96,000) G1 Queen's Plate S. over a mile at Kenilworth Racecourse in the Western Cape. The defending champion is riding a three-race winning streak into this event, and was not fully extended in his latest to account for Great Rhythm (SAf) (I'm Great {SAf}) in the G2 Green Point S. over course and distance Nov. 27. He is strictly the one to beat off his five-for-six record over the 1600 meters. Champion mare Jamaica (SAf) (Sportsworld), a Group 1 winner at this track, overcame the widest draw to defeat males in the G2 November H. at Newmarket Nov. 5 and gest a five-pound pull in the weights from the favorite. The Queen's Plate is the main prep for the R1.5 million G1 J&B Met H. at Kenilworth Jan. 29. That 2000-meter test, the highlight of the racing calendar in the Western Cape, was won two years back by Yard-Arm (SAf) prior to his success in the J&B. Winter Solstice was third in the Met following his win in the Queen's Plate.
