GRABBING THE "BRASS" RING

First or second in seven of his eight previous dirt starts, Brass Hat (Prized) closed from off a pedestrian pace to take the GII New Orleans H. at Louisiana Downs yesterday afternoon. The five-year-old won the GII Ohio Derby and GII Indiana Derby in 2004, but fractured an ankle in the GIII Lone Star Derby and disappeared for nearly 13 months. The bay made his comeback in an optional claimer on the Churchill turf Nov. 24, finishing seventh, but turned it around in his second start back to win the Dec. 17 Prairie Bayou S. at Turfway by a length and a half. He made it two in a row with a determined late charge in the New Orleans. "Patience did pay off," owner/breeder Fred Bradley said. "Buff [his son, trainer William Bradley] and I talked about that a lot, the whole 13 months he was off. He had a little problem in the healing process, and it delayed us a little bit, but everything worked out just beautifully."

KEENELAND HOPING FOR MORE OF THE SAME

Following a 2005 sales season that saw total gross receipts of nearly three-quarters of a billion dollars, hopes are high that the new year will kick off on a similarly successful note as the Keeneland January Horses of All Ages Sale gets underway tomorrow morning in Lexington. A record total of 2,508 horses have been catalogued for the auction, lengthened this year to six days from five in 2005, including 1,290 in- and out-of-foal broodmares, 924 newly turned yearlings, 268 horses of racing age, 22 stallion prospects and four stallion shares. The catalogue is 21-percent larger than that of last year, when a then-record 2,073 horses were on offer. But despite a trend of increasing supply, officials at the auction house are confident that buyers will continue their robust spending and take advantage of one final opportunity to fill their breeding stock orders. "There is great interest in our game and there's a lot of money in the world and the January sale is an outlet for it," said Geoffrey Russell, Keeneland's director of sales. "We're lucky at the moment that there's great interest and the breeding market is doing well. Stallions are selling well and people need some mares to fill up books, so that's what we're looking for. We keep hearing stories that people still haven't filled their orders, Europeans especially, and they're going to be coming over to buy some horses." Keeneland cont. p6-7

races on the card at Gulfstream Park yesterday, guiding On Thin Ice (Tactical Cat) to a 5 3/4-length score in the GIII Hal's Hope H., coming back to take the Aventura S. by a nose with Doctor Decherd (Louis Quatorze) and then capping the day with a neck victory aboard Gaff (Maria's Mon) in the GIII Mr. Prospector H. "This is pretty awesome," Bridgmohan said. "Gulfstream Park is a tough meeting and you're riding against the best here. Hopefully I can carry this on through the meeting."

Street Cry's eclipsing all others.

The market – the most respected of judges – awarded Street Cry its highest accolade at Keeneland November: he's the leading second-crop sire by average and median.

Getting Down to Brass Tacks...

Sent off the 5-2 second choice, Brass Hat was last but one as favored Alumni Hall dawdled through an opening quarter in :24.88. He edged closer as they eased through a half in :50.26 and was just three lengths off the lead after six furlongs in 1:14.38. Alumni Hall and West Virginia (Tomorrows Cat) were head and head as the field hit the stretch, but Brass Hat collared the leaders just inside the eighth pole and drew clear. "This horse is so versatile," jockey Willie Martinez said. "He's overcome a lot of things, and he's just coming into form." Martinez believes the gelding is even better now than he was before the injury. "In the past, I don't think we got to see the best of Brass Hat," he said. "I told Buff...he's totally a different horse. He's more mature. You've just got to know how to push the right buttons." Looking ahead, trainer "Buff" Bradley said, "We'll just see how he comes back and then make some plans. We really don't try to get too far ahead of ourselves." High Limit started his career with three consecutive victories, capping the streak with a four-length tally in the GII Louisiana Derby last March, but he had been unable to find the winner's circle since. Second in the GI Blue Grass S., he was 20th in the GI Kentucky Derby and fifth in the GI Preakness, then took a break. The bay was third as the odds-on choice in his return, the July 17 GIII Leonard Richards S., prompting trainer Bobby Frankel to try him on the turf. But, after off-the-board efforts in the Aug. 8 GII Hall of Fame S. and Sept. 5 GII Del Mar Derby, it was time to regroup. High Limit was back on the main track while making his return here. Sent off the favorite, he went right to the front and held off all challengers despite drifting during the stretch drive. "He's been training well and he looks better than last year," Frankel said. "He's gained a lot of weight and he's growing a little bit." The winner could go next in the Feb. 18 GII San Carlos S. going seven furlongs. On Thin Ice hadn't had his picture taken since winning an allowance at Philly Park in September of 2004, but he was on the board in four of five tries last year. The gray was sent off at 39-1 in his latest, the Oct. 29 GIII Fayette S. at Keeneland, but outran his odds to finish second, beaten a half-length by Alumni Hall.

Breaking The Ice...

A well-backed 5-1 in his first start of 2006, On Thin Ice pressed 52-1 Ricardo A (Out of Place) through fractions of :23.17, :46.34 and 1:10.66. He forged to the front at the quarter pole and was all alone down the lane, winning handily. "This horse was plagued by recurring foot problems," trainer Joe Orseno explained. "We took him to Keeneland in the fall and trained him over that new all-weather surface, and his feet kept getting better and better...and stayed that way. We have now been able to train him the way we want. He's never trained better." As for what's next, he added, "We said that if he ran good in this race...that we would go on to the Donn H. [GI, Feb. 5]." Philanthropist (Kris S.), the 9-5 favorite, was in tight quarters on the first turn, then stalked the pace, but faded late to be seventh. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

A Listed winner while racing in Ireland, Gaff returned to the land of his birth this summer. He came back after a three-month break to be third in a Belmont allowance Sept. 18, then went gate to wire to win Oct. 20. He made it two in a row in a NW2X at Churchill Nov. 9, but was off at 5-1 to add to his streak in his first state-side stakes start. Never far from the front as Friendly Island dashed off a half in :45.10, the bay caught the pacesetter in deep stretch and held on gamely as an unlucky War Front closed to be second. "I know his last race at Churchill was just a 'two other than,' but it was visually very impressive and Social Probation, who was second, was second in the King's Bishop, so it was a pretty good race," trainer Steve Asmussen said. What's next for the winner? "I want this horse to do what the winner of this race did last year," Asmussen said. Saratoga County won the 2005 Mr. Prospector, then took the $2 million G1 Dubai Golden Shaheen S. Funny Cide (Distorted Humor) saved ground to no avail, finishing seventh. "It's not that big a deal," said jockey Edgar Prado. "The main goal is for longer races. I still feel confident in him." Click for the brisnet.com chart.

Itty Bitty Pretty broke her maiden by a half-length at Del Mar in August, then picked up checks in her next three starts, running third in the Sept. 17 Barretts Debutante S., fourth in the Oct. 23 Anoakia S. and second behind subsequent GI Hollywood Starlet S. winner Diplomat Lady in her most recent effort, a Hollywood allowance test Nov. 13. Trying a route of ground for the first time, the bay rated just off the early leaders and was three wide around the far turn. She took control as they straightened for home and opened up on the field to win as much the best. "Patrick [Valenzuela] gave her a perfect, patient ride and when he called on her she accelerated perfectly," trainer Doug O'Neill said. "These El Corredors have really been running well." Winless in seven starts last year after batting .500 in 2004, Ticker Tape tries to get back on track in her first outing of '06. The bay mare has two wins and a second in her three attempts over this course. She comes off a third-place finish in the Dec. 3 GIII My Charmer H. at Calder, where trainer Jim Cassidy felt she was compromised by a slow pace. "She was back a little too far for the way the pace scenario set up," he said. "If you look at the fractions [:49 3/5, 1:13 1/5, 1:37], they were walking and...she got hung outside. It looked like she was going to make a winning move, then she hung the last part, but she had a lot more to do than the top horses." Halo Ola was also shut out in '05, but she was right there while facing top company. Third behind Megahertz (GB) in the Oct. 1 GI Yellow Ribbon S. and a close-up fourth in the Nov. 5 GII Las Palmas H., she switched to the dirt for the Dec. 11 GII Bayakoa H., but finished a lackluster fifth behind Star Parade.

A Typically Strong Collection of Sires...

Keeneland bills itself as the global marketplace for Thoroughbreds, and buyers will have the chance to purchase horses by and in foal to a world-class collection of sires, including Awesome Again, Belong to Me, Carson City, Deputy Minister, Distorted Humor, Dixieland Band, Dixie Union, Dynaformer, El Prado (Ire), Elusive Quality, Forest Camp, Forestry, Forest Wildcat, Fusaichi Pegasus, Giant's Causeway, Gilded Time, Gone West, Grand Slam, Hennessy, Honour and Glory, Kingmambo, Langfuhr, Montjeu (Ire), More Than Ready, Mr. Greeley, Northern Afleet, Pulpit, Royal Academy, Salt Lake, Smart Strike, Smoke Glacken, Songandaprayer, Stephen Got Even, Successful Appeal, Tale of the Cat, Theatrical (Ire), Thunder Gulch, Tiznow, Unbridled's Song, War Chant and Yes It's True. The recently deceased Danzig is the sire of a two-year-old racing prospect and appears as the broodmare sire of five mares. His lone yearling catalogued has been withdrawn. Stallions represented by their first crops of yearlings or in-foal mares include Aldebaran, Aptitude, Brahms, Broken Vow, Buddha, Candy Ride (Arg), Congaree, Ecton Park, E Dubai, El Corredor, Five Star Day, Johannesburg, Johar, Lion Heart, Mineshaft, Monarchos, Officer, Orientate, Perfect Soul (Ire), Pleasantly Perfect, Sky Mesa, Street Cry (Ire), The Cliff's Edge, Vindication and Yonaguska. Bidding begins each morning at 10 a.m.

Off The Market...

George Budig and R.C. Durr have owned Shes Got The Look (Prospector's Music) since buying her for $25,000 as a KEESEP yearling...and they will keep her a bit longer. The 10-year-old bay mare, dam of GIII Hollywood Prevue S. winner and GI Hollywood Futurity runner-up Your Tent Or Mine (Forest Camp), was catalogued for the Keeneland January Sale, but she has been withdrawn. "My partner, R.C. Durr, together with Kerry Cauthen and Doug Cauthen, made the decision to take her out of the sale," Budig explained. "We think her value has risen...we hope, we hope...so we'll hold on to her for now." A multiple stakes-placed winner of $182,334, Shes Got The Look has produced four foals to date. In addition to three-year-old Your Tent or Mine, who was bred by Budig and Durr and sold for $310,000 as a KEESEP yearling before bringing $250,000 as a FTFFEB juvenile, she also has the winner Manchito (Out of Place), a two-year-old filly by Out of Place and a yearling filly by Chief Seattle.

This week's accomplishment: The Jacksons' Lael Stable sent out homebred Barbaro (Dynaformer) to victory in the GIII Tropical Park Derby at Calder (video) on New Year's Day. The three-year-old improved his record to three-for-three, and could soon be tried on the dirt.

Birthplace: Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Current Residence: West Grove, Pennsylvania.

Primary Business? Ret. pro baseball executive (Roy), ret. pastoral counselor (Gretchen).

Favorite racetrack and why? The Curragh, Ireland. Open, natural terrain, the greenest grass course, good visibility, the knowledge and the spirit of the Irish racing fans, and a few sheep tossed in.

Most underrated stallion? Belong to Me; consistently produces runners--always.

Favorite foods? Seafood, shrimp salad, Caesar salad (everything!).

Favorite vacation spot? Eleuthera, Bahamas.

Most respected historical figure? (Roy): Winston Churchill--for his ability to bring and hold England together during a threatening time. (Gretchen): Jesus--for showing the way.

What was the last thing you purchased? Gas!

If you could change one thing about our sport, what would it be? Breeders breeding for racing and not for the sales.

Where did you take Mrs. Jackson on your first date? None of your business!

How did you name Lael Stable? Our first farm was already named Lael Farm. We liked it, as it means 'loyalty' in Gaelic.

CONGRATULATIONS!

2005--A Year in Review...

The stars aligned on several occasions in the Keeneland sales pavilion in 2005, and the January sale got the year off on the right foot. The event had received a boost the previous October when Wilko upset the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile. His dam, Native Roots (Ire), reached seven figures when she was purchased by Lane's End Farm for $1.1 million at the sale, and there was added momentum when Cozzene's Angel, the dam of Toccet, was knocked down for $1.35 million to Eaton Sales, agent. Overall, the January sale grossed $53.4 million, the third highest in its history. In the absence of a million-dollar juvenile, the Keeneland April Sale of Two-Year-Olds in Training realized a shade over $17 million in total sales, but any fireworks missing from the spring were certainly in evidence when the September yearling sale took center stage.

Clash of the Titans...

A tremendously enthusiastic group of buyers gathered for the mammoth September sale. The world's two leading operations, Sheikh Mohammed and John Magnier, hooked up in one of the most heated and entertaining duels seen at Keeneland in some time. With the bidding approaching $9 million on a colt by Storm Cat--Tranquility Lake, the two sides traded punches, one party more deliberate than the other, and in the end, it was Sheikh Mohammed, bidding himself while in the company of his wife Princess Haya, who would not be denied. The tote board read $9.7 million. That was one of just 40 horses to make seven figures during an auction which totaled over $384 million in gross receipts, easily surpassing the record $324 million achieved a year earlier. Equally eagerly anticipated was the November Breeding Stock sale, which featured reigning Eclipse Award and seven-time Grade I winner Ashado, who was being retired by Jack and Laurie Wolf, Johns Martin and Paul Saylor. Exhibiting all of her class and standing statuesque during the nearly 15 minutes of bidding, the daughter of Saint Ballado was also destined to join the increasingly imposing broodmare band at Darley at Jonabell Farm after she was knocked down for $9 million. The November sale capped an extraordinary year in the Bluegrass, grossing $289 million, with a record average of $102,842. "Last year was an amazing and phenomenal year sales-wise," Russell reflected. "It firmly put September as a place where people can come and buy horses at every range and consignors provided tremendous horses. To have a world record sale in 2004 usurped that quickly in 2005 was just fantastic. And that led into November, which usually piggybacks onto September. If September is good, the breeders will come back and buy some mares. We just hope that January is a continuation of that market." The bar has certainly been set high as the new sales season is launched in Lexington.

KELSO'S OWNER DEAD AT 92 Allaire C. DuPont, best known as the owner of five-time Horse of the Year

Allaire DuPont cecilwhig.com

Kelso, died Friday at Woodstock Farm in Chesapeake City, Maryland, where she had lived for more than 50 years. She was 92. "She was a great, wonderful lady," said Carl Hanford, who trained for DuPont's Bohemia Stable and handled the career of Kelso. "She was great to train for. She never interfered at all, but she knew racing. Nobody knew who I was until Kelso and Mrs. du Pont came along." An accomplished sportswoman, DuPont was an avid glider pilot, skeet shooter and tennis player and, upon his retirement, she rode Kelso in fox hunts three days a week. She was also involved in the preservation of open spaces, the revitalization of her home town and in helping find homes for retired racehorses, co-founding Thoroughbred Charities with Herb and Ellen Moelis. "She did so much good for so many people and so many organizations," said longtime friend and horseman Robert Ring. "She'll always be remembered for that. It's the end of the dynasty." DuPont is survived by daughter Lana Wright, daughter-in-law Caroline Prickett and by several grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Per her request, there will be no memorial service.

Eclipse finalist First Samurai (Giant's Causeway), third in the Oct. 29 GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile last time out, worked five furlongs in 1:00 3/5 at Gulfstream yesterday morning. The three-year-old is being pointed for the Feb. 4 GII Hutcheson S., according to trainer Frank Brothers. Also on the work tab were a pair of undefeated sophomores, Hemingway's Key (Notebook), who went a half in an easy :51; and Doc Cheney (Fusaichi Pegasus), clocked going five-eighths in 1:02 2/5. Both are trained by Nick Zito.

Connections have a legitimate Derby contender in the form of Private Vow and may hold a second bullet following the game victory of Doctor Dechard in the first three-year-old stakes of the meet. Rested after bleeding in his Aug. 31 bow, a fourth-place effort at Arlington, the dark bay blew the doors off a Keeneland sprint maiden Oct. 19, winning by 13 1/2 lengths with the additions of Lasix and Shaun Bridgmohan. He faced the starter just once more in 2005 and could not overcome a sluggish start, finishing a distant fourth as the favorite at Churchill Downs Nov. 25. Lightly regarded in his sophomore bow, Doctor Dechard was a handy fourth through the opening stages as 19-10 favorite In Summation (Put It Back) set a pressured pace. Angled out three wide at the quarter pole, the Asmussen trainee split rivals and took a narrow lead at the furlong grounds before staving off the bid of Itsallaboutthechase. "His race today was everything you could hope for," the winning conditioner commented. "In his last race at Churchill he didn't get away very well and that hurt his chances in a big field. I was very concerned about the size of the field today. He's a big horse but everything seemed to come together. We'll go on and get him to his next race around two turns on March 4 [GII Fountain of Youth S. at nine furlongs]." In Summation tired down the stretch and wound up fifth. The gray Achilles of Troy hit the board in two of his first three starts against special weight company this fall, then put it all together in his latest adding Lasix, romping by daylight over the Big A's inner Dec. 29. Keeping it together and then some, the Paraneck colorbearer was sent up to take command as they left the three-eighths pole. Turning it into a procession from there under Alan Garcia, he lengthened away from the pack and hit the wire 14 lengths clear of Extra Bend. "My team did a great job," said winning trainer Jennifer Pedersen said. "He was a nice horse; he was just immature. His last race gave him a lot of confidence. Lasix has helped him big time." Added Ernie Paragallo, "I haven't made plans on where he is going yet. I know he will run as far as he wants to run. I know that he will run a mile and a quarter." Favored Trailing Twelve (Five Star Day) ran an even fourth.

Transferred to Michael Trombetta's care and dropped in for a $40,000 tag coming off the break at Laurel Dec. 21, he destroyed the opposition by 16 lengths, but was disqualified and placed fourth. Trying to keep his nose clean this time shipping up to New York, the 2-1 second choice was quickly in front and had a comfortable lead after a half in :45 3/5. He gave himself even more breathing room down the stretch, bounded clear with every stride and prevailing in hand by 7 3/4 lengths in a quick 1:09 flat. Celestial Legend was searching for her third consecutive stakes win here and had the backing of Laurel's faithful to do so. The Maryland-bred daughter of sophomore sire City Zip won her first two races before moving into stakes company last fall. She took the Holly S. at the Meadowlands by 3 1/2 lengths Oct. 28 and followed that up with a win in Laurel's Toddler S. Nov. 26. The 1-5 chalk here, she stepped on the gas soon after the break, leading the way through :22 3/5 and :46 splits, and never let up as she cruised home clear by a dozen lengths.

Following her victory in the GII Raven Run S. in October of 2004, Josh's Madelyn went on a seven-race winless skid before notching a late-running tally nearly a year later at Keeneland Oct. 9. Third in the Dr. A. B. Leggio Memorial S. over this course Dec. 3, she was odds-on backing up a furlong for this one. Last of six after a half in :45 4/5, she began picking off rivals with a strong rally and proved too strong for 'em late, drawing away to win by 3 1/4 lengths.

MARENOSTRUM (BRZ) (h, 5, Royal Academy--Dominance {Arg}, by Dark Brown {Brz}) has enjoyed success on the track, even if the dates on his past performance lines are sporadic and the locales a bit unconventional. The TNT homebred was fourth in his debut in Brazil in April of 2004, but came back two months later to win the G1 Grande Premio Juliano Martins S. by 10 3/4 lengths. Sidelined until last March, he finished third in a Santa Anita allowance for Bobby Frankel, then shipped to Dubai and ran a non-threatening second to the ill-fated Blues and Royals in the Mar. 26 G2 UAE Derby. Shelved once again, he took plenty of support here at 8-5 odds despite the nine-month absence. PROMISING RUNNER FOR CUGAT King Cugat's first Australian winner Heza Bonus (Aus) will target the $500,000 Inglis Classic (1200m) at Rosehill Feb. 11 after winning Friday in a fashion that suggests there is plenty more in store. A A$20,000 Inglis graduate, the colt won a maiden over 1000 meters at Taree, sitting off the pace early before coming home three wide to fight off the well-backed Mr Genuine (Aus). Heza Bonus debuted with a fifth at Tamworth Sept. 30. "He is a lovely looking horse; at his first race at Tamworth, he missed the start, but then caught up fairly well and ran a lovely race. We turned him out after that and he has just developed into a really nice horse," said trainer Tas Morton. "He will be at his best when he gets up over a mile. He had to be shaken up [Friday] as he is very green, he gets to the front and sits there." Heza Bonus is a half-brother to three winners including the stakes placed Blonde Jester (Aus) (Rory's Jester {Aus}), from the mare Stray Bullet (Aus) (Jevington {Aus}), whose five wins include the G3 WATC Sir Ernest Lee-Steere Classic.

HTBA ANNOUNCES SCHOLARSHIP WINNER

The winner of the Annual Hunter Thoroughbred Association (HTBA) Irish National Stud Scholarship was Luke Cash, 19, from Yarraman Park Stud in Scone. Luke will depart for the Irish National Stud at the end of January for a six-month course covering all aspects of the horse industry from foal care, reproduction, fertility and sale preparation to pedigree analysis. "The scholarship aims to provide international experience and to expand the knowledge of the staff employed by member studs of the Hunter Thoroughbred Breeders Association, to the ultimate benefit of our industry," said HTBA President Antony Thompson, adding that many scholarship winners have gone onto senior positions at prominent Hunter Stud farms. The scholarship is opened to applicants from the Hunter Valley who are aged 18-25 years. Applications close at the start of November.
