'DEREK' WIRES SAN RAFAEL

It was billed as a two-horse race and it certainly panned out that way in yesterday's GII San Rafael S. at Santa Anita, with Brother Derek (Benchmark) getting

Brother Derek

the best of GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile champ Stevie Wonderboy (Stephen Got Even) by 1 1/2 lengths. Allowed to lead 'em every step, Brother Derek rattled off :23 2/5, :46 4/5 and 1:10 2/5 splits and had plenty left in the tank to hold off Stevie Wonderboy. "He broke really sharp and, as soon as he took the lead, he sat, so I was happy with that," winning rider Alex Solis said. "He was still going really strong. He was just waiting for competition." San Rafael S. cont. p2

Graeme Rogerson setting a record when he went to A$1.55 million to secure a coveted Red Ransom half-brother to G1 Cox Plate and G1 Spring Champion S. winner Savabeel (NZ). The sale company's ebullient part-owner John Singleton was celebrating a $1-million Magic Millions 2YO Classic quinella, but Magic Millions principal Gerry Harvey took his turn in the spotlight during the third session of the yearling sale as the vendor of the Red Ransom colt out of dual Group 1-winner Savannah

Success (Aus). "I said he was the best horse in the sale and I backed my judgment," said Rogerson. "I had to have him, I've just got to hope now that he is worth A$1.55 million. But that is the market value of him and I will put a syndicate around him," he said, adding that Cambridge Stud's Sir Patrick Hogan would take a share while Harvey would take 25 percent. Magic Millions Coverage cont. p7

STORM CAT KIN TOPS KEENELAND

A four-year-old filly by Gold Fever from the immediate family of leading sire Storm Cat topped Saturday's sixth session of the Keeneland January Horses of All Ages Sale in Lexington, Kentucky. Selling as hip 2146, the chestnut, named Passageway, elicited a bid of $210,000 from Chelsea Bloodstock. She was one of two lots on the afternoon to make over six figures. Consigned by Eaton Sales, agent for Overbrook Farm, Passageway is out of Navajo Pass (Secretariat), a full sister to Storm Cat's dam Terlingua, as well as leading grass sire Royal Academy. Passageway, selling as a broodmare prospect, is herself a half sister to MGSP Desert Warrior (Deputy Minister), a sire in New York, and to Indian Sunset, the dam of MSW Quick Action (Carson City). The final session of the sale begins today at 10 a.m.

Brother Derek Coming of Age...

Brother Derek opened his account with a Hollywood maiden win last May, then resurfaced at Del Mar with a third-place finish versus state bred in the 1'm Smokin S. Sept. 5. The $275,000 BESMAR juvenile purchase scored a front-running victory in his two-turn debut in the Oct. 2 GII Norfolk S., then was a well-beaten fourth behind Stevie Wonderboy in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Belmont Oct. 29. Brother Derek bounced back off that effort well, posting a game victory in the GI Hollywood Futurity last out Dec. 17. As for what's next for Brother Derek, trainer Dan Hendricks said, "We're not worried about it. Probably the race here at Santa Anita the first week in March [GII Santa Catalina S., Mar. 4], but we'll keep every option open. He can run from three to six, seven weeks apart."

Brother Derek

No Shame in Finishing Second...

Off since his Breeders' Cup score, Stevie Wonderboy did well to finish second in his two-turn and sophomore debut. "He ran huge," trainer Doug O'Neill said. "Anytime you get Brother Derek out there on the front end going 23 and change, you know you've got trouble. One of our concerns was that he'd get an easy lead and when he does, he's a tough horse. My horse ran a good race. You don't want to peak too early in the year." Stevie Wonderboy's regular jockey Garrett Gomez was aboard again yesterday for the San Rafael. "My horse was getting a little bit tired," Gomez commented. "My horse is so big, I was really asking him to the quarter pole, but Alex [Solis] was just cruising and we just couldn't quite make up that much ground."

Unbridled Energy notched back-to-back scores last season, taking a Gulfstream allowance Mar. 16, then the GIII Marine S. at Woodbine May 21. The gray was second best behind Don't Get Mad in the GIII Northern Dancer Breeders' Cup S. June 18, but returned to finish a dismal eighth in the GII Ohio Derby July 2, while making his final start for trainer Elliot Walden. Freshened up off that effort and transferred to trainer Dick Mandella, he reported home fifth in the GI Malibu S. last out Dec. 26. Allowed to settle in sixth with Garrett Gomez aboard here, he split horses on the turn for home, took over in midstretch and held off the late-charging Canteen, who was blocked and steadied in deep stretch.

 placed fourth in that track's Grand Canyon H. on the turf Nov. 20.

 off as the second choice in the quarter, then went up to press that one shortly thereafter. Beginning to edge clear on the far turn, Lawyer Ron drew off impressively in the stretch to report home a convincing winner in the GIII Risen Star S. "He just drew off again," winning trainer Bob Holthus said.

 "He's getting better. He always showed some talent. I had about 20 two-year-old maidens at the time and he looked like he wanted to be on the turf, so we started him there. For a colt, he's easy to work with around the barn and easy to rate on the track. He's fun to be around. If anything, the way he finished was the most impressive. At Evangeline, he ran the last quarter in :23 and change. That's hard to do on that track."

 Lou Hodges, Jr.

Baghdaria was third in her first two starts at Arlington, including a good effort behind Original Spin in her career debut Aug. 13. The bay went on to graduate at Hawthorne Nov. 5, then notched a grassy Louisiana Downs optional claimer going one mile last time Dec. 4. Back on the dirt for her sophomore debut, she sat cozy in second while Seen Dancing (Souvenir Copy) set :23 3/5 and :48 1/5 fractions. Under a heavy left-handed whip by jockey Clifton Berry, Baghdaria appeared to be in trouble as French Park took over in the stretch, but was all heart to outgame the heavy favorite to the wire. "We liked her before we ever started her the first time," winning trainer Bret Calhoun said.

"We wanted to stretch her out. She tried a one-turn mile and was a little too aggressive. It took us to down here to get her two turns. We know she has a grass pedigree, but we thought she had a good shot. You're not going to get to run for a quarter million dollars in a Grade III like this too many times. We thought she fit as well as any other horse in here. She's got a lot of class, a lot of heart. This is the most professional race she's run." French Park, a winner of her first three starts, including the GIII Pocahontas S. and the GII Golden Rod S., was outfinished while second best. "We've got time to give her a little break and bring her back in the [GII] Bonnie Miss S. [Mar. 5 at Gulfstream]," trainer Helen Pitts said. "I couldn't be happier."

Snowdrops overmatched this group on paper and didn't let her supporters down, reporting home a much-the-best victress. The consistent turf mare faced the starter eight times in 2005, posting three victories and two third-place finishes. The gray notched Gulfstream's GIII Suwannee River H. Feb. 12 and added tallies in Monmouth's Politely S. June 12 and Calder's GIII My Charmer H. last time Dec. 3. Seeking her second straight here, she rated off the pace as Pad the Wallet

(Skip Away) set slow fractions of :25 1/5 and :50 2/5. Under a tight hold by jockey Brice Blanc, Snowdrops gobbled up the field while racing four wide on the turn and opened daylight in the stretch to deliver as the chalk. "She ran super in her last race when she beat some really nice fillies," Blanc commented. "Actually, I felt the turf course here was really great. On the far turn, it may have looked like she was really accelerating, but the others were kind of slowing down, so I let her go on a little sooner than I would normally."

FIRST SAMURAI BREEZES First Samurai (Giant's Causeway), off since finishing third in the GI Breeders' Cup Juvenile at Belmont Oct. 29, breezed six furlongs at Gulfstream Saturday in 1:14. The GI Hopeful S. and GI Champagne S. victor is expected to make his sophomore debut in the GII Hutcheson S. Feb. 4. "I thought it went well for his first six furlong work of the year," said trainer Frank Brothers. "It was slower rather than faster, which is fine. I know he's fast. This year he needs to show he can settle and keep on running." First Samurai has now had five published workouts at Gulfstream since shipping in from Kentucky in December. "Any young horse has to improve going from two to three," Brothers added. "It's hard for me to tell seeing him every day, but it looks like he's grown some. We just have to keep hoping he continues to develop."

Current Residence: Miami, FL

What's your most memorable victory? Probably the GI Jockey Club Gold Cup (in 2002), on Evening Attire.

Club Gold Cup (in 2002), on Evening Attire.

Favorite vacation spot? Believe it or not, I have never had a vacation in my short career.

Favorite musician? I listen to a lot of Jamaican music, a lot of reggae. Sean Paul, I would say.

Favorite food? Seafood; maybe lobster or crab.

What's the last thing you purchased? A townhouse.

If you weren't a jockey, what would you be doing? I have no idea. Since I was 14, I knew what I wanted to do. I really didn't think about anything else.

Last movie you saw? I'm gonna have to pass on this question. I don't see too many movies--I always fall asleep during them.

Favorite track to ride at? Arlington Park. But I guess anytime you have success at a certain track, you're going to tend to like it (Bridgmohan led all jockeys at Arlington over the summer with 132 wins).

Complete this sentence: riding at Aqueduct on a cold January day is like...? Going to the North Pole and running two miles.

Favorite car? Lexus LS430

Other than the Kentucky Derby, what race do you want to win most that you haven't? The GI Belmont S. I've been there so long and I have so many friends in New York.

☆ MAGIC MILLIONS ☆

Rogerson Gets His Horse....

After purchasing hip 480, the sales-topping Red Ransom colt, for A$1.55 million, Graeme Rogerson admitted that he was willing to go higher for the Baramul Stud consignee. "I thought he might have made up to A$2 million, but I was going to buy him no matter what," he said. "I wasn't going to go home without him. He's just that sort of a horse." Rogerson sent his partner Debbie Price to inspect the colt as a weanling at Harvey's Baramul Stud and decided at that point he would purchase him. "I came back and said to Graeme, he is the spitting image of Savabeel, and it is a family we have had a lot of success with; Savabeel is our best horse in recent times," said Price. Queensland breeding and racing operation Wadham Park and trainer Peter Moody were among the underbidders.

Rogerson On the Look-Out for 'Quality'...

Some 17 lots before he purchased the sales topper, Rogerson gave A$440,000 to secure a stunning Elusive Quality colt from Group 1-placed *Sir Tristram mare Rose Reward (NZ) from Baramul's draft. The colt, Lot 463, is a half-brother to Lotteria (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), who has eight wins and earnings of A$1,483,600, including the G1 Myer Classic and G1 Flight S. Also keeping busy was South African trainer Charles Laird, who had already spent $2,895,000 on 14 youngsters. He did not hesitate to add a black colt by Rock of Gibraltar (Ire) from Ruby Clipper (Aus) (Rubiton {Aus}) to his purchases, going to A$1,025,000 for the youngster from Singleton's Strawberry Hills draft. Laird said after the purchase, "We are very excited, we have bought what we consider the two best colts in the sale [along with Lot 400, a $720,000 Danehill Dancer {Ire}--Piper Star {Aus} colt that sold Friday]. And please God, we will have a bit of fun with him. A lot of fun with him. We have two colts with obvious stallion pedigrees and we are very grateful to Markus Jooste for being such a big supporter of our yard. All our purchases are for him."

In a 'Snit'...

Toward the end of the evening, Wadham Park trainer Dale Sutton went to A$725,000 to purchase a Royal Academy--Snippets' Lass (Aus) filly offered by Yarraman Park. The filly is a half-sister to stakes winner Snitzel (Aus) (Redoute's Choice {Aus}), who is being prepared for the G1 Lightning S. next month and who will ultimately stand at Arrowfield Stud. "She is a lovely filly with great conformation," said Sutton. "We saw Snitzel at the same stage and we believe she is a better type than Snitzel, and he will obviously hold up her pedigree as a broodmare later on."

What They're Saying At Magic Millions...

"I would say this is by far the dearest Magic Millions sale I have ever been to. Horses with moderate pedigrees are outselling themselves 2-1. It has its own character, this sale with people who live here coming here to buy horses because it is a local sale."

"The sale is extremely strong, one of the strongest sales I have ever been to. Each year the quality has improved and I think the results show that. We've only sold one so far, but we are more than happy with the way he sold."

--Ingham/Woodlands Stud Bloodstock Manager Trevor Lobb

"The top end of the market is a lot stronger than I thought it would be."

--Dale Sutton, Wadham Park

"The standard of horses this year is the highest it has ever been at Magic Millions and I did expect prices to go up a little on last year, but this has far exceeded expectations, some of tonight's prices are really in to the stratosphere. It is an exceptional session."

--Bloodstock Agent Les Young

"This sale is just mind-blowing, this has got twice as many people at it than any sale ever in Australia. There's 1,000 stables here and there are people everywhere. This is at the top end of our expectations."

--Magic Millions principal Gerry Harvey

☆ KEENELAND JANUARY ☆

Precise End, Whywhywhy Fillies Sell Well...

A racing or broodmare prospect by young sire Precise End brought the second-highest bid on the afternoon, while a youngster from the first crop of GISW Whywhywhy topped all yearlings. Princess Sweet (Hip 2157), a three-year-old stakes-winning daughter of Precise End, was purchased by Braehn Stable for $177,000. Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, agent, consigned the New York-bred, whose dam is a half to GSW & MGISP Molto Vita (Carson City). Gainesway Farm, Agent XXXV, consigned the day's leading yearling, a bay filly by Whywhywhy that was knocked down to Rip Curl Acres for $75,000. Offered as hip 2039, the Mar. 3 filly is out of the Ghazi mare First Class Act.

Market Remains Strong...

After setting a new record for gross during Friday's session, action continued to be brisk at the Keeneland sales pavilion yesterday. Average was up a whopping 67.9 percent over 2005 figures, from $7,257 to $12,181, while median was up 42.9 percent, from $3,500 to $5,000. Overall gross after six sessions was $70,772,900.

Oct. 15, the dark bay returned a month later to win the Connie Anne S. at Calder Dec. 18. The lukewarm second choice behind the blue-blooded Phipps mare La Reina (A.P. "I just had to put her in a good spot, and at the top of the stretch I had a lot of horse," said victorious jockey Cornelio Velasquez. "She's just in perfect condition." BRAZILIAN (f, 4, Stravinsky--Golden Pond {Ire} {MGSW, $280,421}, by Don't Forget Me) graduated by eight lengths at Calder in November of 2004 before heading to the sidelines after sustaining an injury. Back in action after a year on the bench, the $500,000 KEEAPR juvenile rolled home by eight lengths last time out at the Meadowlands Nov. 9. Sent off the 6-5 choice, the dark bay broke slowly and settled in fifth through a half in :47 and three quarters in 1:11 1/5. Up to challenge in the stretch, the filly battled tooth and nail with Quies (Quiet American) and managed to get a head in front of that foe at the wire.
