A ROUSING SUCCESS

Major Success (Mazel Trick) came out on top in a three-way battle to the wire to take the GII Palos Verdes H. at Santa Anita yesterday afternoon. The five-year-old was a neck in front of Jet West (Western Fame), with 3-2 chalk Attila's Storm (Forest Wildcat) another head back in third. "I thought he was beat at the top of the stretch, but I saw him coming back," trainer Bobby Frankel said. "I don't usually root, but I rooted this time and he got it done." A $200,000 FTFEB purchase, Major Success started just twice as a juvenile, winning a two-turn test at Hollywood in November. He was one-for-two again at three, posting a nose decision in a Santa Anita allowance test in October, then was sidelined for another 10-month stretch. The dark bay was off the board in his first two outings last season, but got on track when dropped back to 6 1/2 panels, winning a pair of optional claimers at Hollywood Nov. 26 and Dec. 19. He was making his stakes bow here. Palos Verdes cont. p2

SMOKEY BEAR

Off the board just twice in 16 starts, Smokey Glacken (Forestry) is batting .500 after picking up her eighth career victory in yesterday's GIII First Lady H. at Gulfstream Park. The five-year-old mare was given a two-month break after those two out-of-the-money efforts against graded company at Belmont Park in the spring. She came back to take an optional claimer at Saratoga in August and made it two in a row in the GIII Floral Park H. at Belmont in September. Beaten just a nose when second in the Oct. 9 GII Gallant Bloom H., she was freshened after a third-place finish in the Oct. 30 GII First Flight H. Smokey Glacken was sent off the third choice in her seasonal bow, but proved much the best. First Lady H. cont. p2

Out of a half-sister to GISW Corporate Report, Major Success was the crowd's second choice in quest of his third straight. Never far from the front, he made his bid at the top of the lane, but looked destined to be outrun by Jet West and Attila's Storm until finding another gear in the dying strides, getting his head in front at the wire. "He's a very honest horse and very nice to ride," jockey Tyler Baze said. "He's just so game."

Smokey Glacken was forced to miss this race last year due to a minor hind end problem, but made up for the lost opportunity here. Always prominent, she put a head in front after a half and opened it up late. "The way the race happened was perfect," trainer Jimmy Jerkens said. "She broke sharp and was able to sit. I was really confident on the far turn because it looked like Javier [Castellano] hadn't really cut her loose."

Fort Prado earned his first graded-stakes victory with this determined effort. After capping a four-race winning streak with Arlington's Sea O'Erin BC H. Aug. 6, the Illinois-bred ran fifth at Woodbine in the GII Play the King H. Aug. 27 and second by a neck in the Robert F. Carey Memorial H. Sept. 24 at Hawthorne. He rebounded with a win in a money allowance at Keeneland Oct. 14 and then finished sixth, beaten just 1 1/2 lengths, in the GIII River City H. Nov. 20. The grey ran second by 3/4 of a length to Onthedeanslist in the Col. E. R. Bradley H. over course and distance Dec. 18 and faced that rival once again. With Onthedeanslist setting the pace, Fort Prado saved ground in fifth in the early stages. The second choice found a seam in the stretch and forged past his old rival in the final strides. Click for the brisnet.com chart or the Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

He didn't make his debut until June of his four-year-old season, but Happy Hunting has been beaten just once since breaking his maiden in the mud at Saratoga in August. The Phipps Stable homebred had a rough trip in an allowance test at Belmont Sept. 18 and finished fifth, but rebounded to win at Keeneland Oct. 7 and annexed his next condition in front-running style at Aqueduct Nov. 16. The chestnut tried two turns and the Big A inner track for the first time in an optional claimer Dec. 6 and kept the streak alive with a 1 1/4-length victory. Favored to extend his skein in his stakes debut, Happy Hunting settled back in second as Mr. Whitestone cut out a moderate pace. He moved to challenge after six furlongs, finally put that rival away inside the eighth pole and held Evening Attire at bay. "He's certainly going the right way," said Buzz Tenney, assistant to trainer Shug McGaughey. "It just took him a little while to get going." As for future plans, Tenney said, "He's going to go back to Florida. I don't know where he will run next." Veteran Evening Attire hesitated at the start and was last early, but closed well for second. "What are you going to do?," asked trainer Pat Kelly. "We've been working with him at the gate. He's old and he does what he wants to do. You just can't give these horses a head start, but he finished up great." Added his jockey, Jose Santos, "Nothing happened in the gate, he just likes the gate too much. He's got a bad habit now. If he breaks with the bunch, probably he wins."

EHV SPREADS TO PENN NATIONAL; PIMLICO UNDER QUARANTINE West End Lady, who raced at Laurel Park earlier this month before returning to her barn at Penn National, has tested positive for equine herpesvirus-1, it was reported yesterday. Trainer Todd Beattie had the mare tested after she exhibited symptoms of the disease, and shipped her off the Penn National grounds when the diagnosis was confirmed Friday. In the wake of the news, Philadelphia Park has banned all shippers from Penn National until further notice. "We don't have any problems right now, and we'd like to keep it that way," Philadelphia's Assistant Racing Secretary Nick Black told www.bloodhorse.com. Philly Park has already banned all shippers from Maryland, as has the New York Racing Association. Gulfstream Park and Palm Meadows will not allow horses on the grounds that have either raced or been stabled in Maryland since Jan. 1, while Penn National is restricting horses that have been in Maryland since Jan. 9. In addition, the Maryland Jockey Club has placed Pimlico Race Course under quarantine. "This is a precautionary measure," said Lou Raffetto, chief operating officer for the MJC. "It is in our best interest to restrict the movement in and out of Pimlico until we see the outcome of the tests on the horse in Barn A." A total of 11 horses have shown signs of the virus since Jan. 1, and two have been euthanized. A horse stabled in Barn A exhibited symptoms Thursday morning, with test results pending. More than 20 percent of the nearly 500 horses on the Pimlico backstretch are the subject of "investigational animal hold orders" because they may have been exposed to the virus.

NY ENACTS PRE-RACE 'MILKSHAKING' TESTS

Courtesy of www.bloodhorse.com.

The New York State Racing and Wagering Board voted Jan. 19 to adopt an emergency rule allowing for the collection of pre-race blood samples from horses entered into races at the state's Thoroughbred and harness tracks to test for excess alkalizing agents (milkshaking) that could affect the outcome of the race. The blood samples are sent to the Equine Drug Testing Program at Cornell University, where the laboratory detects and confirms the presence of elevated levels of total carbon dioxide [TCO2] in the horse's system. "It is important to ensure the betting public that horses that compete in pari-mutuel races in New York State have not been tampered with and that no advantage has been given to a horse chemically or otherwise," said Board Chairwoman Cheryl Buley. "New York continues to lead the way on substance and drug detection which reflects upon the integrity of this industry."

MGSW  Ebony Breeze (Belong to Me) ran her record to four-for-five over the Tampa main track with a track record-setting six-length victory in the eighth race yesterday, a $17,200 allowance test at 6 1/2 furlongs. The final time for the race was 1:16.41, breaking the mark of 1:16.99 set by O'Malley on New Year's Eve, 2004. Now six, the bay mare captured the Sandpiper S., Gasparilla S. and Gill Florida Oaks over the track in 2003. Overall, the Kinsman Stable colorbearer has won 10 of her 31 career starts for earnings of $849,772.

Turfway Purses Get a Boost:

After a successful meeting with the unveiling of the new Polytrack surface, Turfway Park President Robert Elliston announced that the Florence, Kentucky, race-track has increased association purses by 5 percent. The increase began with the Jan. 19 card. "As we saw in our recent Holiday Meet and in these first weeks of our Winter/Spring Meet, Turfway's business has been good," Elliston commented. "We have especially noted an increase in out-of-state wagering on our races, and we are pleased that handicappers across the country are investing their time and money in Turfway's product. We appreciate the opportunity their confidence gives us to pass along increased purse money to our horsemen."

CHARMO (FR) (h, 5, Charnwood Forest {Ire}--Marie de Ken {Fr} {GSW-Fr, $134,554}, by Kendor {Fr}) didn't get a lot done while racing in France, going winless in 16 tries, but was able to hit the board in group company twice. He ran his U.S. record to three-for-four here. The gray opened his American account with a Santa Anita maiden score Oct. 14, then followed a third-place finish in an entry-level allowance test Nov. 3 with a 2 1/4-length tally Dec. 26. The even-money chalk to get his photo taken once again, he settled in midpack for six furlongs, drove to the lead in deep stretch and hit the line a length in front of Cosmonaut (Lemon Drop Kid). BENICIO INJURED The regally bred Group 1 winner Benicio (Aus) (More Than Ready--Mannington {Aus}, by Danehill) sustained a tendon tear during trackwork at Lee Freedman's Rye training complex and may be retired to stand alongside his own sire at Vinery Stud in the Southern Hemisphere this spring. The three-year-old will undergo further testing to determine his future. "It is only minor, but these things tend to have a six-month turnaround and he has immense value as a stud prospect," explained Vinery Australia General Manager Peter Orton. Vinery bred and co-owns Benicio, a A$525,000 Easter yearling purchase who landed the G1 Victoria Derby over 2500 meters at Flemington. "He had heat and swelling in one leg, so we backed off him, scanned the leg and found a small tear. It is a lost opportunity because he is only just starting to hit his straps. We were looking toward the Australian Guineas first-up and then a Sydney campaign. He showed in the Derby he had such a fantastic turn of foot. But lightly raced stallions with his pedigree and looks have immense appeal, and we have to think about whether we want to retire him now or have him racing next season as a four-year-old." Benicio has three wins and two placings from 10 appearances for earnings of A$978,250. His group-winning dam Mannington, herself a daughter of champion Bint Marscay (Aus), sold for a record A$2.05 million to Darley last April.

BULLISH LUCK HEADS STEWARDS CUP Bullish Luck (Royal Academy), the reigning champion miler in Hong Kong, heads up a strong cast for today's 1600-meter G1-HK Stewards Cup, the first leg of the domestic Triple Crown. The seven-year-old, who took this event by 1 3/4 lengths last season, is looking for his first victory since hanging a defeat on stablemate Silent Witness (Aus) in the Champions Mile last May. Ridden to victory in 2005 by Christophe Soumillon, the bay, formerly known as Al Moughazel, is reunited this afternoon with stable rider Felix Coetzee. He comes in off a fourth-place finish as the favorite in the G1 Hong Kong Mile Dec. 11. The runner-up and third-place finisher from that event, The Duke (Aus) (Danehill) and Dave's Best (GB) (Bishop of Cashel {GB}), renew acquaintances. They are joined in the field by Best Gift (NZ) (Bahhare). The five-year-old, beaten three lengths into third by Ouija Board (GB) in the G1 Hong Kong Vase, cuts back in distance for this, but has a win and a third from three starts at the trip.
