THE TIN MAN ALL HEART IN SAN MARCOS

At the ripe old age of eight, The Tin Man (Affirmed) showed he still had some fight left in him with a game victory in yesterday's GII San Marcos H. at Santa Anita. Never far behind a solid early pace carved out by defending San Marcos champ Whilly (Ire) (Sri Pekan), the gelding sat off the Irish-bred's hip until midstretch and forged ahead of that rival in the final strides to collect his second victory in a month.

English import Milk It Mick (GB) (Millkom {GB}), who was a generous 25-1 shot for his U.S. debut, closed with rush to finish steal the runner-up spot from Whilly. "It was a perfect trip," said winning jockey Victor Espinoza.

"He just stalked the leader and kept running at the end. I didn't want to let Whilly get too far away from me because he's a tough horse." Click for the brisnet.com chart or the free brisnet.com catalogue-style pedigree. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made.

Winner of the GI Clement L. Hirsch Memorial and GII American H. at four, the dark bay won the GII San Luis Obispo H. the following season, and while winless in seven subsequent starts, he managed a second-place finish, beaten only a half length, in the 2003 edition of the GI United Nations H. In his only race in 2005, the iron gelding, who was returning to action following a 13-month layoff, came from just off the pace to take a mile allowance over this track Dec. 28.

ATTILA'S STORM INJURED

Attila's Storm (Forest Wildcat), third as the 3-2 favorite in Saturday's GII Palos Verdes H. at Santa Anita, suffered a condylar fracture to his left hind leg and is scheduled to undergo surgery today at the Alamo Pintado in Buellton, California. "Doctors say the prognosis is good for him to race again," said Eduardo Inda, who cared for the Richard Schosberg trainee, who is based in New York, during his stay at Santa Anita.

RUSSIAN PEARL A JEM IN HONG KONG

A pair of serious injuries have limited Russian Pearl (NZ) (Soviet Star), a Group 1 winner in New Zealand, to just seven starts over the last two seasons. But the light-framed gelding, described by his trainer as a "Mini Cooper with a Porsche engine," captured his first major race at Sha Tin in Hong Kong, taking this first leg of the Triple Crown Series, the G1 Stewards Cup, in a thrilling finish. Runner-up to Vengeance of Rain (NZ) in the Hong Kong Derby off a five-month absence last March, he was third to that foe in April's G1 Queen Elizabeth II Cup before the injury bug bit. Fourth in the G1 Hong Kong Cup Dec. 11, he was beaten less than three lengths by Vengeance of Rain. Patiently handled near the back of the pack by Gerald Mosse, Russian Pearl was steered off the heels of Best Gift at the 400-meter mark and outfought that one for a narrow victory. The Duke, second in the G1 Hong Kong Mile, was up late for third. The winner could make his next start in the Hong Kong Cup Feb. 10 followed by the G1 Dubai Duty Free at Nad Al Sheba Mar. 25. Bullish Luck (Royal Academy), the 19-10 favorite, was never suited by a soft pace and could do no better than eighth.

CORRECTION: The time for Saturday's GIII First Lady H. at Gulfstream was reported incorrectly in the TDN. Smokey Glacken (Forestry) completed the six furlongs in a stakes record 1:08.98, breaking the mark of 1:09.21 set by Savorthetime last year.

With traces of the snow that forced the cancellation of Saturday's card still dusting the track, Silk Famous went right to the front and held on gamely to the wire. The veteran hadn't visited the winner's circle since 2004, but did finish third in the Kinko Sho in May. Off the board in the G1 Takarazuka Kinen in June, he was sent to the shelf, returning to run eighth in the Jan. 5 Sports Nippon Sho Kyoto Kimpali going a mile at Kyoto. Fitter for that prep, the bay stretched out and wired the field to post the mild upset.

Pool Land made a belated debut in a sprint at Aqueduct Nov. 26, winning by 5 1/2 lengths as the 1-2 chalk. She was odds-on to handle two turns and NW1X company Dec. 18 and did so handily, and was the overwhelming favorite as she faced stakes foes in her 2006 opener. The chestnut filly pressed Amazing Buy through six furlongs in 1:12.88, took command in the stretch and romped home an easy winner. "She broke well enough that I could have gone to the lead, but I didn't want to," said jockey Mike Luzzi. "Down the road, she's going to need to relax, and today they found out that she will." Added Seth Benzel, assistant to trainer Todd Pletcher, "She's just a class act. I would love for her to stay here, but I'm not sure what Todd has planned for her." Daytime Promise was slow into stride in her Dec. 4 debut at the Big A, but closed well late to be fourth. The chestnut filly looked like a pro when trying two turns in her second start, breaking her maiden by 5 1/2 lengths on New Year's Day, and was odds-on to make it two in a row in her stakes bow. Tucked in at the rail down the backstretch, she angled to the outside for the stretch drive and caught the leaders at midstretch before drawing clear. Trainer Gary Contessa has high hopes for the winner. "I hope she'll be good enough to try something like the Ashland [GI, Keeneland, Apr. 8]," he said, but added, "We'll stay here and take advantage of the winter stakes for a while." Commented jockey Norberto Arroyo Jr., "She's getting the hang of things. She's getting a little more aggressive. I didn't hit her once--I rode her like she was the best horse."

In his U.S. and dirt debut, the impeccably bred bay ran a good third at Churchill Nov. 16, then easily defeated a group of Louisiana Down allowance horses by five lengths sprinting Dec. 28. Roused clear to a daylight advantage at the furlong grounds, he tired a bit late but had enough to stave off Catoctin Creek (Ecton Park) by a half-length. The winner, a half to Nashatara (Nashwan), Co-Hwt. Older Mare-Ity at 9.5-11f, SW-Fr, was a $400,000 KEENOV weanling purchase. Lifetime Record: 1-1-0-0, $28,080. O-Shadwell Farm LLC. The runner-up in the June 11 GIII Dogwood BC S. and the July 9 Heavenly Cause S. at Churchill Downs, Culinary was a disappointing fourth as the 4-5 chalk in the Aug. 14 GIII Monmouth BC Oaks. The gray filly shipped to Hawthorne Park after that effort and bested allowance foes Sept. 30, then returned to Louisville and was second behind Private Gift in an optional claimer Nov. 13. She headed to Louisiana Downs the following month, capturing the Dec. 17 Furl Sail H. when it came off the turf, but tired badly to be seventh behind Private Gift in the Truly Bound BC H. a week later. Making her 2006 debut here, Culinary was rated off a slow pace, circled the field on the far turn and prevailed over Lucky Sabre after a prolonged drive.

Happy Ticket Return Delayed:

GISW Happy Ticket (Anet), scheduled to make her first start since undergoing surgery to correct a breathing problem, was scratched from yesterday's Lagniappe Ladies Sprint S. at Louisiana Downs. "Because of the [sloppy] track conditions, I didn't want to take a chance of hurting her," said trainer Andrew Leggio Jr. "Since we don't have this race under her belt, we'll have to regroup. I don't know what we're going to do."
