ZABEEL FILLY TOPS NZ SALE OPENER

A filly by star stallion Zabeel (NZ) topped Monday's opening session of the New Zealand Premier Yearling at Karaka when Australian trainer David Hayes signed the ticket at NZ$850,000 for lot 59. The bay, consigned by Cambridge Stud, was produced by Silk Slippers (Aus) (Woodman), a half-sister to Group 1 winners Hurricane Sky (Aus) and Umatilla (Aus) as well as Shantha's Choice (Aus), the dam of champion and leading young sire Redoute's Choice (Aus). The day's highest-priced colt—the only male among the top six lots—was another Cambridge Stud offering, lot 62. The bay son of Zabeel sold for NZ$450,000 to Robert Roulston Bloodstock. He was produced by Singalong (NZ) (Danasinga {Aus}), a multiple group winner. The day's figures held up well in comparison to 2005, which had set record numbers. "We're very pleased to see a strong day of selling at Karaka [Monday] with fierce competition at the top of the market," said Petrea Vela, marketing and public relations manager for New Zealand Bloodstock. "The median in particular is very encouraging; at NZ$85,000 it is the same as this point in the sale last year, and up 21 percent on the figure at the end of day 1 in 2004. We had anticipated to see the figures down on last year's, which was the strongest opening session ever recorded at Karaka. We are, however, very encouraged by how today has gone and look forward to the momentum continuing over the week ahead." The sale continues today at 11 a.m. The action may be viewed live on the web at www.nzb.co.nz.

Having in the past seen Florida work its magic on the likes of Sovereign Dancer, Kris S. and Saint Ballado, it seems a pretty safe bet that the Sunshine State will also prove an ideal environment for developing the stallion potential of some of Storm Cat's less obvious sons.

Sure enough, last year's list of leading sires in Florida features the second-crop sire Tiger Ridge in an encouraging eighth place. But the list doesn't reflect the solid achievements of another of Storm Cat's royally bred sons, Stormy Atlantic, simply because he left Florida for Kentucky at the end of 2002. Theoretically, Stormy Atlantic ought to have been included on the Florida list, as all of his racing-age offspring to the end of 2005 were conceived during his time at Bridlewood Farm near Ocala. His season's earnings of $3,775,533 put him well ahead of Notebook, the official Florida champion (but behind Northern Afleet, another Floridian now in Kentucky). And he would also have taken high rank on the Florida table of 2004, when his earnings also exceeded $3,000,000.

Stormy Atlantic

Retired for the 1999 season, Stormy Atlantic made his debut at only $3,000 before progressing to $5,000 in 2000 and then to $6,000 in both 2001 and 2002, the rise in his fee reflecting a healthy demand for his services. It was only in 2003, after his move to Hill 'n' Dale Farms, that his fee reached five figures.

My take on Stormy Atlantic's history is that he has done very well for a minor stakes winner plying his trade at bargain-basement fees. From the 291 named foals in his first four crops, he has sired six graded-stakes winners: the Grade II winners She Says It Best and Twice As Bad, and the Grade III scorers Gators N Bears, Atlantic Ocean, Icy Atlantic and Indian Ocean. That's over 2 percent graded winners. Compare this to Storm Cat's high-priced sons. Giant's Causeway has nine graded winners--3.0 percent--among his first 297 named foals (with that percentage surely set to rise as more members of his second crop reach the track); Forestry has seven graded winners among his first 209 named foals (3.3 percent); and Hennessy has 19 among his 528 foals, or 3.6 percent.

Those high-priced stallions achieved their higher figures with the benefit of much better mares than Stormy Atlantic generally received during his four years in Florida. For the record, none of She Says It Best's first three dams raced, and none of them had produced a graded winner until she came along. The dams of Gators N Bears and Icy Atlantic are two others who never raced. Indian Ocean's dam earned $2,745, while Twice As Bad's collected less than $25,000 in 15 starts. Even Atlantic Ocean, who sold for $1,900,000 as a two-year-old, was out of a mare who failed to earn black type in a 12-race career.

I was therefore a little surprised to see The American Thoroughbred Review include Stormy Atlantic in fourth place among the worst value stallions standing in the $17,500 to $20,000 bracket. The writers may have a point about Stormy Atlantic not providing significant profit margins in the sales ring. It has often been a different story on the track, though, and his potential should surely be gauged on what he has achieved as a $5,000 or $6,000 stallion. Cont. p3

It is going to be fascinating to see whether his first Kentucky two-year-olds--still sired well below that $17,500 to $20,000 bracket--prove capable of improving on the achievements of their Floridian predecessors. There are plenty of them--roughly 140--and there are a similar number of yearlings in Stormy Atlantic's 2005 crop, also sired at $12,500.

I don't suppose that Robert A. Adams and his partner in Forgotten Secret have any regrets about sending her to Stormy Atlantic in 2001. The mating resulted in Hot Storm, who was winning her second Sunshine Millions event for Adams when she took the F/M Sprint three days ago. Now an earner of nearly $560,000, Hot Storm represents an excellent achievement for Forgotten Secret, who gained her only black type when second in a minor stake for Texas-breds at five. Forgotten Secret's sire, Secret Slew, won only one of his eight starts, but was third in the GII San Fernando S.

The interesting aspect of Hot Storm's success story is that she is another good winner by Stormy Atlantic with a pedigree featuring inbreeding to the great Seattle Slew. Atlantic Ocean was inbred 3x2, through Seattle Slew's daughters Hail Atlantis and Super Chef, while Hot Storm and the talented Tidal Wave are inbred 3x3, their dams being by obscure sons of Seattle Slew.

Funnily enough, the runner-up to Hot Storm on Saturday was a mare by General Meeting, a stallion who also demonstrated the potential of inbreeding to Seattle Slew by siring that very good filly Yearly Report (2x4). Event of the Year's good daughter Thrilling Victory and Capote's daughter Croisiere are others inbred 2x4, while the Grade II-placed High Cotton and the stakes-winning Sound Moon were two successful 2005 juveniles with inbreeding to Seattle Slew.

Stormy Atlantic ranks among a total of six stakes winners sired by Storm Cat from daughters of Seattle Slew. While he wasn't in the same league as some of the others, including the graded winners Raging Fever, China Storm, Stormin Fever and Statue of Liberty, Stormy Atlantic had excuses. Take a look at his near-fore pastern and you'll see that it has been screwed (in more ways than one) and this explains why he managed only two starts before the age of four, when he won six of his 13 races.

Even without this excuse, it would be easy enough to forgive Stormy Atlantic his shortcomings on the track. His fourth dam is the legendary Rough Shod and his third dam is Moccasin, a champion juvenile who had the distinction of being a sister to Ridan, Lt. Stevens and Thong. Hail Atlantis has added to the family's achievements, with two of her broodmare daughters being represented by graded winners in 2005, one of them being Divine Dixie, dam of the GI Blue Grass S. winner Bandini.

Mar. 25 G1 Dubai Sheema Classic at Nad Al Sheba, trainer Ed Dunlop announced yesterday. Her connections have committed to a full season in 2006 following the champion's exploits in winning the G1 Hong Kong Vase at Sha Tin in December. "I'll train her at home for as long as possible and we'll go to Dubai no later than two weeks before the race," her conditioner said. "She'll have a well-deserved holiday after Dubai, but we'll be looking towards Royal Ascot, and obviously the autumn races next season. It would be great to go back for another Breeders' Cup [Nov. 4 at Churchill Downs] if she's still well."

BORREGO TO WINTERGREEN IN 2007 Multiple Grade I winner Borrego (El Prado {Ire}--Sweet as Honey, by Strike the Gold) will enter stud next year at Wintergreen Stallion Station in Midway, Kentucky. The chestnut is scheduled to kick off his five-year-old campaign in the GI Santa Anita H. Mar. "Starting with the Big 'Cap, we hope to run in the major events, ending up at the Breeders' Cup as his farewell to racing," said Wintergreen's John Greely IV. Borrego was born and raised at the farm; he will join a roster that includes two of 2005's top freshman sires, Ecton Park and Five Star Day. "We are incredibly excited about another Wintergreen-raised horse returning to us," Greely added. "Our success with Five Star Day bodes well for Borrego's future here with us."

Diligent Prospect, seen only sporadically since an impressive maiden win at Hollywood in May 2004, won the Foothill S. at Fairplex last September before eighth-place efforts in the Oct. 14 Gill Perryville S. and Dec. 26 Gl Malibu S. in his most recent starts. Second choice in the field of five, the gray colt pressed the pace through quick fractions, moved between foes to take the lead on the bend and pulled clear in the final furlong to win by 4 3/4 lengths.

Race for Education Tops $1 Million in Awards:

The Race for Education Board of Directors has voted to award $350,000 in scholarship money this year to young people in the equine industry; that sum will bring the organization's total scholarship awards to $1.044 million over the last four years. Included in this year's awards are new scholarships sponsored by Keeneland and Emerald Downs: the Ashado Scholarship for a female majoring in a horse-related subject; and the National Turf Writers Association/Youbet Journalism Scholarship. The non-profit organization will continue to offer its two original types of scholarships. The Thoroughbred Scholarship is available to students pursuing a racing- or equine-related career, while the Horsemen's Scholarship is available to children of racing industry workers and is open to any field of study.

TATTS SEPTEMBER MOVED Tattersalls Ireland yesterday announced that their September Yearling Sale will take place a week earlier than previously advertised. Chairman Edmond Mahony revealed that the sales company's three-day flagship sale will be staged Sept. 5-7. "Our original dates clashed with yearling sales in North America and when the earlier week became available we felt that it would benefit both vendors and purchasers to take advantage of a week that does not coincide with any other Northern Hemisphere yearling sales," he explained. "In addition, the redevelopment of Doncaster Racecourse has seen the bulk of the St Leger Meeting relocated to York on Friday 8th and Saturday 9th September, which means that the September Yearling Sale will also avoid coinciding with any major race meetings. It looks likely that we will revert to our usual week in 2007, but for this year it makes perfect sense to stage the September Yearling Sale in a week that is free of any other distractions. After the record-breaking 2005 sale, the new date will help us to continue to build on that success, and we look forward to receiving entries in the coming weeks and to beginning yearling inspections early in the spring."
