JACK'S BACK TO DO IT AGAIN

The International Carnival Partnership's Jack Sullivan (Belong to Me) returns this evening to tackle Round II of the G3 Sheikh Maktoum bin Rashid Al Maktoum Challenge under the lights at Nad Al Sheba. The five-year-old, bred by Hermitage Farm, defeated Chiquitin (Arg) (Fitzcarraldo {Arg}) by 1 1/4 lengths last year and went on to add the G3 Burj Nahaar S. prior to a respectable fourth-place finish to Roses In May in the G1 Dubai World Cup. Lundy's Liability (Brz) (Candy Stripes) should improve from his first-up third in Round 1 of the Maktoum Challenge Jan. 19, although he was beaten 11 1/4 lengths by Princess Haya's Blatant (GB) (Machiavellian). Jockey Weichong Marwing replaces Kevin Shea as he makes his 2006 Carnival debut.

SORCERER'S STONE INJURED

Sorcerer's Stone (Gulch) has been taken off the Kentucky Derby trail after a small bone chip was detected in his left front ankle, according to Courier-Journal. The three-year-old was back in training after sustaining an injury in the same ankle in the G1 Breeders' Cup Juvenile. It is not yet known whether surgery will be required. "He's going to lose some time and not make the Derby," trainer Pat Byrne told Courier-Journal. "He had a really good work, a bullet work Friday at Gulfstream Park. He cooled out really well, but later there was a little filling in the left ankle, a little rough spot at the top of the sesamoid. It's really not that bad, but he's not 100 percent to go on with...the only really big deal is the timing." The bay colt had captured his first three career starts, including the GIII Arlington-Washington Futurity, before finishing sixth as the third choice in the Breeders' Cup.

RMTC BOARD MEETING YIELDS PLANS

The Board of Directors of the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium approved a plan developed by Dr. Rick Sams of The Ohio State University to establish guidelines for withdrawal times for therapeutic medications utilized by racetrack veterinarians. The RMTC board meeting was held in Las Vegas in conjunction with the Racing Congress, hosted by the USTA. At the meeting, the RMTC board also approved expanded security efforts and provided updates on the adoption of model medication and uniform penalties, rules, and its progress on long-term funding. Good Reward Nearing Return:

Good Reward (Storm Cat), winner of the GI Manhattan H. on the Belmont Stakes undercard last June, breezed five-eighths of a mile over the Gulfstream turf course in 1:03 with jockey Edgar Prado in the irons. "Working horses like that makes the morning exciting," the rider commented. "He went nice and easy. [Trainer] Shug [McGaughey] wanted three-quarters, but the cones were out so far on the course we broke off from the five-eighths pole. He really went well. It was just what Shug wanted--nice and steady." While McGaughey has yet to firm up plans for a return to action for son of Heavenly Prize, he is considering the GI Gulfstream Park Breeders' Cup Turf S. Feb. 25. "It's at the end of the month, which is what we're looking at for him, so it's a possibility," he said. "It's just not an easy place to start off the year. A Grade I is never an easy way to go." The 2004 GI Hollywood Derby victor has not started since finishing sixth in last year's GI Hawthorne Gold Cup Sept. 24.

HARLINGTON (c, 4, Unbridled--Serena's Song {Ch. 3yo Filly, MGISW, $3,283,388}, by Rahy), a $2.8-million KEESEP yearling, possesses a purple pedigree to match that price tag as he is a half-brother to Serena's Tune (Mr. Prospector), MSW, $337,260; Sophisticat (Storm Cat), G1SW-GB, GSW & G1SP-Fr, G1SP-Ire, $444,231; Arbitrate (Deputy Minister), SP, $195,390; and Grand Reward (Storm Cat), GSW-US, MGSP-GB, GSP-Ire, $552,026. After debuting with a win going a mile at Aqueduct in November of his juvenile season, the dark bay captured an allowance over track and trip in January, but followed that with a sixth in the GIII Risen Star S. at Fair Grounds a year ago and found himself on the sidelines. Harlington returned to annex an Aqueduct allowance Dec. 4 and was a warm 3-5 chalk here. Allowed to settle into stride, the Melnyk colorbearer went a bit wide on the far turn, but forged past Premium Tap (Pleasant Tap) on his way to a 1 3/4-length success. "He's still putting it all together, but the further he goes the better he'll be," trainer Todd Pletcher told Daily Racing Form. "The Gulfstream Park H. has been the objective since he got here, and assuming he comes out of this race well, that's where we'll go next." That Grade II event, which carries purse money of $300,000, is run at the distance of 9 1/2 furlongs Saturday, March 4. Video, sponsored by Taylor Made. Lifetime Record: 5-4-0-0, $98,400.

That was for trainer Bill Mott; Nick Zito's now calling the shots. One number that stands out is Zito's '1st start with trainer' percentage: a gaudy 47% from a sample of 17 runners. MJC Announces Dates for Fritchie, George:

Officials at the Maryland Jockey Club have announced the dates for the GII Barbara Fritchie Breeders' Cup H. and the GII General George Breeders' Cup H., both of which were pushed back due to the equine herpesvirus outbreak in Maryland. Originally carded for Feb. 18 and 20, respectively, the $300,000 Barbara Fritchie will take place Mar. 4 while the General George, also worth $300,000, has been scheduled for Mar. 18. "Where we had them originally were the perfect spots," commented Georgeanne Hale, director of racing and racing secretary for the Maryland Jockey Club. "Unfortunately, we are going to run the same days as the Grade II races at Gulfstream Park [Shirley Jones H. and Richter Scale BC H.], but we feel we are now set up well for the graded races in New York. The [GII] Distaff Breeders' Cup is three weeks after the Fritchie and the [GI] Carter H. is three weeks after the General George. This isn't an ideal situation, but we did the best we can do." In related news, the MJC announced the cancellation of this Sunday's live racing program due to a shortage of available horses, also a byproduct of the herpesvirus outbreak.

Hansel Returns to Roots:

Hansel (Woodman--Count on Bonnie, by Dancing Count), the champion three-year-old of 1991, has been acquired by his previous owner Joseph Allbritton and has been shipped to his Lazy Lane Farms in Upperville, Virginia, where he will live as a pensioner. A dual graded-stakes winner at two, the bay was named the champion of his generation in 1991 off his wins in the GI Preakness S. and GI Belmont S. He was also victorious in the GII Jim Beam S. and GII Lexington S. and was second in the GI Travers S. Retired after suffering an injury in that race, Hansel was purchased by Sheikh Maktoum's Gainsborough Farm, where he stood from 1992 through 1997. From there, he was moved to Questroyal Stud in New York for the next two breeding seasons before being exported to Japan. Hansel stood at the Hidaka Stallion Station through last year and was returned to the U.S. per the expressed wishes of Allbritton. From 11 crops of racing age, the 18-year-old is the sire of French highweight filly Loving Charm; Fruits of Love, champion in Dubai; MGSW Guided Tour; and additional GSWs Quantum Merit and Magellan.

Rebel Rematch in Essex:

Saturday's GIII Essex H. at Oaklawn Park is expected to feature a rematch between the top two finishers from last year's GIII Rebel S. in Hot Springs. Fox Hill Farm's Rockport Harbor (Unbridled's Song), winless since taking the 2004 running of the GII Remsen S., will line up against Lewis Lakin's Greater Good (Intidab), who defeated his rival by a half-length in the Rebel, but fell on tough times thereafter, finishing no better than fifth in four subsequent appearances. Rockport Harbor suffered a serious foot injury suffered during his Remsen score and that curtailed his three-year-old season to just one start in addition to the Rebel. The grey was put away for the season after finishing a well-beaten sixth in the GII Coolmore Lexington S. at Keeneland Apr. 20.

South Sea Dancer Dies:

South Sea Dancer (Northern Dancer--South Ocean, by New Providence), a full sister to Storm Bird and Northernette, died Feb. 2 due to the infirmities of old age at Jim FitzGerald's Knockgriffin Farm near Paris, Kentucky. She was 25 years old. A $1.8 million yearling purchase, the Maryland-bred was multiple stakes placed at the races before going on to produce 16 foals, including Signal Tap (Fappiano), a multiple Grade III winner and track-record holder at Hialeah. Two of her first three foals, Island Wedding and Shaggy--both by Blushing Groom (Fr)--realized seven-figure price tags at the Keeneland July sale. Her final foal, a colt by Came Home, made $150,000 at this year's Keeneland January sale. South Sea Dancer was buried at the farm.

Stevens Signs On With Little Red Feather:

Recently retired jockey Gary Stevens has joined the Little Red Feather Racing Partnership and will assist the company in selecting horses, financing and client relations. "As much as I enjoyed being a jockey, I have always had the goal of becoming a successful owner," Stevens said yesterday. "I am very excited about working with the team at Little Red Feather. It's a high-energy, enthusiastic group of guys. I look forward to a long-lasting relationship." Little Red Feather, managed by Billy Koch, gained national recognition in 2004 when their runner Singletary, purchased for $30,000, won the GI Breeders' Cup Mile at Lone Star Park. "We are thrilled," Koch commented. "His expertise in working with some of the best horses, owners and trainers will be invaluable to our team." The team was busy during Tuesday's OBS Calder Sale, snapping up colts by Budha, Mr. Greeley and Beautiful Indy for gross receipts of $455,000. "We looked long and hard and we were lucky enough to get our top three horses," Stevens explained. "We can't wait to get these horses back to California." Horses owned and syndicated by Little Red Feather are trained by Don Chatlos, who has also been added to the corporate structure of the operation.

JACKSON TESTIFIES AS KENTUCKY DUAL AGENCY BILL PASSES COMMITTEE

By Ray Paulick, courtesy Bloodhorse.com

A horse industry ethics bill making it unlawful to receive commissions from buyer and seller without full disclosure sailed through a Kentucky House of Representatives committee by unanimous vote Wednesday afternoon.

The bill, HB446, was sponsored by Louisville Democrat Denver Butler, chairman of the House Licensing and Occupations Committee, which heard testimony from Jess Jackson, the prominent vintner and owner-breeder involved in a high-profile lawsuit against two agents and a trainer he said defrauded him by accepting undisclosed commissions from horse sellers.

"I've been a victim of what's called dual agency, an undisclosed fee going to my agent who was bidding up horses, and I paid a higher price because of him doing that," Jackson told the House committee. "It happened to me 38 times in 20 months. All we are asking is that that be disclosed and revealed to both the buyer and seller."

Jackson said the legislation "isn't about me. I'm trying to protect the small farms, the little farms that can't afford to litigate" when they feel they have been damaged by dual agency. For complete article, click here.

TATTERSALLS FEBRUARY SALE TODAY A marathon session is in prospect at Tattersalls today with the seventh February Sale boasting a record 351-lot catalogue. Although stakes-winning Slip Dance (Ire) (Celtic Swing {GB}), the expected star of the show, has been withdrawn, there are plenty of other attractive pages in the mixed catalogue. Lot 75 is the 12-year-old mare Expectation (Ire) (Night Shift), consigned from Lostford Manor Stud and carrying a full sibling to last season's G2 Richmond S. winner Always Hopeful (GB) (Mind Games {GB}). Ian Matthews, whose dispersal included the top two lots at last year's December Sale, consigns four yearlings through Lanwades Stud. These include Lot 137, a Selkirk colt whose dam First Exhibit (GB) (Machiavellian) was sold for 240,000gns two months ago. Lot 140 is a Domedriver (Ire) (Indian Ridge) half sister to G2 Champagne S. winner Etnala (GB) (Selkirk). "Last year's February Sale got 2005 off to a great start and the catalogue for this year's sale suggests we can expect a similar story," said Tattersalls marketing director Jimmy George. "It's the largest ever February Sale with 351 lots catalogued and widely regarded as the strongest we've put together to date. The final part of Ian Matthews' dispersal has created a lot of interest as has some quality breeding stock and the good number of decent horses and fillies in training we have on offer." The one-day sale, which begins at 10:30 a.m., is preceded by a stallion parade.
